

Britton, Wiley. Memoirs of the Rebellion on the Border, 1863. Lincoln: University of Nebraska Press, 1993. [1882]

6th Kansas Cavalry

Background to operations in 1863, Blunt, 33ff

Newtonia, 36-37

Prairie Grove, organization, casualties, 39-51

Women looking for dead and wounded soldiers, 48-49

Missouri and Kentucky cavalry, 53-54

Expedition to Van Buren, 56ff

Dead Confederates at Prairie Grove, 56-57

Defense of the Union, 57

Dripping Springs, 62ff

Van Buren, Arkansas, 68-70

Confederate women, Unionist families, 71-72

New Year's, 74-75

Hospitals, 76-77

General Blunt, West Point, Schofield, 77-80

Reorganization of the Army of the Frontier, 80-81

Wounded brother, 83

Reduction in transportation for cavalry regiments, 84

Indian troops, 86

Camp Curtis, 90-91

Guerrillas, Fort Scott, 91

Snow, foraging, 92

Indian families suffering, 93-94

Guerrillas, 95-96

Slave refugees, 100-1

Black troops, 101-2

Neosho, 108

Intolerant Confederates, 109-110

Indian soldiers, 112

Destruction of fences, 114

Unionists, 115

Contribution of Missouri soldiers and worries about the families at home, 117-18

Newtonia, militia, 118-19

Death of his brother, 121-24

Indian division, 125ff

Guerrillas, 126-27

Varying degrees of loyalty, 130-31

Types of the enemy: bushwhackers, guerrillas, returning Confederate soldiers, regular

Confederate forces, 133-39

Cherokee Indian Council, 140-44

Indian division, 145ff

Benton county, Arkansas, destruction, 147-49

Emancipation Proclamation, 151-53

Black troops, 153-54
 Confederate prisoners, 156-57
 Meteor, 158-59
 Washington County, Arkansas, Union meeting, 161-62
 Forage for animals, 163
 Pea Ridge, 164-72
 Smallpox, vaccination, 176-78
 Indian ponies, grazing, grass, 181
 Guerrilla killed, 182-83
 Indian regiments, 185-87
 Removal of Samuel Curtis, 188
 Rumor about capture of Charleston, 188
 Guerrillas, 190
 Fences destroyed, farms cannot be cultivated, 193
 Rations, food, have not taken food from locals, 194-95
 Coffee, 194-95
 Unionist families suffering, 195-96, 199-200
 Seven Indians killed at Park Hill, 198
 Behavior of Indian soldiers, 200-202
 Indian refugees reach camp, 204
 Skirmish between Union Indians and Stand Watie's Indians, 205-6
 Fort Gibson, 207-217
 Bake ovens, 214-15
 Artillery accident, gunner's arm blown off, 218
 Creek Indians enlisting, 219
 Spy dressed as a woman, 222-223
 Improvements in the fort, 224
 Attack on Confederates at Webber's Falls, 225-26
 Locust Grove battle, 232-34
 Salt works, 234
 Loyal Indians, 236
 1st Kansas Colored Infantry organized, 241-42
 Baxter Springs, black troops, 242-43
 Slavery dying in Missouri, 244-45
 Farming in Missouri, 245
 Unionist women in southwest Missouri, 246-47
 Scott's Mills, 248-49
 Picket firing, 252-53
 Fort Gibson renamed Fort Blunt, 253
 Forage, grass largely gone, 254
 Skirmishing, casualties, 256-57
 Confederate killed Union pickets, 258
 Indian killed and body burned, 259
 Indians come into hospital, 260-61
 Artillery fire, 263
 Skirmishing, casualties, 267-69

Saving supply trains, 270-71
 Soldier pay, 271-72
 Gambling, 272-73
 Rising Arkansas River, 273-74
 Picket fraternization, 274-75
 Black soldiers, 276-78
 Woman came reporting Confederate movements, 279
 Indian skirmish with Stand Watie's soldiers, 280
 Loyal Indians being murdered, 280-81
 Pickets killed, 281-83
 Picket firing, 284-85
 Young soldiers, deaths, 285-87
 Loyal Cherokee women reporting on Confederate forces, 290-91
 Indians and harvesting, 291-92
 Skirmishing, casualties, 294
 Confederate deserters, Union treatment of deserters, 296-98
 Indian prophet, medicine man, 299-301
 Commissary train, 302-3, 306-7
 War news from the East, 304-5
 Intelligence from Indian women, 305-6, 309
 Food, rations, dogs, morale, 307-8
 Rising rivers, 308ff
 Cabin Creek, black soldiers, casualties, 311, 316-29
 July 4, food, 313-14
 Confederate soldiers and horses floating on river, 314-15
 Success of the troops in recent months, 333
 Black soldiers, 334
 Accompanying train to Fort Scott, 336-47
 Hay and horses, 337
 Differences between white and Indian families, 338-39
 War news, 347-49
 Guerrillas, Unionist property, 350-51
 Killing of Union soldiers and Confederate prisoners, 352-53
 Honey Springs, casualties, 357-62
 Confederates burn courthouse and academy at Carthage, 363-65
 Guerrillas, 364-65
 Women of doubtful loyalty, 366
 Cholera, food, smallpox, Indians, 366-68
 Captain of scouts shot and killed a soldier, alcohol, 368
 Conscription, no neutral ground in the war, 368-70
 Brave soldiers vs. small politicians, 370-71
 14th Kansas cavalry, bounty, 372-73
 Guerrillas killed, 374
 No conscription in Kansas, 375-76
 Conscription, black soldiers, 379-80
 Baxter Springs, 381-82

News about Charleston, 382
Guerrillas in western Missouri, Quantrill, sack of Lawrence, Ewing, Schofield, 383-92
Confederate refugees, 395-96
Schofield, 398-99
Leavenworth, speeches by Colonel Jennison and Hoyt, 399
James Lane's army, Schofield, revenge against Quantrill, 400-402
Blunt, Fort Smith, 402
Charleston, Fort Wagner, 404-5
Union League, Fort Scott, threats to Confederate sympathizers, 406
Buffalo Creek skirmish, 408
Chickamauga, 408-9
Guerrillas, 409
County fair, 409-10
Fort Smith, 411
Advance to Fort Smith, Blunt, 413ff
Confederate kill two Kansas soldiers on their way home, 414-15
Blunt attacked by Quantrill, Fort Scott, casualties, 415-20
James Lane speech, 425
Supply training going to Fort Smith, Blunt, 426-28
14th Kansas Cavalry, robbery and murder, 431
General Blunt, Schofield, 431-32
Guerrillas, Humboldt, 432-33
Missouri elections, Republicans, radicals, 433-34
Cold weather, wood, refugees, 435-36
Jennison, 437-38
Soldier pay, 438
Indians and loyalty, 440-41
Grant and Chattanooga, 442-43
Unionist suffering, 445-46
Prisoner exchange, 446-47
Ewing and cotton seizure, 449-50
Snow, 450
Schofield, 451
Guerrillas killed, 454-55
Unionist sentiment strengthening, 456-58