

Brainerd, Wesley. Bridge Building in Wartime: Colonel Wesley Brainerd's Memoir of the 50th New York Engineers. Edited by Ed Malles. Knoxville: University of Tennessee Press, 1997.

50th New York Engineers

Engaged in business on eve of war, 4-6
Belonged to a military company before the war, 6-9
Lincoln, 9
Birth of daughter, 14-15
Bull Run, 16
Enlists in engineers, 16-18
Elmira, troops departure, members of the company, 19-29
New York, 30-31
Fire Zouaves, 30-31
Baltimore, 32-33
Washington, 33
Drill, discipline, Butterfield, 36-37
Fort Corcoran, death in regiment, 37-38
Revivals, baptism, chaplain, profane sergeant, 39
Swearing, 39-40
Picket duty, Munson's Hill, 40-41
McClellan troop review, 42
Chaplain, religious services, 43
Camp, bridging material, 15th New York Engineers, 44-48
Contact with families, spiritualist, 48
Soldier photographs, 48-50
Alcohol, 50-51
Women in camp, 51
Colonel had little military knowledge, 51-52
Soldier life, sleeping on the ground, 54
McClellan troop review, 54
Peninsula campaign, 55ff
McDowell, 55
Troops review by McDowell and McClellan, 56
Drill, 56
Camp Winfield Scott, 60
Pickets, cattle, 61-62
Yorktown, batteries, 64-66
Marching, 66-68
Horseback riding, 67
Chickahominy bridge, 68
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, bridge, 69-71
General Prim, 72
Horse, 72-73
Sight of Fair Oaks battlefield, 73
Bridge work, 73-74
Snake, 74

Seven Days, 75-80
White Oak Swamp, Savage's Station, 76-77
Alcohol, 78
McClellan, 79
Marching, heat, water, 81-82
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 83-84
Antietam, 84-86
Harpers Ferry, Berlin, 86-93
Lincoln, 88-89
Camp servant, Welshman, 90-91
Removal of McClellan, 93
Pontoons, moving to Fredericksburg, 94-
Woodbury, 98
Reconnaissance, 98-106
Burnside, Woodbury, Spalding Fredericksburg, cross the Rappahannock, 107-118
Battle of Fredericksburg, 119-121
Reasons for disaster at Fredericksburg, 122-23
Furlough, 123-28
Commission as major, 125
Mud March, 129
Winter quarters, storm, 130-31
Deaths, dead march, 133-34
General Henry W. Benham, 134-35
Lincoln, troop review, 136
Soldier pay, 137
Chancellorsville campaign, 138-146
Formidable tasks of crossing the Rappahannock, 140ff
Rumors, 143
General Benham, easing out Colonel Stuart, 147-49
Franklin's Crossing, 150-159
Women's hospitality, 161, 163-64
Hooker replaced by Meade, 161
Taking pontoon train to Washington, 161-68
Potomac and danger to boats, 169
Berlin, Harpers Ferry, 170
Furlough rejected, 171
Days of Thanksgiving, 171
General Benham's plan of reconstruction by conversion, 172-73
Mother visits camp, 174
Pontoon drills, Lincoln, French officers, 175-76
Washington, capitol, 177
Rappahannock Station, 179, 182
Blackburn Ford, 180
Court martial, 181. 183-85
Mine Run, 182
Christmas and New Year's 182-83

Wife in camp, 187
 Lincoln, 188
 Lincoln at Groves theater, Edwin Booth, 188
 Rappahannock Station camp, 189
 Copperheads and soldier vote, 190-91
 Wife, church, leaves camp, court martial duty, 191-92
 Overland campaign supplies, 195-96
 Hancock, review of troops, 197
 Grant, 199
 Corps review, Hancock, 199-200
 Many orders, 200
 Deserter, execution, 200-201
 Orders for the campaign, 201-2
 Wilderness, 202-212
 Burnside, 212
 Wounded men, ambulances, 213-14
 Spotsylvania Courthouse, reserve, Fredericksburg, 215ff
 Casualties, 216
 Hospital, 221-22
 Bowling Green, 223-24
 Confederate woman, 224
 North Anna River, 225-27
 Hancock and Burnside, 225-26
 Difficulty with bridges, 228-230
 Pamunkey, 231
 Cold Harbor casualties, 231-39
 Earthworks, 237-39
 James River crossing, 242-45
 Petersburg, 246-47
 Service records, engineers, 256-63
 Newspaper articles, defense of engineers, 264-98
 Grandfather's letter while he was at Elmira, religion and support at home, 299-300
 Officer promotions, 301-3
 Soldier death at Antietam, 304
 Officer promotion, 305-7
 Fredericksburg, wounded soldiers, 309-312
 Colonel Stuart's resignation, 312-15
 Union cause, light to the world, 315
 Poem, Stuart's engineers, 317-320
 Washington and McClellan orders, Christian soldiers, 320-21
 Orders on batteries and trenches at Yorktown, 321-25
 McClellan order on troops approaching Chickahominy, 326
 Order on pontoon trains, 327-331
 Overland campaign, Wilderness, order on move to Rappahannock Station, 331-33
 Grant review of the Second Corps, 334-336