

Hall, James Madison. A Feast of Reason: The Civil War Journal of James Madison Hall. Edited by Karen Gerhardt Fort. Abilene, Tex.: State House Press, 2016.

Houston County and Liberty County, Texas, farmer and merchant

Farm work, clearing land, slaves, 1-18
Trial, acquitted, 18-19
Birth of a child, 30-31
Election of 1860, 31-32
Young women, marriage, 35
Christmas, 36
Galveston, 37-38
Property and taxes, 40
Secession election, 45
Liberty Guards going to Virginia, 55
Galveston, fire, 58
Salesman in a store, 60
Slave, whipping, 66
Liberty Guards sworn into service, 68
Unloading cannon, 74, 77
Sales at the store, 79
Militia, nominated to be a colonel in Texas state troops, 80
Drilling regiment, 83
War tax, 84-86
Recruits, 88
Conscription, 89-90
Elected mayor of Liberty, 92
Provost marshal, tax assessor, 96
War tax, purchased a slave, 99
Divided lands with his father, 102
Conscription, 106-7
Block Trinity River from Yankee gunboats, 108
Tableaux-vivants, 110
Christmas, 113
Christmas, 139
Conscription, arrested, 149
Death of soldier, Battle of Mansfield, 160
Cotton, penitentiary, 171
Soldiers stole flour, 180
Galveston fortifications, 189