

Dubose, Henry Kershaw. History of Company B, Twenty-First Regiment (Infantry) South Carolina Volunteers. Columbia, S.C.: R. L. Bryan, 1909.

21st South Carolina Volunteers, Co. B
Co. B organized, 12-13
Captain Samuel H. Wilds, 13-16
Regiment ordered to Charleston, 16
Attack on Morris Island, 17-20
Siege of Battery Wagner, prisoners, black soldiers, 20-35
Bombardment of Fort Sumter, 36-38
Organization of Hagood's Brigade, 39
Camp Dubose, 39-40
Fort Sumter, 40-45
Petersburg women, 46
Drewry's Bluff, 47
Walthall Junction, 46-56
Swift Creek, 56-57
Drewry's Bluff, 57-63
Lt. John L. Hart, 63
Butler bottled up, Bermuda Hundred, 63-67
Cold Harbor, 67-72
Dead and dying on the field, 72
Hoke returned to Beauregard, Hagood, Petersburg, 72-74
Hancock's reports, Meade, 75-80
Mitchel's Memoranda, attacks on Burnside, Birney, 80-81
Siege of Petersburg, 81ff
Reinforcements from Lee, Kershaw, Field, 81
Rations, food, 83-83
Attacks on June 24, Hagood, Hoke, casualties, 84-98
Hagood's brigade in Petersburg trenches, 98-100
Sergeant Alfred C. Dubose, 100
Weldon Railroad, 101
Yellow Tavern, Hagood, 101-104
Hagood, recapture of regimental flag, 104-5
Hagood recommended for promotion, 105-107
Yellow Tavern, 107-110
Private August E. Law, 111
Lee, Weldon railroad, 111-114\
Fort Fisher, 114-16
Confederate survivors, 116-18
Roll of Co. B, 119-30