

Articles Uploaded as of March 2020

- Vickery, Richard Swanton. "On the duties of the Surgeon in Action: Surgeon Richard Vickery." Edited by Albert Castel. Civil War Times Illustrated 17 (June 1978): 12-13.
- 2nd Michigan Infantry
 - Medical system surgeons, 15
 - Surgeon duties, 15ff
 - Stretchers, stretcher bearers, 16
 - Field hospital, 18-19
 - Hospital supplies, 19-20
 - Nature of the wounded after a battle, 20-21
 - Treatment of various wounds, 21-22
 - Moral effect of a good surgeon on the soldiers, 22-23

Article Indexes Uploaded as of August 2019

- Vanscoy, Jacob and James. "Three Yankee Soldier-Brothers in the Battle of Chattanooga: Three Letters." Edited by Merrill Proudfoot and Stanley J. Folmsbee. East Tennessee Historical Society's Publications 35 (1963): 100-105.
- 12th Indiana Infantry
 - Illness in regiment, 101
 - Robbery and murder, 101-2
 - Thanks God for praying parents, 102
 - Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, death of brother, 103
 - Salvation and testament, 103-4
 - Campaign into Georgia, 104
 - Clothing, 104-5

Article Indexes Uploaded as of July 2019

- "A Visit to General Butler and the Army of the James." Fraser's Magazine 71 (April 1865): 434-48.
- Fort Monroe, James River, 434
 - Benjamin F. Butler, 435ff
 - Petersburg, 435
 - Chaffin's Farm, 437
 - Black troops, 438
 - Birney and Kautz, 438
 - Weitzel, 440
 - Confederate camp, 440-41
 - Grant, 441-42
 - Confederate deserters, 442-43
 - Treatment of northern prisoners, 443

Black troops, 443-44
Prisoner exchange, Ould, 444
Butler at New Orleans, 444-446
Lee, army, deserters, defenses of Richmond, oath, 446-47

Vogdes, Israel. "Observations on the Military Operations in Virginia in 1864." Historical Magazine s2, 5 (May 1869): 309-13.

Overland campaign, 309ff
Grant and Lee, base of operations, 309-10
Grant strategy, 311-13

Article Indexes Uploaded as of June 2019

Van Santwood, Cornelius. "Major-General James B. McPherson." Hours at Home 2 (March 1866): 433-44.

Background, 434-37
Unionist no matter who is president, 437
California sentiment on the war, northern unity, duty, 438
Description of McPherson, 439-50
Brave and tireless, 440
Atlanta campaign, 440ff
Chattanooga, 440
Constant skirmishing, 440
Casualties, 440
Qualities as a general, 441-42
Religious life, 442
Death, home, grave, 442-43

Article Indexes Uploaded as of May 2019

Van Dyke, Ben. "Ben Van Dyke's Escape from the Hospital at Pleasant Hill, Louisiana."

Annals of Iowa, series 3, 7 (October 1906): 523-32.

14th Iowa Infantry
Wounded on the way back to Mansfield, retreat from Pleasant Hill, 523
Canteen, alcohol, 523
Surgeons, amputations, 524
No guards, escaped from hospital, 524ff
Help from a slave, 525
Stole some cornbread and ham from a house, 527

Met some other Union soldiers in disguise, 528
Fed by another woman, 529
Ran into Quantrill's men and pretended to be one of them until he escaped, 531-32

Vogel, John. "Memoir of John Vogel, Immigrant and Pioneer." Translated by B. G. Oosterbaan.

Michigan History Magazine 30 (1946): 546-60.

2nd Michigan Cavalry
Carpenter, enlisted, 550
New Madrid, 551
Destroying railroads and bridges south of Corinth, 551
Just mentions various engagements, 552
Chickamauga, 553
Reenlistment, furlough, 553-54
Wounded in October 1864, Nashville hospital

Documents added as of April 2019

Vance, Wilson J. "A Man and a Boy at Stone River." 1 (May 1893): 347-60.

21st Ohio Infantry
Stones River, 347ff
Marching and skirmishing, 347
Boy sleeping, 347
Feared being a coward, 348-49
Thoughts before battle, worries about home, 349
Union position could not be held, 351
Attempts to rally the men, 354
Much praise for Colonel Miller, 354 et passim

Vandiver, Frank, ed. "A Collection of Louisiana Confederate Letters." Louisiana Historical Quarterly 26 (October 1943): 937-74.

6th, 17th, 31st Louisiana Infantry
Furlough, 941
Soldier pay, 941
Duty, 941
Battery along the Potomac, 942
Prospect of winter, morale, reading, 944
Young men reluctant to volunteer, 944
Morale and duty, 945
Winter quarters, 946
Boredom in camp, 947

Food, 947
Marriages, 947
McClellan and Confederates at Manassas, mud, 948
Snowball fight, 948-49
Measles, 952, 954, 956
Confidence in defense of New Orleans, 953, 957
Christmas, 958
General Lovell, 958
Morale, optimism, 959
Chalmette, New Orleans battlefield, 960
Corinth, 961ff
Measles, typhoid, 962
Diarrhea, 963
Shiloh campaign, 963-64
Mumps, 965
Hospital, women visitors, 966
Vicksburg, 967-71
Substitutes, 969
Yankee attack, casualties, 971-72

Article indexes uploaded as of February 2019

Vachet, Charles. "We have surely done a big work': The Diary of a Hoosier Soldier on Sherman's 'March to the Sea.'" Indiana Magazine of History 94 (September 1998): 214-39.

75th Indiana--full diary published, Fighting for Liberty and Right

Valentine, Tillman. "The Civil War Letters of Tillman Valentine, Third US Colored Troops." Edited by Johnathan W. White. Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 139 (April 2015): 171-88.

3rd U.S.C.T.
Thinks of family when on picket duty, 181
Morris Island, 181ff
Christmas, 182
Letters, 183
Soldier pay, black troops, 184
Faith to wife, 187

Vanderhorst, Adèle Allston. “Great Events Have Taken Place’: The Civil War Diary of Adèle

Allston Vanderhorst.” Edited by Pamela J. Clements. South Carolina Historical

Magazine 102 (October 2001): 310-34.

Secession, 317

Choosing a husband, 317-18

Fort Sumter, 318-19

Turns down marriage proposal, 320

First Manassas, Bull Run, 221-22

Prayers of Bishop Atkinson for the Confederate states, 323

Port Royal, Beaufort, Yankees on the coast, 324-25

Engagement, marriage, 326-27

J. Johnston Pettigrew, extensive sketch, 329-30

Van Duser, John. “The John Van Duser Diary of Sherman’s March from Atlanta to Hilton Head.” Edited by Charles L. Brockman, Jr. Georgia Historical Quarterly 53 (June 1969):

220-40.

Chief Telegrapher, Military Division of Tennessee

Destruction of Atlanta, 220-21

Foraging, 221

Sherman, 221ff

Unionist family, food, alcohol, Sherman, 223

Sherman and elderly slave, 224-25

Milledgeville, 225-26

Sham legislative session, 226

Sherman and cleaning out the Confederacy, 228

Unionist, 229

Lack of Confederate opposition on the march, 229-30

Poor whites, 231-32

Master and slaves, 233

Kilpatrick and Wheeler, 233

Torpedoes, 234-35

Confederate artillery piece, 235

Sherman, Hardee, Savannah, 238ff

Van Deusen, Ira. “Ira Van Deusen: A Federal Volunteer in North Alabama.” Edited by Ron

Bennett. Alabama Historical Quarterly 27 (Fall/Winter 1965): 199-211.

111th Illinois Infantry

Deserters, Confederate prisoners, 202

Kentucky, 202ff
Guerrillas, murder, 204-5
Atlanta campaign, 206ff
Suffering of women and children, 207
Kennesaw Mountain, 210

Vaughan, Turner. "Diary of Turner Vaughan, Co. C, 4th Alabama Regiment, C.S.A." Alabama Historical Quarterly 18 (Winter: 1956): 573-604.

4th Alabama Infantry
Yancey, Wigfall, impressment, 573
Food prices, 573
Well dressed officers who have not done much fighting, 573
Drewry's Bluff, 574
Love, woman, 574-75
Explosion on Brown's Island, dead women, 575
Blankets, 578-79
Fort, 580
Earthworks, firing, 581
Boots, price, 584
Chaplain sermons, 585
Heat, men fainting, 585
Gettysburg campaign, 587ff
Foraging and order, 588
Deserter, 593
Religious revival, 593-94
Raleigh Standard newspaper office, 595
Chickamauga, 596-97
Chattanooga, 597ff
Food short, 598
Knoxville, Burnside, 600
Wheeler, Murfreesboro, Stones River, Bragg, 601-604

Vaught, Elsa. "Diary of an Unknown Soldier." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 18 (Spring 1959): 50-89.

19th Iowa Infantry
Boat, 51-52
Chaplain, 54
Water, 61-62
Women, 52
Water heat, 62
Dead horses and mules, 61
Food, prisoners, 65

Unionist women, 66
Guerrillas, firing, burning houses, 75-76
Marching, 84-85
Prairie Grove, 86-87

Vedder, Charles S. "The Diary of the Reverend Charles S. Vedder, May-July 1861." Edited by

Willard E. Wight. Georgia Historical Quarterly 39 (March 1955): 68-80.

Presbyterian, Monticello, Georgia
Sermon on prayer and Sumter, 71
Description of services and critiques of sermons, 71ff
Preached at black funeral service, 75
Black preachers, 81
Confederate fast, humiliation, and prayer, 84

Venable, Richard M. "A Different View on the War: The Civil War Diary of Richard M.

Venable." By Michael E. Pilgrim. Prologue 28 (Winter 1996): 263-69.

Chief of the Topographical Bureau, District of West Louisiana and Arkansas
Women, 263-64, 268
Philosophical and metaphysical discussions, 266ff
Nature of character, novels, 267
Shakespeare, 267
Maxims, 268

Verot, Jean Marcel Pierre Auguste. "Letters of the Bishop of Savannah, 1861-1865." Edited by Willard E. Wight. Georgia Historical Quarterly 42 (March 1958): 93-106.

Condemning abolitionism, 95
Charleston fire, collection, 96-98
Shortage of catechism, 97-98
Prisoner of Yankees for ten days, 99
Dedication of church at Augusta, 100-1
Wants a meeting of Bishops in the Confederacy, 101-2
Catholics, war, divine favor, communion, 102
Olive oil for religious ceremony, 103-4
Suffering of people, clergy should seek peace, 104-5

Vicksburg. "Beleaguered City: The Vicksburg Campaign as Seen in Unpublished Union

Letters." Edited by Leo M. Kaiser. Southern Studies 17 (Spring 1978): 69-90.

Impression of Mississippi, 71
Grant's army and impatience at home to whip the Confederates, 71
Emancipation Proclamation, 72
Steamboat fleet and land along the river, 72-73
Chickasaw Bayou, casualties, 73
Ellet running the Vicksburg batteries, 73-74
Morale, desertion, 74
Canal and gunboats, 74-75
Gunboats, Vicksburg described, 75-76
Memphis, soldier activities, 76
Soldier life, slavery, 76
Grant, Frank Blair, Jr., 76-77
Planters, slaves, 77-78
Siege of Vicksburg, artillery fire, 78-79
Describes the Vicksburg lines, fraternization, alcohol, 79-80
Grant talks to soldiers, 79-80
Grant, 81
Artillery, mortar shells, 81-82
Assessment of Vicksburg siege, 83
Union mine, 84
Surrender of Vicksburg, 84ff
Fraternization, Confederate morale, 85
Surrender described, blindfolded Confederate officers, 86-87
Women and children seeking food from Federals, 88
Work of cleanup and repair in Vicksburg, 88-89
People in Vicksburg receiving food from Federals, doubtful loyalty, 89
Plantation owner, opinion of Jefferson Davis, 90
Grant's report on Vicksburg, critical of the navy, 90

"Virginia's Contributions to the Confederacy." William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine 13 (October 1904): 141-42.

Soldiers, numbers, arms, 142

Viele, Egbert Ludovickus. "The Seventh Regiment at the Capitol, 1861." Magazine of American History 14 (1885): 69-77.

7th New York Infantry
Washington, 69ff
New York rallies to Lincoln's call for troops, 69ff
Departure of troops, 70
Troops proceed to Washington on the Daylight, 73ff
Lincoln, 75
Capitol, 76-77

Vliet, John. "Brooklyn and the Civil War." Edited David M. Cory. Journal of Long Island

History 2 (No. 1, Spring 1963): 1-15.

84th New York, 14th Brooklyn
Bull Run, 6-
Under fire, 6
Water, 6-7
Gettysburg, 8-9
Hospital, 10
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 10-11
Death of General Rice, amputation, 11

Vliet, John. "A Brooklyn Soldier A Century Ago." Edited by David M. Cory. Journal of Long Island History 2 (No. 2, 1962): 29-54; 3 (No. 2 1963): 1-30; 4 (No. 3 1964): 1-27.

84th New York, 14th Brooklyn, Lieutenant, Adjutant Court martial duty, guard house, 31
Soldier pay, 32, 34
Chapel tent, 33
Officer election, 34-35
Washington's Birthday, 35
Soldiers and slavery, 35
Soldiers have confidence in McClellan. 37.
March to Centreville, 37
Corpses unburied on Bull Run battlefield, 38
Tents, 41-42
Fredericksburg, 41ff
Coffee, 43
Slaves, camp servant, 43-44
Railroad accident, 45
Warrenton, 45-46
Rain, tents, 46
Soldier pay, 46
Falmouth, 47
Food, 47
Fredericksburg, 48
Daily routine, 49
Pope and McDowell, no more protecting Confederate property, 50-51
Newspapers, 52
Music, bands, conscription, July 4, 51
Mud March, 2-3
Slave hospitality, 2
Snow, 2-3

Men careless about washing, 4
 Burnside, McClellan, Franklin, Fremont, 4
 Camp routine, 5-6
 Emancipation Proclamation and Black troops, 6
 McClellan. South Mountain, Antietam, 6
 Duties of adjutant, 7
 Chaplain, 7
 Instruction in tactics, 8
 Maryland loyalty questioned, 10
 Soldier pay, 11
 Clothes, uniforms, 12
 Mules, 12
 Frostbite, amputation, 12
 Soldier pay, 14
 Unit badges, insignia, 14
 Alcohol, whiskey ration, 16
 Chancellorsville, 16-19
 Hooker and Eleventh Corps, 19
 Wounded soldiers, 19-20
 Gambling, 20
 Foraging, 20
 Food prices, 20
 Plantation, Confederate women, runaway slaves, 21-22
 Fraternalization, trade, tobacco, coffee, food, newspapers, 22
 Daily routine, 24
 Box, Adams Express, 25
 Food prices, 25
 Deserter execution, 26-27
 Gettysburg, Eleventh Corps, 28-30
 Gettysburg, 2
 Confederate conscription, 2-3
 Citizens of Gettysburg want damages paid, not every patriotic, 4-5
 Gaps in regiment, conscription, 6
 Warrenton, greenbacks, Confederate sentiment, refused to take Confederate money, 7
 Bathing, 8
 Fruits and vegetable, canned, sutler prices, 8
 Guerrillas, Mosby, 8-9
 Deserter execution, 10
 Conscripts, substitutes, 10
 Daily routine, 12
 Mine Run, Meade, 15-17
 Officers quarters, 17
 Confederate women, oath, 18
 Reenlistment, new recruits, 18
 Confederate women and flag, 19
 Troop review, women, 19

Religious service, Christian Commission, 19
Reenlistment, bounty, 19-20
Money raised for Reynolds monument at Gettysburg, 20, 22
Confederate prisoners, 21
Women ordered out of camp, spring campaign, 21
Grant's concern for troops, 22
Chaplain, 22
Reenlistment, most men voted to go home, 23
Sanitary Commission, 23
Overland campaign, Spotsylvania Courthouse, 24-26
Band, music, 25
General Rice, amputation, death, 25
Wounded men, hard ride to hospital, 25-26