

Blauvelt, Isaac E. Civil War Letters of Isaac E. Blauvelt, Friends and Other Suitors. Edited by Charles E. Finsley. Cedar Hill, Tex.: Kings Creek Press, 1997.

67th Ohio Infantry

Started to the army, 35

Washington, provost duty, 36

Food, 40

Dance when he comes home, 41, 43

Soldier pay, 42

Overland campaign, 44ff

Confederate artillery fire, 46

Only black women here, have not seen a white woman for a long time, 47

Wounded soldiers, 49

Soldier pay, 51

Casualties, 51

Fraternization, trade, 52

Alcohol, 53

Artillery fire, 55

Photograph, 59

Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 60-61

Skirmish, winter quarters, 62

Soldier pay, 64

Christmas, 66

Furlough, war over soon, 68-69

Soldier asking a woman to begin a correspondence, 70

Free black from Ohio, 71

Furlough, 72-73

Desertion, murder, execution, 74

Dancing, 74

Wants war to end, regiment has lost half its men in battle, 77

Petersburg breakthrough, Fort Gregg, 78

Gave rations to starving women and children, 79

War is over, 80

Marriage, 82

Soldier pay, 82