
2nd Tennessee Infantry, Co. B
Migrated from Kentucky to Arkansas, 19
Slavery, 20-21
No freedom of opinion in the South, 21
Meeting of vigilance committee, charged with disloyalty, accused of being an abolitionist, crowd wanted to hang him, terrorism against northern men, 22ff
Escaped, 27
Forced to volunteer, 33
Character of regiment, 36
Randolph, Tennessee, drill, 36
Sabbath, idleness and vice, 37
Rations, food, 38
Stolen alcohol, 38-39
Mutiny, General Pillow, leniency, 39-42
Argument between a sergeant and his wife, alcohol, whiskey, 42-45
Fort Pillow, 45ff
Camp slaves, 46
Gideon Pillow, 48-49
Columbus, Kentucky, Battle of Belmont, 50-58
Camp Beauregard, ordnance service, 59
Floyd and northern cannon, quality of various artillery pieces, 61-64
Small arms supplies, 65-67
Learned to run a railroad engine, accident, 67-73
Pneumonia, measles, 73-74
Religion in Confederate armies, literature, hospitals, 74-77
Transferred to cavalry, 79
Guerrillas, 80-82
John Hunt Morgan, 82-85
Superiority of Confederate cavalry, 85
Reaction in Nashville to capture of Fort Donelson, 86-88
Retreat from Bowling Green to Corinth, 88
John Hunt Morgan, 90-92
Horse accident, 93
No sign of Unionist sentiment in Tennessee and Alabama, Confederate control of press, 93-97
Shiloh, Breckinridge, courier, Albert Sidney Johnston, Beauregard, Hardee, 100-118
Retreat to Corinth, wounded, 118-21
Hospital, Corinth, 123
Appointed assistant surgeon, 124
Amputations, 124-26
Deaths in hospital, 125
Influence of women, 126
East Tennessee Unionist deserted Confederate army, executed, 126-29
Railroad journey to Mobile, 129-30
Mobile, newspapers, 130
Rich man handed out money to soldiers in the hospital, 131-32
Selma, hospital, generosity of women, 132-33
Soldier pay, Richmond, 133-35
Conscription and pay, 137
Escape north, 137ff
Confederate money and gold, 138-39
Helped by a Confederate deserter, 139
Confederate conscription, 139-42
Chattanooga, escape, 142ff
Yankee cavalryman takes his horse, 153
Takes oath, 152-58
Conclusion about barbarism of southern society, 159-60