

Documents Added as of January 2020

McArthur, Henry S. "A Yank at Sabine Pass." Civil War Times Illustrated 12 (December 1973): 38-43.

75th New York Infantry
USS Clifton
Richard Taylor, Donaldsonville, 38
Tents, 38
On boats headed for Texas, 39
Sabine Pass, 39ff
Captured, boat captured, 42-43

McClanahan, John. "Fort Donelson in October, 1862." Lincoln Herald 69 (Summer 1967): 92-96.

83rd Illinois Infantry, Captain
Fort Donelson, illness in regiment, diarrhea, fever. 93-94
Skirmishing, prisoners, 93-94

Mead, Christopher. "Baptism of Fire at Chancellorsville." Edited by Edward G. Longacre.

Manuscripts 35 (Winter 1983): 59-63.

12th New Jersey Infantry, Corporal
Chancellorsville campaign, 60-63

Mesnard, Luther B. "The Rise and Survival of Private Mensard." Edited by Robert Hoffsommer. Civil War Times Illustrated 24 (January 1986): 18-25; February 1986): 10-17, 44-45.

55th Ohio Infantry, Private, 25th Ohio Infantry, Major, Memoir
Mess, shanty, 20
Cards, gambling, 20
Eleventh Corps generals, 21
Furlough, 21
Troops reviewed by Lincoln, 21
Guard duty, trick, 21-22
Tobacco, 22
Dancing, 22
Chaplain, 22
Hooker, 22

Corduroy roads, 22
Chancellorsville, 22-25
Gettysburg, 13-14
Wounded, 13
Field hospital, 14
Philadelphia hospital, 15
Infected arm, 15
Bummers, 15
Chattanooga, Hooker, Lookout Mountain, 16
Food, rations, 16
Orchard Knob, 17
Knoxville, East Tennessee campaign, 16, 44
Christmas, food, 44
Reenlistment, 44-45
Hilton Head, 45
Fort Pulaski, 45

Moore, William H. "Writing Home to Talladega." Civil War Times Illustrated 29 (November-December 1990): 56, 71-74, 76-78.

25th Alabama Infantry, Lieutenant
Chickamauga, 71
Casualties, 71
Marriage, 71
Chattanooga, 71ff
Thoughts of home, 71-72
Conscription officers, 72
People at home forget them, 72
Women reading at home, 72
Officer election, brother AWOL, 73
Railroad travel, 74
Conditions in Talladega, 74
Joseph Johnston, 74
Review of the army, 76
Atlanta campaign, 76ff
Trouble with officers, 77
Moore mortally wounded, 78

Moran, Frank E. "Colonel Rose's Tunnel at Libby Prison." Century Magazine 35 (March 1888): 770-790.

73rd New York Infantry
Libby prison, tunnel escape, 770ff
Thomas E. Rose, 770ff
Libby prison described, 770
Chickamauga prisoners, 771-72
Donated clothing, 773
Work on tunnel, 773ff
Organizing escape party, 774
Working on the opening, 775-77
Working in sewers, odor, 778
Air for the digger, 779
Roll call, fooling the guards, 780
Rats, 781
Breakthrough covered with a plank, 783
Escape and fate of various parties, 784ff
Drawing of Libby and escape tunnel, 786-87
Guards arrested, 787

---

Documents added as of October 2019

Morton, Philo S. and John P. Wilson. "A Scratch with the Rebels." Edited by Carolyn P.

Scribner. Civil War Times Illustrated 32 (January-February 1994): 49.

100th Pennsylvania Infantry, Lieutenant and Private Describes how James McCaskey was killed at Secessionville, 49

---

Documents added as of August 2019

McCardle, William H. "William H. McCardle's Account of the Great War Between the States."

Edited by Charlotte Capers. Journal of Mississippi History 9 (1947): 174-81.

Odds against the Confederacy, 174
Farragut and Vicksburg, 176
Ram, Arkansas, 176-77
Van Dorn and Holly Springs, 177-78

Vicksburg campaign, 178ff
Pemberton, 179-81

McCook, Daniel. "The Second Division at Shiloh, by a Staff Officer." Harper's New Monthly Magazine 28 (1863-64): 828-33.

Grant and Buell heading to Shiloh and he had to look after embarkation of troops, 829
Rumors of defeat, 829
Great confusion on landing, 830
Second day of fighting, 830ff
Found dead friend in a Confederate uniform, 831, burial, 832-33
Artillery, 832

McCook, Edward Moody. "Six Weeks in the Mud." Overland Monthly 2 (March 1869): 215-21.

Shiloh, 215ff
Confederate exultant on evening of April 6, 216
Dead on the battlefield, 216-17
Shiloh caused realization that war would last longer, 217
Lay in mud after Shiloh, Halleck, 217
Grant, 217
Horrible rain and mud, 217ff
Governors arrive looking after volunteers, 218
Surgeons, 218-19
Chaplains, 219-220
Shiloh, 221

McNamara, J. H. "My Knapsack." Land We Love 6 (February 1869): 316-19.

Secession, 316
Drill, 317
Camp Jackson, 317
Alcohol, 318

Maltman, John Scott. "Andersonville Prison." Michigan University Magazine 3 (January-July 1869); 134-37, 178-82, 221-26, 270-75, 311-17, 343-51, 392-400.

17th Michigan Infantry
Overland campaign, 135
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 135-36
Taken prisoner, 136
Food, 137

Robbery, 137
Railroad journey, 178ff
Danville, 179
Charlotte, Confederate women, 180
Andersonville, 181ff
Guard camps, 221
Sergeant of ninety, dividing rations, food, 222
Prisoners hungry for news, 223
Food, 225
Describes old prisoners, 226
Filth, 226
Crowded conditions, 271-73
Exposure, 273-75
Food and hunger, 311-
Prison ate officer's dog, 314
Dead line, 316
Sickly marches, stream, 343-44
Depravity, murder, stealing, 344
Raiders, 344-47
Escape attempts, 347-48
Hospital, 349-50
Death and corpses, 350
Prisoner exchange, 350-51
Florence prison, 392
Escape, 393
Captured by Confederate scouts, slave cabinet, 397
Florence, 398
Food, whipping, 398-99
Florence hospital, 399

Matteson, Elisha C. "Dear Sister—They Fight to Whip." Civil War Times Illustrated 30

(May/June 1991): 16-17, 58-59.

9th Iowa Infantry
Vicksburg. Yazoo River expedition, 16-17
Burial truce, 17
Health, 58
General Steele, alcohol, 58
Canal, 58
Smallpox, 59
Food supplies and Confederates, 59
Mortally wounded, death, 59

Maury, Dabney Herndon. "The Campaign Against Grant in North Mississippi." Southern Magazine 11 (November 1872): 598-605.

Van Dorn and Corinth, 598-603
Sterling Price, 598
Confederate numbers, 599
Critique of the battle of Corinth, 603-5
Bowen and Van Dorn, 604-5
Rosecrans, 605

Maury, Dabney Herndon. "The Defence of Mobile in 1865." Southern Magazine 12 (1873): 289-95.

Trying to force a siege of Mobile, 289
Spanish Fort, 289-91
Fort Blakely, 291
Evacuation of Mobile, 291
Surrender at Meridian, 292. 295
Conduct of troops during defense of Mobile, 292-93
Spanish Fort, ammunition, artillery, 293-95

Maury, Dabney Herndon. "Grant's Campaign in North Mississippi in 1862." Southern Magazine 13 (November 1873): 410-17.

Van Dorn falling back from Corinth, 410
Morale, 411
Narrow escape across the Hatchie River, 412
Holly Springs, failure of Grant, 413-414
Sherman, Stephen D. Lee, Chickasaw Bayou, 414-16
Criticizes Sherman, 417

Maury, Dabney Herndon. "Recollections of the Campaign Against Grant in North Mississippi in 1862-63 of Generals Van Dorn and Price Against Grant." Southern Magazine 3 (May 1872): 607-12.

Will not criticize any of the generals, 607
Van Dorn, Sterling Price, Corinth, 608
Iuka, battle, 609-12

---

Documents added as of July 2019

McMahon, Martin Thomas. "The Sixth Army Corps." United States Service Magazine 5

(March, April 1866): 204-14, 289-300.

William B. Franklin, 204
Seven Days, 205-6
Cheering McClellan in Washington, 206
Antietam, 207
Supplies, Halleck, 207-8
Removal of McClellan, 208
Fredericksburg, 208-9
John Sedgwick, 209ff
Chancellorsville, Salem Church, 209-212
Gettysburg, 212-14
Defending lack of pursuit after Gettysburg, 289-90
Emory Upton, 292
Rapidan, 291
Winter quarters, women, 292
Sedgwick, 292
Mine Run, 293
Overland campaign, 294ff
Wilderness, 293
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 295-96
Cold Harbor, 296
1864 Valley campaign, 297
Fisher's Hill, 297
Guerrillas, 297
Cedar Creek, 297-98
April 2 Petersburg breakthrough, 299-300

Morgan, Michael R. "From City Point to Appomattox with General Grant." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 41 (September-October 1907): 227-255.

Chief Commissary of Subsistence
Grant and Overland campaign, 228ff
Grant described, 229-30
Characteristics of Grant, 230
George H. Thomas, 231
Grant's camp, 232
Dutch Gap canal, 232-33
Lincoln in 1864, 233
Soldiers and McClellan, 234
Mary Lincoln, 235

Explosion at City Point, Grant, 236
Hampton raid on Federal cattle, Grant, Stanton, 236-37
Thomas W. Sherman. 237
Fort Fisher, Rawlins, General Terry, 240-42
Family, no political ambition, 243
Grant as a writer, 244
Grant and strategy in spring of 1865, 245
Grant, Lincoln, and fall of Petersburg, 246-47
Appomattox campaign, singing, music, 247-48
Appomattox surrender, 249-53

---

Documents added as of June 2019

McBryde, John Lauren. "Random Recollections of an Octogenarian." Sewanee Review 31

(1923): 50-59.

Sumter, fatal accident with bayonet in January 1861, 50-51
Sullivan's Island, accident, oysters, poor marksmanship of artillery, 52-53
First shots in Charleston, 53-55
Edmund Ruffin, 53-54
Enlistment, 55-56
Foraging, 57
Judah P. Benjamin, meeting in African church, failure of Hampton Roads conference, 58-59

McClure, Alexander K. "The Martyrdom of Three Heroes of the Civil War." Book of the Royal Blue 5 (July 1902): 12-16.

Injustice on Fitz John Porter, Curtin, Patterson, Lincoln regretted judgment, 12-15
Gouverneur Kimble Warren, Five Forks, Grant, Sheridan, 15
William A. Hammond, 15-16

McClure, Alexander K. "Why McClellan Failed as a Leader of the Union Army." Book of the Royal Blue 5 (June 1902): 5-9.

Grant an offensive general and McClellan a defensive general, 5
Great organizer and universally loved, 6
Lincoln showed great patience with McClellan, 7
Notes McClellan's cautious approach at Antietam, 8

"Maj. Gen. Sterling Price." Land We Love 1 (September 1866): 364-74.

Biographical sketch, 364ff
Arkansas secession and Price, 367
Ben McCulloch, 368ff
Wilson's Creek, 368-69
Earl Van Dorn, 371-72
Jefferson Davis, 372-73

Morgan, Michael R. "A Glimpse of the Great War of the Rebellion." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 45 (1909): 161-70.

Fort Monroe, secession, newspapers, 161
Oath, 162
Some southern officers left the fort, 162'
Promotions in rank, 163
General Thomas Sherman, 164ff
Ships, 165
Port Royal, 165-67

Munford, Thomas T. "The Amenities of War." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 49 (1911): 419-20.

Charles Stone, A. P. Hill, fraternization, 419-20

Munford, Thomas T. "A Confederate Cavalry Officer's Reminiscence." Journal of the United States Cavalry Association, 4 (1891): 276-88; 5 (1892): 65-75.

2nd Virginia Cavalry
Arms, 276
Camp slaves, 276
Battles, 277
Affection for soldiers in the regiment, 278
Record of service, 279
Joseph Johnston, 280-82
Officer elections, 283
1862 Valley campaign, 283-88
Turner Ashby, 286
Pope, Second Bull Run campaign, 67
1862 Valley campaign, Jackson, Ashby, 67-70

---

Documents added as of May 2019

McBride, George W. "My Recollections of Shiloh." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 8-12.

15th Michigan Infantry
Chaotic conditions on landing, 8
Our men without cartridges, 8
Fires his first shot, 9
See blackened faces of fiendish foes, 9
Irish Iowan, 10
Skulkers at river bank, 10
Desperate and heroic struggle toward evening, 10-11
Enemy drive back before Buell's men arrived, 11-12

McBride, George W. "Shiloh, After Thirty-two Years." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 303-10.

15th Michigan Infantry
Veterans assemble for 32nd anniversary of the battle, 303ff
Landscape much changed, 304
Description of the ground, 305-6
Sunken road, 306
Soldiers on both sides deeply touched, 307
Burial of hatred, 310

McClure, William T. "The Fourth Kansas Militia in the Price Raid." Transactions Kansas State

Historical Society 8 (1904): 149-51.

4th Kansas Infantry (Militia)
Fort Leavenworth, 149
Passes, 149
Shawnee Mission to Independence, 150
Fighting in campaign against Sterling Price, 150-51

Mackley, John. "The Civil War Diary of John Mackley." Edited by Mildred Throne. Iowa

Journal of History 48 (April 1950): 141-68.

2nd Iowa Infantry, Sergeant
Enlistment, officers election, 143-48
Monroe City skirmish, casualties, 150-51
Confederate prisoners, 160-61
Destruction of items in McDowell College Museum, 162

Manning, Edwin C. "A Kansas Soldier." Transactions Kansas State Historical Society 10

(1908): 421-28.

2nd Kansas Cavalry
General James G. Blunt, 421ff
Charging on some Confederate forces, 421ff
Samuel J. Crawford, 421-28
Cane Hill, 422
Jenkin's Ferry, 422
Prairie Grove, 422
Pleasanton, 423
Vincent B. Osborne, 2nd Kansas Infantry, 425-26
Powell Clayton, 1st Kansas Infantry, 426-27
Cyrus Leland, 10th Kansas Infantry, 427

Martin, George W. "A Kansas Soldier's Escape from Camp Ford, Texas." Transactions Kansas State Historical Society 8 (1904): 405-15.

6th Kansas Cavalry
Robert Henderson, enlistment, 406
Red River campaign, 406
Foraging, 407
Steele's Arkansas campaign, 407
Battle of Poison Spring, 407-8
Henderson taken prisoner, 408
Camp Ford Prison, Tyler, Texas, 408
Food, Shreveport, 409
Prison hospital, 409
Escape attempt, tunnel, 410
Four men shot at dead line, 410
Release if oath to Confederacy taken, 410-11
Escape, 411
Help from slaves, 412
Unionists, food, 412
Ate a skunk, 413
Captured by guerrillas and pretended to be an Iowan, 413
Escape, 413
Black soldiers, Fort Smith, 414

Martin, John A. "Some Notes on the Eighth Kansas Infantry and the Battle of Chickamauga: Letters of Col. John A. Martin." Edited by Martha B. Caldwell. Kansas Historical Quarterly 13 (1944): 139-45.

8th Kansas Infantry
Corinth, Mississippi, 139
Paperwork in difficult circumstances, 139-40

Chickamauga, 140ff
Sheridan, 141ff
Military occupation, 144
Recruiting, 145

---

Documents added as of April 2019

McBride, George W. "With Ewing at Tunnel Hill." Blue and Gray 4 (1894): 221-26.

15th Michigan Infantry
Capture Confederate pickets along Chickamauga Creek, 221
Tunnel Hill, 222ff
General Morgan Smith, 224
Corse, 226

McClain, David. "The Story of Old Abe." Wisconsin Magazine of History 8 (1925): 407-14.

8th Wisconsin Infantry
Eagle captured in spring of 1861 captured by young Indian, 407
Eagle was purchased and brought to Co. C of the 8th Wisconsin, 407
Eagle was cheered at Camp Randall, 408
Eagle briefly flew away but brought back by a policeman, 408
Eagle screamed through battle of Corinth, 409
Confederates wanted to kill or capture eagle Old Abe, 410
Corinth, 411
Various eagle bearers, 412 et passim
Eagle bearers' duties, 413-14

McCreary, James Bennett. "The Journal of My Soldier Life." Register of the Kentucky

Historical Society 33 (1935): 97-117, 191-211.

11th Kentucky Cavalry (Confederate)
Richmond, Kentucky battle, 98
Raising regiment, enlistment, 98-100
Meditates on past and his country, arrayed against Unionist family members, 98-99
Inauguration of Governor Hawes, Confederate governor of Kentucky, 100
Soldiers shot by a guerrilla, 100
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, retreat, 100-1
Cumberland Gap, 102
First death in the regiment, 102
Knoxville, food, 102
Officer election, 103
Dinner, woman, piano music, alcohol, 104
Murfreesboro, 106

Hartsville battle, Bragg, 107-8
 Troop review, brigade, 109
 Return to Kentucky, 110
 Christmas, 110
 Elizabethtown, 110
 Captured Yankee stories, Christmas food, 111
 Presented with sword, 112
 John Hunt Morgan, 112-14 et passim
 Bragg usually retreats, 114
 Fired on by guerrillas, 191
 Political speech, 192
 Soldier died of fever, wife arrived too late, 194
 Greasy Creek battlefield, 195-96
 Horses killed on march, 196
 Woman and daughter, 197
 Green River battle, casualties, 197
 Morgan's men crossing Ohio River, 198
 Destruction in Ohio, 199
 Buffington, 200
 Taken prisoner, 200
 Johnson's Island, 201
 Surrender of Morgan, Columbus, 201ff
 Daily prison routine, 202
 Escape of Morgan and others, 202
 Christmas, food, 203
 Suffering in prison, 203-4
 Sent to Charleston, 204
 Morris Island, guarded by black soldiers, 205
 Artillery fire, 205
 Death of John Hunt Morgan, 206
 Food and tobacco from women of Charleston, 206
 Bombardment of Charleston, 207
 Fort Pulaski, 208
 Exchange rumor, 209
 Election of 1864
 Letters and money, 210

McFarland, Baxter. "The Eleventh Mississippi Regiment at Gettysburg." Publication of the Mississippi Historical Society Centenary Series 2 (1918): 549-68.

11th Mississippi Infantry
 Casualties at Gettysburg, 549ff
 Third day at Gettysburg, 550-561
 Casualties by company, 565-67

M'Gehee, Valentine Meriwether. [Diary, December 1862-March 1863.] Publications of the Arkansas Historical Association 4 (1917): 140-51.

2nd Arkansas Infantry

Stones River, 142-45

Hospital, 145

Expects war to soon be over, 148

Copperheads and opposition to Lincoln, 148

Jefferson Davis, fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 149

McKim, Randolph H. "Glimpses of the Confederate Army." American Review of Reviews 43

(1911): 432-37.

2nd Maryland Infantry

Soldiers of great varying backgrounds, 432

University of Virginia students, 432

Intellectual discussions in camp, 433

Denies that soldiers were fighting slavery. 433-34

Even the educated eager to volunteer as privates, 434

Strong sense of duty, not economic motives, 434

Most Confederates were native born, 434

Comraderies and good cheer among Confederate soldiers, 435

Country boys had trouble getting used to camp life, 435-36

Confederate camps and equipment, 436-37

Amusements, 437

Petersburg, a private and John B. Gordon, honor, 437

McNeilly, J. S. "A Mississippi Brigade in the Last Days of the Confederacy." Publications of the Mississippi Historical Society 7 (1903); 33-55.

21st Mississippi Infantry

Benjamin Humphreys, 33

Numbers and losses in the Army of Northern Virginia, 35-38

Supply, pay, winter, 38

Food, no meat ration, 39

Deserters, Yankee encouragement, 40

Humphreys' brigade on slave soldiers, 41

April 2, 1865, Petersburg, 42-45

Abandonment of Richmond, 46-47

General Lee at Amelia Courthouse, 47-48

Appomattox, 54

Magee, Warren G. "The Confederate Letters of Warren G. Magee." Edited by Bell Irvin Wiley.

Journal of Mississippi History 5 (1943): 204-13.

39th Mississippi Infantry
Conscription, 206
Deserters, 206-7
Port Hudson, 207ff
Slave camp servant, 208
Bragg, 210
Horrors of war, so many deaths, 210
Prisoner in New Orleans, 212
Johnson's Island, rumors of exchange, food, 212-13

Montgomery, W. A. "W. A. Montgomery's Record of the Raymond Fencibles." Edited by P. L.

Rainwater. Journal of Mississippi History 6 (1944): 113-18.

12th Mississippi Infantry
Co. A, Raymond Fencibles
Women, flag presentation, 113
Departure of troops, 114
Roster, 115-118

---

Documents added as of February 2019

Mann, Thomas H. "A Yankee in Andersonville." Century Magazine 40 (1890): 447-61, 606-22.

18th Massachusetts Infantry
Enlistment, 447
Overland campaign, Wilderness, 447-448
Taken prisoner, 448
Robert E. Lee, 448
Treatment by Confederate soldiers, 448
Robbed, 449
Danville, 449-50
Food, water, 449
Flour, baking, 450
Railroad journey, 450ff
Charlotte, women, 451
Buying food, 451

Food, corn, 451
 Andersonville, 451ff
 Rumors of exchange, 452
 Wirz, 453ff
 Food, 454ff
 Cookhouse, 455
 Deaths, 456ff
 Wells water, 456
 Escape attempt, tunnel, 456ff
 Religion, Catholic priest, 457-58
 Guard, Home guards, 458
 Cooking, 458
 Sutler, trading, 459
 Flies and maggots, 459
 Alcohol, beer, 460-61
 Tobacco, 461
 Prisoners, 606
 Skulkers and gamblers, 606
 Theft, 606-7
 Raiders, trial, hanging, 607-9
 Food, 609
 Tunnel, 609-10
 Water, 610
 Union League, 610
 Wirz
 News of Sherman and Atlanta, 610
 Escaped from train on way to Savannah, 611
 Captured fed and put back on a train, 612
 Savannah, 612
 Charleston, 612
 Camp, dead line, 613
 Escape, 614
 Slave, 615
 Dogs, 616
 Recaptured, 617
 Florence, 617ff
 Food, 618
 Election of 1864, 619-20
 John H. Winder dies, 620-21
 Comment by E. A. Craighill, Ibid., 41 (1890): 154-55
 Robert E. Lee, 154
 Wells, water, 154

McBryde, John Lauren. "An Eyewitness to History." Civil War Times Illustrated 2 (January 1964): 37-41.

1st South Carolina Infantry
Bayonet accident, 38
Food, 38
Fort Sumter, 38-40
Fairfax Courthouse, 40-41

McCalla, Margaret Eliza. "The Wartime Experiences of Margaret McCalla: Confederate

Refugee from East Tennessee." Edited by Robert Partin. Tennessee Historical Quarterly
24 (Spring 1965): 39-53.

East Tennessee refugee
Unionist meetings after secession vote, 40
Decision to refugee, 42
Refugee journey, 43ff
Son's death, 44
Food prices, 45, 47
Christmas, 46-47
Soldiers and cold, 47
Shoes, 48
Slaves feeding Yankees, 49
Escape of Yankee prisoners, 50
Anxiety and love, 50-51
Election of 1864, McClellan nomination, 51

McCalla, Richard Calvin. "The Civil War in East Tennessee as Reported by a Confederate

Railroad Bridge Builder." Edited by Robert Partin. Tennessee Historical Quarterly 22
(September 1963): 238-58.

Much on bridge building
Chickamauga, 246
Yankee destruction, divine vengeance, 247
Soldier pay, 248

McChesney, James Z. "On to Chambersburg." Civil War Times Illustrated 10 (November 1971): 10-13.

Co. C, 14th Virginia Cavalry
Response of Federal destruction, 10
McCausland, 10ff

McClatchey, Minerva Leah Rowles. "A Georgia Woman's Civil War Diary: The Journal of Minerva Leah Rowles McClatchey, 1864-65." Georgia Historical Quarterly 51 (June 1967): 197-216.

Marietta, Georgia
Cadets restless at Georgia Military Institute, 199
Furlough, confusion, slavery, 199
Hooker's troops, artillery fire, 201
Hooker conversation with southern woman, 202
Piano, dancing, Sunday, 202
Troops and destruction, 202ff
General Thomas, guards, 203
Soldiers and food, 204
Woman and conversation with soldier, 204
Yankees stole her dog, 206
Sherman and right to stay in her house, 207
Yankee destruction, 208-9
Yankee chaplain, 209
Jefferson C. Davis, 210
Army of Tennessee destroyed, citizen depredations almost as bad as Yankees, 212-13
Slaves return home, 213
Lee surrender, 213-14
July 4, 214

McCleery, Robert W. "A Marylander's Eyewitness Accounts of the Battle of Port Royal, South Carolina, 7 November 1861." Edited by Alexander Lee Levin. Maryland Historical Magazine 85 (Summer 1990): 179-83.

Chief Engineer, USS Wabash
Port Royal, 181ff
Casualties prisoners, 182

McClure, William T. and Joseph L. McClure. "Civil War Letters of William T. and Joseph L. McClure of the Fifteenth Kentucky Volunteer Infantry." Edited by G. Glenn Clift. Register of the Kentucky Historical Society 60 (July 1962): 209-32.

15th Kentucky Infantry, Union
Measles, 209, 212
Woman at home, competition, 210
Box, 211

Water, ponds, dead horses, 213
Marching, 213
Rumors, 214
Ill soldier and high mortality, 214-15
Unionist woman, 215
Marching, no battle yet, 217-18
Food, 218
Tennessee Unionists, 218
Marching and endurance, 219
Pity more than hatred for Confederates, 220
Unionists, oath, 222
Soldier pay, 223-24
Women crossing creek, ankles, 225
Son in army dies of typhoid, 225-28.

McConnell, Henry A. "Volunteer's Tour of Duty." Edited by Larry Wakefield. Military History 5 (April 1989): 42-49.

10th Minnesota Infantry, Private
Hanging of Sioux Indians, 42
Sibley expedition against the Sioux, 42-
Indians kill a lieutenant, 42
Nathan Bedford Forrest, Brice's Crossroads, 46
Battle of Tupelo, 46-47
Destruction in Mississippi, 47
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 47-48
Battle of Nashville, 48-49

McCowan, Archibald. "Five Months in a Rebel Prison, 1 October 1864 to 1 March 1865."

British Association for American Studies, New Series, 3 (December 1961): 18-24.

95th New York, Libby, Salisbury Prisons
Preeble's Farm, 19
Taken prisoner, 19
Food, 19ff
Libby Prison, 19-20
Salisbury Prison, 20ff
Dead house, 21
Escape attempt, killing guards, 22
Bible, 23

McCoy, James. "Extracts from the Journal of Captain James McCoy, Twenty-Second Regiment, New York State Volunteers." Fifth Annual Report of the New State Bureau of Military Statistics (1868): 544-59.

22nd New York Infantry, captain
Centreville, McClellan and McDowell, 544
Complains about generals, marching in rain, no rest or food, 546
Intelligence from slaves, 549
Cedar Mountain, 553
Second Bull Run, 554-55
Antietam campaign, 555ff
Chancellorsville, 558-59

McCoy, T. F. "The 107th Penna. Vet. Volunteers at South Mountain, Antietam and Fredericksburg," Philadelphia Press, January 4, 1888.

South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Burnside, McClellan

McCulloh, William J. "From Baton Rouge to Opelousas: An Eyewitness Account of the Wartime Removal of the State Capital." Edited by Shane K. Bernard. Louisiana History 36 (Fall 1995): 475-80.

State Surveyor General
Movement of state capital from Baton Rouge to Opelousas, 477ff
Use of bank vault for papers, 477-78
Governor Thomas O. Moore, 478-79

McDermid, Angus. "Letters from a Confederate Soldier." Edited by Benjamin Rountree.

Georgia Review 18 (Fall 1964): 267-97.

29th Georgia Infantry
Savannah, 267
Enlistment, furlough, 269
Smallpox, 269
Fort Pulaski, 270
Officer election, 271
Yellow fever, 271
Measles death, 272
Chicken from home, maggots, 272
Wilmington, Christmas, 273

Charleston blockade, 274
Vicksburg campaign, 275-76
Marching, heat, 276
Clothes, lice, 277
Deserter execution, 278
Badly wants to come home, 278
Tells sisters not to marry a conscript or a deserter, 279
Fraternization, 280
Deserters, 280, 283
Advice for brother going into army, 284
Atlanta campaign, 285ff
Malaria, 286
Food, 288
Removal of Joseph Johnston, 290
Casualties, 290-91, 293
Deserters, 292
Marriage, 293
Fall of Atlanta, Andersonville, 294
Battlefield, 294
Deserters, 295
Food, black soldiers, 295
Confederate money, 296
Death of soldier, 296

McDonald, Edward H. "Fighting Under Ashby in the Shenandoah." Civil War Times Illustrated

5 (July 1966): 28-35.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Turner Ashby, 28ff
Horses, 30
Sutlers, foraging, alcohol, 30-31
1862 Valley campaign, 31ff
Port Republic, 33-35

McDonald, Edward H. "The Hard Times of an Ex-Confederate." Civil War Times Illustrated 7

(October 1968): 37-42.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Returning home at end of war after being wounded, 37
Farm, 38-42
Reconstruction, surrender, 39-40

McDonald, Edward H. "I felt a ball strike me..." Civil War Times Illustrated 7 (June 1968):

28-34.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Sheridan, Valley, 28
Retreat and rout, 29
Jubal Early, 29-30
Rosser, 30
Fall of Richmond, 31-32
Appomattox campaign, 32-34
Wounded, 33-34

McDonald, Edward H. "I saw an immense column of Yankee cavalry." Civil War Times

Illustrated 6 (February 1968): 42-47.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Early, Shenandoah Valley, 42
Disorganization in Early's command in fall 1864, 44
Prisoners, 47

McDonald, Edward H. "Laurel Brigade Raid Across Northern Virginia." Civil War Times

Illustrated 5 (November 1966): 44-45.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Starvation party in Fredericksburg, 44
Laurel Brigade, 45
General Hunter, mistreatment of Confederate prisoner, 45

McDonald, Edward H. "We Drove Them From the Field." Civil War Times Illustrated 7

(November 1967): 28-35.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Grant, 28
J.E.B. Stuart, 28-29
Wilderness, 30-31
Spotsylvania, 32-
Dismounted cavalry, discipline, 32
Petersburg 33-35

McDonald, Edward H. "We knew we could overpower the guard and seize the boat." Civil War Times Illustrated 6 (May 1967): 45-49.

7th Virginia Cavalry
Typhoid, 45
Prisoners, 45
Camp Chase, 45
Smallpox, 45
Escape from steamer, 48-49

McDonough, James L. "The Last Day at Stones River—Experiences of a Yank and a Reb."

Tennessee Historical Quarterly 40 (Spring 1981): 3-12.

Colonel James Perry Fyffe, 59th Ohio Infantry
William L. McKay, Private, 18th Tennessee Infantry
Fyffe depressed, describes Confederate charging on his brigade, 8ff
Confederate soldiers as poor whites, 9
Casualties, 9
McKay wounded and between lines, 10-11

McDowell, William. "Life with the Mountain Feds: The Civil War Reminiscences of William McDowell, 1st Arkansas Cavalry." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 64 (Autumn 2005):

287-313.

1st Arkansas Cavalry, Union
Home guard, taken prisoner, 296
Taken prisoner a second time, captured going fishing, threats hanging, 297-99
Taken prisoner a third time, 299-302
Sent to Berryville and captured Confederates, 302-4
Capturing Fayetteville, 304-6
Fighting under a black flag, guerrillas 306-7
Bloodless standoff with a Confederate, 310-11

McElderry, Jonathan. "'If I Live to Get Home . . .'" The Civil War Letters of Private William

McElderry." Edited by Edgar L. McCormick and Gary A. Dubro. Serif, 3 (March 1966):

21-30.

121st Ohio, Perryville
Cincinnati, 22
Perryville, 23-24
Food, 24
Money at home to send items to soldier, 25
Cardplaying, swearing, 26
Soldier discharge, lame, hemorrhoids, 27

Chaplain, 27
Learned to value friends since he has been in the army, 28
John Hunt Morgan, 28

McGarity, Abner Embry. "Letters of a Confederate Surgeon: Dr. Abner Embry McGarity, 1862-1865." Edited by Edmond Cody Burnett. Georgia Historical Quarterly 29 (June 1945): 76-114, 159-90, 222-53; 30 (March 1946): 35-70.

Asst. Surgeon, 21st Georgia Infantry
Hospitals, prisons, 88
Length of war, 91
Food, 95, 97-98
Winter quarters, 96
Union morale and fear of Confederates, 101
Chancellorsville, 103ff
Hooker's army demoralized, 104
Stonewall Jackson wounded, 105
Soldier pay, 106
Battle suffering, wounded Yankees, 108
Religion, preaching in army, morality, 108-9
Surgeon examination, 112-13
Gettysburg campaign, 159ff
Confederate morale, 164
Wedding anniversary, 167
Food, 169, 171
Yankee morale, 171-72
Camp conditions, 172
Religion in army, 182-83
Death of soldier, 226
Gangrene, amputation of a finger, 226
Chaplains, 227
Confederate morale, subjugation, 232
Deserters from Grant's army, 233
Shoes, 235
Overland campaign, 237ff
Yankee destruction, 240
Grant, Joseph Johnston, Georgia, 240
Grant cannot break Confederates, 241
Yankee character, 241
Grant and earthwork, 242-43
1864 Valley campaign, 247ff
Length of war, Atlanta, 249, 253
Peace soon, election, McClellan, 37
Morale, 38-39

Family and religion, 40
Morale, success, election, McClellan, 40-41
Battle of Winchester, 41-43
Men whipped and women traveling, North Carolina, 49
Peace rumors in Richmond, 50, 54
Hampton Roads conference, Jefferson Davis, 58

McGill, John. "War Letters of the Bishop of Richmond." Edited by Willard E. Wight. Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 67 (July 1959): 259-270.

Possible bishops, 261
Confederates right, chaplains, 262
Catholic girls killed in explosion of Confederates states laboratory, 263-64
Death of Bishop Kenrick of Baltimore, successor, 264-68
Archbishop John Hughes, 265-66
Bombardment of Charleston, 266
Condition of Catholic church in Richmond, 269

McIlhenny, George. "Georgia by Gaslight: Glimpses of Macon from the Letters of the City Gas Light Superintendent, 1859-1862." Edited by Jeffrey Alan Owens. Georgia Historical Quarterly 76 (Fall 1992): 675-94.

War appearance, troops passing through Macon, 686
War rumors, 687
Letters, 687
Safe in Macon, cannot be spared for the army given his work with gas, 690-91

McKell, William J. "The Journal of Sergt. William J. McKell." Edited by Watt P. Marchman. Civil War History 3 (September 1957): 315-339.

Co. D, 89th Ohio Infantry
Chickamauga, 315-18
Andersonville, money taken from prisoner, 319
Danville, Richmond prison
McClellan, 331

McKelvy, David. "Soldier Voting in 1864: The David McKelvey Diary." Edited by Margaret McKelvy Bird and Daniel W. Crofts. Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 115 (July 1991): 371-413.

Carrying absentee ballots to Pennsylvania regiments, 371ff
Pennsylvania authorized soldiers in field to vote, 385
Confederate prisoners, camp, Harrisburg, 387-89
McClellan meeting, 389-90
Ballots and other election materials, 390ff
Passes to go through the lines, 392
Lincoln described, 392-93
Benjamin F. Butler, 396-97
Darbytown engagement, 398-99
Fort Harrison, 400-2
Soldier voting complications, 403ff
Under fire from Confederate guns, 406-7
Fraternization, 408

McKinley, William. "A Civil War Diary of William McKinley." Edited by H. Wayne Morgan.

Ohio Historical Quarterly 69 (January 1960): 272-290.

Co. E, 23rd Ohio
Camp routine, 275
Prayer, 276
Class meeting, sermon, 277
Swearing, 278
July 4, 279
Soldier, religion, 283
Western Virginia, 283ff
Carnifex Ferry, 288-89

McKinney, William Fortunatus. "The Camp Ford Diary of Captain William Fortunatus

McKinney." Edited by Randal B. Gilbert. Smith County Historical Society 25 (Summer 1986): 15-25.

19th Kentucky Infantry, Captain
Camp Ford, Tyler, Texas
Red River campaign, Mansfield, 17
Food, prisoners plundered, 17
Stolen pistol, 17
Weather, preaching, occasional deaths, 18
Accidental shooting, death, 18
Murder by a guard, 18
Grant's army in trouble, desertions, 19
Escapes, 20
July 4, 20
Punishments, 21 et passim

McKittrick, Samuel. "A Confederate Officer's Letters on Sherman's March to Atlanta." Edited by Donald W. Lewis. Georgia Historical Quarterly 51 (December 1967): 491-94.

Co. I, 16th South Carolina Infantry

Food, 492

Atlanta campaign, 492ff

Religious revival, 492

McKown, Bethiah Pyatt. "The Civil War Letters of Bethiah Pyatt McKown." Edited by James

W. Goodrich. Missouri Historical Review 67 (January, April 1973): 227-52, 351-70.

Economic conditions in St. Louis, late 1860, 234

Home Guards, flag, 237

Battle of Booneville, 238-39

Lincoln and German troops, 239

Military affairs in Missouri, 240

Wilson's Creek, 241-43

Martial law in St. Louis, 241-42

Death of Nathaniel Lyon, 242-43

Father is ill, economic suffering at home, 244

Men fighting for pay, 245

Oath, 247

Confederate loyalty, wonders why children to support the Union, abolitionists, 248-50

Not secessionists, effects of the war, 251

Letters, worries about letters being intercepted, 352

Nothing but war all the time, 355

Federal soldiers, destruction, old woman jailed, 356

Questions about a woman's virtue, possible spy, 358

Soldier in family sick with dysentery and fever, 359-60

Need for list of names of Confederate sympathizers, 365-66

Christmas, 366

Prayers for her children, 367

Oath, 368

McLean, Mrs. Eugene. "A Northern Woman in the Confederacy." Harper's Magazine 128

(February 1914):440-451.

Richmond, 440ff

Robert E. Lee, 440

Joseph E. Johnston and wife, 440

Lincoln, Scott, many northern volunteers, 441

Montgomery, Alabama, Confederate capital, 441ff
Confederate flag, 442
Varina Davis, 441-42
Jefferson Davis, Varina, First Manassas, 443ff
List of dead and wounded, 443-44
Yankee prisoners, 444
Tents, 445
Beauregard, 446
Mortally wounded South Carolinian, 446
Amputations, 446-47
Beauregard and Johnston, 447
Columbus, Kentucky, Belmont, 448-49
Wounded Yankee prisoners, 449
Dead bodies, 449-50
Women's patriotism, 451

McMahon, Robert A. "Conduct and Revolt in the Twenty-fifth Ohio Battery: An Insider's Account." Edited by Dennis K. Bowman. Ohio History 104 (Summer/Autumn 1995): 163-83.

2nd Ohio Cavalry and 25th Ohio Light Artillery Battery
Lincoln fairly elected, Democrat who opposed secession, 164-65
Officers election, discipline, 167-70
Slavery, runaways, 171-72
Raising black troops, 172
Plundering, foraging, guerrillas, 173-74
Resentment about being assigned to an artillery battery, revolt, 175-81

McMillen, George Washington and Jefferson O. McMillen. "Civil War Letters of George Washington McMillen and Jefferson O. McMillen 122nd Regiment, O.V.I." Edited by Wilfred W. Black. West Virginia History 32 (April 1971): 171-93.

122nd Ohio Infantry
Length of war, 174
Union, duty, 175
Winchester, 174ff
Entrenchments, 176
Church service, 176
Vicksburg, 177
Marching in heat, 179
Milroy, Winchester, 179, 181
Soldiering, does not want others to enlist, 180

Whiskey, 181
Duty, disappointed in officers, 182
Wounded soldiers, furlough, 182
Taken prisoner, 187

McMurray, John. "A Union Officer's Recollections of the Negro as a Soldier." Edited by Horace Montgomery. Pennsylvania History 28 (April 1961): 156-86.

6th United States Colored Infantry, Captain
Desertion of Lydia Smith's son, 160
Assaulted by a soldier, charges of brutality against McMurray, 163-64
Refusal of Butler to use black troops to attack Petersburg, 166
Black troops attack Confederate positions at Petersburg, 168-71
Burial detail, 171-72
Dutch Gap canal, 174
Deep Bottom, Fort Harrison, New Market Heights, 175-82
Fort Fisher, 183-84
Picket duty, McMurray arrest, 184-85

McNally, John. "How the 164th New York Lost Its Colors." Blue and Gray 4 (1894): 18-19.

164th New York Infantry
Colors left behind at Sutler's Station at Fairfax Station
Minstrel show, attack, 18-19
Andersonville, 19
Flag captured, 19

McNeill, James M. "The Prison Notebook of Captain James M. McNeill, C.S.A." Edited by

Louise McNeill Pease. West Virginia History 31 (April 1970): 180-84.

22nd Virginia Infantry
Fort Delaware
Rats, 181
Poem about Fort Delaware prisoners to tune of "Maryland, My Maryland." 182ff

McRaven, David Olando and Amanda Nantz McRaven. "The Correspondence of David Olando

McRaven and Amanda Nantz McRaven." Edited by Louis A. Brown. North Carolina

Historical Review 26 (January 1949): 41-98.

73rd North Carolina Infantry
Salisbury Prison, prison guard, 42ff
Hiring prices for slaves, 44

Christian captain, 46
Farming details, 49, 54
Yankee prisoners, 52
Yankee prisoner shot by guard, 52, 55
Guard duty, 53
Food, 58
Shoes, 60, 61, 69-70
No furloughs, 63
Children, food at home, 64-65
Yankee prisoners try to escape, killed, 66-67
Christmas, 73-74
Yankees steal from each other, Confederates mistreating a Quaker, 74
Pants, 78
Farm details, children, 79
Alcohol, 89
Food, 93

Macy, William M. "The Civil War Diary of William M. Macy." Indiana Magazine of History

30 (June 1934): 181-97.

Co. I, 94th Illinois
Vicksburg, 186
Fort Morgan, 190

Maher, Thomas E. "I Hardly Have the Heart to Write These Few Lines. . ." Edited by Brian C.

Pohanka. Civil War Regiment 1 (No. 2 1991): 42-43.

5th New York Infantry, Corporal
A son's death, Second Bull Run, 42-43

Mahon, Samuel. "The Civil War Letters of Samuel Mahon, Seventh Iowa Infantry." Edited by John K. Mahon. Iowa Journal of History 51 (July 1955): 233-66.

7th Iowa Infantry,
Enlistment, 233-34
Pilot Knob, 235
Sabbath, religion, morality in camp, 235-36
Shiloh, 237-39
Daily routine, 240
Corinth, 241-42
Conciliatory policy in Tennessee, women, 243
Confederate women, 244
Black soldiers, speeches, miscegenation, 245

Drill, 245-46
Marching, 247-48
Winter quarters, 248
Confederate woman, black soldiers, 248-49
Civilian occupation, 249
Boxes, Christmas, 249
Furlough, 249-50
Atlanta campaign, 251ff
March to the Sea, 257
Savannah, 257-60
Troop reviews, bands, 259
Swamps in Carolinas, 260
Johnston surrender, Sherman, 261
Lincoln assassination, vengeance, 261
Grand Review, 262-64

Mahone, William. "On the Road to Appomattox." Edited by William C. Davis. Civil War

Times Illustrated 9 (January 1971): 4-11, 42-47.

Fall of Richmond, 7
Appomattox campaign, 7ff
Robert E. Lee, 8ff
George Picket, 9

Malcom, Frank. "'Such is War': The Letters of an Orderly in the 7th Iowa Infantry." Edited by James I. Robertson, Jr. Iowa Journal of History 58 (October 1960): 321-56.

7th Iowa Infantry
Picket duty, 323
Winter quarters, 323-24
Orderly duties, 324-25
Robbers, guerrillas, 325-26
Slave refugees, 326
Oath, illiterate Confederates, 327
Guerrillas, 327-28
Confederate deserters, 328
Atlanta campaign, 329ff
Kennesaw Mountain, 330
Roswell factories, 331
Alcohol, officers, 332-33
Army reduced by disease, conscription, 334
Dead soldiers, 335
Accident, foot run over by a mule team, 338
Election of 1864, 339

Soldier pay, 339-40
Burning of Atlanta, 340
March to the Sea, 341-43
Savannah, 343ff
Burning of Columbia, 346, 349
Food, shoes, 347
Poisoned, 349-50
Raleigh, North Carolina, 351
Lincoln assassination, 352
Sherman and Johnston, 353-354
Alcohol, colonel, 354
Grand Review, 354-56

Mallory, Samuel Wadsworth and Louisa Mallory. "Freedmen's Farm Letters of Samuel and Louisa Mallory to 'our absent but ever remembered boy,' in McHenry County, Illinois." Edited by Carol N. Wenzel. Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 73 (Autumn 1980): 12-76.

64th United States Colored Infantry, Captain
Freedmen's Home Farm, 164ff
Misses wife and dreams of her, 164
Advice to his son, 166-68
Slaves dancing, 167
Soldier death, burial 169
John Eaton, 171

Mallory, Stephen R. "Letter of Stephen R. Mallory." Edited by J. Franklin Jameson. American Historical Review 12 (October 1906): 103-8.

Mallory, vndication
Organizing Navy Department, 104
Pensacola, Fort Pickens, 104
Questions raised about Mallory commitment to southern rights, 107-8

Manigault, Louis. "Letter from an Eyewitness at Andersonville Prison, 1864." Edited by Spencer B. King, Jr. Georgia Historical Quarterly 38 (March 1954): 82-85.

Andersonville hospital, deaths, food, 84

Manly, Basil. "The Diary of Dr. Basil Manly, 1858-1867." Parts 1-5 Edited by W. Stanley

Hoole Alabama Review 4-5 (April 1951, July, October 1951; January and April 1952):

127-49, 221-36, 270-89, 61-74, 142-55.

Secession, called to Baptist church in Montgomery, 140-41

Alabama secession, 143-44

University of Alabama cadets, 145-46

Prayer, opening of Confederate Congress, 146

Confederate constitution, 146

Jefferson Davis, inauguration, prayer, 147

Southern Baptist convention meeting, Savannah, 221

Preaching to soldiers, 222

Thanksgiving for Manassas victory, 222

Ministerial pay, 223

Funeral for illegitimate child, 224

Prostitute funeral, 225

Shorter inauguration, 226

Shorter, Manly ready to serve, 227

Soldier funerals, 226-27

Fast, humiliation, and prayer, 227-28

Colportage meeting, 228-29

Enlistment of son and objections, 229-30, 232

Davis, thanksgiving, 235

Leaves Montgomery church, 270

Hog slaughter, 272-73

Oversee, slave punishment, runaways, 272-73

Local defense, 277

Military service of son James, 278-79

Women teachers, 280

Fast, humiliation, and prayer, 281

Dead overseer, 281

Overseer terms, 282

Soldier's wife and coal, 283

Agricultural details, 283-84

Women's college, debt, 285, 287

Impressment of horses, 288

Charges of disloyalty, 62

Preaching for Missouri troops, 62-63

Hard to raise money for orphan asylum, 64

Invention for making horseshoe nails, 65

Overseer charged with killing slave, 66-67

Watts, Davis, fast, humiliation, and prayer, 69

Agricultural details, 70-71

Croxtton, burning of the University of Alabama, 71-72

Lee surrender, 73

Mann, A. Dudley. "A Dudley Mann's Mission in Europe, 1863-64: An Unpublished Letter to Jefferson Davis." Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 69 (July 1961): 324-28.

State repudiation, bonds, opinion in Europe, 327

Yankees despairing in Europe, 327

Conditions in Italy, 327-28

Mann, Nehemiah Halleck. "Extracts from the Diary of Captain Nehemiah Halleck Mann, Co.

M, 4th New York State Volunteer Cavalry." Fifth Annual Report of the New York State

Bureau of Military Statistics (1868): 617-31.

4th New York Cavalry, Co. M., captain

Kilpatrick-Dahlgren raid, 618-19

Killed, ball through heart, 631

Maret, George W. "A Letter from the Front." Edited by Paul J. Engel. New York History 34

(April 1953): 204-10.

44th New York

Food prices, sutler, 204-5

Secesh pencil, poisoned bullet, 205

Gambling, 205-6

Dishonest chaplain, 206

Critical of doctor, 206-8

Death, 209

Markell, Catherine Susannah Thomas. "Frederick Diary: September 5-14, 1862." Edited by Virginia O. Bardsley. Maryland Historical Magazine 60 (June 1965): 132-38.

Period leading up to Antietam

Rumors of approaching Confederates, 134

Jubal Early, Barksdale, McLaws, Kershaw, 134-35

Longstreet, Jackson, 135

Jeb Stuart, 135

Soldiers, meals, food, 136

Federal army arrives, 137-38

Markle, DeWitt C. "'...The True Definition of War': The Civil War Diary of DeWitt C.

Markle." Edited by Erich L. Ewald. Indiana Magazine of History 89 (June 1993): 125-35.

57th Indiana Infantry
Stones River, wounded, 127ff
Wounded on steamboat, 128-19
Work detail in Indiana, 129
Lincoln, thanksgiving, 133
War Democrats, convention, 135

Marsh, Bryan. "The Confederate Letters of Bryan Marsh." Chronicles of Smith County, Texas

14 (Winter 1975): 9-30, 43-55.

17th Texas Cavalry, Colonel
Louisiana welcome marching troops, 10
Pneumonia, 10
Measles, 11
Skirmish in Arkansas, 12
Alcohol, whiskey, 12
Scouting, 13
Fight with Curtis's federals, 14
Furloughs, 16
Water, 17
Hospital, 17
Alcohol, 20
Conscription, 20
Thinks he will live to come home, she apparently worries about his health, 22
Tullahoma, 23, 26
Trans-Mississippi army, 24
Regimental flag, 25
Loved ones at home, patriotism spent, 25
Bragg, Rosecrans, morale, confidence, 27
Religion, Bible, 27
Chickamauga, casualties, 28
Fraternization, 29
Jefferson Davis comments to soldiers, 29
Does not want her to come to camp, women brutish, little pretention to virtue, 43
Despondency at home, providence, 44
Dreams of home, 45
Slave defiance, physical resistance by a woman, whipping, 47
Morale, deserters, 47
Federal prisoners, 47-48, 51

Shoes, 48
Substitute, 49
Working hard on clothing, slaves, 49
Hates Yankees, 49
Fears Christmas insurrection, slaves, 51
Desertion, 52
Dream, 53
Whipping son, 53

Marsh, John G. "The Duties of Home and War: The Civil War Letters of John G. Marsh, 29th

Ohio Volunteers (A Selection)." Edited by C. Calvin Smith. Upper Ohio Valley

Historical Review 8 (1979): 7-20.

29th Ohio Infantry, Lieutenant
Officer election, 9
Soldier pay, 10
Shenandoah Valley, 10
Battle of Winchester, dead on the Battlefield, horrors and realities of battle, 10-11
Duty, Copperheads, 14
Food prices, 15
Box, food prices, 17

Marshall, Henry. "Civil War Letters of Henry Marshall." North Dakota Historical Quarterly 9

(1941); 35-57.

126th Illinois, Company G
Hard soldier life, 35
His son should not enlist, 36
Slaves, race, 36-37
Camp servants, 37
Soldiering as hard business, 38
Copperheads lengthening the war, 41
Food, 44
Black troops better than copperheads, 45
Vicksburg, 49ff
Doubts Confederates will get reinforcements, 50

Marshall, W. "A Wounded Confederate Soldier's Letters from Fort McHenry." Edited by

Alexandra Lee Levin. Maryland Historical Magazine 68 (April 1970): 176-79.

Fort McHenry prison
Hospital matrons, Confederate sympathizers, 395

Rats, 395
Food, 396

Martin, Hiram. "Service Afield and Afloat: A Reminiscence of the Civil War." Edited by Guy

R. Everson. Indiana Magazine of History 89 (March 1993): 35-56.

Food, 37
Secesh women, 38
Picket duty, 41
Hospital, 43
Naval service, 44
Turkey, 53

Martin, Micajah D. "Chancellorsville: A Soldier's Letter." Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 37 (July 1929): 221-28.

Co. D, Second Georgia Battalion
Chancellorsville,
Food, 223-24
Casualties, 225, 227
Robert E. Lee, 226

Marye, John L. "The First Gun at Gettysburg: 'With the Advance Guard.'" Civil War

Regiments 1 (No. 1, 1988), 26-34.

Fredericksburg battery, Virginia Light Artillery
Stonewall Jackson, 26-27
Gettysburg campaign, 28ff
Paying in Confederate money, 29
July 1, 30-32
July 3, 32-34

Mason, I. W. "The Early Civil War in Southern Kentucky as Experienced by Confederate Sympathizers." Edited by Kenneth R. Johnson. Register of the Kentucky Historical Society 68 (April 1970): 176-79.

2nd Kentucky Infantry
Texas Rangers, fighting on Green River, 177-78
Wants to come home for Christmas, 178-79

Mathers, Augustus Henry. "The Civil War Letters of Augustus Henry Mathers, Fourth Florida Regiment, C.S.A." Edited by Franklin A. Doty. Florida Historical Quarterly 36 (October 1957): 94-124.

4th Florida Infantry
Surgeon, 96ff
Dysentery, 98, 100
Immorality in Richmond, 105
One soldier stabs another, 111
Regiment inspection, 115
Poor quality of food, health, 115-16

Mattern, David William. "A Pennsylvania Dutch Yankee: The Civil War Letters of Private David William Mattern, 1862-1863." Edited by Carolyn J. Mattern. Pennsylvania Folklife 36 (Autumn 1986): 2-19.

128th Pennsylvania Infantry
Departure of troops, women, 4
Dead from First Bull Run, 5
Washington forts, 5-6
Antietam campaign, 6ff
Letters, 6
General Mansfield, casualties, 7
Wounded at Antietam, 9
Box, spoiled food, 10
Boots, 11
Box items, 11
Boxes, 12
Marching, 13
Christmas, food prices, 14
Confederate women, 14
Winter quarters, 15
Food, 15
Guard duty, 16
Copperheads, 16

Matthews, James Louis. "Civil War Diary of Sergeant James Louis Matthews." Edited by Roger C. Hackett. Indiana Magazine of History 24 (December 1928): 306-16.

Co. F., 12th Indiana Infantry, Sergeant
Marching, 308ff

Burning of Columbia, 309-10
Explosion of artillery shells, deaths, 310

Mattison, Edwin A. "Waiting for the War to Come: Union Camp Life in 1861-1862." Edited Theodore Kornweibel, Jr. Niagara Frontier 22 (Winter 1975): 87-97.

83rd Pennsylvania Infantry, Co. A
Clothing and shoes, 90
Skirmishers, 90-91
Food, hardtack, 91-92
Christmas, 92-93
Trent Affair, 92
Clothing, 93
Band, music, 93
Target shooting, 94
Shooting accidents, 94
Wood, 94-95
Guard duty, gun rusted in rain, 95

Maxwell, David Elwell. "Some Letters to His Parents by a Floridian in the Confederate Army."

Edited by Gilbert Wright. Florida Historical Quarterly 36 (April 1958): 353-72.

2nd Florida Infantry
Letters, 355
Conscription, 355
Peninsula campaign, 356ff
Yorktown, 356
Williamsburg, 358-61
Death of colonel, 358
Disease, furlough, 361
Gettysburg campaign, 363ff
Milroy, 364
Vicksburg, 367-68
Hospital, 369ff

May, Samuel J. "The 'Separate but Equal' Doctrine: An Abolitionist Discusses Racial Segregation and Educational Policy During the Civil War." Edited by James M. Smith.

Journal of Negro History 41 (April 1956): 138-47.

Need for equality in education, 142-43
Eradicating racial prejudice, 143-44
Public schools and New England influence, 144

Desegregation of schools in New England, 145-46

Mayer, Nathan. "A Connecticut Surgeon in the Civil War: The Reminiscences of Dr. Nathan Mayer." Journal of the History of Medicine and Allied Sciences 19 (July 1964): 272-86.

11th and 16th Connecticut Infantry

Conflict among medical students in Paris, 274

Newburn, Burnside, 275

Typhoid cases, milk, beer, 275

Smallpox cases, alcohol, whiskey, 275-76

Fredericksburg, picket shot, amputation, 278

Antietam campaign, 278-82

Alcohol, whiskey, 282

Chloroform, 282

Fredericksburg, 282-83

Battle of Plymouth, North Carolina, 283

Taken prisoner, Libby Prison, 283-84

General Hospital at Newburn, North Carolina, Yellow Fever, 284-85

Macon, Georgia prison, fervent prayer of the chaplain, 285-86

Mayfield, Leroy S. "A Hoosier Invades the Confederacy: Letters and Diaries of Leroy S.

Mayfield," Edited by John D. Barnhart. Indiana Magazine of History 39 (June 1943):

144-191.

22nd Indiana Infantry

No chaplain, 147

Election of officers, 153

Chattanooga, 161ff

Execution of deserters, 170

Confederate deserters, 170

Atlanta campaign, 180ff

Resaca, 183

Kennesaw Mountain, 190-91

Mead, Rufus, Jr. "With Sherman Through Georgia and the Carolinas: Letters of a Federal Soldier." Edited by James S. Padgett. Georgia Historical Quarterly 32 (December 1948),:

284-322; 33 (March 1949): 49-81.

Co. A, 5th Connecticut Infantry

Atlanta campaign, 287ff

Quartermaster, railroad, 287-88

Chickamauga, 289-90

Confederate desertion, 291
 Cassville, destruction, 291
 Confederates heavily entrenched, 292
 Hooker and Sherman, 293
 Hooker, 294
 Soldier pay, 294
 Heat, hot weather, 295
 Boot, shirts, prices, 295
 Confederate prisoners, 296-97
 Sherman strategy, 300
 Casualties, graves, 302
 Amputations, stench, flies, 302
 Confederates have stripped countryside clean, 303
 Sherman, Confederates determined to hold Atlanta, 307
 Election of 1864, Lincoln, 307, 312
 Uncertainty about taking Atlanta, 309
 Union family in Atlanta, 309
 Pillaging in Atlanta, slaves, 310-11
 Food prices, 312
 Chaplain sermon, 314
 Sherman order evacuating Atlanta, 314-15
 Grant, Sheridan, election of 1864, McClellan, 315-16
 Soldier pay, 317, 52, 54
 Strategy, 318
 Letters, 321
 Foraging, 49, 51
 Food prices, 52
 Officer and soldier votes for McClellan, Seymour, 52-53
 March to the Sea, 53ff
 Paymaster, McClellan, election of 1864, 55
 Savannah, 55ff
 Destruction, 55-56
 March to the Sea, foraging, 56ff
 Foraging and destruction, extermination, 58
 Large plantation, 63
 Freedom school for former slaves, 64
 Food prices, 65
 Stanton, Butler, 65
 Hard traveling in South Carolina, 66-68
 Shirts, clothing, 69
 Connecticut election, 76-77
 Fall of Richmond, 77
 Lee's surrender, 77-78
 Box, 78
 Sherman and Johnston, 79

Meagher, Thomas Francis. "Some Letters of General T. F. Meagher." Journal of the American Irish Historical Society 30 (1932): 83-87.

Apology, 83-84
Wounded man, 84-85
Meagher retirement, American and Irish identity, 84
Possible court martial, 86

Mechling, William T. "William T. Mechling's Journal of the Red River Campaign, April 7—

May 10, 1864." Edited by Alwyn Barr. Texana 1 (Fall 1963): 363-79.

AAAG, Bee's Cavalry Division, Wharton's Cavalry Corps, Major
Red River campaign, 366ff
Sabine Crossroads, Mansfield, 366-67
Pleasant Hill, 367-68
Arrests of women and children, 371
Monett's Ferry, 372-74

Medford, H. C. "The Diary of H. C. Medford, Confederate Soldier, 1864." Southernwestern

Historical Quarterly 34 (October 1930, January 1931): 106-40, 203-230.

Much material on food
Church services, 111
Galveston bombardment, 116
Valentine's Day, 120
Tithe, food, corruption, 120
Officers, 121
Starvation, 122
Galveston described, 123-25
Magruder party, 128-29
Longs for peace, 135
Religion, 135
Chaplain pay, 135-36
Richard Taylor, 212
Food, 220
Sabine Crossroads, 215-20
*Motive, 220
Pleasant Hill, wounded men, 224
General Thomas Green death, 225-26
General Mouton, 227-28

Meigs, Montgomery. "General M. C. Meigs on the Conduct of the Civil War." American Historical Review 26 (January 1921): 285-303.

Lincoln, Stanton, army commanders, 287ff
Seward, Lincoln, and Fort Pickens, 287
Lincoln, Scott, McClellan, 288
Scott, Bull Run, Paterson, McDowell, 199
McClellan, western Virginia, 290
McClellan, Lincoln, Peninsula campaign, 291-92
McClellan, Lincoln, council of war, January 1862, 292-93
Lincoln's letters to various general, 293-94
Lincoln, Hooker and Meade, 295
McClellan, Peninsula and McDowell, 296-97
Lincoln, Halleck, McClellan and withdrawal from Harrison's Landing, 296
Lincoln, Pope, Halleck, McClellan, 298
Lincoln, Seward, Fort Sumter, Pickens, 299-302
McClellan plans, early 1862, 302-3

"A Memory: Lincoln's Body Comes to Albany." New York History 46 (April 1965): 187-88.

Anonymous woman diarist, Fulton County, Assassination
Sorrow at class meeting, 188
Views the body in Albany, 188

Mendenhall, Willard Hall. "'Life Is Uncertain...': Willard Hall Mendenhall's 1862 Civil War Diary." Edited by Margaret Mendenhall Frazier and James W. Goodrich. Missouri

Historical Review 78 (July 1984): 429-52; 79 (October 1984): 65-88.

Carriage maker and farmer, Lexington, Missouri
Civil War, 437
Federal troops in town, 438
Federal troops and slaves, 439
Tax on Confederates, 441
Jennison's Jayhawkers, guerrillas, 442-43
Federal troops enter house, destruction, forced woman to play piano, 444
Church services, 447
Alexander Doniphan speech, 450
July 4 barbecue, 65-66
Shooting by guerrillas, 66-67
Hamilton R. Gamble, martial law, Schofield, 67-68
Martial law, prisoners, 68
Loyalty and disloyalty, 69-70
Cannon fire and burning buildings, 71-72

Foraging parties, 72
Food, 73
Federal troops seized his carriage shop, 73
Quantrill vs. state military, 74-75
Sought protection for property and lectured by state guard officer, slavery, 76-77
Bones of spies, 77-78
Selling mules, 78
Guerillas take local man from his house and kill him, 78-79
Banishment and arrests, 80
Banishing southern sympathizers, 81
Tax assessment to support Unionist refugees, 81
Election, prisoners, 82
Runaway slaves, 82
Soldiers demanding alcohol, whiskey, 83
State militia, 84
Christmas, 84-85

Mercier, Henri. "Henri Mercier on Slavery: The Views of a Maryland-Born Diplomat, 1860-1863." Edited by Daniel B. Carroll. Maryland Historical Magazine 63 (September 1968): 299-310.

French Minister to the United States
Slavery and universal suffrage, 302
Abolitionists, 302
Emancipation and fear of slave revolt, 305
Gradual emancipation, border states, race prejudice, 307
Emancipation Proclamation, 308
McClellan and Lincoln administration, 308-9
Mexico, recruitment of blacks, 309-10

Meredith, James. "A Quaker Goes to War." Edited by Edward A. Melfsky. Historical Review of Berks County 33 (Spring 1968): 46-47, 60-61.

167th Pennsylvania Infantry, Lieutenant
Quaker, conscription, duty, 47
Officer qualifications, 47

Mereless, George. "Private Thoughts from the Trenches at Petersburg: Civil War Letters of George Mereless, 152nd N.Y.S.V.I." Edited by William F. Howard. Kepi 3 (February/March 1985): 5-6.

152nd New York Infantry, Sergeant
Picket duty, fraternization, 5
Boots, 5-6
Men killed on picket duty, 6
Grand Review, 6

Merli, Frank J., ed. "A Letter from the Stonewall." Civil War Times Illustrated 11 (June 1972): 37-39.

C.S.S. Stonewall, officer complain of defective French-constructed ship

Merrill, Samuel. "Letters from a Civil War Officer." Edited by A. T. Volwiler. Mississippi
Valley Historical Review, 14 (March 1928): 508-29.

70th Indiana Volunteers, Lt. Col.
Black camp servant, 509
Slavery abolition, 509
Food, 509
Dishonest officers, 510
Music, camp servant, 511
Diarrhea, 513, 522
Small pox, 513
Regimental colonel, 514
Preaching, coming battle, 515
Atlanta campaign, 514ff
Sherman slow moving, enemy earthworks, 519
Lice, wool clothes, salt pork, 520
Hood, Johnston, Atlanta, 521
March to the sea, 522ff
Slave woman, 524
Planter ruined, 524-25
Chancellorsville and Wilderness and Spotsylvania battlefields, 528

Merz, Louis. "Diary of Private Louis Merz, C.S.A. of the West Point Guards (Co. D, 4th Georgia Regiment Volunteer Infantry, Doles-Cook Brigade." Bulletin of the Chattahoochee Historical Society 4 (November 1959): 17-47.

4th Georgia Infantry, Co. D, Private
Mess tent robbed, water bucket filled with excrement, 19
Target shooting, 19
Food prices, 20
Theft, head shaved, drummed out of service, 41

Guard house, alcohol, 21
Drill, 22, 24, 25
Court martial, missing roll call, 23
Merrimac and attack on Union ships, Virginia, 26-27, 30
Court martial, death sentence, desertion, overturned verdict, 30-31
Conscription, 31-32
Officer election, 32-34
Norfolk, 36
Merrimac, Virginia blown up, 36-37
Petersburg, 38-39
Malvern Hill, 42-43

Metcalf, Lewis Herbert. “So eager were we all...” American Heritage 16 (June 1965): 32-41.

No pagination in digitized version
11th New York Infantry, Private
Pre-battle anticipation
First Bull Run
Double quick
Wounded men
Confederate bring water to the wounded
Taken prisoner

Mettam, Henry Clay. “Civil War Memoirs of the First Maryland Cavalry, C.S.A.” Edited by Samuel H. Miller. Maryland Historical Magazine 58 (June 1963): 137-69.

1st Maryland Cavalry (Confederate)
Goes through federal lines near Baltimore to enlist, 139-40
Slaves, 141
Richmond, 144-45
Battle of Fredericksburg, 146
Enlists in 1st Maryland Cavalry, 146-47
West Virginia, 148ff
Attack on one hundred Irishmen, log fort and take prisoners, 148-49
Typhoid, 149-50
North Anna River, 150-51
Winter quarters, 151
Yellow Tavern, 151-52
Pollard’s Farm, 153
Trevilian Station, 154
Early raid on Washington, 155ff
Visited his mother, 156
Burning of Chambersburg, 159-60
West Virginia, 160-62
General Averell, taken prisoner, 162ff

Camp Chase, food, cooking, 162ff
Cooking, 164
Cat, 164
Escape attempt, 165
Lincoln, 166
Prisoner exchange, 166-67

"Middleton Correspondence, 1861-1865." Edited by Isabella Middleton Leland. South Carolina

Historical Magazine 63 (January, April, July, October 1962): 33-41, 61-70, 164-74, 204-10; 64 (January, April, July, October 1963): 28-38, 95-104, 158-68, 212-19; 65 (January, April 1964): 33-44, 98-109.

Funerals, 34
First Bull Run, Manassas, 34
Newport, Rhode Island, 37
Slave disturbances, 38
Savannah, 38-39
Mill Springs, 39
Zollicoffer, 39
Fort Sumter party, 40
--April 1962
Blockade, 61
Yankee bones and trinkets, 63
Slaves deserting Yankees, 63
Women nurses, 63-64
Refugees and extortioners, 65-66
Varina Davis and children, 66
Yankee destructions, slaves running off, 67
John C. Pemberton, 68
Rumors, 68
--July 1962
Threatened attack on plantation by country people, 168-69
Duel, 168-70, 173
Legislature, Rhett criticizing Davis, 171
Governor and election, 171-72
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 173
--Oct. 1962
Death, 204
Slaves, oath, 206
Confederate prisoners in north, 206
Jeb Stuart, James Longstreet, Stonewall Jackson, 208
--January 1963
South Carolina at Fredericksburg, 28

Varina Davis, 30
 Picket duty, 30-31, 34
 Dancing, 33, 36-37
 --April 1963
 P. G. T. Beauregard, 95-96
 Charleston bombardment--many mentions of this city throughout the letters
 Deaths and length of war, 97-98
 Stonewall Jackson, 98
 Jefferson Davis, stamps, 98-99
 Confederate deserters, 99
 Dancing, 99
 Food shortages, 99-100
 Envelope shortage, 100
 --July 1863
 Dancing, 158
 John C. Pemberton, 159
 More on Charleston bombardment, 159
 Robert Gould Shaw and black troops, 160
 Spies executed, 164-65
 Alexander H. Stephens speech, 166
 --October 1963
 Blockade goods, 213
 New Orleans and Yankee occupation, rumor, 213
 Jefferson Davis, peace, 215
 Beauregard, 215
 Clothing, style, 215-16
 John Hunt Morgan, 218-19
 --January 1964
 Parties, dancing, 34
 Prices, 35
 Chaplains, 35
 Jeb Stuart, 35-36
 John Hunt Morgan, 36-37
 Shopping, 39
 Cavalry and impressments, 40-41
 --April 1964
 Confederate cavalry, drunk, 98-99
 Columbia, South Carolina, and Federals, 100-104
 Slaves, 100
 Women and northern soldiers, 103-4
 Charleston, 105

Milans, Henry G. "Eyewitness to Fredericksburg," North-South Trader's Civil War 19

(Christmas 1992): 20-24.

Co. A., Third Pennsylvania Reserves Infantry
Enlistment, boys in regiment, 20
Food, 21
Soldiers not spoiling for a fighting, war cannot be ended by fighting, 21
Hard marching makes men care little about slavery or abolition
Fredericksburg, 22-23
Wounded, hospital, 24

Millens, Samuel. “When Once the Ball is Commenced...’: A Pennsylvania Irishman at Fort Sumter.” Edited by Rowland T. Berthoff. Pennsylvania History 24 (July 1957): 219-22.

Co. E, 1st Artillery, United States Regulars
Confidence in beating Confederates, 220
Fort Sumter, 220ff
Food supply, 220-21

Miller, James Cooper. “afraid I was going to die on their hands.” Civil War Times Illustrated

8 (July 1969); 37-41.

2nd Delaware Infantry
Illness, hospital, 37-41

Miller, James Cooper. “Serving under McClellan on the Peninsula in ’62.” Civil War Times

Illustrated 8 (June 1969): 24-30.

2nd Delaware Infantry
Wounded man, 25
Dead bodies, stench, burial, 25
Clearing trees, 25
Gaines’ Mill, Seven Days, 25ff
General Meagher, 26
Savage Station, 27-28
Malvern Hill, 29-30

Miller, James Cooper. “We Scattered the Rebels.” Civil War Times Illustrated 8 (August 1969):

43-48.

2nd Delaware Infantry
Election of 1864, 43
Reedville battle, 43
Chattanooga, 44
Wheeler cavalry, 45

Savannah, Fort Pulaski, 48

Miller, James Cooper. "With Sherman Through the Carolinas." Civil War Times Illustrated 8

(October 1969): 35-44.

9th Pennsylvania Cavalry
South Carolina, alligator, 35
Columbia, South Carolina, 36
Averasboro, 37
Bentonville, 40-41
Zebulon Vance, 43-44

Miller, James Russell. "Two Civil War Notebooks of James Russell Miller." Journal of the Presbyterian Historical Society 37 (June, September 1959): 65-90, 155-76.

United States Christian Commission
Station for wounded men, 69
Poor attendance at prayer meetings on storm nights, 69-70
Soldier prayer meeting and prayers, 70-72
Chaplains conference, 73-74
Working with Gettysburg wounded, 75-76
Words of dying soldier, 76
Ministers and army, great variation in character and capability, 76-77
East Tennessee, 79ff
Unionists and slavery, Brownlow, 80-81
Sees war actually encouraging spirit of benevolence, 81-82
Sanitary Commission and Christian Commission, 82-83
Freedmen's Relief Commission, 83-85
Religion and dying soldiers, 85-86
Christian Commission at Falmouth, 86-87
Schools, churches and refinement, 89-90
War as a school for improvement, 155
State of religion in the southern states, 156
State of religion in north 156-57
State of religion in the army, 157
Need for reform in religion, 157
Chancellorsville, death and carnage, 158
Southern clergy, 158-59
Confederate prayers, 160
Religion and the southern people, decline, 160-61.
Methodists, 161
Camp life, 161-65
Christian Commission supplies, 165
Overland campaign, 166ff

Victims of war, 167-68
Petersburg, 169ff
Hospital, 173
Reflections on his service, 174

Miller, Randall M., ed. "Letters from Nashville, 1862. II 'Dear Master.'" Tennessee Historical Quarterly 33 (Spring 1974): 85-92.

Two letters from slave Susanna, Belle Meade
Reports on conditions at Franklin and at home, 88
Tells of health of livestock, 88
Master greatly missed and praises his qualities, 89
Mistress greatly, marauders and livestock, 90-91

Miller, Robert H. "Letters of Lieutenant Robert H. Miller to His Family, 1861-1862." Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 70 (January 1962): 62-91.

Co. F, 14th Louisiana Infantry
McClellan on Peninsula, 81-82
Magruder, 82
Stonewall Jackson, 83
Butter, 85
Contempt for Yankee army and McClellan, 85
Cedar Mountain, 88

Miller, Randall M. "'It is Good to be Religious': A Loyal Slave on God, Masters, and the Civil War." North Carolina Historical Review 54 (January 1977): 66-71. HC-Done

Miller, William J., ed. "'Dear Mother, Since last I wrote you we have made the fur fly . . . ': Letters Home from the Bucktails." Civil War Regiments 1 (No. 3, 1991): 45-51.

13th Pennsylvania Reserves (42nd Pennsylvania Infantry)

Prison, Richmond, casualties, 46-47
Second Bull Run, death of son, 47-48
Target shooting, 49
Gettysburg, 49-50
Tough soldiers, rafting, shooting, 50-51

Milligan, Lambdin P. "Lambdin Milligan's Appeal for State's Rights and Constitutional Liberty during the Civil War." Indiana Magazine of History 66 (September 1970): 263-83.

Milligan speeches on states' rights
Attack on Lincoln administration, 271
What the war will do, 273
Conscription, 272-73
Need to ask whether the war is right, 273ff
Revolution, 278
Civil liberty, Union, 280ff

Mills, Luther Rice. "Letters of Luther Rice Mills--a Confederate Soldier." North Carolina

Historical Review 4 (July 1927): 285-310.

26th Virginia Infantry
Marching rain, 289
Minister, 290
Confederate navy, 290
Substitute, 292
CSS Virginia, 292
Charleston, Sumter, 293
Consolidation of regiments, 294
Signal corps, 294-95
Slave slaves, 296
Olustee, 297
Drewry's Bluff, Butler, 299
Petersburg, 301ff
Food, 302
Cold, clothing in short supply, 303
Morale, 303-4
Desertions, morale, 306

Mims, W. J. "Letters of Major W. J. Mims, C.S.A." Alabama Historical Quarterly 3 (Summer 1941): 203-231.

Co. G, 43rd Alabama Infantry
Box, clothes, 204
Disease, 204-5
Deserters, 205-6
Fraternization, 206
Advises wife not to stay if Yankees occupy area, 206
Disease and deserters, 207
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 209-10
Kentucky secessionists, Unionists, 209-10
Debt, 210
Advice to wife on rearing the children, 210-11
Bushwhackers, designing women, 211

Women and virtue, prostitution, East Tennessee, 210-11
Religion, Christian spirit of wife's letters, 213
Morale, doubtful about Confederate prospects, 214
Bragg, Beauregard, Lee, Joseph Johnston, Bucker, D. H. Hill, 214
Slaves and food for coming year, 215-16
Deserter, execution, 217
Deserter, 218
Winter quarters, 218
East Tennessee stripped of provisions, 219
Camp slave cook, 219-20
Impressment, 220-21
Wounded in arm, 221
Petersburg, 222ff
Wounded man, 223
Rodes death, 223
Peace Democrats and McClellan, 223
Under fire, trenches, 223-25
Sherman in Georgia, 225
Hood, Jefferson Davis, 225-26
Peace rumors, 226-27
Sherman, Robert E. Lee as commander in chief, Joseph Johnston, Beauregard, 228
Jefferson Davis and Congress, Lincoln, peace commissioners, subjugation, 229
Robert E. Lee. Limited news, rumors, 231
Desertion, demoralization, 231-32

Mitchell, James. "Civil War Letters from James Mitchell to His Wife, Sarah Elizabeth Latta Mitchell." Edited by Frances Mitchell Ross. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 37 (Winter 1978): 306-17.

Co. B, 34th Arkansas Infantry
Sterling Price, morale, 311-12
Wife managing farm, postwar opportunity, 312
Length of war, 313

Mitchell, James. "Siege of Petersburg." Civil War Times Illustrated 9 (August 1970); 14, 28-30, 47.

3rd New Jersey Battery, Private
Destruction, 14
Lines close to each other, 14
Deep Bottom, 28
Deserter execution, 28-29
Picket firing, 30

Extensive entrenchments, 30
Fraternization, 30
Raid on Union cattle, 30
End of Petersburg siege, 47

Mitchell, James Madison. "A Confederate Soldier's Letter." Edited by George W. Clower.

Georgia Historical Quarterly 30 (September 1952): 286-88.

24th Georgia Infantry
Virginia Peninsula, 287
Ill, marching, 287-88

Mitchell, William Henry. "Letters of Rev. W. H. Mitchell, January 1861." Edited by Virginia

K. Jones. Alabama Historical Quarterly 23 (Spring 1961): 180-87.

Presbyterian minister, Montgomery secession convention, 180ff
Secret sessions, 181
Mistaken for Stephen A. Douglas, 182
Fears of opposition in northern Alabama, 182
Secession excitement, 183
Women and flag presentation, 183-84

Mix, William H. "Bull Run or the First Battle of Manassas." Edited by James Willard Milgram.

American Philatelist 74 (April 1961): 504-6.

2nd New Hampshire Infantry, Private
Bull Run, 504-6
Guarding a battery and could not return fire, 505
Soldier helping wounded, 505-6
Alcohol, 506
Bayoneting wounded, 506

Mobus, Wilhelm. "'The Life of Wilhelm Yank': Letters from a German Soldier in the Civil War." Edited by David L. Anderson. Michigan Historical Review 16 (Spring 1990): 73-93.

Co. A, 13th Michigan Infantry, Private
Lookout Mountain, march, 78
Camp conditions, 79
Election of 1864, voted for McClellan, cheating, hard to get Democratic ballots, 81
Food prices, 84

Foraging, 85
Marching, 88
Mill Creek, battle, 88-89
Box, 89-90
Sherman-Johnston, surrender, 90-91
Grant Review, 92

Mockett, Richard H. "The Richard H. Mockett Diary." Edited by James L. Sellers. Mississippi Valley Historical Review 26 (September 1939): 233-40.

43rd Wisconsin Infantry
Shelling, gunboats, Nathan Bedford Forrest, 234
Marching, 234
Food, black woman, 236
Wealthy Confederate shot, 237
Stayed in a black family cabin, 237-38
Women smoke and do snuff, 240

Montfort, Theodorick Wingfield. "Another Letters from 'The Rebel Lawyer.'" Edited by Richard McMurry. Georgia Historical Quarterly, 52 (June 1968): 220-22.

25th Georgia Infantry
Fort Pulaski
Preparation for battle, 221

Montfort, Theodorick Wingfield. "Rebel Lawyer: The Letters of Lt. Theodorick W. Montfort, 1861-1862." Edited by Spender Bidwell King, Jr. Georgia Historical Quarterly 48 (September, December 1964): 331-33, 451-71; 49 (March, June, September 1965), 82-97, 200-16, 324-34.

25th Georgia Infantry
Refugees, 329
Soldiers treated well by Virginians, 452
Religion in camp, 452
Wife's pregnancy, 452, 458
Rumors about winter quarters, 454
Measles, 455, 458
Food prices, 455
Alcohol, whiskey, 480
Food, cooking, 480-81
Confederate soldiers stealing and foraging, 461-62

Soldier struggling with alcohol, 463
Savannah, 466ff
Poor food, 467-68
Savannah, 82ff
Yankee fleet, preparing for battle, 87
Soldier pay, 88-89
Fort Pulaski, 89ff
Fort Pulaski, 200ff
Letters and Yankees, 200
Naming artillery pieces, 201
Alcohol and tobacco, 202
Clothing, 204
Yankees burn property of a Dr. Stevens, 205
Clothing, 206
Captured letters, 206
Hatred of Yankees, honor, 209-10
Conscription, 211-12
Farm directions and labor, 213
God to avenge outrages on families, Fort Pulaski, 324
Preparation for battle, 325
Taxes, 326
Women and soldier uniforms and duty, 326-27
Soldier pay, 328
Prisoner, New York 329

Moore, David. "‘We Were Badly Whipped’: A Confederate Account of the Battle of Helena, July 4, 1863." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 69 (Spring 2010): 44-53.

35th Arkansas Infantry
Marching, swamps, 49-50
Badly beaten at Helena, 50
Fall of Vicksburg, 52

Moore, Hugh. "Illinois Commentary: A Reminiscence of Confederate Prison Life." Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 65 (Winter 1972): 451-61.

111th Illinois, Andersonville and Florence
Atlanta campaign, 452
Wounded soldier, 453
Taken prisoner, 453
Andersonville, 454ff
Hanging of the raiders, crime, 454
Food, cooking, 454
Dying soldier and family, 455

Tunnel, 455
Escape at Augusta, captured, 456
Prison at Florence, 456
Election of 1864 in prison, McClellan, Lincoln, 457-58
Food, cooking, 458
Reading Hume's History of England, 459
Fight over wood, 459
Meal aboard a steamship after being release, 460
Returns home and bombarded with questions, 461

Moore, J. C. "Diary of a Confederate Soldier." Edited by Larry G. Bowman and Jack B.

Scroggs. Military Review 62 (February 1982): 20-34.

18th Tennessee Infantry
Enlistment, 21
Measles, 21
Furlough, 23
Fort Donelson, 26-28
Taken prisoner, 28
Camp Butler, 28ff
Oath, 30
Thought of a prisoner, 30
Death of prisoner, alcohol, 30-31
Prison routine, isolation, 31
Oath prisoner exchange, 32

Moore, John. "Letters from Johnson's Island Prison, 186r." Edited by William Stanley Hoole.

Alabama Review 12 (July 1959): 222-33.

40th Alabama Infantry, Lieutenant
Johnson's Island, 225
Health, hospital, 225
Diarrhea, 227
Marion, Alabama, refugees, 227
Church, women and old men, 228
Box, clothing, shoes, 228, 230
Coat, 232

Moore, Robert T. "Turkeytown C.S.A. Letters." Alabama Historical Quarterly 23 (Fall and Winter 1961): 300-302.

19th Alabama Infantry
Camp, water, women, 300

Corinth, wounded men, prisoners, 301
Heavy Yankee casualties, 301

Moore, Waldo W. ed.. "First Hand Account of Life in II Corps of Lee's Army." North

Louisiana Historical Association Newsletter 8 (1968): 8-12.

9th Louisiana Infantry
Disease, 10
1864 Valley campaign, 10ff
Morale, officers, 10
Chancellorsville, severe wound, 11-12

Morgan, George P. and Stephen A. Morgan. "A Confederate Journal." Edited by George E.

Moore. West Virginia History 22 (July 1961): 201-16.

31st Virginia Infantry
Laurel Hill, 202-3
Rich Mountain, 203-4
Rain, morale, 204
Measles and weather, 205
Cheat Mountain, 206-7
Virginia election, convention, 207-8, 212-13
Confederate election, 208
Alcohol, 209
Alcohol, food, young women, 210
Food and alcohol, 211-12
Staunton hospital, wounded men, 214-15
Alcohol, stage coach, 215
Cold, sick furlough, substitute, 216

Morgan, Harry T. "Letters of a North Louisiana Private to His Wife, 1862-1865." Mississippi

Valley Historical Review 30 (March 1944): 533-550.

31st Louisiana Infantry
Methodist, Baptist, church, 534-35
Food, 536
Poor officers, 538
Vicksburg, 537
Food, starving, prices, 540
Pregnancy and children, 542-43
Court martial, execution, man shot, 543
Praying peace, 544-45

Morgan, John Abell. "The Civil War Diary of John Abell Morgan, S.J.: A Jesuit Scholastic of the Maryland Province." Edited by George M. Anderson. Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia 101 (No. 3-4, 1990): 33-54.

Catholic priest in Baltimore
Slavery, 34
Blacks in Baltimore, 55
Conscription, 36
Slavery, Catholics, 38
Women arrested for waving handkerchiefs at Confederate prisoners, 38
Churches taken as hospitals, 38
Vandalism by Federal soldiers, 38-39
Support for Confederacy at Georgetown, 39
Congress and generals, 39
Antietam campaign, Lee, behavior of Confederates, 39-
Attempted seizure of church for a hospital in Washington, 40-41
Emancipation Proclamation, 41
Black women, 41, 45, 46
Wounded Confederate, courage, 42
Man arrested for singing "Dixie", 42
Length of war, 43
Washington's Birthday, 43-44
Conscription, 44-46
Gettysburg campaign, 44
Election of 1864, 46
Peace prospects, 46
Fall of Richmond, 46
Celebration of Union victories, 47
Lee surrender, 47
Lincoln assassination, 47
Religious retreat for black people, 47
Mary Surratt, 47

Morgan, John S. "Diary of John S. Morgan, Company G, Thirty-Third Iowa Infantry." Annals of Iowa Series 3, Volume 13 (January, April 1923): 483-508, 570-610.

Thirty-Third Iowa Infantry
Trees and injuries, 486
Rumor of Richmond's fall, 489
Pemberton and Johnston, 491
Alcohol, drunkenness, 510
Mobile, Spanish Fort, 576ff
Wounded man, 583

Fort Blakely, 587ff
Mobile, 581
Lincoln assassination, 594

Morrison, Theophilus Wiley. "Recollections of Salem." Indiana Magazine of History 29
(September 1933): 247-53.

18th Indiana
Salem, Indiana
Agricultural work

Morrisett, Algernon Sydney. "A Confederate Soldier's Eye-Witness Account of the Merrimack Battle." Edited by Leonora Dismukes Parish and Camillus J. Dismukes. Georgia
Historical Quarterly 54 (Fall 1970): 430-32.

Monitor, Merrimack battle, Hampton Roads

Morrow, Henry Preston. "Reminiscing from 1861 to 1865: An 'Ex-Confed.' H. P. Morrow."
Edited by James L. Nichols. East Texas Historical Journal 9 (March 1971): 5-19.

16th, 25th Louisiana Infantry
Enlistment, one woman refused a kiss, 6
Sermon to soldiers about to leave for the war, 7
Food, 8
Lice, 8
Railroad trip, 9
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 9
Perryville, 9-10
Stones River, 10-11
Vicksburg, 11
Chickamauga, 11
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, 11-12
Atlanta campaign, 12-13
Journey home, 14-16

Morse, De Witt C. "A Fighting Sailor on the Western Rivers: The Civil War Letters of 'Gunboat.'" Edited by Jeffrey L. Patrick. Journal of Mississippi History 58 (Fall 1996): 255-83.

Acting Master mate, USS Curlew

Mound City, Cairo, 257-58
USS Ozark, 259
Island No. 10, 261
Vicksburg, 262
Grand Gulf, 263-64
Union graves, 264
Cotton trade, Confederate woman, 264-65
Fort Pillow, 266
Cotton thieves, cotton trade, 267
Encounter with General Marmaduke, firing on the river, 270-72
Guerrillas, firing, 273
Concentrating gunboats between Grand Gulf and Natchez, 276ff
Confederate officer spy, 277
Mules prices, 277
Consumption, yellow fever, burials, 278
Copperheads, election of 1864, McClellan, 282

Moseley, Edward. "English Views of the Civil War: A Unique Excursion to Virginia, April 2-8, 1865." Edited by James I. Robertson, Jr. Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 77 (April 1969): 201-212.

Journey from New York to battlefields of Virginia in April 1865
Possible arrest by Admiral Porter
Hospitals, 207
Petersburg, 207-9
Food prices, 208
Fine drawings, 209ff
Destruction in Richmond, 209-10
Lincoln and Grant, 211-12

Mott, William H. "War Journal of a Confederate Officer." Edited by Charles R. Mott, Jr.

Tennessee Historical Quarterly 5 (September 1946): 234-48.

24th Tennessee Infantry, Confederate
Horrors of camp life, 235-36
Bowling Green, 235ff
Nature of the American people, republic, war, destruction, 237
Shanty, food, 236-38
Fort Donelson, 238ff
Nashville, 240
Rain, march, food, 240-41
Murfreesboro, 243
Cowards, oath, Unionists, 244

Huntsville, 244-45
Andrew Johnson, 246
Duty, homes, abolitionists, 247
Confederate deserters, 248

Moyer, Henry C. "A Remarkable Gunshot Wound, the Case of Daniel V. Moyer, Company H., Fifth Pennsylvania Reserves." Now and Then 2 (May and June 1905): 177-82

34th Pennsylvania Infantry (5th Reserves)
Gaines's Mill, 177
Ball passed through body without hitting intestines, but wounded seemed mortal, 177-79
Official report of wounded, 181

Muir, Thomas S., ed. "Letters Pertaining to the Confederate Nitre Bureau Operations in Florida." Florida Historical Quarterly 74 (Summer 1995): 47-49.

Florida caves too wet for nitre to form, 47-49

Murdock, Henry. "Private Henry Murdock's Red Badge of Courage." Edited by Bob Mariani.

North-South Trader 8 (November/December 1980): 15-18, 47.

36th Massachusetts
Enlisted to escape conscription, 15
Bounty, 15
Drill, 16
Grant and Burnside, 16
Overland campaign, 16ff
Wilderness battle, 16-17
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 18
Helped wounded man off the field, 18
Petersburg, wounded, 47

Murphree, Joel. "Autobiography and Civil War Letters of Joel Murphree of Troy, Alabama, 1864-1865." Edited by H. E. Sterkx. Alabama Historical Quarterly 19 (1957): 170-208.

57th Alabama Infantry
Atlanta campaign, 171-72
Johnston and Hood, 172
Hood's Tennessee campaign, Franklin, Nashville, 172-73
Religious revival, 174
Wounded men, 177
Confederate taxes, 178

Various ailments, lice, 179
Food, 180
Homesick, 181
Johnston and Atlanta, 182
Food, commissary and quartermaster, 183
Sherman and Atlanta, 184ff
Johnston and Hood, 184
Soldier stealing, 185
Hood and Atlanta, 187
Yankees capture wagons, 188
Wheeler and cavalry, 192
Hood and Johnston, 194
Election of 1864, McClellan, 200
Soldiers supply themselves in Tennessee, 201
Spring Hill and Franklin, Nashville, 202
Catholic service, 204
Consolidation of regiments, 207

Murray, W. D. "The Alarms of the Peninsula Campaign: A Letter of Surgeon of the 100th Regiment." Niagara Frontier 15 (Summer 1960): 57-60.

100th New York Infantry
Peninsula, 57
McClellan, outgeneraled, 57-58
White Oak Swamp, Seven Days, 58
Hospital surgeons, 59

Myers, Gustavus A. "Abraham Lincoln in Richmond." Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 41 (October 1933): 318-322.

British consul in Richmond
General Weitzel, Judge Campbell, oath, 320-21
Lincoln on restoration of the Union, emancipation, Virginia legislature, 321-22

Myers, John "'Dear and Mutch Loved One'—An Iowan's Vicksburg Letters." Edited by Edward G. Longacre. Annals of Iowa 43 (Summer 1975): 49-61.

28th Iowa Infantry, Co. F, Corporal
Vicksburg campaign, 50ff
Grand Gulf, Port Gibson, 51-52
Foraging, food, plantation, women, 52
Champion Hill, 53-54
John A. Logan, 54

Confederate prisoners, 54
Earthworks, entrenchments, 55-56
Confederate deserters, 57-58
Vicksburg, odor, 57
Disease and deaths, 58
Officer election, 58-59
Diarrhea, 60
Myers dies of typhoid, 60-61