

Documents Added as of March 2020

Graham, Joseph. "Gettysburg: Remembering Pickett's Charge: 'An Awful Affair.'" Edited

Max R. Williams. Civil War Times Illustrated 23 (April 1984): 46-49.

1st North Carolina Artillery, Battery C, Captain
Gettysburg, 30ff
July 2, 47
Pickett's Charge, 48ff

Documents Added as of January 2020

Gardner, Charles. "The 'Pet Lambs' at Glorieta Pass." Civil War Times Illustrated 15

(November 1976): 30-37.

1st Colorado Infantry
Mountain men and Indian fighters
Fort Union, 31
Marching, weather, 32
General Canby, 32ff
Glorieta Pass, 33=35
Burial truce, 35
Ignorant Texans, 35-36

Granger, Arthur Otis. "A Witness to History." Civil War Times Illustrated 24 (April 1985): 40-

41.

15th Pennsylvania Cavalry, Private, clerk to General Sherman
Kindness and consideration of Sherman, 40
Sherman Johnston negotiations, Bennett house, 41

Gullick, Charles Hickman. "War on the River: A River Pilot's Mail. Letters from Heck."

Edited by Stan Hamper. Civil War Times Illustrated 21 (October 1982): 24-31.

U.S.S. Ivy, accountant, river pilot, Vicksburg campaign, letter of Peoria Daily Mail
Running the gauntlet, Admiral Porter, 24-26
Natchez, 27
Alexandria, Louisiana, 28
Foraging, 29
Siege of Vicksburg, gunboats, 29

---

Documents added as of August 2019

Galloway, B. P. "A Texas Farm Boy Enlists in the 12th Cavalry." Texas Military History 8

(1970):: 87-95.

12th Texas Cavalry
David C. Nance, enlistment, 87-89
Mess, 89-90
Dress and arms, 91
Horse, 91-2
Pneumonia, 92
Lincoln, 93
Furlough, 93

Gilmore, James Roberts. "Garfield's Ride at Chickamauga." McClure's Magazine 5 (September 1895): 357-60.

Chickamauga, 357ff
George h. Thomas, 357
Rosecrans sends Garfield with message to Thomas, 257-60
Gordon Granger, 360

---

Documents added as of July 2019

Greene, George Sears. "Story of a Brigade." United States Service Magazine 4 (October 1865):

301-13.

3rd Brigade, 2nd Division, Twelfth Corps
Organization of Army of the Potomac, 302
Joseph Hooker, 302-3
Chancellorsville, 303-5
Gettysburg campaign, 306-7
Transfer of Twelfth Corps, 307-8
Chickamauga campaign, 308-9
Chattanooga, 309-12
Reenlistment, 312

---

Documents added as of May 2019

Gales, Seaton. "Gen. George Burgwyn Anderson." Land We Love 3 (1867): 93-100

Biographical background, 93ff
Resigned commission in U.S. Army, 96
4th North Carolina Infantry, 96ff
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 97
Antietam, wounded, death, 97-99

Gilmore, James Robert. "The Chicago Conspiracy." Atlantic Monthly 16 (July 1865): 108-120.

Northwest conspiracy, 108ff
Attack on Camp Douglas, 108ff
Young man commandant foiled the conspiracy, 108ff
Camp Douglas described, 109
July 4, 109ff
Penetrated local Society of the Illini, 110
Report on activities in Canada, 110
Confederate officer came from Canada with secrets of the plot, 111
Democratic convention in Chicago, 112
Election of 1863, 113
Details of plot, general uprising, 114
Order of American Knights, 116
Planned attack on election night, 117
Arrests made, 119
Copperheads, election, 120

Gittings, John G. "Recollections of 'Stonewall' Jackson." Blue and Gray 4 (1894): 203-10.

Cadet at VMI, 203
Physical description, 203
Artillery practice, 203-4
Teacher, 204
Scrupulous, 205
Poor speaker, 205
Harpers Ferry, 205-6
Cheering soldiers, 207
1862 Valley campaign, uniform, women, 207
Malvern Hill, 207-8
Fredericksburg, 209
Moss Neck winter quarters, 209

Documents added as of May 2019

Gardner, Theodore. "The First Kansas Battery, An Historical Sketch with Personal

Reminiscences of Army Life, 1861-'65." Transactions Kansas State Historical Society

14 (1918): 235-82.

1st Battery, Kansas Light Artillery

Arms, 236

Wagon and mules, 236-37

Camp life, food, 237

Indians, 237, 239ff

Mules and water, 238

Skirmishing, casualties, 240

Water, 240-41

Marching, 242

Soldier tricked two Confederates trying to take him prisoner, 243

Newtonia, 244-45

Prairie Grove, Cane Hill, 247-54.

Casualties, 251

Dripping Springs, 254-55

Built a boat to carry wagons and mules, crossing river, 255-56

Alcohol, drunken soldier blown up, 257-58

Snow, 258

Man selling apples in camp, 258-59

Foraging corn, pig, 259

Soldier pretending to be blind to get out of service, 259-60

Celebrating fall of Vicksburg, alcohol, beer, 261

Artillerymen and teamster, St. Louis, 261

John Hunt Morgan, 261-63

Railroad journey of Jefferson City, Missouri, 265-66

Looting Confederate store, 270

Johnsonville, 277-79

George H. Thomas, Nashville, 280-81

Gardner, Washington. "Civil War Letters." Michigan History Magazine 1 (No. 2, 1917): 3-18.

65th Ohio Infantry

Stones River, 3-4

Patriotism, 4

Patriotism, women, Vollandigham, 5

Vicksburg, 5

Copperheads, 6

Morale, recent victories, women and patriotism at home, 6-7

Chickamauga, 7

Chattanooga, damage, 8
Deserters, execution, 8-9
Christmas, peace prospects, 9-10
Knoxville, Longstreet, 10
Women, patriotism, 11
Reenlistment, 11
Religion, Sunday School, swearing, 11-12
Destruction caused by armies, 12
O. O. Howard, religious, discipline, 13
Atlanta campaign, Resaca, wounded, 14
Hospital, Chattanooga, visit from family, 14-15
Hospital, Nashville, 17
Being mustered out, 17-18
Men indifferent to being under fire, religious service, chaplain, 17-18

Gilpin, Ebenezer Nelson. "The Last Campaign, Cavalryman's Journal." Journal of the United States Cavalry Association 18 (1908): 617-75.

3rd Iowa Cavalry
Emory Upton, 617-18 et passim
James Harrison Wilson, troops review, 629
Grierson, 620
Chickasaw, Alabama, 623ff
Wilson's Raid, 623
Persimmons, 627
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 628
Prisoners, 628
Skirmishing, 630-31
Crossing the Black Warrior River, 631
Plantation seized, 632
Skirmishing, casualties, 635-36
Selma, destruction, foundry, ironworks, 637-42
Confederate women, books, music, 644-45
Montgomery, 648-
Liberated slaves, 650
Tuskegee, 651
Columbus, Georgia, 652-55
Lincoln assassination, 657
Macon, 657ff
Flag, 658
Food, coffee, 659
Sherman and Johnston, 660
Upton, 661-62, 669-70
Disbanded Confederate troops, 662
Augusta, 663-65

Atlanta, 665
Alexander H. Stephens, Lincoln, 667-68
Forrest, Gainesville surrender, 668-69

Glover, Amos. "Diary of Amos Glover." Edited by Harry J. Carmon. Ohio Historical Quarterly 44 (1955): 258-72.

15th Ohio Infantry, Co. F
Drill, 260
Soldier pay, 262
Rain, march, clothing, official incompetence, 264
Alcohol, commissary, 264
Shiloh, 265-66
Ambulance, 266-67
Illness furlough, 267
Rosecrans, 268
Officers, alcohol, 268
Stones River, 268
Casualties, 269
Tullahoma campaign, 270-71
July 4, 271

Goodell, William H. "The Burning of Columbia, S.C." Iowa Historical Record 4 (1888): 105-8.

15th Iowa Infantry
Picket officer for General Belknap
General Frank Blair, 125
Crossed river into Columbia, 126
Bales of cotton burning in the street, 126-27
Confederates responsible for burning of Columbia, 127-28

Greene, Albert Robinson. "Campaigning in the Army of the Frontier." Transactions Kansas

State Historical Society 14 (1918): 283-310.

9th Kansas Cavalry
Enlistment, 283
Food, eating, 283
Horse, water, 284
Sleeping on guard duty, 284
Officers, 284
Jokes and tricks, 285
Prayer meeting, swearing, 286
Fort Scott, 286ff
Drilling, civilian observers, 287

Scouting for Indians, Stand Wattie, 288
Confederate woman, 289
Newtonia, 291
Pea Ridge Battlefield, 295
Cooking, 298
Prairie Grove, 298-99
Fraternization, burial detail, officers, 299-300
Dripping Springs, 302-
Alcohol, 304, 307
Confederate woman and slaves, 309-10

Greene, Albert R. "On the Battle of Wilson Creek." Transactions Kansas State Historical Society 5 (1896): 116-27.

9th Kansas Cavalry
Regulars and volunteers, 116-17
Officers, 117
Wilson's Creek, 118ff
Thoughts before the battle, 119
Lyon, 120ff
Claiborne F. Jackson, 122
Sigel, 122
Performance of Union soldiers, 124

Greene, Albert R. "What I Saw of the Quantrill Raid." Transactions Kansas State Historical Society 13 (1915): 430-51.

9th Kansas Cavalry
Guerrillas, sacking of Humboldt, 430
Burning of Olathe, 430
Quantrill, threats against Union recruits, 431ff
Cavalry patrols, 431
Ambush and murder cavalryman, 432
Mistaken arrest of a Unionist, 432
Quantrill raid on Lawrence and Topeka, 433
Rumors, 435
Delay in pursuing Quantill raiders, 437
Woman forced to cook corn for Confederates, 438
Trial of plunder along the way, 439
Men distracted by piles of money they saw, 441
Cries of the wounded on both sides, 444
This night attack broke up Quantrill's band, 444
Mistakes made by Union officers, 445
Ewing order on depopulating part of Missouri, 446

James Lane, 446-48

Charges Ewing, Gamble and Schofield with being Confederate sympathizers, 447

Jennison, 447

Quantill excuse of responding to Union depredations in Missouri, 449

Griffith, Joseph Evan. "The Twenty-Second Iowa Infantry at Vicksburg." Annals of Iowa 6

(1868): 215-19.

22nd Iowa Infantry

Envelopment of Vicksburg, 216ff

Talk right before battle, 216

May assault on Vicksburg, 217ff

Stormed parapet, planted flag, casualties, 217-18

Gullick, William O. "The Journal and Letters of Corporal William O. Gullick." Iowa Journal of History 28 (1930): 194-267, 390-455, 543-603.

1st Iowa Cavalry

Tents, 201

Rain, tents, ditches, 203

Clothing, 205

Benton Barracks, 210ff

Order and discipline, 212

Samuel R. Curtis, 214-15

Drill, charging, saber, 215, 222

Food, 221-22

Fremont, Blair, Slavery, 223

Measles, 226

Sham battles on parade grounds, 229-30

Horse, 230

Measles, 233

Food, 238, 245

Christmas, 243

Drill, 249

Box, 252

Prisoners, women, 252

Oath, prisoners, 394

Food, 395

Captured prisoners and arms, 398-99

Guerrillas, 400

Scouting trip, 400-1

Oath, 403

Cowardly assassins, guerrillas, 413-14

Shiloh, 417

Fight in camp, 424
Guerrillas, 425-26
Soldier pay, 427
Conscription, 434
Skirmish with Quantrill, 435
Clear Creek, chasing Confederates, 436-38
Casualties, burial, 437-38
Unionist, high prices, stealing, 438-39
Unionist women, fear of Confederates, 446
Scouting, 451-52
Enlistment, conscription, 453-54
Stragglers, guerrillas, 546
Guerrillas, 549-50
Emancipation Proclamation, slavery, Republicans, 556-57
Confederate money, ignorant people, 564
Burning a town, 569
Returning to Missouri, march, food, 572-73
McClellan vs. Fremont, 573-74
Prairie Grove, 575-76
Diarrhea, death, 577
Orders against plundering and destruction, 578
Fayetteville, 578ff
Letters, 591
Home, bed, 591-92
General Davidson, 594-95
Conscription, Copperheads, 595-96
New York draft riot, 599
Amputation, 601
Little Rock, 602

---

Documents added as of April 2019

“General Patterson’s Campaign in Virginia.” Continental Monthly 1 (March 1862): 257-63.

1st Wisconsin Infantry, private
Takes no stand on loyal General Patterson, 257
Complaints about inefficiency and fault-finding, 257
Harpers Ferry, Patterson’s failure to occupy it, 258
Delay in advancing on Winchester, 258
Should have advanced to Martinsburg and Winchester, 260
Delay hurt Unionists, 262
Patterson could not see what was plain in front of him, 262
Notes Patterson’s other faults, 263

Gilmer, Harry. "Gilmer's Field Report of His Raid in Baltimore County." Maryland Historical Magazine 47 (September 1952): 234-40.

2nd Maryland Cavalry (Confederate)
1864 raid into Maryland, 237ff
Destruction of bridges, 237
Capture of railroad station and telegraph operator, 237
Casualties, 239-40

Goldsmith, W. L. "Cavalry vs. Infantry." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 214.

14th Georgia Infantry
Cavalry charge at Cedar Mountain, 214
North Anna River at Jericho Ford, 214

Goldsmith, W. L. "'Stonewall' Jackson's Last Grand Blow." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 302-3.

14th Georgia Infantry
Chancellorsville, 302-3
Wounded Stonewall Jackson, 302
Captured German soldiers, 303
Jeb Stuart, 303
Water to wounded Federal, 303

Gordon, James. "The Battle and Retreat from Corinth." Publications of the Mississippi Historical Society 4 (1901): 63-72.

2nd Mississippi Cavalry
Iuka, 64
Corinth, 64ff
Charging Federals and protecting a battery, 65-66
Brave Federal officer, 66
Killing a sharpshooter and getting his gun, 66-67
Rogers charge, Rosecrans and burial, 69
Rations, food, 71-72

---

Documents added as of February 2019

Gailor, Frank M. "The Diary of a Confederate Quartermaster." Edited by Charlotte Cleveland and Robert Daniel. Tennessee Historical Quarterly 11 (March 1952): 78-85.

Captain, 7th Tennessee Infantry, Confederate
Eagerness for battle, 78-79
Death at Perryville, 79-80
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 80ff
Kentucky women, 80
Clothes, shoes, 81
Quartermaster, 81ff
Horses, 82
Emancipation Proclamation, England, Lincoln, 82

Gallup, Francis E. "A Connecticut Yankee at Fredericksburg." Edited by Richard Lowitt.

Military Affairs 19 (Winter 1955): 203-4.

21st Connecticut Infantry, Fredericksburg

Gallup, Philo H. "The Second Michigan Volunteer Infantry Joins the Army of the Potomac."

Edited by Chester McArthur Destler. Michigan History 41 (December 1957): 385-412.

2nd Michigan Infantry, Co. E, Private
Detroit, 387ff
Will not complain about accommodation, revolutionary fathers, 388
Troops reluctant to serve for three years, 389
Deserter, 390
Death of Stephen A. Douglas, 391
Baltimore, mob, 392, 394
Boy itching to fight, nearly hung a Washington secessionist, 393-94
Bull Run, 397-98
Picket firing, 401-2
Fraternization, Confederate deserter, 402-3
Back trouble, unfit for duty, 405
Fears being called a coward, 406
Letters with young women, 408
Women in camp, 409
Food prices in camp, 410

Gangewer, Henry William. "And Three Rousing Cheers for the Privates': A Diary of the 1862

Roanoke Island Expedition." Edited by Mary Seaton Dix. North Carolina Historical

Review 71 (January 1994): 62-84.

Co. K, 51st Pennsylvania Infantry
Civilians greet troops along road, food, 66
Roanoke Island, 66ff

Food prices, 71
Ragged Confederate deserters, 72
Runaway slaves, 72
Attack on Roanoke Island, 73
Sight of dead on battlefield, 75
Confederate prisoners, 77
Muskets and Enfield rifles, 79
Dead on the battlefield, 80
Women slaves planting cord, 81
Picket shooting, 81

Garber, Michael C., Jr. "Reminiscences of the Burning of Columbia, South Carolina." Indiana Magazine of History 11 (December 1915): 285-300.

Sherman and Hampton, 286
Sherman in Columbia, soldiers, 287-88
Slaves in Columbia, 289
Fire, 289ff
O. O. Howard, 291
Wheeler's cavalry, 296-97

Gardner, Henry R. "A Yankee in Louisiana: Selections from the Diary and Correspondence of Henry R. Gardner." Edited by Kenneth E. Shewmaker and Andrew K. Prinz. Louisiana History. 5 (Summer 1964): 271-95.

18th New York Independent Battery Light Artillery
Casualties, 273
Routine, 273
Tent signs, 274
Letters, 274
Rumors, 274
Jefferson Davis, 274
Port Hudson, 275ff
Officers, 277-78
Black troops, 278
Artillery fire, 279
Fraternization, 281
Confederate deserters, 281
Gettysburg, copperheads, 283
New Orleans, black troops, 284
Butler, 284
Election of 1864, Lincoln, Grant, 284
Lincoln assassination, 285

Slavery, copperheads, 285
*slaves, future, 285-86
Blacks soldiers, 286-87
Confederate women, 287-88
Cotton speculation, 290
Reconstruction, 291
Constitutional convention, 291-92
New Orleans riots, 293-94

Garner, William Wakefield. "Letters of an Arkansas Confederate Soldier." Arkansas Historical Quarterly, 2 (March, June, September 1943): 58-70, 171-84, 268-86.

Company C, Home Guard Company of Mounted Cavalry
Disease and death, 60
Death, 61-62
Federal taking slaves, 63
Vicksburg, rumor, Rosecrans, Bragg, 172
Helena battle, Sterling Price, 172-75
Paroled prisoners, 179
Morale, 179
Price's Missouri raid, 268ff
Desertion, duty, 268-69
Chickamauga, morale, 271-72
Men who have gone home will return to duty, 273
Election officers, colonel, 279-80, 282
Peace, gradual emancipation, 280, 282
Wounded, 283-84

Gay, Samuel Frederick. "The Gay Letters: A Civil War Correspondence." Edited by Max L.

Heyman, Jr. Journal of the West 9 (July 1970): 377-412.

7th Massachusetts Infantry
Jefferson Davis, rumor of his death, 379
Straw bedding, 380
Box, 381
Winter quarters, 381-82
Bayonet exercise, 382
Peninsula campaign, 383ff
Fair Oaks, 385
Soldier pay, 385
Food, 386
Sutler prices, speculators, 286
Fredericksburg, 389
Support for war, punishment of the South, 391

Slavery, Emancipation Proclamation, 391-92
Mud March, 393-94
McClellan, election of 1864, 409

“General Butler and the Seventh New York Militia.” Historical Magazine 2 (February 1868):
66-70.

7th New York Infantry (National Guard)
Benjamin F. Butler, 66ff
8th Massachusetts and 7th New York at Annapolis, 67
Blasts Butler’s claims and inaccuracies, 67ff

"Georgia and the Confederacy." American Historical Review, 1 (October 1895): 97-102.

Howell Cobb, Seddon, conscription, voluntarism, slave soldiers, 97-98
Howell Cobb to Jefferson Davis, disaffection in Georgia, governors, state conventions, peace, 98-99
Benjamin H. Hill to Davis, Georgia affairs, state conventions, Brown, Stephens, 100-2

Gibble, Chambers. “Our Camp and Soldiers’ Life.” Edited by John D. Kendig. Pennsylvania
Folklife, 31 (Autumn 1981): 8-16.

79th Pennsylvania Infantry
Thunderstorm hurts two lieutenants, 9
Food and quarters, 9
William T. Sherman, 9
Unionists supply food, 10
Skirmishes, Chattanooga, 10
Foraging, 11
Conscription, 11
Food, 12
Murfreesboro, Breckinridge, refugees, 12
Rosecrans, 13
Atlanta, length of war, Lincoln, election, 13
Christian Commission, 14ff
Hospital, 15

Gibbs, George Alphonso. “A Mississippi Private at 1st Bull Run and Ball’s Bluff.” Civil War
Times Illustrated 4 (April 1965): 42-47.

18th Mississippi Infantry
Secession, 42
Enlistment, 42-43

Soldiers and young women, 43-44
Chicken mascot, 43
First Manassas (Bull Run), 44-45
Food, 46
Ball's Bluff, 46-47

Gibbs, William E. "Captain Gibbs' Company, CSA, Civil War Letters." Edited by Charles H.

Warner and A. C. McGinnis. Independence County Chronicle 2 (April 1961): 46-56.

Arkansas soldier
Short of rations, food, 50-51
Kentucky Confederate, 54
Bragg's Kentucky campaign

Gibson, Drury P. "Letters from a North Louisiana Tiger." Edited by Debra Nance Laurence.

North Louisiana Historical Association Journal 10 (No. 4, 1979): 130-47.

Louisiana soldier
Disease, death of soldier, 130
Best men are soldiers, 131
First Manassas, Bull Run, 132-34
Length of war, Yankees fight for plunder and pay, 135
Army destruction in Virginia, Confederate, 136
Sickness, disease in camp, 136-37
Peninsula campaign, 139ff
Seven Days, 139-40
Fredericksburg, 142
Surgeon, 140ff
Chancellorsville, 144-45f

Giesecke, Julius. "The Diary of Julius Giesecke, 1861-1865." Translated by Oscar Haas. Texas

Military History 3 (Winter 1963): 228-42; 4 (Spring 1963): 27-54.

4th Texas Cavalry, Captain
Sibley's New Mexico campaign
Religious services, 229
Horses got away, 230
Water, 230. 232
Fort Craig, 235
Battle of Valverde, 235
Snow, 236
Glorieta Pass, 237
Albuquerque, 238

Skirmishing, Bayou Teche, 28
Taken prisoner, New Orleans, 29
Slave accused of Confederate sympathies, shot at and chased away, 29
Customs House, 30
Fort Delaware, 31
Guerrillas, 32
Bayou Teche, Opelousas, 37
People sharing good with Confederate soldiers, 41-42
Wind and injured horses, 45
Sabine Crossroads, 47-48
Pleasant Hill, Mansfield, 48

Gilbert, William H. "Transient Prisoner: The Reminiscences of William H. Gilbert." Edited by

Alvin Sunseri. Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 74 (Spring 1981): 41-50.

19th Illinois Infantry
Chickamauga, taken prisoner, 43
Libby Prison, 44
Castle Thunder, food, 44
Made moccasins and trinkets, 44
Danville prison, escape through sewer, 44-45
Guard shoots prisoner, 45
Andersonville, 45-47
Henry Wirz, 46-47
Spring water, 47
Hanging of the raiders, 47
Charleston prison, Sisters of Charity, Colonel John F. Iverson, 47
Escape at Wilmington, helped by slaves
Poem about his prison life, 49-50

Gill, John C. "An Ohio Doctor Views Campaigning on the White River, 1864." Edited by Harry Forrest Lupold. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 34 (Winter 1975): 333-51.

120th Ohio Infantry, assistant surgeon
Troops occupy Arkansas cotton field, damage, 336
Water, diarrhea, 337
Confederate destroy houses to prevent them falling into Union hands, 337
Guerrillas, picket firing, 342, 345

Gill, John C. "A Union Medical Officer Views the 'Texians.'" Edited by Harry F. Lupold.

Southwestern Historical Quarterly 77 (April 1974): 481-86.

120th Ohio Infantry, Assistant Surgeon

Red River campaign, 483
Texans, food, prisoner, women, 483

Gill, John C. "A Union Surgeon Views the War from Kentucky, 1862." Register of the Kentucky Historical Society 72 (July 1974): 272-75.

120th Ohio Infantry, Assistant surgeon
Marching, rain, 273
Typhoid fever, 274
Church as hospital, 274-75

Gillet, Orville. "Diary of Lieutenant Orville Gillet, U.S.A., 1864-1865." Edited by Ted R. Worley. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 17 (Summer 1958): 164-204.

Co. I, 3rd Michigan Infantry
Many routine, short entries
Mortally wounded man, 166
Enlistment dispute, 195
Cotton and various money matters, 200

Gilliam, Robert C. "From Paraclift to Marks' Mill: The Civil War Correspondence of Lieutenant Robert C. Gilliam. Edited by James J. Hudson. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 17 (Autumn 1958): 272-302.

Militia lieutenant
Camden Expedition, Steele, 272
Poison Springs, 273ff
Marks' Mill, 273ff
Jenkins' Ferry, 274ff
Plantation instructions, 276ff
Food, 277, 284
Reading tactics, 281
Rumors about Bragg, 284
Slave sales, 289
Cotton, bonds, Confederate money, 291-92
Foraging, Choctaws, Poison Springs, killing black troops, 292

Gilmour, Henry S. "New Orleans at War: A Merchant's View." Edited by Dale A. Sommers. Louisiana History 14 (Winter 1973): 49-68.

Cotton brokerage manager

Business at standstill at beginning of the war, 53-54
First Bull Run, Manassas, Winfield Scott, 55-57
Cotton trade, 57
Fortifications below New Orleans, 59
Bridge burning in East Tennessee, 59
Military company in New Orleans, 60
Defenses of New Orleans, 60-61
Trent affair, Mason and Slidell, 62, 64
Confederate guards, militia, 63
Low morale in New Orleans, lack of faith in Confederate money, 66
Ship Island, superior northern weapons, 66
Attack on forts below New Orleans, 67

Ginder, Henry. "A Louisiana Engineer at the Siege of Vicksburg: Letters of Henry Ginder."

Edited by L. Moody Simms, Jr. Louisiana History 8 (Autumn 1967): 371-78.

Assistant to Chief Engineer of Vicksburg fortifications
Siege of Vicksburg, 373-78
Long periods in trenches under fire, 373
Joseph E. Johnston, 373
Food, 373
Artillery fire, 374
Cave, artillery magazines, 374-75
Yankee sharpshooters, sapping and mining, 375
Artillery shells, etc. all over Vicksburg, 376
Vegetables stolen by soldiers, 376
Importance of hold Vicksburg, 377
Kittens killed, dishes broken, 377
Food prices, 378

Glazier, James E. "The Roanoke Island Expedition: Observations of a Massachusetts Soldier."

Edited by James I. Robertson, Jr. Civil War History 12 (December 1966): 321-46.

Co. E, 23rd Massachusetts Infantry
Fortress Monroe, 325
Trip on schooner to North Carolina, 325ff
Food and water, 329
Foraging, 332
Gunboats, 339
Roanoke Island, 341ff
Confederate prisoners, 345

Glidden, John M. "A Yankee Views the Agony of Savannah." Edited by Frank Otto Gatell.

Georgia Historical Quarterly 43 (December 1959): 428-31.

Massachusetts soldier
Savannah, Union Occupation
Wheeler cavalry, dead man, 430
Church service omits prayer for the President, 430

Goddu, Louis. "The New Recruit." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 153-59.

2nd New Jersey Infantry
In love with a Canadian woman, 153-54

Golder, Frank A. "The American Civil Through the Eyes of a Russian Diplomat." American Historical Review, 3 (April 1921): 454-63.

Blames demagogues for the war--needless war? Politicians, 456
Lincoln, 457-58
Seward, 458
Faith in American people, 459-60

Goode, Philip H. "My Dear Wife': A Soldier's Letters." Edited by Edward W. Vollersten.

Palimpsest 72 (Summer 1991): 68-69.

15th Iowa Infantry, Lieutenant
Shiloh, 68-69
Illness in regiment, 68
Had hoped to write a letter before battle in case he was killed, 68
Officers in battle, 68
Fear in battle, 69
Resignation, duty, 69
Thoughts of home, Christmas, 69

Goode, Philip H. "A Pretty Hard Business': The Civil War Diary of Philip H. Goode."

Edited by Edward W. Vollersten. Palimpsest 72 (Summer 1991): 51-67.

15th Iowa Infantry, Lieutenant
Thoughts of home, bravery, 52
Mumps, 53
Dress parade, 53
Poisoned orange purchased from a woman, Confederates, death, 53-54
Benton Barracks, 54ff

Pea Ridge prisoners, 55
Loneliness, letters, 55
Shiloh, 57-58
Finger amputated, 58
Confederate prisoners, deserters, 59
Expectations for a decisive battle, 60
Confederate grave, odor, 60
Tobacco, 60
Sabbath, 60
Ill soldiers, surgeon, 61
Cold, rain, mud, sleeping, 62
Inspection, 62
Prayer meeting, chaplain, 62
Corinth, 62ff
Heat, water, 65
Resignation, 66
Smoking moss, tobacco substitute, 67

Goodson, Joab. "Letters of Captain Joab Goodson, 1862-1864." Edited by W. Stanley Hoole,

Part 1 and 2. Alabama Review 10 (April and July 1957): 126-53, 215-31.

Co. B, 44th Alabama Infantry
Army of Northern Virginia crossing the Rapidan, 129
Fredericksburg campaign, 130ff
Virginians suffer from the invading armies, 131
Unlikely there will be a battle at Fredericksburg, 132
Battle of Fredericksburg, 133-37
Picket duty, 138
Snowball fights, 138-39
Longstreet and wife, 140
Disease, stomach troubles, 142-43
New Richmond theater, 145
Bernard House, Fredericksburg, 146
Army morale, 146
Chickamauga, 149-53

Goodwin, Fairfield. "Doubly Paid for Any Sacrifice." Edited by Ann Gebhard. Michigan

History 74 (March/April 1990): 10-16.

First Illinois Light Artillery, Battery I
Enlistment, 11
Arrest, bread and water sentence, 12
Selling music, 13
Shiloh, wounded, 15-16

Goodwin, Jane "Victorians Myths." Camp Chase Gazette 11 (August 1974): 18-21.

Marriage, sexuality

Gordon, John B. "The Gordon-Barlow Story, with Sequel." Edited by John J. Pullen.

Gettysburg Magazine 8 (January 1993): 5-7.

John B. Gordon, Francis C. Barlow, Gettysburg, 5-7

Gordon, Nellie Kinzie. "Northern Rebel: The Journal of Nellie Kinzie Gordon, Savannah, 1862." Edited by Mary D. Robertson. Georgia Historical Quarterly 70 (Fall 1986): 477-517.

Boxes for soldiers, Savannah, 482-83

Southern unity, Yankees deluded, Seward, Lincoln, Manassas, confidence, 483

Quaker guns on Munson's Hill, 483

Music, singing, 487

Day of fast, humiliation, and prayer, sermon, 488

Fort Pulaski, Corinth, New Orleans, 492-93

Southerners fight, but don't work, 494

Williamsburg battle, Peninsula, 498

David Hunter, emancipation, 498-99

Yeoman country women, 502-3

Tensions as a refugee, 509

Antietam, 510

Cesspool dumped on porch because she was a relative of General Hunter, 512

Gossett, Joseph B. "A Letter from the Front: Vicksburg, 1863." Edited by Erich L. Ewald.

Indiana Magazine of History, 91 (June 1975): 321-25.

Co. F., 8th Indiana Infantry

Vicksburg, 324-25

Gourdin, Robert N. "Robert N. Gourdin to Robert Anderson, 1861." Edited by Samuel G.

Stoney. South Carolina Historical Magazine 60 (January 1959): 10-14.

Grand jury forman in Charleston, became friends with Anderson

Criticizes Anderson's determination to defend Fort Sumter, 11-13

Notes Anderson recognizes wrongs suffered by South, reject coercion, 11

Notes how Kentucky is against coercion, 12-13

Graham, James E. "Had a Pleasant Time': Excerpts from the Diary of a Yankee in Dixie."

Edited by Albert Castel. Blue & Gray 3 (March 1986): 32-37.

80th Ohio Infantry, Captain
July 4, Vicksburg, alcohol, 32
Women, 33
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, 33
Atlanta campaign, 34ff
Women, dancing, 34
Alcohol, poker, 34
Confederate women, 35
Chaplain, preaching, 35

Grant, Charles R. "Marching by the Flank." Western Reserve University Bulletin 15 (1912):

44-57.

12th Connecticut Infantry
Louisiana plantations, slaves, water, 45, 48
Confederate prisoners, 46
Foraging, 47
Alcohol, rum, 48
Plantation, food, 49-50
Counterfeit Confederate money, 50
Emancipation and slaves, 51-52
Claims about loyal slaves, 52
Alexander Mouton, 53

Gray, Virginia Davis. "Life in Confederate Arkansas: The Diary of Virginia Davis Gray, 1863-1865," Parts I and II. Edited by Carl H. Moneyhon. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 42

(Spring, Summer, 1983): 47-85, 134-69.

Born, Maine, 1834--ardent Confederate
Death of baby, 52
Militia, 55
Federal occupy Little Rock, 55
Woman desire for peace, weight of war in appearance, 58-59
Yankees, hateful word, 63
Yankees arrive, 63
Slaves flee, 64
More alarms about Yankees, 65-66
Marriage, 66-67

Yankees send ugly women to St. Louis, 68-69
Christmas, hospital, 71
Federals threaten women, 80-81
Hospital prayer meeting, 134
Benefit concert for wounded soldiers, 134-35
Opium pill, 136
July 4, 141
Soldiers, women, camp preaching, 144
Women socializing with Generals, Sterling Price, Marmaduke, 151-52
Religious meeting, controversy over the preaching, 154
Election of 1864, Lincoln, 158
Defeat of Sterling Price, 158

Grayson, William John. "The Confederate Diary of William John Grayson." Edited Elmer J.

Purveyor. South Carolina Historical Magazine 63 (July 1962): 137-49. In published autobiographical volume.

Green, Ann Forrest. "Diary of Ann Forrest Green of 'Rosedale.'" Northern Neck of Virginia

Historical Magazine 43 (December 1993): 4971-4987.

Rosedale Plantation, Virginia—near Georgetown and Washington
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, Buchanan, 4972
Congress, 4972
Peace convention, 4973
Lincoln arrives in Washington, inauguration, 4973
Sentinels on every square, 4974
Spies, 4975
Regiments arrive, 4976
Lincoln, 4977-78
Ellsworth and Jackson, Zouaves, funeral, 4978
Balloon, 4979
German soldiers, stealing cherries, 4980
Soldiers protest being served spoiled meat, 4980
Reign of terror, 4980-81
First Bull Run campaign, 4981-4983
Attack on Confederate prisoners, 4982
Slaves excited by soldiers, 4983
Troop review, Pennsylvania, Lincoln, Scott, 4984
Accidental shooting of soldiers, 4985
Arrests in Baltimore, 4985
Spies, arrests, 4985
Ball's Bluff, 4986

Green, J. E. "As a North Carolina Lieutenant Saw Gettysburg." Civil War Times Illustrated 3

(August 1964): 30.

53rd North Carolina Infantry
Action on all three days

Greene, S. Dana. "I fired the first gun and thus commenced the great battle.: American Heritage 8 (June 1957): 10-13, 102-5.

Executive officer, U.S.S. Monitor, no pagination on pc
Duel with Virginia, (Merrimac)
Praises the engineers, gas
Difficulties with blowers and wheel ropes
Explosion of the Congress
Damage to each ship
General Wool and Gustavus Fox
Dislikes being displaced as commander of the ship

Greenlach, James. "Letters of James Greenlach." Edited by Knox Mellon, Jr. Michigan History

44 (June 1960): 188-240.

1st Michigan Engineers and Mechanics, Co. B, Private Drunken soldiers shot by guards, 193
Don Carlos Buell, 193
Photograph, 194
Dysentery, 194-95
Alcohol, whiskey ration, 194-95
Food, 197
Burying northern soldiers, 198-99
Religion, disease, death, 199
Nashville, 200 et passim
Prayer meeting, 200
Rosecrans and fortifying Murfreesboro, 201-2
Democrats, copperheads, Emancipation Proclamation, Vicksburg, 202
Food, 202-3
Rosecrans, 203
Photograph, 205
Hooker, Chancellorsville, Rosecrans, 206
Conscription, 207
Illness at home, lonesomeness, 207
Wheeler raid on bridge, 212-13
Cooking, 215, 217
Prayer meeting, 221

Cooking, baking, 222, 225
Confederate prisoners, Atlanta campaign, 223
Faithfulness and unfaithfulness of wives at home, 223, 227-228
Fort Pillow, black soldiers, revenge, 224
Soldier pay, prices, 226
Savannah, 229, 231
March to the Sea, 230-31
Destruction, women crying, 230
People believing Yankees had horns, 231
Foraging, 233-34
Burning of Columbia, 234-35
Bentonville, 235-36
Lincoln assassination, vengeance, soldier cheered death and was killed, 237-38
Surrender of Lee's army, 247-48

Greer, George H. T. "All thoughts are absorbed in the war." Civil War Times Illustrated 17

(December 1978): 30-35.

Staff officer for Jubal Early
Fredericksburg campaign, 30ff
Food, 30
Marching, 31
Christmas, 35

Gregg, Sarah Gallop. "The Diary as Historical Evidence: The Case of Sarah Gallop Gregg." By Kathleen S. Hanson and M. Patricia Donahue. Nursing History Review 4 (1996): 169-86.

Hospital transport ship, Shiloh, 180—no quotations from the diary

Gregory, Edward S. "Southern Preachers in the War." Philadelphia Weekly Times, November 6, 1880.

Episcopalians

Griffin, Daniel. "A Hoosier Regiment at Chattanooga," Edited by Arville L. Funk. Tennessee Historical Quarterly 22 (September 1963): 280-87.

38th Indiana Infantry, Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain

Griffin, Daniel. "A Hoosier Regiment at Stone's River: An Account by Lt. Colonel Daniel F. Griffin." Edited by Arville L. Funk. Filson Club History Quarterly 37 (January 1963):

24-28.

38th Indiana Infantry
Stones River. 25-28
Food, 27
Horse killed, 271

Griffin, Daniel. "A Hoosier Regiment in Alabama." Edited by Arville L. Funk. Alabama Historical Quarterly 27 (Spring/Summer 1965): 91-94.

38th Indiana Infantry
Foraging, 92
Destruction of property, 92
General Walter Q. Gresham, 94

Griffin, Daniel. "A Hoosier Regiment in Georgia," Edited by Arville L. Funk. Georgia Historical Quarterly 48 (March 1964): 104-9.

38th Indiana Infantry, Georgia, Atlanta campaign

Griffing, James S. "A Letter from Reverend James S. Griffing." Edited by James W. Dibble.

Westport Historical Quarterly 7 (September 1971): 7-12.

2nd Kansas State Militia, battles of Big Blue and Westport
Sterling Price invasion

Grimball, John Berkeley. "Diary of John Berkeley Grimball, 1858-1865." South Carolina Historical Magazine 56 (April, July, October 1955) : 92-114, 157-77, 205-225; 57

(January 1955): 28-50, 88-102.

Extensive wartime plantation diary
Guano, 95
Rice harvest, 95
Overseer, 99
Election of 1860, Lincoln, 100-1
Secession, 100
Slavery and Union, 101

Secession convention, 101-2
 Moultrie and Sumter, 103ff
 Overseer and runaway slaves, 104-5
 Attack on Fort Sumter, 106-7
 First Bull Run, Manassas, 109
 Produce loan, 110
 Sequestration Act, 112-13
 Disruption of plantation life, 159
 Black troops attacked, 163
 Slaves run away from plantation, retention, work house, 166-67
 Passport through lines, 174
 Seven Days, McClellan, 174
 Plantation, slave arrangements, 206
 Old man in reserves, 208
 Destruction on plantation, 208-9
 Few whites in attendance at church service, 209
 Selling slaves, 214
 Attacks on Charleston, 217
 Blockade running, 219
 Confederate bonds, 28, 96
 Attacks on Charleston, 28ff
 Dysentery, death of sister, 29-30\
 Slaves running off to Yankees, 31
 Episcopal confirmation, 34-35
 Food, salt, prices, 38
 Lee and Johnston's armies, 47
 Illness and death of son, 88-89, 91
 Daughter becomes a teacher, 97
 Lee, surrender, Appomattox, 100

Grinager, Mons H. "The Letters of Mons h. Grinager: Pioneer and Soldier." Translated and Edited by C. A. Clausen. Norwegian-American Studies 24 (1970): 29-77.

Only one civil war letter, May 24, 1862, Captain, Fifteenth Wisconsin Infantry
 Raising regiment, Missouri, slaves, Island No. 10

Griner, Joseph Addison. "The Civil War of a Pennsylvania Trooper." Edited by Daniel H.

Woodward. Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 87 (January 1963): 39-62.

12th New Jersey Infantry
 Nature of soldiering, 41
 Patriotism and cowardice, 42
 Review of troops by McClellan, 43

Receives arms, proud to be a soldier, 43
God and battles, 44-45
Union advance on Centreville, 46
Yorktown, Williamsburg, Richmond, McClellan, 47-48
Seven Days, McClellan retreat, 49
Antietam, 49-50
Fredericksburg, 50
Morale, patriotism, duty, removal of McClellan, 50
Hooker, 52
Morale, pay, 54
Guerrillas, 54
Overland campaign, 54ff
Grant, Meade, black troops, 55
Hospital, dysentery, 56-57
Democratic convention, 56
Petersburg, Hatcher's Run, 57-58
Christmas, 58
Fort Fisher, death, 59
Death and letter from orphan, 61-62

Grizzard, Walter B. "War Prison Experience of a Confederate Officer." Edited by W. J.

Holman, Jr. Tennessee Historical Quarterly 10 (October 1951): 149-60.

Cavalry
Unionists and Federal troops in West Tennessee, 150
Furlough, captured, 152
Taken prisoner, 153
Prison at Columbus, Kentucky, 153-54
Prison at Alton, Illinois, 154
Prisoners described, small pox, 155-56
Described prison accommodations, 156
M. Jeff Thompson, 156-57
Alcohol, whiskey, 160

Gross, Luelja Zearing. "A Sketch of the Life of Major Roberts Zearing, M.D." Publications of the Illinois State Historical Library 28 (1922): 139-202.

57th Illinois Infantry, Surgeon
Camp Douglas, 150ff
Fort Henry, 151
Foraging, soldiers taken prisoner, 151-52
Accidental shoot, death, 152
Food, water, 154
Grant, Shiloh, 154ff

Caring for the wounded, 156
 Corinth, 158ff
 Typhoid, death, 159
 Soldier pay, 160
 Iuka, Sterling Price, 160-61
 Corinth, 161ff
 Caring for the wounded, 164
 Confederate prisoners, 164-65
 Officers conflict, 165-67
 Guerrillas, 66
 Confederate destruction of railroad, 167
 Women in camp, cardplaying, chaplains, 169
 Vicksburg, 170ff
 Grenville Dodge, 171
 Food, 172
 Unionists in Tennessee, 172
 Athens, Alabama, 173ff
 Measles, 174
 Forrest and Fort Pillow, 174-75
 Bonds, 175-76
 Atlanta campaign, 176ff
 Sherman, Atlanta, Grant, 177-78
 Rome, Georgia, 177-78
 Dalton and Resaca, 179-80
 Sherman and Johnston, slow progress, 180
 Chattahoochee River, 182
 Sherman and Atlanta, 183
 Wounded men, amputations, hospital, 184
 Amputation complications, 185
 Soldier pay, 187
 Surgeon duties, 188
 Confederate strategy around Atlanta, railroad, 188-89
 Atlanta, local people, 190
 March to the Sea, 190
 Birth of child, 192
 Savannah, 192-94
 Hilton Head, 194-95
 Washington, trip by sea, Fort Fisher, Wilmington, 195-97
 Goldsboro, North Carolina, Lincoln assassination, 197-98
 Richmond, 199-200
 Grand Review, 201-2

Guffin, Ross. "A Night on the Mississippi," Putnam's Magazine 15 (April 1870): 419-424.

Guerrillas, illicit trade

Guild, Amassa. "The Eighteenth Massachusetts Regiment Volunteer Infantry in the Rebellion, Together with Some Personal Reminiscences." Dedham Historical Register, 13-14

(October 1902, January, April, July, October 1903): 98-105, 2-11, 48-55, 75-83, 108-17.

18th Massachusetts Infantry

Dedham rallied to Union cause after Fort Sumter

Union more important than slavery, 100

Officers and members of regiment, 100ff, 6ff

Enlistment, drill, grand ball, 2-3

Tents and camp duties, 5-6

Bull Run, 9-10

Traveling to the army, 48ff

Washington, 52

Coffee, water, 76

Hardtack, 76

Meat, 76

Black people selling pies, 77

Box, alcohol, 81

German troops, lack of discipline, 109-10

Pickets and Confederate property, 111-13

Zouaves, 113-15

Tents, stove, 115-16

Guild, Amassa. "The Mule and the Army Wagon in the Civil War." Dedham Historical Register 13 (1902): 77-80.

18th Massachusetts Infantry

Mules and wagons, 77ff

Overland campaign, Wilderness, 79-80

Guild, Amassa. "War Diary." Dedham Historical Register 13 (1902): 43-47.

18th Massachusetts Infantry

Washington, 44

Working on fortifications, Fort Corcoran, 44

General Martindale, 45

Picket firing, 46

Gurganious, Alfred and Susan Jane. "Alfred and Susan Jane (DuBose) Gurganious Letters, September 1861-July 1862." Lower Cape Fear Historical Society Bulletin 16 (May 1973): 1-6.

Love, relief for families, children at home, Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, Seven Days.

Guy, John Henry. "A Virginian at Fort Donelson: Excerpts from the Prison Journal of John Henry Guy." Edited by B. Franklin Cooling, Tennessee Historical Quarterly 27 (Summer 1968): 176-90.

Goochland Light Artillery, Virginia, Camp Chase, Ohio
Captured at Fort Donelson
Fort Donelson, 178ff
John B. Floyd, 178ff
Gideon Pillow, 179ff
Long account of Donelson

Gwinn, Laban. "The Civil War Letters of Laban Gwin: A Union Refugee." West Virginia History 43 (Spring 1982): 227-45.

Guerrillas, 229
Pass to go to Indiana, 230
Refugee in Iowa, Vicksburg, 231, 233
Starvation in western Virginia, 232
Confederate threat in Jackson County, 233-34
New Orleans, does not think war with last long, Lincoln, Election of 1864, 234-35
Food prices, Louisiana, 236
Refugees in Ohio, Quakers, 236-39
Fall of Richmond, 238
Union, peace, 240