

Handerson, Henry E. Yankee in Gray: The Civil War Memoirs of Henry E. Handerson. Edited by Lottridge Cummer. Cleveland: Press of Western Reserve University, 1962.

9th Louisiana Infantry, Co. B
Red River, plantation, slavery, 19-22
Medical student in New Orleans, 22
Election of 1860, Bell, 24
Secession in Louisiana, 24-25
Opposed secession, 28
Stafford Guards, sins of planters, 30-31
Journey to Virginia, 32
Typhoid and dysentery, 33
Louisiana Tigers, Wheat, 33-35
Typhoid, 35-36
Christmas, 1861, 36-37
Picket duty, 37-38
1862 Valley campaign, 40-43
Seven Days battles, Cold Harbor, 44-48
Malvern Hill, 48-51
Quartermaster department, 51-
Antietam, 51-52
Fredericksburg, 52-55
Chancellorsville campaign, 55-60
Searching for Army of Northern Virginia, convalescent soldiers, 60-64
Retreat from Gettysburg, 64-65
Assistant Adjutant General, 65
Bristoe Station, 66
Mine Run, Payne's Farm, 67-69
Overland campaign, 69ff
Wilderness, taken prisoner, 69-71
Prisoner pen, 72
Black soldiers, 73
Fort Delaware, 74-75
Charleston, Morris Island, 76-79
Fort Pulaski, 79-83
Teacher, 87
Secession, 87-88
Enlistment, photograph, 88
Virginia, Beauregard, 89
Leonidas Polk, 89
Confiscation act, 90
Siege of the Potomac, 90-91
Brigade organization, 91
Disease, 92
Box, clothing, 92
Engineer appointment, 93

Uncertainty of letters, mail, 93-94
McClellan and Buell, 94
McClellan and Seven Days, 95
1862 Valley campaign, 95-96
Seven Days, 96
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 97-98
Quartermaster, 99-100
Bragg, Stones River, 100
Chancellorsville, wounded, casualties, 101-3
Prisoner, box, 103
Fort Delaware, 103-5
Morris Island, Charleston, 106
Fort Pulaski, 106-
Prisoner box embargo, 108
Books, 109
Food, prison rations, 109
Box, clothing, 110-11
Fort Delaware, 111-17
Oath for release, 112-13
Jefferson Davis and cabinet, 114