
Biographical background, 7-14
Jefferson Davis and the rebellion, 15-26
Unionist troubles in East Tennessee, 27
Bridge burning, pursued by Confederates, 27-30
Formed company of mounted scouts, 30
Captured as a bridge burner, 31
Escape to the mountains, 37ff
Scouting in the mountains, 45ff
Unionist guidance, 46
Sore feet, 47
General Carter, 50-51
North Carolina refugees, 54
2nd Tennessee Infantry, 56
Deaths in prison, 56
Storm, 56-58
Traveling at night, 58ff
4th Tennessee Infantry, 62
Starving scouts, 66-67
Shelters, 68
Piloted group safely to Kentucky, 69
Journey back home, 72ff
Found more men who needed to go to Kentucky, 73-74
Crossing a river, 73
Clinch Mountain, snow, 76
Crossing a river, Confederate soldiers, moccasins, 79-82
Boasting Confederates, 83-85
Crossing Cumberland Mountain, Powell’s River, on way to Kentucky, 87
Confederate hunting Unionists, 90
Traveling to Kentucky, 91
Worries about being hanged by Confederates, 93
Clinch River, 93
Harland County, Kentucky, 98
Going back home, 91ff
Hiding, cold, 100-1
Crossing the Holston River, 102-3
Hiding from Confederates in a house, 103
Danger for Unionists in Carter County, 105
Confederates hang Unionists, 107-110
Left for Kentucky with a large group, 111-118
Hiding place, 112
Started for home, March 1863, 119
Unionists rejoice at his return, 121
Many Confederate soldiers in Carter and Johnson counties, 122
Large group to start for Kentucky, 123ff
Rain, 124
Crossing Clinch Mountain, 129
Confederate family, dogs, 132
Had supper, paid for it, bought some bacon, 133-34
Lexington, 144-45
Returning home from Louisville, 145ff
Indians, 147
Another trip to Kentucky, June 1863, hunger, 150-60
June 1863 going home again, 161-62
Sets out with large group for Kentucky, 163ff
Hiding in a thicket, 163-64
Crossing Holston River by canoe, 164-65
Fired on by Confederates, 165
Hunger, 169
Louisville, 4th Tennessee Infantry, 171
Returning home, July 1863, 172-79
Could see Confederate campfires, 173
Trip to Kentucky, July 1863, 180ff
Exhausted men, 181-82
Traveling back to East Tennessee, 184
Three bodies hanging, putrefying, Unionists hung by Confederates, 185-87
Large group waiting to start for Kentucky, 191
Started for Kentucky, August 1863, 192ff
White Oak Flats hiding place, 192
Took off clothes and crossed Holston River, 193
Houses and dogs, 196
Poorly clothes women, food, 199
Leaving Manchester with East Tennesseans under Burnside, 201
Welcome by Unionist along railroad, women, 202-3
Greeneville, 203-4
Longstreet, Confederate gangs, 206
Trip of Knoxville, 208ff
Wading creek, 209
Shelton Laurel, 209
Old Unionist, 210-11
Crossing French Broad River, help from young black man, 211-12
Trip back home, 215-
Confederates had murdered woman’s husband, 215
God’s vengeance, 215-16
Chucky River, 218-19
Taking a second group to Knoxville, 220
Difficulty of the mountain, 220-21
Murder of a woman’s husband by Confederates, 226
Snow, 227
Being pursued by Confederates, 227ff
Woman, Confederates robbed house, 232
Train to Nashville, 233-34
Taking money and letters back from Nashville to East Tennessee, thinking of vengeance, 237-40
13th Tennessee Cavalry, 241
Third company to Knoxville, March 1864, 241ff
Feared facing veteran Confederates, 242
Canoe, Chucky River, 243
Company fled, three blacks in the company, 244
Carrying letters, Russellville, 248
Confederates watching his movements, reward on his life, 249-50
Heading north pursued by Confederates, 251ff
Worries about families back home and Confederate depredations, 252-53
Found Federal soldiers at Russellville, 255
Soldier letters, 256-57
Return home, 258ff
Outraged at Confederate treatment of women, 262
Confederate guerrillas, 263-67
Avoid a clash of arms, many in party frightened, 269
Hard travel, stiff and sore, stumbling men, 271-72
From Knoxville home through the mountains, 275-80
Confederate guerrillas robbing and plundering, defending against them, Confederate soldiers, 281-88
Confederate home guards, Johnson County, fires, murders, 289-98
Guerrillas burning Unionist houses in Carter and Johnson Counties, ringleader killed, 299-305
General Gillem and Union cavalry, John Hunt Morgan, hid from Confederates, home guards, 306
Confederate company, December 1864, had shirts made from dresses, 321
Murdering prisoners, the boneyard, 322-27
Unionists being killed in Carter County, Confederates took no prisoners, 328-36
Captain R. C. Bozen comes into Carter County from Virginia with his men, robbers, murderers, 337-46
Bozen and his men strung up a young boy repeatedly, whipped him, three men tied to together and murdered, 347-51
Going through the lines with Union soldiers, escaping Unionist, January 1865, Albert Richardson, New York Tribune, 352ff
Woman helps them spy out a bridge, 357-58
Joined 13th Tennessee, returned home to recruit, 360-62
Took horses, prisoners, 365
Mistreatment of Unionist women, 367-68
Hill and mountains filled with escaped prisoners and deserters, 269
Led a motley company in February 1865, 371ff
13th Tennessee Cavalry detachment to return to Carter County, 377ff
Shelton Laurel, 379-80
Confederates in a log barn, captured arms and prisoners, 385-88
General Tillson, 396ff
Capturing Confederates, 398ff
Shelton Laurel Massacre, 408-420
Ashville, end of the war, 421-30