
Philadelphia after Fort Sumter, 15-17
Enlistment, family, brigade surgeon, 17-18
Washington, 19-20
Lincoln, 20
Bull Run, 21-24
Brigade surgeon, other surgeons, 26-27
Horse, 27-28
Equipment, 28
Leaving home, 31-32
St. Louis, 32
Jews, 32
Frémont, 32-33
German regiment, 34
Cairo, 34-36
Grant, 36-38
Mound City Hospital, 40
Ironclad turtles, Eads, 40-41
Hard to find men to work in the hospital, 41-43
Women were worse, 43-44
Catholic sisters, 44-45
Independent western men, lynch law, murder, 45-47
Supplies from government and from civilians, women, 47-50
Homesickness, 49-50
Picket, sentry, sign and countersign, 51-52
Expanding hospital, Cairo, 52-54
Trip to Columbus, Kentucky, 55-
Leonidas Polk, Gideon Pillow, Confederate uniforms, 57-59
Becomes a medical director, Cairo, 60
Recruits often helpless, 61-62
Medical personnel, surgeons, reading regulations, 62-64
Contract doctors, 65-66
Grant, 66-67
Malaria, Cairo, 67-69
Horse, 69-70
Malaria, 71
Grant, Battle of Belmont, wounded men, 71-86
Coward, 87
Defective surgeon, 90-91
Belmont casualties, 93-94
Cape Girardeau, Hospitals, 95-96
Grant and expedition after M. Jeff Thompson, 96
Newspaper reporters, 96-97
Suffering from boils, 97
Cairo, contraband letters, 98-99
Christmas and New Year’s, 100-101
McClerand expedition, 102-6
St. Louis, 107ff
Board to examine surgeons, 107
McClellan, 108
Secession sentiment in St. Louis, 109-110
Grant, 110
Fort Henry, 113-115
Fort Donelson, 115-150
Hospital, 117
Removal of wounded, 124-126
Oddities of western doctors, 126-27
Grant camp servant, 127-28
General C. F. Smith, Grant, demand for surrender, 129-31
Surrendered Confederates sold Bowie knives and small arms to Federals, 131-32
Rawlins, Grant, alcohol, 136-38
Nashville, 149-50
Grant and humor, 140
Courage, 141-42
Horse, 146
Grant mistreated by superior officers, General C. F. Smith, 147-50
Confederate family, 152-53
Malaria, dysentery, 153
Spy, 154-55
Shiloh, 155-56
Confederate captain Polk, 157-58
Death of General Charles F. Smith, Sheridan, 159-61
Sheridan, 162-63
Halleck, 163-66
Corinth, 166
Moves east, Philadelphia, 166-68
Surgical history of the rebellion, 169, 172-73
Willard’s Hotel, 170
Washington, 170
Medical Department, Hammond, 170-72
Medical examining board, 172-74
Fort Powhatan, 176
Harrison’s Landing, McClellan, Grant, 176-78
Surgeon General’s Office, Army Medical Museum, 179-Halleck, 179
Alcohol, 192-93
Medical duty in Alexandria, hospital supplies, ambulance trains, 195ff
Stanton appeal for supplies, 199
Halleck, 201
South Mountain, Antietam, 202-212
The wounded at Antietam, 206-7
Sights of the battlefield, dead soldiers, 207-9
Fredericksburg, 213-
Surgery in the courthouse, 215
Church steeple signals, 216
Demoralization, pontoon bridge, 219
Wounded men, 219-
Letterman, 221
Surgeon General Hammond, 222
Medical Inspectors, 223-224
New Year’s Day in Washington, 224-225
Annapolis and other hospitals, gangrene, 225=28
Railroad accident, 228-29
Sheridan, 230
Lincoln, 232
Chancellorsville, casualties, Letterman, Hammond, 232-35
Gettysburg, 236-46
Lee and McClellan, 238-39
Horse, 240-41
Battlefield and town of Gettysburg, 242-45
Burials, 245-46
Georgetown, 247-48
Medical examining board, 248-49
James Lane, 249
Medical records, 249-52
Horse, 254-55
Hammond and Stanton, 255-56
Army Medical School, Hammond, Army Museum, Surgeon Barnes, 257-59
Metropolitan Club, Hay, Nicolay, Hugh McCullough, Charles Sumner, 260-62
Washington society, 262-64
Lincoln, 265-66
Grant, 266
Sheridan, 266
Fredericksburg, treating the wounded, Overland campaign, 267-74
Mosby, 269-70
Sanitary Commission, 270-71
Grant, Rawlins, 271-74
White House Land, James River crossing, 275-76
City Point, 277-78
Jubal Early raid toward Washington, weak defenses, forts, 278-84
Medical museum, art for the Medical and Surgical History, 284-88
Army of the Potomac, McClellan, Grant, 288-89
1864 Valley campaign, 290ff
Winchester, 291-306
Women nurses, 294-95
Shortage of supplies, 295-301
Surgeon Barnes, Stanton, 303-4
Barnes dismisses him and reassigns him, Hammond, Stanton, 307-314
McClellan, 308
Defends McClellan’s character, 310-11
St. Louis, Medical director, Rosecrans staff, Jefferson City, Sedalia, 315-321
Confederates generals Marmaduke and Cabell as prisoners, 320
Alcohol, 321
St. Louis, Rosecrans, 322-25
Court martial of a woman who cut telegraph wire, 323
Louisville, 326
Nashville, 326ff
Catholic church, hospital, 327
Battle of Nashville, 328ff
Confederate prisoners, 329-30
Mrs. James K. Polk, 330-31
George H. Thomas, 331-32
Dangerous streets of Nashville, 332-33
George H. Thomas and black soldiers, hospital, 334-339
Refugees, 341
Life at Nashville, 342
Officer robberies, 345
Medical lectures, 345-46
Discharge, home, 349-51