
Volume 1
3rd Battery, Richmond Howitzers, 97
Benjamin F. Butler, burning of Hampton, library disturbed, 98-99
Wrote a poem at Yorktown, 100
McCabe articles for Southern Literary Messenger on corruption, English political history, Italian literature, 102-107
Winter quarters on the Peninsula, 107=9
Death of his mother, 109-10
Savannah, 112-13, 116-18, 125-26, 127-28
Passport of visit camp, 115-15
Poem on Christmas, 1862, 118-20
Commissioned lieutenant of artillery, 123
Charleston, James Island, 124-25, 126-27
Charleston, Beauregard, 129
Fort Sumter, 130ff
Slaves scarred by the shelling, 131
General Ripley, 131
Battery Wagner, 132
Under artillery fire, 132-33
General Gilmore, Yankee sharpness, 133
Artillery fire, monitors, 134ff
Dead bodies repeated hit by shells, 142
Spiking guns, 144
Daily reports of artillery exchanges, 134ff
Henry Timrod, 157-58
Adjutant of Pegram’s light artillery, Memoir of William J. Pegram, 158-60
Last days of Petersburg, Five Forks, Pegram, 162-66
Final days of the war, 166-67
Five Forks and William Pegram’s Death, 168-75
General Lee and assignment of Pegram to brigade command, 175
Death of Willie Pegram, 176-77
Defense of Petersburg, 181
Poetry written late in the war, 182-84
Defense of Petersburg, 186-89