
Documents added as of July 2019

Imboden, John D. "Lee at Gettysburg." Galaxy 11 (1871): 507-13.

Ordered into western Virginia, Cumberland Maryland, 507-8
Retreat from Gettysburg, 508ff
Robert E. Lee, July 3 evening, 509
Wagons and wounded, rain, 509-10
Mustered in teamsters anticipating an attack 511-12

'It's Sheridan—Hooray!' A Note from the Knapsack of a Soldier in the Sixth." Onward 3

(January 1870): 1-12.

Sixth Corps, 1ff
Fisher's Hill, 1
Cedar Creek, 2-12
Middletown, 7

Documents added as of June 2019

Imboden, John D. "Reminiscences of Lee and Jackson." Galaxy 12 (November 1871): 627-34.

Robert E. Lee, 627ff
Lee in Richmond after being given command of Virginia troops, Harpers Ferry, 627
Lee on recognizing serious of the war, 628-29
Lee and furloughs after Seven Days, interest in his men, 629-30
Lived in same manner as the soldiers, 630-31
Simplicity on rank, 631
Courage at the front, 631
Stonewall Jackson, 631ff
Jackson and mustering in troops, 632
Kindly but stern, 633
First Manassas, 633
Valley campaign, 633-34
Reticence, 634
Good intelligence on the enemy, 634
Ordinary man except in military abilities, 634

"In the Ranks Under General Lyon in Missouri—1861." Blue and Gray 4 (1894): 142-47' 5

(1895): 66-70. 141-47. 199-203.

1st United States Infantry, Observations of a Private Soldier

Leavenworth, 142
Missouri, 142ff
Shooting practice, 142
Advances toward Liberty and Independence, 143
General Sturgis, 143
July 4, 144
Court martial for soldiers accused of plundering, 144
Nathaniel Lyon, 144ff
Lyon visit to camp, description, 145-46
Murder over cards, soldier execution, 146
McCulloch's Confederates, 66ff
Lyon, 67
Wilson's Creek, 69ff
Food, 69
McCulloch's confidence, 69
Lyon and council of war, 141-42
General Schofield, 142-43
Sigel, 143
Captain Plummer, 146
Regulars short of officers, 199
Lyon mortally wounded, 200
Sigel, 201
Frederick Steele, 201-2

Documents added as of April 2019

Imm, Ivan Earl. "The Civil War as Seen by Colonel James George, Second Minnesota

Volunteer Regiment." Olmsted County Historical Society Monthly Bulletin 2 (May 1960): 33-39.

2nd Minnesota Infantry
Mill Springs, death of Zollicoffer, 34-36
Women and flag presentation, 37
Death of Colonel McCook, 37
Chickamauga, 37-38

Documents added as of February 2019

Ibbetson, William H. "William H. H. Ibbetson, Co. D, 122d Reg. Ill. [Diary]. Publications of the Illinois State Historical Library 37 (1930): 236-73.

122nd Illinois Infantry

Operations against Nathan Bedford Forrest, 237ff
 Marching, 238
 Confederates trample on regimental flag, 238
 Christmas, food, 239
 Parker's Crossroads, 240
 Planter, 241
 Alabama, 241ff
 Fishing, 242
 Water, 243-44
 Town Creek, 244-45
 Guarding Memphis & Charleston railroad, 246ff
 Guerrillas, Home Guards, 247-48
 Foraging, 248
 Dance, southern women, 248
 Home Guard, foraging, 248-49
 July 4, Unionists, 249
 Vicksburg surrender, 249
 Gettysburg, 249-50
 Hospital, fever, 250
 Women, guerrillas, 251
 Chickamauga, 250-51
 Dull routine of camp life, 251
 Poor eastern troops, discipline, 254
 Chattanooga, Grant, Bragg, 254
 Winter quarters, 256
 Forrest and Paducah attack, 258
 Fort Pillow, 259
 Memphis, 259
 Forrest's cavalry, 259-60
 Forrest, marching, heat, 261
 Tupelo, fighting, Harrisburg, 263-64
 Slavery and emancipation, 266
 Providence and war, 267-68

Ingersoll, Lucinda Ballou and Ruth Ann Whittmore. "Despotism of Traitors': The Rebellious
 South Through New York Eyes." Edited Walter Rundell, Jr. New York History 45
 (October 1964): 331-367.

Religion and importance of trusting in God, 332
 Much advice from a soldier's mother, 333ff

False war news, 336-37
 Furlough or discharge, 339
 Worries about soldier sleeping on the ground, 342
 Letters, war rumors, 342
 Engineers and pontoon bridges, 342
 Wants him home and country saved from “despotism of traitors,” 344
 Richmond, rumor of McClellan being a traitor, 345
 Fear that much more blood must be shed before rebellion is put down, 346
 Fears Confederates will prevail, Copperheads, 347
 Food prices, 348
 Fall 1862 elections, Democrats, 348-49
 Fredericksburg, Burnside and McClellan, 349
 McClellan, Confederates, Burnside, 350
 Burnside resignation, too many people just want to make money, 351
 Horatio Seymour, Copperheads, 351
 Chancellorsville, Hooker, 352-53
 Copperheads, Confederate women, 354
 Chancellorsville casualties, evil rebellion, God of justice, 354-55
 Reenlistment, 355-56
 War between copperheads and Union men, 356
 Theater, 357
 Reenlistment, bounty, 358
 Asks about copperheads in the Army of the Potomac, 358-59
 Fortune teller, 360

Ingraham, Elizabeth Mary Meade. “The Vicksburg Diary of Mrs. Alfred Ingraham.” Edited by

W. Maury Darst. Journal of Mississippi History 64 (May 1982): 148-79.

Vicksburg campaign, 150ff
 Confederates and Yankees at Vicksburg, 151
 Yankees thieving, 151-53
 Slaves and Yankees, 152
 Yankees seeking food and carry off various items, 153-55
 Seek protection by having general occupy property, 155ff
 Destruction by Yankees, 160
 Slaves, Yankees stealing Bibles, 162
 Yankees interfering with slaves, 163-64
 She may have to work for a living, father, 165
 Fredericksburg, 165
 Slaves, 168
 Heavy artillery fire, 170ff
 Slaves, fears black more than Yankees, 171
 Slaves not working, 172
 Slave woman, servant, 174

Irwin, Samuel S. "Excerpts from the Diary of Samuel S. Irwin, July 5, 1863 to July 17, 1863."

Edited by James Monahan. Journal of Mississippi History 27 (November 1965): 390-94.

2nd Illinois Cavalry, Lieutenant
Movement toward Jackson, 390ff
Champion's Hill graves, 391

Isabelle, R. H. "Two Letters in Protest of Race Prejudice in the Army During the American Civil War." Edited by Howard J. Jones. Journal of Negro History 1 (January 1976): 97-98.

Co. H., 2nd Louisiana Native Guards
Resignation, prejudice, free blacks, election of officers, 97-98