

Documents Added as of January 2020

Rawdon, Horace, Jr. "A Sketchbook Through the South." Civil War Times Illustrated 12

(November 1973): 22-27.

105th Ohio Infantry, musician
Munfordville camp, 23
Murfreesboro, 23
Hoover's Gap,, 24
Ringgold, 24
Lookout Mountain, 24
Missionary Ridge, 25
Marietta, Georgia, 25
Chattanooga, 25
Green River, 26
Ringgold, 26
Missionary Ridge, 26
Rocky Face Ridge, 27
Kennesaw Mountain, 27

Reed, Charles F. "War Letters from an Artist." Edited by Charles F. Cooney. Civil War Times

Illustrated 14 (May 1975): 34-40.

9th Independent Battery, Massachusetts Light Battery
Gettysburg, 36-38

Rogers, William O. "Cotton and Clover Hill." Civil War Times Illustrated, 14 (August 1975):

20-25.

4th Illinois Cavalry, sergeant, memoir
Much cotton stored in Mississippi swamps, speculation, 20-21
Fired on by guerrillas, 21
Seized the cotton but fired on by Confederates, 21-22
Back to camp and put in military prison

Russell, David. "A Kentucky Yankee's Story of Fort Donelson." Lincoln Herald 87 (Fall 1985):

73-75.

17th Kentucky Infantry (Union)

Fort Donelson, Hospital Steward, 73

Articles Uploaded as of August 2019

Rayner, Juan. "An Eyewitness Account of Forrest's Raid on Memphis." West Tennessee

Historical Society Papers 12 (1958): 134-37.

Forrest raid on Memphis, 134ff
Tearing up railroad track, 134-35
Joined the raid on Memphis, 135
Killing federal vidette, 135-36
Rode into Gayoso Hotel, 136-37

Read, Thomas Buchanan. "The Siege of Cincinnati." Atlantic Monthly 11 (February 1863):

229-34.

Lew Wallace, stumping state for Governor Morton, 229
Wallace takes command of 66th Indiana, but thwarted by Bull Nelson, 229-32
Wallace assumed command of Cincinnati, 232
Martial law, 233
Enemy fell back, 234

"The Red River Campaign." United States Service Magazine 2 (November 1864): 417-31.

Bungled campaign, 417
Geography of Louisiana, 418-19
Banks and Port Hudson, 422
Cotton, Lincoln, 424
Red River campaign, 425ff
General Banks, Lincoln administration, 430-31

Reynolds, Samuel N. "Civil War Letters." Lincoln Herald 65 (Winter 1963): 199-213.

30th Indiana Infantry
Letters, 200
Camp, women and religious meeting, Bible, children at home and prayer, 201
Louisville and secession sentiment, 201
Bible and religious reading, 201-2
Rowlett's Station battle, 202-3
Accident in street, children at home, 203
Anxious for a battle, 204
War may soon be over, 204

Prayer meeting at home, 205
War may end soon, thinly clad Confederates, 205
Letters, 206
Gets little news, 206
Soldier pay, 206-7
Shiloh, 207-8
Sight of the battlefield, 208
Sending money home, 209
Camp, mud, wagons, 209
Bible reading, 210

Runshe, Abraham. "A Soldier in the Ind. Sixteenth." Indiana History Bulletin 38 (June 1961):

111-12.

16th Indiana Infantry, satire on soldier life
Food, 111
Foraging, 111-12
Alcohol, beer, 111
Cardplaying, chaplain, 112

Rusling, James F. "The Victory at Nashville." United States Service Magazine 3 (February 1865): 113-23.

Battle of Franklin, 114ff
George H. Thomas, Schofield, 114
Hood should have attacked earlier but Federals have great numerical advantage, 115
George H. Thomas remark on the battle, 118
Captured Confederate general, 121-22
Prisoners and materiel captured, 122

Articles Uploaded as of June 2019

R. C. of Hood's Texas Brigade. "Gen. Lee at the Wilderness." Land We Love 5 (October 1868): 481-86.

Robert E. Lee and the battle of the Wilderness, 481ff
Lee and Longstreet, 483
A. P. Hill's men fleeing, 483-84

Texas brigade to advance, 484
Lee said, "Texans always move them," 485
Advance gave Longstreet time to entre the fray, 486

Robertson, S. H. "General Roberson in the Gettysburg Campaign. A Rejoinder to Colonel Mosby." Century Magazine 37 (1888): 150-51

Job Stuart, 150-51
Orders, holding mountain gaps, 151
Denies Mosby charge that failed to obey orders, 151

Robinson, Edward Ayrault. "Some Recollections of April 19, 1861." Maryland Historical Magazine 27 (December 1932): 274-79.

Second Sergeant, Co. 5, 5th Maryland Guard
Riot, mob, Baltimore, 274ff
Firing between troops and crowd, 274
Crowd breaks into armory, 275-76
Woman who turned into rabid Confederate, 277
Armed meeting, 278
Described of rioters, 278-79
General Benjamin F. Butler, 279

Rusling, James F. "A Word for the Quartermaster's Department." United States Service Magazine 3 (January, February, March, May 1865): 57-67, 133-43, 255-59, 446-55.

Quartermaster regulations, logistics, 58
Transportation and storage for other departments, 59
Early problems, Montgomery Meigs, 60ff
Early disorganization, 61
Movement to the Peninsula, 62-64
John Pope's campaign, General Rucker, 64
Fredericksburg, pontoons, 64-65
Gettysburg, 65
Overland campaign, railroads, 66
Mississippi River, 134ff
St. Louis, 134
Vicksburg, 135
Tullahoma, 136
Chickamauga, 136
Chattanooga, winter supplies, 137

Nashville, 138-41
Sherman, 141-42
Wagon transportation, slow and tedious movement, need for Quartermaster Department, 255-58
Water transportation, 258-59
Too much turnover in Quartermaster Department, defective employees, 446-451
Appointment of officers, rank, 451-55

Rusling, James F. "The Yankee as a Fighter." United States Service Magazine 4 (July 1865):

27-43.

Notices how much stronger the nation is now, 27
Weakness before the war, Buchanan, 28
Andrew Johnson, 29
Enthusiastic enlistments, 30-31
Confederate contempt for northern soldiers, 31
Quick review of ups and downs of the war, 32-41
British opinion, 34-37
Comparative discipline of the two sides, 37-38
Improvements in organization and discipline, 38-39
Gives Confederates credit for pluck and courage, 41
Navy, 42

Articles Uploaded as of June 2019

Randall, William H. "General Lauman, a Rift in the Cloud." Annals of Iowa 5 (1867): 897-902.

Jackson, Vicksburg campaign
General Jacob Lauman sent to the rear, 897
Sherman and casualties in 3rd Iowa, 897
No trial or investigation, 897-98
Battle of Hatchie, General Ord, 899-90
General Hovey, 900-901
Hostility of General Ord, 901-2

"Religion in the Army of Tennessee." Land We Love 4 (December 1867): 127-31.

Church and Confederate armies, 127
Slavery and the war, 128
Best ministers preached in the army, 128-29
Chaplains, missionaries, temporary missionaries, 129
Chaplain, 30th Mississippi Infantry, 130
Missionary Ridge, 130

Dalton, 130-31
Revivals, 131

Rodenbough, Theophilus F. "Cavalry War Lessons." Journal of the United States Cavalry

Association 2 (1889): 103-23.

2nd United States Cavalry
General discussion of cavalry Germany, 103-6
Gettysburg, 106ff
Deals with Beverly, Ford, screening and intelligence, reinforcing infantry, Oak Hill, Seminary Ridge, Round Tops, Runnels Farm, 106ff
Buford, 115 et passim
Wilson raid in Alabama, 119-21

Rodenbough, Theophilus F. "The Regular Cavalry in the Gettysburg Campaign." Journal of the United States Cavalry Association 44 (1909): 29-31.

2nd United States Cavalry
Beverly Ford, Gettysburg, 29ff
Casualties, 29
Previous battles in the which the regiments had participated, 31

Ross, Beverly. "Letter of a Confederate Soldier." Tyler's Historical and Genealogical Quarterly

14 (April 1933): 133-37.

Picket duty, hail, 234
Peace question, Jefferson Davis, 235
Deserters, 235
Food, 236
Drums, music,
Food prices, 236

Ruffin, F. G. "A Chapter of Confederate History." North American Review 134 (1882): 97-110.

Subsistence Department, 97ff
Davis message on adequate supplies in 1864 was misleading, 97-98
Contacted Congressman and John B. Baldwin and all parts of War Department to be investigated. 98
Ruffin's testimony, 98ff
Meat supply in 1862, George W. Randolph, hogs, 98-102
Salt, flour, 102
Cotton, 105

Desertion, 105-6
Money, inflation, hoarding, 106
Bread, 108
Deficient transportation, 109
Food shortages in Lee's army, 109-110

Rusling, James F. "General McClellan's Baggage-Destroying Order." Century Magazine 38 (1889): 157-58.

Claims that McClellan did issue an order on destruction of baggage, 157
Savage Station, Seven Days, 157
Later statement on order by I. W. Hysinger, 154-55

Articles Uploaded as of May 2019

Reynolds, Charles E. "Thirteen Months at Andersonville Prison and What I Saw There."

Northwest Ohio Quarterly 27 (1955): 94-113.

68th Ohio Infantry
Sherman's Median expedition, foraging, taken prisoner, 94
Mobile guardhouse with loathsome Confederate shirkers, 95
Cahaba, 95-
Calliope, woman, music, Star Spangled Banner, 96
Rumors of exchange, 97
Pie and gingerbread peddlers, 97-98
Andersonville, 98ff
Wirz, 98-99
Stockade, 99
First sight of prisoners, 99-100
Sanitary conditions, 100
Deaths, 100
Food, 100-1
Cooking, wood, 101
Dead line, 102
Escape attempts, 103-4
Raiders, execution, 104-6
Hospital, 107
Punished for letters, stocks, 108
Dead soldiers, 108-9
Catholic assistance, food, 109
Guards from 55th Georgia, 110
Surgeons, 111

Rhodes, Milton. "Captives in Dixie." Palimpsest 10 (1929): 243-66.

14th Iowa Infantry
Shiloh, 243-45
Taken prisoner, 244
Cahaba prison, 245
Macon, Georgia, fairground prison, 246ff
Guards, 246
Food, 247
Escape attempts, dogs, 247
Escape attempt, 248
Forged passes, 253
Slaves, 255
Ferryman, one man falls into river, 256
Sapelo Island, 262
James Harlan, 265
Stanton, 265-66

Rich, Ellen. "State University of Iowa and the Civil War." Iowa Historical Record 15 (1899):
395-408.

News of Fort Sumter, Union meetings, 395-96
A few students showed sympathy with Confederates and Copperheads, 396
Meeting and enlistment of students, 396-97
Sermon preached to volunteers, 397
Departure of troops, women, 398-99
Students soldiers in the war, 399ff
Professors and students active relief association, 400-1
Dinner given for veterans in 1864, 402
Dancing, 402
Company of students formed, flag, women, departure, 403-4
Students enlisted from the university, 406-7

Rich, Joseph W. "The Color Bearer of the Twelfth Iowa Volunteer Infantry." Iowa Journal of History and Politics 6 (1908): 96-102.

12th Iowa Infantry
Sergeant Henry J. Grannis. Co. C
Enlistment, college student, 96
Women, flag presentation, 97
Carried flag in every battle, 98
Donelson, 99
Nashville, 99-100

Rich, Joseph W. "The Death of General Albert Sidney Johnston on the Battlefield of Shiloh."

Iowa Journal of History 16 (1918): 275-81.

12th Iowa Infantry

Isham G. Harris, 275-

Identifying spot where Albert Sidney Johnston was mortally wounded and where he died, 276-81

Robinson, Charles. "My Experiences in the Civil War." Michigan History Magazine 24 (1940):

23-50.

2nd Michigan Infantry

Support for Lincoln in 1860, 23

Singing at political rallies, music, 23-24

News of Fort Sumter, 24-25

Lincoln's call for troops, enlistment at Battle Creek, 25-27

Physical exam, 27

Did not expect long war, 27

Departure of troops, train, young woman kissed him repeatedly, 28

Visited Lincoln in the White House, 30-32, 34-35

Boys stuffed themselves, seasick on the lake, 32-33

Baltimore, 33

Washington, 33-34

Music, singing in camp, 34

Crossed Chain Bridge, Bull run, 36-41

Rations, food, 36-37

Talk with Lincoln and Zachariah Chandler, 42

Confederate selling melons, 43

Gold and paper money, 44

Inspections, 45

Colonel Richardson, guarding Confederate property, 45

Peninsula campaign, 47-48

Wounded at Malvern Hill, 48

Overland campaign, wounded, 49

Protected and rebuilt bridges for Sherman, 50

Ross, Randal. "A Day's March." United States Service Magazine 3 (February 1865): 180-83.

15th Ohio Infantry, Chaplain

Gainesville, Alabama, 180

March of a day, 180ff

Plantation advertising food, 181-82

Sherman, foraging, 182
Mules, mud, 182

Ross, Randal. "Correspondence [A letter from San Antonio de Bexar, October 10, 1865.]

United States Service Magazine 5 (February 1866): 172-77.

15th Ohio Infantry
Volunteers hardly expected to be sent to Texas, 172
Indianola, Matagorda Bay, 173
False Unionists, 173-74
Water, 174
Marching on the prairie, 175
Weather, temperatures, 177

Ruff, Joseph. "Civil War Experiences of a German Emigrant as Told by Joseph Ruff."

Michigan History Magazine 27 (1923): 271-301, 442-62.

12th Michigan Infantry
Republicans in 1856k 271
Farmhand, enlistment, interested in American history, 273-78
Mustered in, 278
Christmas, 279
Clothing, 279-80
Hospital, harsh medicine, 280-81
Women and flag, 281
Railroad journey, 282-84
Confederate prisoners from Fort Donelson, 284-85
Men jammed onto steamboat, 285-86
Young black boy along shore fired carelessly at them, 286-87
Shiloh campaign, 288-300
Lice, 288
Religious service, chaplain, 290
Lack of military precautions at Shiloh, 281
Cooking, water, 286
Fighting, 297ff
Wounded Confederates, talk about the war, 298-99
Casualties, 442
Picket duty and owl, 443
Clash with officers over fatigue duty, 444-46
Alcohol, officers' wine, 446
Foraging, old slave, 446-47
Milking cows, 447
Corinth, 448-52
Close call, 451-52

Marching, 452-53
Rain, mud, slid down embankment, 453-54
Accidental explosion of cartridge in his face, 456
Practical joke with letter, 457-58
Fighting Forrest at Jackson, Tennessee, 459ff

Documents added as of April 2019

Renshaw, James A. “Major John A. Prados, A Confederate Officer.” Louisiana Historical Quarterly 10 (April 1927): 241-48.

8th Louisiana Infantry, Major
Officer election, Joseph Johnston, 242
Appointed brigade quartermaster, 243
Federal prisons praised his kind treatment, 244
Killed trying to round up prisoners, 245
Body brought to New Orleans for an inquest, funeral, 246-48

Reynolds, Daniel N. “Memories of Libby Prison.” Edited by Paul H. Giddens. Michigan

History Magazine 23 (1939): 391-98.

11th Michigan Cavalry
Enlisted 1864, age 16
Captured in West Virginia, 391
Black soldiers killed, 392
Robbed of clothing and other items, 392
Food—flour, salt, water, 392
Salt works, 393
Libby prison, 393ff
Food, 393
Sick call, doctor, 394
Christmas, 396
Dreams, 396-97
Rumors of exchange, 397
Parole camp in Columbus, Ohio, 398

Robison, Hugh Harris. “Hugh Harris Robison Letters.” Edited by Weymouth T. Jordan.

Journal of Mississippi History 1 (January 1939): 53-59.

3rd Mississippi Infantry

Dying soldiers, 54
Citizens on Hopkinsville, Kentucky worried about Confederate troops leaving, Yankees, 54
Report on ill soldiers, 55-56
Health of regiment, 57
Appointed chaplain, providence, 57
Camp Chase, prisoner, 58-59
Conditions on their farm, management, 59

Articles Uploaded as of February 2019

Rabb, John Wesley. “‘We Are Stern and Resolved’: The Civil War Letters of John Wesley

Rabb, Terry’s Texas Rangers.” Edited by Thomas W. Cutrer. Southwestern Historical Quarterly 91 (October 1987): 185-226.

8th Texas Cavalry
Horses, 188ff
Whiskey, 190
Gambling, 190
Illness, food, 195-96
Bacon, 200
Shiloh, pillaging, 200-1
Bragg’s Kentucky campaign, Perryville, 203-4
Yankees threats to Texas, 206-7
Yankee pillaging, 208
Stones River, Murfreesboro, 209
Wounded, 213-14
Atlanta campaign, 217ff

Rabb, Virgil Sullivan. “‘Bully for Flornoy’s Regiment, We Are Some Punkins, You’ll Bet’:

The Civil War Letters of Virgil Sullivan Rabb, Captain, Company I, Sixteenth Texas Infantry, C.S.A.” Edited by Thomas W. Cutrer. Military History of the Southwest 19 (Fall 1989): 161-90; 20 (Spring 1990): 61-90.

16th Texas Infantry, Captain
Marching, 167
News and rumors, 169
Advice on becoming a refugee, 171
Christmas, alcohol, 172

Diarrhea, 174, 177-78
Minstrel show in camp, 174-75
Federal deserters, 176
Soldier pay, duty, 177
Letters, daily routine, 182
Rumors of Federal movements, 187 et passim
Foraging, fence rails, destruction by Confederate troops, 188
Application for furlough, 189-90
Deserter, guardhouse, 61-62
Morale, 66
Food, 69
Does not want a particular private in company, cavalry convict, 72-74
Deserters, refused to cross Mississippi River, 74-75
Tobacco, 77
Soldier pay, 77, 79
Deserter execution, Magruder, 79-80
Clothing, 83
Peace, subjugation, 84
General Walker, 85-86
Troops happy to be back in Texas, 89

Rae, Thomas W. "The Little Monitor Saved Our Lives." American History Illustrated 1 (July 1966): 32-39.

3rd Assistant Engineer
Hampton Roads, Merrimac, Monitor, 32ff
Things all Virginia will be evacuated without fight, 39

Raffensperger, Edwin B. "The Army Chaplain." Philadelphia Weekly Times, October 26, 1878.

Chaplain, 14th Ohio Infantry

Randal, Horace and Joseph L. Brent, "'Two Lost' Battle Reports: Horace Randal's and Joseph L. Brent's Reports of the Battles of Mansfield and Pleasant Hill, 8 and 9 April 1864."

Edited by Jane Harris Johansson and David H. Johannson. Military History of the West 23 (Fall 1993): 169-80.

Red River campaign, 169ff
Horace Randal report, 173-
Casualties, 174-75
Bravery, courage 176
Joseph Brent report, 178-80

Mouton charge, 178-79
Casualties, 180

Ransom, A. H. R. "Reminiscences of the Civil War by a Confederate Staff Officer." Sewanee

Review 21 (October 1913): 428-47; 22 (January, April, July 1914): 1-23, 129-50, 298-318.

Harpers Ferry, John Brown, slavery, 428ff
Christmas, 431-32
John Brown Raid, 439-47
Baltimore riot, Sixth Massachusetts Infantry, 1-3
Slavery, 4-5
Harpers Ferry, Jackson, 6ff
Wounded man miraculously survived, 7-8
Western Virginia campaign, Rosecrans, Rich Mountain, 9-14
First Manassas, McClellan, 15
Prisoner, 16ff
Pegram, 9-23
Nashville, 135-36
Paroled prisoner, 136ff
Richmond, 137
Sends a drunken soldier out of his house, 140
Lee and Jackson, 146-47
Cards, poker, 148-49
Army of Tennessee, 298ff
Stones' River, Murfreesboro, 298-99
Chickamauga campaign, 300-303
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, 303-4
Commissary duties, 305
Overland campaign, 306ff
Chaplain and boots, 307-8
Wilderness, 309-14.
Mosby, 314-16
Mine Run, 316-18

Rathbone, Thomas W. "Captain W. T. Rathbone's 'Brief Diary of Imprisonment,' July 1—

November 21, 1864." Edited by Louis Bartlett. Ohio History 71 (January 1962): 33-56.

153rd Ohio Infantry
Scouting expedition, 35
Stolen horses, 35
Taken prisoner, 36
Food and mistreatment, 37

Poor sanitary facilities, 38
Charleston, 39ff
Food prices, 39
Macon, Camp Oglethorpe, 40ff
Food, 41
Food prices, 42
Gambling and alcohol, officers, 43
Charleston, diarrhea, 44
Exchange rumors, 44-45
Escape, 45ff
Fears being hunted by bloodhounds, 46
Recaptured, 47
Held election of 1864 in prison, Lincoln, McClellan. 48-49
Money, food, 49
Sutler, food, prices, 50
Escape attempt, 50

Rathbun, Isaac R. "A Civil War Diary: The Diary of Isaac R. Rathbun, Co. D, 86th N.Y.

Volunteers, Aug. 23, 1862--Jan. 20, 1863." Edited by Lawrence R. Cavanaugh. New York History 36 (July 1955): 336-45.

Co. D, 86th New York
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 337-40
Under fire, wounded, 339-40
Taken prisoner, 340
Confederate morale, sick of the war, 340
Hospital, food, 342-43

Rawle, William B. "Further Remarks on the Cavalry Fight on the Right Flank at Gettysburg."

Journal of the United States Cavalry Association 4 (1891): 157-60.

3rd Pennsylvania Cavalry (60th Volunteers)
Michigan brigade defense, Custer, 158-60

Rawle, William B. "Gregg's Cavalry Fight at Gettysburg, July 3, 1863." Journal of the United States Cavalry Association 4 (1891); 257-75.

3rd Pennsylvania Cavalry (60th Volunteers)
Movements of cavalry leading up to Gettysburg, 257-
Cavalry organization, 259
Horses, 259-60
Gettysburg, 261ff

Confederate cavalry, 270
Casualties, 273
Dispute over who won this cavalry battle, 274

Raynor, William H. "The Civil War Diary of William H. Raynor During the Vicksburg Campaign." Edited by Edwin C. Bearrs. Louisiana Studies 9 (Winter 1970): 243-300.

56th Ohio Infantry, Colonel
Plantations, 246-47
Bridge building, 249-52
Malaria fever, 255ff
Port Gibson, 256-58
Quinine, 259
Food, 259-60
Washing clothes, inspection without shirts, 262
Water, 263
Marching in rain, 267
Battle of Raymond, 265-67
Champion's Hill, 269-70
Food shortage, 373
Digging rifle pits, 376
Slave camp servant, 279
Heat, 283
Firing along the lines, 283
Bathing, 284
Fraternization, rifle pits, 286
Fever, quinine, 287
On the front lines, 292-93
McPherson and mine, 293-94
Heat, 294
Fraternization, 296
Wallpaper Vicksburg newspaper, 297
Fall of Vicksburg, 299-300

Raysor, Michael and Sallie Raysor. "If It Was Not for You I Would Be Willing to Die': The Civil War Correspondence of Michael and Sallie Raysor." Edited by Aaron Sheehan-Dean. Florida Historical Quarterly 86 (Winter 2008): 390-405.

Co. H, 3rd Florida Infantry
Duty, wife's suffering, 392-93
Soldier pay, 393
Christmas box, 394
Lincoln and foreign recognition, 395

Seven Days, Peninsula, defeat of McClellan, short war, foreign recognition, 396-97
Debts and home business, 398 et passim
Jefferson Davis annual message, 399
Union conscription, 399
Crop prices, Confederate taxes, 400
Van Dorn death, 401
Death of Stonewall Jackson, 401-2
Religion, preaching, revival, 402-3
Johnston, Yankees, Vicksburg, 403
Death of husband, 405

Read, Ira Beman. "The Campaign from Chattanooga to Atlanta as Seen by a Federal Soldier."

Edited by Richard B. Harwell. Georgia Historical Quarterly 25 (September 1941): 262-78.

101st Ohio Infantry
Rocky Face Ridge, 264
Dead and wounded, Resaca, 265
Death of Leonidas Polk, 268
Whiskey, 269
Confederate prisoners, 269
Kennesaw Mountain, 269-70
Burial truce, fraternization, 270-71
Sherman and Logan, 273
Atlanta, 276ff

Redmond, William and Rowland Redmond. "Two Ulster Businessmen's Views of the American Civil War." Edited by Grenfell Morton. Irish Sword 16 (Summer 1986): 229-32.

New York City
Secession, minority, oligarchy, 229
Pessimistic about the Union, 229
Slavery, New England hypocrisy, 229
November 1862 elections, 230
Northern economy, morale, 230
Slavery and northern policy, 230-31

Reichard, William J. "Civil War Letters of William J. Reichard." Proceedings of the Lehigh County Historical Society 22 (1958): 137-281.

128th Pennsylvania Infantry, Corporal
Woolen shirt, 138

Buttery, jelly, 139
 Mustered in 139
 Poisoned pies, 141
 Washington, 142-44
 Box, food, 144-45
 Clothes, 145
 Slaves, 146
 Tents. 147
 Second Bull Run, 147ff
 Food, 149
 Washington, water, 151
 Soldiers stealing hay from a Confederate farmer, 152
 Washington sites, 154
 Antietam campaign, 156ff
 Dead soldiers, burial, 158
 Casualties, 159
 Food, 160
 McClellan and regiments at Antietam, newspaper account, 161-62
 Harpers Ferry, Miles, 162
 Soldiers suffering from cold and exposure, 162-63
 Needs money for clothes, 163
 Diarrhea medicine, 164
 Reading material, weekly newspaper, 170
 Food, sutler, 170
 Cooking, 171
 Confederate souvenir, 173
 Box, 174
 Chaplain sermon, 175
 Harpers Ferry, 175-76
 Daily routine, 177
 Prayers meetings, providence, 177
 Officers, quartermaster, lack of tents, 177-78
 Knapsacks, 178
 Illness in regiment, 180
 Box, food, moldy, 181-83
 Soldier pay, 182
 Still troubled with diarrhea and confined to camp, 183
 Snow, winter quarters, 187-88
 Picket duty, 190
 Box and contents, 190-91
 Diarrhea medicine from home, 191
 Winter quarters, 192-94
 Food, 194
 Food, 195
 Father visits him camp, abundant food, 202
 Christmas, 210-11

Christmas boxes, spoiled items, 214-15
Sleeping, 218
Marching, 223
Chimney, 224
Snow, picket duty, 227
Copperhead newspapers, 230, 240, 255
Box from women, 233
Food, 234
Hooker order, soft bread, hardtack, 235
Sabbath, 238
Antietam, 241
Soldier death dysentery, typhoid, 244-45
Corduoy road work, 245-46, 263
Marching, mud, 249-50
Dead soldier, coffin, 251
Snowball fight, 255
Emancipation Proclamation, conscription, Copperheads, 261
Accident with log, 261-62
Elections, Copperheads, conscription, 264
Sabbath, 266
Morale, Hooker, copperheads, conscription, Emancipation Proclamation, 266-67
Body dug up and sent home, 267-68
Review of troops by Lincoln and Hooker, 271-72
Picket duty, stolen horse, spy, 274-75
Army resolutions, loyalty, 276
Sigel, 278
Chancellorsville, 279-80

Remington, Ambert O. "The Occupation of Southeastern Louisiana: Impressions of a New York Volunteer, 1862-1863." Edited by L. Moody Simms, Jr. Louisiana Studies 7 (Spring 1968): 83-91.

75th New York Infantry
New Orleans, yellow fever, 84
Corrupt, contracts, foreign recognition, for Confederacy, 85
Foraging animals, 87
Food prices, 88
False alarm of going into battle, 89
Democrats, victories in 1862 elections, stay at homes, 89
Fierce men and women in New Orleans, 90

Reynolds, Elmer. "On the Road to Atlanta: Observations of a Yankee Soldier." Edited by Lewis N. Wynne and Barbara Ann Grim. Atlanta History 31 (Winter 1987/1988): 53-55.

10th Wisconsin Light Artillery Battery
Marching, Tunnel Hill, Confederate artillery fire, 54
Atlanta campaign, 54

Reynolds, Samuel. "The Sacking of Lawrence." Edited by Alan Conway. Kansas Historical Quarterly 24 (Summer 1958): 144-50.

Minister, Welsh
Sack of Lawrence, 147-50
Quantrill, 147ff
Murders, 148ff
Town burned, 149

Rhodes, James F. "The Sixth Maine Battery before Petersburg." Maine Bugle 1 (1894): 249-55.

6th Maine Battery
Petersburg, 249ff
Artillery fire 250-51
Fort McGilvery, 252-53
Cooking under fire, 254
Breakthrough at Petersburg, 255

Rhodes, Samuel. "The Journal of a Refugee." Edited by Samuel L. Horst. Mennonite Quarterly Review 54 (October 1980): 280-304.

Mennonite, moved from Shenandoah Valley to western Virginia
Conscription, 283
Journey through mountains, 285
Hid during the day and traveled at night, 288
Working at harvest, 293
Working in shop, 295
Train journey, Midwest, 296
Food prices, 301
Death, 302-4

Rice, Henry and James Nolan. "The Civil War Letters of Henry Rice and James Nolan." Edited by Curtis Frymoyer. Cedar County Historical Review (June 1961): 1-21.

11th Iowa Infantry, Privates
Benton Barracks, 2ff
Fremont, 3-4
Sterling Price, 4, 8

No passes to town, 4, 6
Confederate prisoners, 6, 8
Church service, Presbyterian, slaves, 9
Corinth, Beauregard, 10
Food, 10
Army and democracy, 10
July 4, 11-12
Chicago Times, northern secesh newspapers, 12
Conscription, 12
Iuka, 13
Snow, 14
Vicksburg canal, 15ff
Northwestern conspiracy, Copperheads, 15
Peace and compromise, 16
Duty, cause, 17
Typhoid, 20-21

Rice, Zachariah A. "An Atlantan Goes to War: The Civil War Letters of Maj. Zachariah A.

Rice, C.S.A." Edited by Stephen Davis and William A. Richards. Atlanta History 36

(Spring 1992): 20-39.

Cobb's Georgia Legion, Cavalry Battalion, Major
Richmond, 22-23
Camp quarters, 24
Food, 24, 26
John Magruder, 24-25
Picket duty, 25-26
Hatred of Yankees, 27
Richmond, Moses Hoge sermon, 29-30
Peninsula campaign, 30ff
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 30-31
Morale, defeats in the West, 31
Fraternization, 32=33
Artillery fire, family driven away, 34
Seven Days, 34-35

Rich, James B. "Quaker Soldier: Letters of James B. Rich to Sue J. Sheppard (1862-1864.)"

Bulletin of the Historical Society of Montgomery County 25 (Spring 1987): 275-307.

84th New York Infantry, 5th New York Infantry
Officers, food, 277
Paroled prisoners, 279
Coffee, 279

McClellan and Hooker, 281-82
Chancellorsville, 283
Gettysburg campaign, 284ff
Wounded, 288
Hard cases on a ship, food, 289
Deplores soldiers in his new regiment, too much alcohol, 294
Morale, 297
Overland campaign, 297ff
North Anna River, 297-98
Deplores Irish in new regiment, abusive treatment, 300

Richards, David Allen. "Civil War Diary of David Allen Richards." Edited by Frederick D.

Williams. Michigan History 39 (June 1955): 183-220.

13th Michigan Light Battery
Methodist minister and nurse
Enlistment, bounty, 187
Godless officers, 189
Unruly soldiers, discipline, in guard house, 190
Christian Commission, 191, 193
Seeking chickens for hospital patients, 192
Election of 1864 in camp, 195
In hospital as patient, 196
Thanksgiving, 197
Godless army, alcohol, swearing, licentiousness, 197
Soldier death, 198
Christmas, 201
Hospital discussions of Bible and Christianity, 201
Defending Bible and Christianity against skeptics, 202
Cleaning wards, 203-4
Smallpox death, 205
Washington's birthday, 208
Lincoln's second inaugural, 208-9
Sanitary Commission, 210
Chaplain, 211
Fall of Petersburg and Richmond, 212
Appomattox, 213
Lincoln assassination, 213-14
Viewing of Lincoln body, 214-15
Grand Review, 217-18

Richardson, Willard. "Letter from the Texas Secession Convention, 1861: Willard Richardson to George Ware Fulton." Edited by Ray Stephens. Southwestern Historical Quarterly 65 (January 1962): 394-96.

Editor, Galveston News
Secession convention, 395-96
Cotton, England, France, 395
Unity of slave states, 395-96

Ricker, Eli S. "'We left a Black Track in South Carolina': Letters of Corporal Eli S. Ricker, 1865." Edited by Edward G. Longacre. South Carolina Historical Magazine 82 (July 1981): 210-24.

102nd Illinois Infantry
Sherman in South Carolina, 211ff
Review of troops by Sherman, disease, 212
Lincoln 1864 annual message, support for Lincoln, 212-13
Railroad destruction, 214
Rumors, 215-16
Conscription, Grafted into Army, music, 216
Fort Fisher, Ord, Butler, 216-17
O. O. Howard, 218
Henry W. Slocum, 218
William T. Sherman, 218-19
George H. Thomas, 219
Ulysses S. Grant, 219
Great desire for an education, 220
Welcomes approaching peace, 222
Review of campaign in the Carolinas, 222

Ricks, R. H. "Some Reminiscences of Service in the Confederate Army." University of North Carolina Magazine Old Series Vol. 47 (1916-17): 136-41.

Co. A, 1st North Carolina Infantry, 43rd North Carolina Infantry
One soldier attacks another, 136
Big Bethel, 136-37
Measles, 137
Fredericksburg, 138
Chancellorsville, 138-39
Gettysburg, 139
Lee, discipline, 139

Cold Harbor, 140
Saw last man killed shortly before surrender, 140

Ridgway, Frank. "From the Wilderness of Petersburg: The Diary of Surgeon Frank Ridgway."

Edited by James J. Heslin. New York Historical Society Quarterly 45 (April 1961): 113-140.

74th New York Infantry
Chancellorsville battlefield, bones, 119
Overland campaign, 119ff
Wilderness battle, 120ff
Spotsylvania Courthouse. 124ff
Surgery, amputation, 126
Under fire, 129
Theology discussion among surgeons, lice, 134
Crossing the James River, 135
Confederate artillery fire, 138

Rigby, James H. "Three Civil War Letters of James H. Rigby, A Maryland Federal Artillery Officer." Maryland Historical Magazine 57 (June 1962): 155-60.

Battery A, First Maryland Light Artillery (Federal)
Marching, women, 155-56
Antietam, 156-59
Fredericksburg, 159-60

Riley, Amos Camden. "Confederate Col. A. C. Riley, His Reports and Letters." Edited H. Riley

Bock. Missouri Historical Review 85 (January, April 1991): 158-81, 264-87.

1st Missouri Infantry, 1st and Fourth Missouri (Consolidated), Colonel
Officer election, 162
Health of the company, 165-66
Furloughs and discharges, surgeons, 167-68
Columbus Kentucky, Leonidas Polk, 171
Possibility of parents moving, property, slaves, 172-73
Tents, winter quarters, 173-74
Report on Shiloh, 177-81
Casualties, 180
Corinth, 264-66
Optimistic about war after Shiloh, 265
Joining a guerrilla company? 265
Corinth, 268

Foreign recognition, England, 268
Morale, Confederate victories, 270
Missouri troops, Vicksburg, 273-74
Champion's Hill, 275-80
Casualties, 275-80
Report on Vicksburg, 281-83
Duty against Yankee invaders, 284-85
Death of soldier, 285, 287

Ripple, Ezra H. "A Civil and Sometimes Uncivil War." Edited by Bruce Catton. American

Heritage 15 (October 1964): 50-61. 52nd Pennsylvania—published in book form

Roberts, John W. "The Wilderness and Spotsylvania, May 1-12, 1864: Narrative of a Private Soldiers, John W. Roberts." Edited by Albert Hubbard Roberts. Florida Historical Society Quarterly 11 (October 1932): 38-76.

Co. L, 6th Alabama Infantry
Overland campaign, 58
Heat, 58-59
Wilderness, 59-65
Minor wounded, 63
Spotsylvania, 65ff
Wounded, seeking hospital, 73ff

Roberts, Oran M. "The Battle of Bayou Bourdeau, November 3, 1863: Colonel Oran M.

Roberts' Report." Louisiana History 6 (Winter 1965): 83-92.

11th Texas Infantry, Colonel
Report of the battle, 85ff
Terrain difficulties in making the attack, 88
Importance of skirmishers, 90 et passim

Robertson, Frank S. "Reminiscence of the Years, 1861-1865." Edited L. C. Angle, Jr. and

Edwin T. Hardison. Historical Society of Washington County Virginia Bulletin 23

(1966): 6-39.

48th Virginia Infantry, Captain
University of Virginia, enlistment, 6-7
Western Virginia, camp fever, 7
Jeb Stuart, 8, 13-17

Building a bridge and attacked by Federals, 9-10
Chancellorsville, casualties, 10-17
Stonewall Jackson, 12
Brandy Station, Jeb Stuart, 17-24
Gettysburg campaign, 24-30
Death of Jeb Stuart, 30-31
Deserter execution, 31-32
Building a dam for the Petersburg defenses, 33
Petersburg, Five Forks, 33-34
Rooney Lee, 35
Appomattox, 37-38

Robertson, Martha Wayles. "A Prayer For The Spirit Of Acceptance: The Journal of Martha Wayles Robertson." Edited by Jonathan E. Helmreich. Historical Magazine of the Protestant Episcopal Church 46 (December 1977): 397-408.

Sabbath praying for family, 308
Prayed for strength for various trials, providence, 309
Fort Sumter and beginning of the Civil War, 400
Worries about son in army, 400
Men at war instead of soldiers of the cross, 400-401
Providence and Big Bethel, 401
Clergy and the war, 401
Confederate thanksgiving service, 401
Confederate defeats and chastening of the people, 402
Death of slave, 403
Absent sons, 403
God on side of the Confederacy, 404
Gettysburg, 404
Overland campaign, 405
Petersburg, sinful nation, 406
Slaves running away, 406-7
Lee surrender, sinful nation, 407

Robertson, Melville Cox. "Journal of Melville Cox Robertson." Indiana Magazine of History 28

(June 1932): 116-37.

Co. E. 93rd Indiana Infantry
Idleness and drunkenness, 122
Prison, death of soldier, 129
Prisoners, 131
Religion, thoughts of home, 131
Christmas, 133-34

Robertson, Middleton. "Recollections of Morgan's Raid." Indiana Magazine of History 34 (June 1938): 188-94.

John Hunt Morgan, 188ff
Burying valuables, 189, 193
One man forced to pray for Jefferson Davis and Confederacy, 192

Robertson, Robert S. "Diary of the War by Robert S. Robertson." Edited by Charles N. and

Rosemary Walker. Old Fort News 28 (April/June 1965): 59-118. [pp, 58-85 only]

93rd New York Infantry
Removal of McClellan, Burnside, 66
McClellan farewell, 66-67
Women and Yankees, 69-70
Fredericksburg campaign, 71ff
Burnside, tobacco, 72
Tents chimneys, 72
Burnside at Phillips House, 73-74
Bombardment of Fredericksburg, 73
Sack of Fredericksburg, 74
Recrossing Rappahannock, 76-77
Winter quarters, 77
Christmas, 77
Wood, winter, 77
Reviews end of year, we have accomplished nothing, 78
Bring back McClellan, 78-79
Lincoln, Halleck, Stanton, Blair, 79
New Year's food, 79
Tent, winter quarters, 81
Mules and mud, 81
Mud march, Burnside, Hooker, Sumner, 81-83
Burnside removal, Hooker, 84

Robertson, Robert S. "The Escape of Grant and Meade." Magazine of American History 19

(1888): 248-51.

93rd New York Infantry
Escape of Grant and Meade on way to Spotsylvania Courthouse, 248ff
Route on the Brock Road, 249
Meade, 249
Grant, 250-51

Robertson, Robert S. "Into the Furnace of the Wilderness." Civil War Times Illustrated 8 (April 1969): 4-9, 45-46.

ADC to Nelson Miles
Washington's Birthday, 5
Wilderness, 6ff
Soldier packs, marching, heat, casting aside items, 7

Robinson, Charles. "Fort Pillow 'Massacre', Observations of a Minnesotan." Edited by George Bodnia. Minnesota History 43 (Spring 1973): 186-90.

Photographer
Fort Pillow, 188ff
Recounts the massacre of troops, 188ff
Robbed, 189
Reaction of black troops to Fort Pillow, 190

Rockwell, Alphonso D. "A Ride with Sheridan." Magazine of American History 14 (November 1885): 481-500.

6th Ohio Cavalry
Philip Sheridan, 481ff
Overland campaign, 482ff
Cavalry battles, 483ff
Ashland Station, 486-87
Snake, 487
Horses, 488
Hawes Short, 488-89
Trevelyan Station, 490
Surgeons, 491
Wounded soldier, 493
Winter quarters, 494
Arrest of officer, 495
Sheridan, Five Forks, 496-97
Sheridan and civilian man, 498-99

Rogall, Albert. "The Civil War Diary of Colonel Albert Rogall." Edited by Frank Levstik.

Polish American Studies 27 (Spring/Autumn 1970): 33-79.

27th and 118th United States Colored Troops
Overland campaign, 36ff

Little value for human life, 36
Wilderness, 36-37
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 37-38
Foraging, food, 41
Slaves are thieves, feels sorry for Confederate women, 41
Medical department inhuman, 43-44
Attacked, close call in rifle pit, 46
Black troops, 47
Rascal surgeons, 48
Yankee army, speculators, 49
Petersburg crater, 51
Campaign fought for ambition or money, 52
Chaplain, coward, 53
Lice, 55
Surgeons are thieves, 57
Dream, 58
Black soldiers, 62, 67

Rogan, Lafayette. "A Confederate Prisoner at Rock Island: The Diary of Lafayette Rogan."

Edited by John H. Hauberg. Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 34 (March 1941): 26-49.

Cold weather, mail, 31
Medicine, 32
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 37
Confederate prisoner gave birth to a boy, 37
Exchange rumors, 39-40
War news, 41ff
Copperheads, opposition to the draft, 44
Confederate prisoners being guarded by blacks, slaves, 46
Election of 1864, Lincoln, 47-48

Rogers, Charles Kaufman. "Beleaguered Charleston: Letters from the City, 1860-1864." Edited by Martin Abbott and Elmer J. Puryear. South Carolina Historical Magazine 61 (April.

July, October 1960): 61-74, 164-75, 210-18.

Charleston, 62ff
Anderson move from Moultrie to Sumter, 63
War preparations, 65ff
Lincoln speeches on way to Washington, Jefferson Davis, 66
Fort Pickens, food, box, 66ff
Insects, 67

Food, 69
Morale, apathy, foreign intervention, 70
Pay, clothing, prices, 72
Charleston cannot be taken, 73
Boarding house, 73
Yankees shell Charleston, James Island, 165ff
Stores open, Charleston besieged, 166-67
Fort Sumter, 169
Firemen, 170, 212, 215
Effects of shelling, 171ff
Deserted homes, blockade good, 173
Prices, 173-74
Yankee shelling of Charleston, 210, 218
Food, restaurants, 211
Boarding house, 212
Robberies, 212
Clothing prices, 215

Rogers, John and Richard Rogers. "Two Brothers' Civil War Letters: A Psychological Interpretation." Edited by Michael Barton. Manuscripts 29 (Spring 1977): 94-101.

93rd Pennsylvania Infantry
Peninsula campaign, 97ff
Tired of soldier life, 97
Officers life, 97
March into Richmond, liberty, 98
Death of brother, 98ff
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 98-101
Describes brother's death, 100

Rogers, Marjorie Ann. "An Iowa Woman in Wartime." Annals of Iowa 35 (Winter, Spring 1961): 523-48, 594-615; 36 (Summer 1961): 16-44.

Iowa, doctor's wife, work for Sanitary Commission
Husband an abolitionist, 523
Anxiety, husband enlists, 524
Governor Kirkwood, 524
Responsibilities, 524-25
Sioux Indians, 525-28, 534
Bible reading and prayer meeting, 528-29
Stranger stays the night, suspects he is a spy, 529-34
Dog, 535-538
Measles, 539
Music, John Brown, 540-41

Departure of husband, son, 541-43
 Women, Sanitary Commission, 546-548
 Sanitary Commission, 594ff
 Food contributions, 594-95
 Vicksburg, 595-96
 Assistance for soldier families, 601-2
 Copperheads, guns, cursing Lincoln, women, 606-7
 Wives, mothers and sisters of soldiers, 610-11
 Annie Wittenmyer, 612
 Sanitary Commission work, 612-15
 Death of a soldier, 612-14
 Various reactions of women to Sanitary Commission appeal for aid, 16-17
 Sanitary Fair, 17
 Husband comes home, 17-18
 Electrical battery treatment, 18-19
 Supplies for Sanitary Commission, 19
 Mill burning, 19-20
 Escaped slaves coming into Illinois, women and food, 20-23
 House renting, 24-25
 Indians, 26-30
 Sanitary Commission work for the soldiers, deaths, 30-31
 Contributions for Bibles for the freedpeople, 32
 Son's death, 32-35
 Chicago, 37ff
 Ill and wounded soldiers, sharing food with them, 37-38
 Death of family dog, 40-41
 Lincoln assassination, 41
 Husband's death, killed by guerrillas, 41-43

Rogers, William P. "The Diary and Letters of William P. Rogers, 1846-1862. Edited Eleanor Damon Pace. Southwestern Historical Quarterly 32 (April 1929): 259-99.

2nd Texas Infantry
 Death of brother, 285
 Shiloh, 286-88
 Corinth, 287
 Regimental command, 289-91
 Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 295
 Jefferson Davis, 295
 Iuka, 297-98
 Corinth, 298

Rollins, George S. "'Give My Love to All': Civil War Letters of George S. Rollins." Edited by Gerald S. Henig. Civil War Times Illustrated 11 (November 1972): 16-28.

3rd Maine Infantry
Secessionist students in Washington, 18
Mumps, 20
Washington, 21
Bull Run, 23-24
McDowell blamed, traitor, 24
Maine copperheads, 25
Greeley, Scott, McClellan, 26
Hospital, 27
Fredericksburg, wounded, 28

Roney, Henry Clay. "Reminiscences of the Experiences of a Boy Soldier in the War Between the States." Edited by Carl T. Sutherland. Richmond County History 11 (Winter 1979): 20-25.

Monitor and Merrimac, 21
Winter quarters, Fredericksburg, 22
Hospital, 22
Chancellorsville, 23
Petersburg, wounded, 24

Root, William H. "Experiences of a Federal Soldier in Louisiana in 1863." Edited by Walter Prichard. Louisiana Historical Quarterly 19 (1936): 635-67.

75th New York Infantry
Guard duty, 637
Intelligence from a slave, 638
Ill lieutenant, 639
Letters, mail, 640
Port Hudson campaign, 640ff
Artillery fire, 641
Confederate prisoners, 643
Nathaniel P. Banks and protection of Confederate property, horses, mules, 644-45
Marching, food, 647
Messes, 647
Banks, review of troops, 648
Marching, straggling, 650
Plantations and planters, 651
Slave women following army, dancing, 654
Solomon Northup, plantation, 654
Confederate women, 655
Port Hudson, 656ff
Black troops, prisoners, 658

Bayou Sara, casualties, 660, 662
Artillery bursting shell, death, 663
Rifle pits, artillery fire, 664
Confederate deserters, 664
Alcohol, whiskey ration, 665
114th New York Infantry, 667
Casualties, 667

Roper, John S. "An Interesting Account of the Battle of Missionary Ridge." Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 6 (January 1914): 496-505.

Civilian clerk in Army of the Cumberland, 1913, 1863, account
Missionary Ridge, 497ff

Roseboom, Eugene H. "The Mobbing of the Crisis." Ohio Historical Quarterly 59 (1950): 150-53.

Letter of Samuel C. Trescott, Co. C, 2nd Ohio Cavalry
Copperheads, 150ff
Mob attack, Columbus Crisis, Samuel Medary, Camp Chase, 150-53

Ross, Charles. "Diary of Charles Ross, 1861," Edited by Bertha R. Wright. Vermont History 29 (April 1961): 65-78.

11th Vermont Infantry, 1st Vermont Heavy Artillery
Flag and first mention of civil war, 69
Liberty Pole raising, 69
Mostly farm matters in this diary
Religious services, 71
Teacher, 73ff

Ross, Charles. "Diary of Charles Ross, 1862." Vermont History 30 (April 1962): 85-148.

11th Vermont Infantry, 1st Vermont Heavy Artillery, much time in Washington forts
Teaching, 85ff
Funeral, sermon, 86
Church services and sermons, 94 et passim
War news, 103
War meeting, enlistment, 120
Foot measures for boots, 121
Officer election, 122
Drilling, book on tactics, 122
Religion in camp, 123

Swearing, 124
Photograph, 125
Food prices, 125
Soldier pay, 126-27
Hospital, 133
Drill, 137
Christmas, 147

Ross, Charles. "Diary of Charles Ross, 1863." Vermont History 31 (January 1963): 4-64.

11th Vermont Infantry, 1st Vermont Heavy Artillery, much time in Washington forts
Letters. 8
Much on picket, 18 et passim
Alcohol, drunken orderly, 18-19
Ill soldier, hospital, Bible, 24
Smallpox, 26
Religious service, sermon, 29
Diarrhea, 42 et passim
Alcohol, whiskey, quinine, 44
Officers, despises officers, 44

Ross, Charles. "An Andersonville Prison Diary." Edited by C. M. Destler. Georgia Historical Quarterly 24 (March 1940): 56-76.

11th Vermont
Mother helps wounded soldiers, 58
Cold Harbor, will and testament, 58-59
Libby prison, 59
Andersonville, 62ff
Exchange rumors, 64, 69
Struggle for liberty and freedom, 64-65
Stockade, 66
Lincoln, McClellan, election of 1864, 74
Sabbath, cursing, 75

Ross, Charles. "A Vermonter Returns from Andersonville." Edited by Chester McArthur

Destler. Vermont History 25 (October 1957): 344-51.

11th Vermont Infantry
Has left Andersonville, 345-46
Rheumatism, 346, 349
Casualties of Andersonville, 347
Annapolis Hospital, 348-49
Religious service, 349

Ross, John De Hart. "Harpers Ferry to the Fall of Richmond: Letters of Colonel John De Hart

Ross, C.S.A., 1861-1865." West Virginia History 45 (1984): 159-74.

52nd Virginia Infantry
Stonewall Jackson, 159-60
Courtship, 162
Unionists arrested, 165
Engagement at Green Briar River, 166-67
Winter quarters, 169
Battle of McDowell, 170-71
False report of his death, 171
Gettysburg, 172-73
Charleston, rumors, 173
Peace rumors, Lincoln, Seward, 174
Evacuation of Petersburg, 174

Rowntree, Henry. "Freedmen at Davis Bend, April 1964." Edited by James T. Currie. Journal of Mississippi History 46 (May 1984): 120-29.

Cincinnati Contraband Relief Commission
Poor house conditions of freedpeople, 121, 123, 125
Disease and death, 122
Food, dirt, smallpox, 122
Clothes, 123, 125
Davis Bend, 124ff
Schools, 126
Religion, 126-27

Rowe, George Henry Clay. "Fredericksburg's Political Hostages: The Old Capitol Journal of

George Henry Clay Rowe." Edited by Lucille Griffith. Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 72 (October 1964): 395-429.

Arrested by a Federal officer, to be sent to Washington, 399ff
Prisoners interrogated in Fredericksburg, 401ff
Montgomery Slaughter, 401-2
Ambrose Burnside, whiskey, 403
Prison in Washington, Old Capitol Prison, 403ff
Prison food, 405
Lice, 408, 418
Despondent, felt deserted by man and God, 409
Belle Boyd, 410-11, 419-20

Visit from his wife, 415
Confrontation with a guard, 416-17
Baptist sermon, 419
Refused to be interrogated, 422
Abolitionist minister and wife, 423
Yankee deserters, prison grows more filthy, 424

Rowland, John S. "An Unpublished Account of the Great Locomotive Chase." Edited by James

G. Bogle. Railway and Locomotive Historical Society Bulletin, No. 123 (October 1970):

55-57.

Superintendent, Western & Atlanta Railroad
Detailed account of the chase, 55
Prisoners, 55
Burned bridges, guards, 55-57

Rowland, Thomas. "Letters of Thomas Rowland, C.S.A, from the Camps at Ashland and Richmond, Virginia, 1861." William and Mary Quarterly, 24-35 (January 1916): 145-53.

April 1916: 232-38; October 1916: 73-82, 25: 225-35.

Engineer
Elected officers, 146
Food, 147
Enemy, Yankee officers, 149
Northwestern Virginia, McClellan, 233
Manassas, 234
Man whipped for disparaging several women, 77
Christmas, 82
Burnside naval expedition, 226
Blockade runner, 227
Roanoke Island disaster, 228

Rudolph, James K. "The Rudolph Collection of Civil War Letters." Edited by Dan R. Brook.

West Virginia History 50 (1991): 129-52.

23rd Ohio Infantry, Private
Motive for enlistment, 131
Guerrillas, Princeton, burning, 133-34
Second Bull Run, McClellan, 135
Antietam, courage, 136
John Morgan, protection of Gallipolis, conscription, 138

Vicksburg, 138
Wants out of the army, 140
No reenlistment, 141, 146
Women's dinner for soldiers, 1141
Church, socializing with women, 143
Plans to return home, 147

Ruegger, Edward. "Five Weeks of My Army Life." Edited by Lillian Krueger. Wisconsin

Magazine of History 37 (Spring 1954): 163-68.

9th Wisconsin Infantry
Arkansas, Camden, 164ff
Slow movement of troops, 164
Germans and Irish, 164
Steele, Kirby Smith, 167
No quarter, 168

Ruggles, Daniel. "The Military Orders of Daniel Ruggles: Department of Fredericksburg, April

22-June 5, 1861." Edited by Meriwether Stuart. Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 69 (April 1961): 149-80.

Virginia general
Strength of local Virginia troops, Fredericksburg, 155-56
Appointments, many routine orders, 165

Rumpel, John. "Ohiowa Soldier." Edited by E. H. Rosenberger. Annals of Iowa 36 (Fall 1961):

110-48.

55th Ohio Infantry
Second Bull Run, 111, 117-16
Cross Keys, 112-14
July 4, 116
Pictures of generals, 118-19
Chancellorsville, 119-21
Hospital, 122
Corps badges, 122
Hooker, Meade, Grant, 123-24
Stevenson, Alabama, 127-28
Copperheads, 128-31
Chattanooga campaign, 132-34

Furlough, 134-35
Reenlistment, 135-36
Atlanta campaign, 138ff
Hospital, fever, eyes, 138-
Preaching in hospital, chaplain, 139-40
Capture of Atlanta, 141-42
Foraging, 142-43
Savannah, Christmas, 144-45
Grand Review, 147-48

Rumph, Langdon Leslie. "Letters of a Teenage Confederate." Edited by Henry Eugene Sterkx and Brooks Thompson. Florida Historical Quarterly 38 (April 1960): 339-346.

1st Alabama Infantry
Sand batteries, 340
Gunner on boat eager for a fight, 340
Measles, 341
Tents, 341
Food, 342
Disease, typhoid, measles, 343
Death, disease, 344
Zinc coffin, burial, 344-45
Disease because of heavy guard duty and crowding in camp, 345

Runner, George W. "War on the Mountain Top." Edited by Edward G. Longacre. Manuscripts 33 (Fall 1981): 319-22.

55th Ohio Infantry, Private
1862 Valley campaign, 319-322

Rush, John Wesley. "The Lots of War." Edited by John Sledge. Blue & Gray Magazine 2 (August/September 1984): 55-58.

Macon County Rifles, Captain, 4th Confederate
Quality of Confederate soldiers, 55
Methodist ministers, morality in camp, 55
Women in camp, 56
New Madrid, 56
Prisoner, Camp Chase, 58
Johnson's Island, 58

Russ, William A., Jr., ed. "Civil War Letters Concerning Members of Co. G, 174th Reg., P.V.I."

Susquehanna University Studies 5 (May 1955): 179-220.

174th Pennsylvania Infantry

Duty, home, 181

Anxious for battle, 181

Camp Curtin, 181ff

Punishment of private for striking an officer, 182

Duty, republican, against aristocracy, need for unity, 183-84

Union ticket in Pennsylvania, 184-85

Fredericksburg, Burnside, 188-89

Emancipation Proclamation, black troops, desertion, 189

Local taxes, 192

Boxes, 193

Chancellorsville, 195-96

Army of the Potomac and Lee, 199-200

Conscription, brother should not go into army, commutation, 201-2

New enlistees poorly supplied and equipped, 202

Wounded, Battle of Ringold, 204

Hospital for officers, 204

Atlanta campaign, 204ff

Hooker, fighting at Dallas, 207-8

Losing in regiment, battle, scurvy, 210

Operation without anesthesia, removal of bullet, bone chips, 211

Hospital, 211ff

Gangrene, 212

Petersburg, 212ff

Sutler, 212

Andrew Johnson, McClellan, election of 1864, 215

McClellan, Lincoln, election of 1863, 217-18

Russ, William A., Jr., ed. "Civil War Letters." Snyder County Historical Society Bulletin 3 (No.

9, 1955): 9-15.

49th Pennsylvania Infantry, Company I

Cold Harbor, rifle pits, casualties, 10-11

Confederate artillery fire, 12

1864 Valley campaign, 13-14

Russ, William A., Jr., ed. "Some Letters Reflecting the Civil War Experiences of Company D, 76th Regiment, P. V. I." Susquehanna University Studies 5 (1956): 291-305.

76th Pennsylvania Infantry

Copperheads at home, abolitionists, speculators, 293
David Hunter, slaves, black troops, 293
Trials of soldier life, 295-96
Worries about home, furlough, 296
Determination to continue fighting, need for unity, clean out rebels, 299
Confederates need alcohol, whiskey to fight, 299-300
Confederate refugees, starving children, 300
Fort Wagner, casualties, 301
Woman, wife at home, money, 301

Russell, Ira. "The Aftermath of Prairie Grove: Union Letters from Fayetteville." Edited by William L. Shea. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 47 (Winter 1988): 345-61.

Doctor, Western Sanitary Commission
Hospitals, 348ff
Molasses, 350
McClellan, rumor on Vicksburg, 353
Missouri militia, 354
Marriage, nurse and southern woman, 355
Burnside, McClellan, 355
Report on Hospitals, 358ff

Russell, Mrs. J. W. "Mrs. Russell and the Battle of Raymond, Mississippi." Journal of Mississippi History 25 (January 1963): 38-40.

Raymond, Mississippi
Union soldiers took possession of their place, 39
There were polite men, 39
Ransacked the place and took mules, 39
Slaves and left and came back, said they were tired of Yankees, 40
Thankful she fared as well as she did, 40

Russell, William Howard. "Recollections of the Civil War-V." North American Review 166

(June 1898): 740-51.

Bull Run, Patterson, McClellan, McDowell, 740
Mercier, Lyons, 741
Gurowski, 742-44
American press criticism of Russell, 744
McClellan, 745-47
Seward, Sumner, 747
McClellan, 748-50
Seward, 749

Ryan, Edmund E. "Cahaba to Charleston: The Prison Odyssey of Lt. Edmund E. Ryan." Civil War History 8 (June 1962): 218-27.

17th Illinois Infantry

Captured near Meridian, 219

Cahaba, 219-20

Andersonville, 220

Macon, Camp Oglethorpe, 220ff

Trading for Union money, greenbacks, 221-22, 224

Savannah 211-222

Charleston, 223

Black soldiers, prisoners, 223-24

Under federal fire in Charleston prison, 224

Food, 224

Prisoner exchange, 225-26

Rzhia, John. "With Sherman Through Georgia: A Journal." Georgia Historical Quarterly 41

(September 1957): 288-300.

Burning of Atlanta, 292

Much description of various places and buildings, 293ff

Foraging, 296