

Coffin, Charles. The Boys of '61 or Four Years of Fighting. Boston: Dana Estes & Company, 1899.

Correspondent, Boston Journal.

Army correspondent, 17ff

Baltimore, Butler, 18-20

Washington, 20

Generals early in the war, 21

Rumors, 21-22

Ellsworth, 25

Arlington, Lee, 28

Salt, 30

McClellan, western Virginia, Rosecrans, 32-33

McDowell, Bull Run, General Tyler, 33-50

Dawes, Capitol Prison, oath 51-52

McClellan, 53-54

Lincoln and Scott, 55

General Richardson, 56

Lincoln, 56-57

Ball's Bluff, Baker, 58

Maryland, White Horse, slaves, 60-66

McClellan and Hutchinson singers, 66-68

Slavery and slaves, 68-72

Henry Wilson, 72

Louisville, Unionist refugees, 73-74

Buell, 74-75

Halleck and slavery, 75-76

Frémont, 77

Galena, Grant, 78-80

Admiral Foote, gunboats, Admiral Porter, 81-83

Columbus, Kentucky, 83

Kentuckians, Confederate woman, slavery, Presbyterian minister, 85-96

Fort Henry, Foote, Grant, 97-101

Fort Donelson, 101-108

Halleck, slaves entering Union lines, 108-9

Shiloh, 115-120

James A. Garfield, 121

Halleck, Corinth, 122

Fort Pillow, gunboats, 122-32

War Department and newspaper correspondents, kept from army at Harrison's Landing, 133-37

Second Bull Run, Letter from a dying soldier, 137-140

Antietam campaign, 141-59

Bragg, Buell, invasion of Kentucky, Unionist sentiment, slaves, Lincoln, compensated emancipation, Emancipation Proclamation, 160-72

Harpers Ferry, 173

John J. Key, disloyalty, 173-74

McClellan, 174-78
 Burnside, Fredericksburg, 178-214
 Winter quarters, 215
 Sanitary and Christian Commissions, religion, 215-218
 Chaplain, 218
 O. O. Howard and tracts on swearing, 218-19
 Morale, 221
 Hooker, 232-34
 Steamer Augusta 225ff
 Beaufort, 226ff
 Church services, 229-31
 Plantation worship, 232-239
 Port Royal, black troops, 241-46
 Ironclads, Fort McAllister, Charleston, Sumter, 247-55
 Hooker, Chancellorsville, 256-79
 Gettysburg, Hooker, Meade, 280-326
 Panic in Harrisburg, 281
 Kilpatrick, 310
 Grant and Lincoln, 329-331
 Burnside and the Ninth Corps, 334
 Review of black troops by Lincoln, 337
 Overland campaign, 337ff
 Wilderness, 337-345
 Spotsylvania Courthouse, 346-58
 Wounded men, Sanitary Commission, 355
 Hospitals, 356-57
 North Anna River, 358-62
 Carmel Church, chaplain, 361-62
 Cold Harbor, 363-66
 Grant, crossing the James, Petersburg, 367-69
 Plantation area of Virginia, slavery, suffering for secession, freedom, 369-78
 Grant and aftermath of Cold Harbor, rejoicing in south, depression in north, 379
 Grant crossing the James, Petersburg, 380-392
 Black troops, 383-84
 Petersburg, 392ff
 Christian Commission, hospitals, 398-400
 Petersburg siege, 401ff
 Petersburg mine, Burnside, black troops, Meade, 401-411
 Confederate newspapers, desperation, 411-12
 Hunter in the Valley, 1864, 414-15
 Early's invasion of Maryland, 416-421
 Sherman and Atlanta, March to the Sea, Confederate newspapers, 423-33
 Sherman in Savannah, Unionists, 434-38
 Prisoners, Libby, Andersonville, Clara Barton, 439-43
 Savannah, former slaves, 443-50
 Savannah under fire, former slaves, arsenal burning, 450-52

General Saxton, freedom, slaves, religious meetings, 452-58
Reactions of people in Savannah to occupation, women and hatred, poor whites, 458-65
Black troops, 466
Sherman, South Carolina, 469-481
Occupation of Charleston, Quincy Gillmore, Fort Sumter, Fort Wagner, 482-
Slave sales, 487
Freeing of slaves in Charleston, 498-507
Grant's final campaign, 508-
Lincoln, 512
Christian Commission, 513
Confederate artillery fire, 514
Hatcher's Run, 515-16
Five Forks, 519-22
Union breakthrough at Petersburg, 523-24
Richmond, explosion, freed slaves, 525-552
Lincoln and the freed slaves, 538-42
Lee surrender, 553-69