

Documents Added as of January 2020

Neil, Alexander. "The Leg That Broke Loose: Recollections of the Battle of New Market."

Edited by Richard R. Duncan. Civil War Times Illustrated 19 (January 1981): 43-45.

12th West Virginia Infantry, Ohio surgeon
New Market battle, Sigel, casualties, hospital, 44-45

Nelson, George Washington, Jr. and Mary Scallaway. "Letters from the Heart." Edited by Chris Fordney. Civil War Times Illustrated 34 (September-October 1995): 28, 73-82.

Hanover Light Artillery, captain
Gettysburg, 28
Winchester, taken prisoner, 28
Johnson's Island, 73
Religious services, 73
Baptism, 74
Shut up in Yankee lines, 74-75
Hospital, Point Lookout, 75-76
Spring as providential harbinger of peace, 76
Fort Delaware, 77-78
Fort Pulaski, 78
Fort Delaware, 79
Worries about him prison, 79
Duty and right, 81
Prisoners discuss taking oath at end of the war, 81-82

Nordholt, J. W. Schulte. "The Civil War Letters of the Dutch Ambassador." Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 54 (Winter 1961): 341-73.

Ambassador Theodorus Marinus Roest van Limburg
Buchanan, 348
Harpers Ferry, John Brown, slavery, 349
Election of 1860, 350
Critical of Union government, 350-51
Northern soldiers, 351
Feared costs of war, 351
Jefferson Davis, 352
Stephen A. Douglas, 352
William H. Seward, 353-54

Confederate privateer Sumter, 354-55
Seward, Union finance, 355-56
McClellan, 357
Antietam, Jefferson Davis, Confederates would win the war, 358
Chancellorsville, 358
Sherman's March, 358
Winfield Scott, 359
Lincoln, 360-64
Lincoln's jokes, 360
Lincoln inauguration, 362
Amnesty and reconstruction, 364-65
Emancipation, 365
Vallandigham, 366
Gettysburg speeches, Lincoln, Seward, Everett, 366-67
German vote, 368
Chase, 368
Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 368-69
Lincoln, second inaugural address, 369
Andrew Johnson, 370-71
Lincoln assassination, 370-71
Critique of American morality and culture, 372-73

Nostrant, John. "I Begin to Know What Hard Times Is." Edited by Michael Barton.

Manuscripts 30 (Spring 1978): 92-94.

111th New York Infantry
Journey to camp, steamboat, 93
Harpers' Ferry, ill, 94

Articles Uploaded as of August 2019

Nichols, George Ward. "How Fort M'Allister Was Taken." Harper's New Monthly Magazine

37 (1868): 368-70.

Strategy, Sherman, March to the sea, 368
Supply shortages, 368
Alcohol, 368-69
Drawing of Fort McAllister
Hazen and capture of Fort Mc Allister, 570

Articles Uploaded as of July 2019

Nichols, George Ward. "The General's Story." Harper's Magazine 35 (1867): 60-74.

Spying, 60

Taken prisoner after Antietam, 60ff
Witnessing Antietam, 61
McClellan sent him over the river to see if Confederates were withdrawing, 61ff
Found Confederate infantry, 63
Help from woman slave, 63
Captured, 65-66
Confederate in retreat as Shepherdstown but no pursuit, 66
Sent to Richmond, 67
Castle Thunder, 68
Prisoners, 68
Escape attempt, tunnel, 69
Libby, 69
Exchanged under a false pretense, 71-73
Seward, 74

“A Night in the Wilderness.” Galaxy 11 (May 1871): 687-93.

Militia enlistment, 687
Nights in Wilderness, Spotsylvania, 688ff
Death of close friend, 688
Hunting for ammunition train, 689
Lay down in the dark near Confederate lines, 690
Lost in the dark and rain, 691

“Notes on the May Campaign on the James River.” United States Service Magazine 3 (January, March 1865): 23-28, 245-54.

Treacherous Confederates fire into boat on the James, 24
Bermuda Hundred, 24
Petersburg, 25ff
Mutilation of Union soldier bodies, 26
Damage to railroad, 27
Drewry’s Bluff, Fort Darling, 247, bottled up, 249
Outpost duty, 249-54

Articles Uploaded as of June 2019

“Northern Prison Life.” Land We Love 2 (November, December 1866, January 1867): 39-44, 102-7, 172-79.

Gettysburg, little destruction by Confederates, 39-40
Reactions of northern people, 40
July 21, 42

Soldier death, 43
Picket's Charge, 44
Wounded, 102
General Kilpatrick, 103
Treatment by Catholic sisters, 104
Baltimore hospital, women, 105-7
Johnson's Island, 172ff
Prison described, 173
Food, 173-74
Prison hospital, 174-75
Letters, 175
Escape attempts, 175
Relieve tedium, recreation, 178
Families and effects and remains of the dead, 176
Hymn book censored, 176-77
Northern Presbyterians, 176-77
Prisoner exchange, 177

Articles Uploaded as of May 2019

Nicholson, William L. "The Engagement at Jenkin's Ferry." Annals of Iowa series 3, 11

(1914): 505-19.

29th Iowa Infantry, surgeon
Burning of supplies in Camden, Arkansas, 505
Marching, 506
Discussion with Confederate women, 506-7
Rain and mud, 508
Federals retreat, 511
House taken for hospital, casualties, 511ff
Confederate officers came up and shot three wounded black soldiers, 512
Several of the wounded died, 513
Amputations, 513
Woman cursed them for using her property, 513-14
Burials, 514
More black soldiers murdered, 515
Prisoner, 515ff
No medicine left, daily deaths, 516
Wounded and sick taken to Camden, 516
Operations and deaths, 518-19

Nickerson, A. H. "Antietam, A Reminiscence." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 343-47.

8th Ohio Infantry
Army of the Potomac march toward Antietam, 343
Thorns tore clothes to shreds, 343
Artillery fire, black servant, 343
Artillery fire kills one soldiers, 344
Coward fled to the rear, 344
Attack on sunken road, 344
Casualties, 345
Wounded, 345
Surgeon, 346
High fever, journey home, 346-47

Documents added as of April 2019

Newberry, Thomas Jefferson. "The Civil War Letters of Thomas Jefferson Newberry." Edited by Enoch L. Mitchell. Journal of Mississippi History 10 (1948): 44-80.

29th Mississippi Infantry
Health of regiment, details to hospital, 45-46
Food, 46
Soldier pay, 47
Corinth, 46ff
Food prices, 51
Salt, 51
Smallpox, 34
Christmas, 34
Stones River, 55-56
Letters, 61
Substitute, 61
Militia, 64 et passim
Father should hire a substitute, 65
Militia, substitute, 70-71
Water, 71
Shooting matches, 73
Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain, 74ff
Fraternization, 74
Joseph Johnston, reorganization of the army, 76
Atlanta campaign, Marietta, 77ff
Casualties, 79
Killed on picket duty, 80

Articles Uploaded as of February 2019

Nance, Washington Pickens. "The Washington Pickens Nancy Letters, March-December 1864."

Edited by R. B. Rosenburg and William C. Duckworth Jr. Alabama Review 54 (January 2001): 33-53.

Co. I, 11th Alabama Cavalry
Confederate money and bonds, 35-36
Nathan Bedford Forest, Brice's Crossroads, 38-41
Battle of Tupelo, 43-45
Battle of Franklin, 52

Nash, Michael. "Letters from a Chaplain in the War of 1861." Woodstock Letters 16 (1887):

20-31, 144-58, 238-59; 17 (1888): 12-29, 135-49, 269-87; 18 (1889): 3-23, 153-68, 319-332; 19 (1890): 22-41, 151-63.

6th New York Infantry, Chaplain
Appointment as chaplain, 20ff
Good regiment, many Catholics, 21
Protestant officers happy to have him, 22-24
Visiting the sick, 24ff
Confessions, 24-26
Protestant ministers contrasted with Catholic priest, dying soldier, 27
Poor Protestant ministers rush to become chaplains, 27-28
Protestant minister preaches anti-Catholic sermon, 30
Fort Pickens, 154ff
Soldier pay, alcohol, 145-48
Soldiers refuse to board the Vanderbilt, 146-47
Officer dismissal, 149
Drunken soldiers jump overboard, drowning, 149
Mass on ship, 150-51
Sea sickness, 150-51
Ministers preaching on deck, 152
Chose to have a priest as chaplain rather than a Protestant minister, 152
Landing on Santa Rosa Island, 238ff
Zouaves landing in the water, 241
Land of priest's chapel items, 241-42
Water, 246
Fort Pickens, 247ff
Soldiers and religion, chaplain, priest, 248
Water, food, 249-50
Heat, water, 251
Alligator, 252
Mass, 253

Accidental shooting, 255
 Rainy season, 257
 July 4, 258
 Box, diarrhea and dysentery, 12-13
 Religious duties, Irish Catholics, regulars, 13
 New York Herald, war correspondent, 14-15
 Fort Pickens, alligators and snakes, 16
 Crowds of young men threaten the forts, 16
 Adam Slemmer, and the Brooklyn, Pensacola Navy Yard, 19-25
 Unload of the Vanderbilt, 28-29
 Santa Rosa Island, 135 et passim
 Alligators, 138
 Mass, 141
 Music, choir, 141-42
 Officer accommodate those who wish to see the chaplain, confession, 270-71
 Soldiers, Catholics, 271-72
 Rumors that he would leave the army because of health, 271-72
 Snakes, 272-73
 Alligators, 273
 Danger to soldiers, confession, 274
 Naval attack on a Confederate vessel, 273-78
 Dog, 278-282
 Tent, mass, 282
 Fasting, communion, 283
 Discipline, 285-86
 Guard duty, 286-87
 Night attack by Confederates, 4-15
 Casualties, confessions, 7-13
 Dying soldier, 11
 Prisoners, fraternization, 13-14
 Burials, 16-17
 Deserter, wounded, Protestant vs. Catholic, 18-19
 Mass, 20-21
 Artillery, 153
 Religious duties, 154
 Bombardment of Fort Pickens, 154-66
 Catholics and artillery piece, 157
 Wounded soldiers, 166
 Accidental explosion, death, 166-67
 Confession, 319
 Heat, 319-20
 Bathing, 320
 Protestants vs. Catholics in death, 320-21
 Water, 321
 Officers, religion, mass, 323-24
 Dog, 324-25

Protestant ministers in the regiment, foraging, 325-27
 Officer discipline, guard duty, 327-330
 Sleeping guard, desertion, 330-31
 Guard and deserter, 331-32
 Box, sermon, Virgin Mary, 22-23
 Protestants vs. Catholics, 23-24
 Chapel, 23-26
 Mass, sermon, 26
 Christmas, 28
 Mass, 28-29
 Key West, 29
 Confessions, 31
 Sailor critique of Protestant ministers, 32-33
 Sailors, mass, officer protocol, 34
 Confession, 39
 Medals, beads, prayer books, soldiers, 154
 Priest in camp, 155
 Young drummers and fifers, 155-56
 Guard duty, 156-57
 Camp routine, 154-59
 First communion of drummer boys, 159-60
 Temptations in camp, 160-61
 Religion before battle and after, 160-61
 Ducks and geese, 161-62
 Moon blindness, 162-63

Neff, William Howard. "The Siege of Cincinnati by a Pearl St. Rifle." Edited by Louis L.

Tucker. Bulletin of the Historical and Philosophical Society of Ohio 20 (October 1962):
 255-73.

Memoir, Lieutenant Colonel, Cincinnati Rifles Home Guard
 Organization of home guard, 257
 Drilling, 257
 Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 258ff
 Vulnerability and value of Cincinnati, 258
 Mayor George Hatch, 258
 General Lewis Wallace, 258ff
 City placed under martial law, 259
 Armory, drilling, 260
 Ormsby Mitchel, 262ff
 Women donated blankets, 263
 Jeered by Confederate sympathizers in Covington, 263
 Rifle pits, 264
 Food, soldiers with shovels, 265

Have black men do the cooking, 265-66
Much complaining over digging rifle pits and entrenchments, 368
Anticipated an attack that was not made, 371
Surgeon hospital, 371

Nelson, Knute. "Some Civil War Letters of Knute Nelson." Edited by Millard L. Gieske.

Nortwegian-American Studies 23 (1967): 17-50.

4th Wisconsin Infantry, no pagination in digitized version [citations are to letter numbers]
Food, eating, daily routine, 1
Departure of soldiers, food, journey to camp, 2
Few enlistments at home, health of regiment, Camp Randall, Dix, 3
Ship island, anxious for combat, New Orleans, Mobile, 4
Father's health, help for the harvest, New Orleans, food, 5
Soldier pay, Baton Rouge, Vicksburg, canal, 6
Anxious for battle, 7
Port Hudson, dead and wounded men, 8
Slave and master, 9
Port Hudson, unknown future, 10
Confederates and Mexico, black soldiers, Christmas, 11
Banks, Red River campaign, schools for slaves, freedpeople, small pox, measles, 12
God, religion, human means, 13
Death, Red River campaign, casualties, 14

Nelson, Robert Andrew. "My Dear Son': Letters to a Civil War Soldier." Edited by James G.

Nelson. Filson Club History Quarterly 56 (April 1982): 151-70.

Doctor and Baptist minister, Mercer County, Kentucky, son was in 21st Kentucky, Sgt.
McClellan, election of 1864, 152
Lincoln and bayonet rule, 154
McClellan and peace, 156
Peace prospects in 1865, 157
Bible, end times, war as punishment for sin, 157-58
Marriage, 160-61
Battles of Franklin and Nashville, 163-64

Nemo, "Shiloh: "Where Death 'Knows No Distinction': 'Nemo,' 6th Ohio Infantry at the Battle of Shiloh." Edited by Gary Ecelbarger. Civil War: The Magazine of the Civil War Society 50 (April 1995): 66-69.

6th Ohio Infantry
Battle of Shiloh, 66ff

Casualties, 66
Close call, 67
Second Day, April 7, 67-68
Battlefield after the battle, 68-69

Nesbitt, Philander H. "Eight Months in Missouri: The Civil War Letters of Philander H.

Nesbit." Edited by Normal Stewart. Missouri Historical Review 75 (April 1981): 261-84.

1st Missouri Cavalry (Union), Corporal
Sterling Price, Roan's Tanyard Raid
Relationship with woman broken off, 263-64
Jefferson Barracks, 265-66
Food and eating, 266
Wary of women after being jilted, 267
Pursuit of Sterling Price, 271ff
Scouting, taking prisoners, searched house, 271-72
Soldier life, foraging, food, 273
Cardplaying, swearing, 274
Captured Confederates with wagon and guns, 278
Captured and burned Confederate camp, 279
Roan's Tanyard battle, Silver Creek, 281-83

New Sweden, Iowa. "Civil War Letters to New Sweden, Iowa." Edited by Earl D. Check.

Swedish-American Historical Quarterly 36 (No. 1, 1985): 3-25.

Letters of two soldiers and their relatives
Photograph, 6
Terrible war and husband gone, 9
Election of 1862, Republicans, Emancipation Proclamation, 9-10
Confederate conscription, overseer exemption, 10
Farm matters, 12ff
Death of son, religion, divine grace, 16-17, 19
Governor Kirkwood visits Iowa troops, 20
Nature of Christian faith, 24-25

Niblock, James. "Discord in Civil War Volunteer Units—An Incident Explained." Edited by Ruthanne Heriot. Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine 63 (October 1980): 367-72.

United States Zouave Cadets, 28th Pennsylvania Infantry
Excelsior Brigade, Sickles, 367ff
Conflict with Sickles and guards, 368

Complaints about food, 370
Newspaper accounts of the troubles with the company, 371-72

Nichols, N. K. "The Reluctant Warrior: The Diary of N. K. Nichols." Edited by T. Harry

Williams. Civil War History 3 (March 1957): 17-39.

101st New York Infantry
Accidental shooting, 22
Officers, 23
Washington, 25
Burial ground, 28
Accidental shootings, 28
Peninsula campaign, Seven Davis, 29ff

Nichols, Sayres Ogden. "Fighting in North Carolina Waters." Edited by Roy F. Nichols. North Carolina Historical Review 40 (January 1963): 75-84.

U.S.S. Miami
Battle of Plymouth, 77-82
Casualties, surgeon, amputation, 77
Wounded men, 79
Attacked by the Roanoke, 82-83

Nichols, William E. "Fighting Guerrillas in West Virginia." Civil War Times Illustrated 6

(April 1967): 20-25.

153rd Ohio Infantry
John H. McNeill, guerrilla, 20ff
Romney, West Virginia, 21

Niles, Orasmus Elliott. "Copperhead and Unionist: An Ex-Vermonters Tells His Father Why He Opposes the Civil War." Vermont History 41 (Winter 1973): 1-6.

Ohio
Religion, 2
His brother fought, 2
Notes Republicans using force, 3
War caused by Puritan fanaticism, 3
Hypocritical prayers, 3
Great folly and shame of this war, 4
Seward, Lincoln, Chandler, irrepressible conflict, 4
Copperheads vs. abolitionists, 4

Vallandigham, 5
Lincoln, New England, 6
Election of 1864, 7

Nixon, Liberty Independence. "An Alabaman at Shiloh: The Diary of Liberty Independence Nixon." Edited by Hugh C. Bailey. Alabama Review 11 (April 1958): 144-55.

26th Alabama Infantry
Enlistment, 145
Mobile, 146
Swearing, vulgar reading, 147
Shiloh campaign, 148ff
Water, 149
Marching, 150
Thoughts before going into battle, religion, 151-52
Battle of Shiloh, 152-53

Noble, Sylvester. "Vett Noble of Ypsilanti: A Clerk for General Sherman." Edited by Donald W. Disbrow. Civil War History 14 (March 1968): 15-39.

14th Michigan Infantry, Sergeant
John Pope, harsh discipline, 16
Marching, straggler, 17
Complains of captain and wife, 18
Women in camp, 19
Discipline, 20
Daily routine, 20
Uniform, clothes, 21
Hostility to colonel, social affair, 22
Discipline, insubordinate language, 23
Foraging, 24
Forced woman to feed them, 24
Slave servant, 24-25
Music, 25
Women, capture of Confederate guerrilla, 26
In love with Tennessee woman, Franklin, Tennessee, 26-29
Confederate women, 28-29
Entrenchments, digging, 31
Fraternization, 31
John Bell Hood, 32
Sherman, 32, 34
Battle of Atlanta, 33
March to the sea, 34
Sherman, eastern troops vs western troops, 35

Sherman's South Carolina campaign, 35-36
Burning of Columbia, 36
Sherman, serenaded with music, 36
Need for education, 37
John Sherman and William T. Sherman, 37
Sherman, Stanton, Halleck, 38
Washington, Grand Review, 38-39

Norrell, William O. "Memo Book: William O. Norrell—Co. B 63rd Ga. Regt. Vols. Mercer's Brigade, Walker's Division, Hardee's Corps, Army of Tennessee." Journal of Confederate History 1 (Summer 1988): 49-82.

63rd Georgia Infantry
Atlanta campaign, 51ff
Casualties, 52
Loss of a chicken, 56
Food, 59
Federal assaults on Confederate lines, 60
Picket firing, casualties, 61
Box, spoiled food, 62
Stench of dead bodies, 62-63
Food diarrhea, opium, 63-64
Boxes for the sick, robbed, 66
Small arms fire with Yankees, casualties, 70
Box shared, 72
Joseph E. Brown, clothes for soldiers, 75

Northrop, Lucius Bellinger. "Some Letters of Lucius Bellinger Northrop, 1860-1865." Virginia
Magazine of History and Biography 68 (October 1960): 456-77.

Confederate Commissary General
South Carolina secession, Georgia, 458
Yankee hatred of Confederates, 459
Slaveholders, John Brown, and secession, 459-60
Secession, Buchanan, Sumter, 460
Jefferson Davis, 461, 463
Ministers and secession, 461
Secession, Lincoln, nonslaveholders, 462
Peter N. Lynch, 463ff
Making enemies by being a stickler on paying bills, 463
Leroy P. Walker, 464
Montgomery, or Richmond as Confederate capital, 464
Prisoners and retaliation, 464

Jefferson Davis, congressional committee. Rude to congressmen, 465-66
Catholics, Rosecrans, Corcoran, 467
Catholics, Pope, war, Yankees, 468
Soldier rations, food, 470
Impressment, 471
Provisions, food, impressment, Confederate money, Trenholm, 472-74

Norton, Levi C. "Such a Fearful Accident." Civil War Times Illustrated 11 (October 1972): 19-20.

Chaplain, 72nd New York Infantry
Confederate artillery, 20
Shell explosion, wounded and dead, 20

Norton, Oliver W. "Vincent's Brigade on Little Round Top." Edited by James R. Wright.

Gettysburg Magazine 1 (July 1989): 41-44.

83rd Pennsylvania Infantry, Private, bugler and color bearer
Strong Vincent, 41ff
General Warren, 42
Vincent wounded and dying, 43-44

Nott, Charles C. "A Yankee in the Backwoods." Civil War Times Illustrated 8 (January 1970): 10-14.

5th Iowa Cavalry, Captain
West Tennessee
Poor part of the state, unsmiling people, 16
Women, 16-
Sabbath, 17
Forest, 11
Houses, 11
Planters and slaves, 12-13
Women, chewing tobacco, hate Yankees, 13
Unionist woman, 14
Music, 14

Nourse, Margaret Tilloston Kemble. "'Strangers and Pilgrims': The Diary of Margaret Tilloston Nourse, 4 April—11 November 1862." Edited by Edward D. C. Campbell.

Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 91 (October 1983): 440-508.

Move from Georgetown, D.C. to Fauquier County, Virginia
 Leaving Georgetown, 445
 Housing on the way, food costs, 448
 Sabbath, providence, 450
 Horse accident, 450
 Union soldiers try to buy food, 452
 Sabbath, trouble with children, 453
 Slaves, quarrels, 455
 Slaves, 457-58
 England and France, foreign recognition for Confederacy, 459, 465
 Federal soldiers at tea, 459-60
 Deserters, killings, 460
 Soldier and sheep, 463
 1862 Valley campaign, 465
 Fears breakup of Union, 465-66
 Pained by secession talk, 467
 War rumors, 468
 Political discussion, crying, 469
 Trouble with a general, food, provost marshal, 470
 Soldiers want to milk a cow, 471
 Federal troops visiting, milking cow, 472
 July 3, 473
 Winfield Scott, 473
 Wants war ended but hates rebellion, 473
 Soldier tries to buy bacon with counterfeit Confederate note, worries about conscription, 474
 Problem with soldiers on their land, 475
 Butler woman order, 475
 Opening graves in South Carolina for metal coffins, 476
 Army to take what they want and give receipts, 476-77
 Diphtheria, 478
 Dependence on providence, 478
 Confiscation act, 478
 Second Bull Run, Manassas, 483ff
 Soldiers taking food, 484
 Children dying, 384-85
 Soldiers taking everything, 485
 Soldiers threaten woman, 485
 Soldiers demanding food, 486
 Cavalry came, captured Confederates, one man arrested, stripped slave woman, 488
 Confederate soldier, 488
 Pope orders, Burnside, McDowell, 489
 Arrests in Fredericksburg, 489-90
 Destruction in a house, 490
 Richmond battle, northern troops shooting the wounded, 490-91
 Rumor about death of McClellan and surrender of Wool, 493

Decision to go back north, 493, 502
Doubts her religious faith, 496
Emancipation Proclamation, 497
James Brooks arrested in New York, 498
McClellan and alcohol, 499
Slave sale, runaway, 499, 501
Food prices, 501
Prices, 502
Soldiers being fed, 506
New York elections, Horatio Seymour, 506
Guard on property, neighbors bothered by soldiers, 507
McClellan removal and Burnside, 507

Nunnally, Matthew. "Captain Matthew Nunnally: Letters from the 11th Georgia Infantry."

Edited by Keith Bohannon. Military Images 10 (September/October 1990): 14-15.

11th Georgia Infantry, Captain
West Point summer encampment, 14
First Manassas, Bull Run, 14
Peninsula campaign, mud, 15
Second Manassas, Bull Run, 15
Picket firing, Fredericksburg, 15
John Bell Hood, 15
Gettysburg, 15