

Munson, John W. Reminiscences of a Mosby Guerrilla. Washington: Zenger Publishing, 1983.

John S. Mosby, 1-10 et passim
Scouting, 3
Captain's commission, 4
Defense of Mosby's guerrillas, 5-6
43rd Virginia Battalion of Cavalry, 6ff
Type of men that Mosby recruited, 8-9
Greatly attracted by word of Mosby and his men, 12-13
Clothing, 14
Mosby, horse, joining the rangers, 16-20
How Mosby's men lived, no drilling, different from regular cavalry, arms, wore gray, 21
Dress, 25-28
Repaid civilians for supplies, 28
Sutler's stores, 29
Mosby and scouting, 30-31
Horses, 31, 33-35
Camp slaves, 32-33
Mosby did not consult others, 36
Discipline, 37-39
Capture of General Stoughton, Chantilly, 40-54
Early recruits, 42-43
Miskell's farm skirmish, 55-63
Warrenton Junction, 64-67
Artillery piece, 68
Catlett's Station, 69-75
Capturing wagons, 76-77
Prisoners, 77-80
Dranesville, 80-92
Raid into Maryland, Point of Rocks, 1864, 93-101
Berryville skirmish, Mosby, Sheridan, 102-14
Federals want to clean out Mosby's gang, Captain Blazer, Valley, 115-25
Sketches of Mosby men, encounters with Yankees, 126-43
Death of a soldier, 141-43
Fairfax Station, Mosby, Federal and sabers, 144-46
Custer, hanging Confederates, Mosby and retaliation, 146-53
Jubal Early, 147-48
Fairfax Courthouse cavalry camp, 154-55
Captured a Yankee picket, 155-56
One courier glad to be captured, 156-58
Scouting, killed four pickets, 158
Robbing captured soldiers, 165-66
Captured, 167ff
Locked up in a railroad station, 172
Washington, Old Capitol prison, 172ff
Blackened face to escape as a scavenger who cleaned out prison each night, 174-75

Other escape attempts, 175ff
Disguised himself as a hospital steward, escape, 177-84
Free in Washington, woman, boarding house, 185
Crossed Potomac, 194
Horse, killing a Yankee lieutenant, prisoners, various scouts, 200-207
Yankee sutlers, 208-219
Greenback raid, Sheridan, 220-30
Mosby tactics, 228-29
Louis Powell, Lincoln assassination, 231-32
Fight at Salem, 232-33
Coffee, 234-35
Bugle calls, 236-38
Losses in Mosby's command, 238
Wounded men, 239
Frank Stringfellow, scout for Stuart, 241
Joseph Blackwell and Mosby, 243-48
Wounding of Mosby, 249-52
Mosby's last fight, 253-60
Mosby command in good condition when Lee surrendered, the Rangers disband, Mosby speech, 261-77