

Sobieski, John. The Life-Story and Personal Reminiscences of Col. John Sobieski. Shelbyville, Ill.: J. L. Douthit & Son, 1900.

1st U.S. Artillery

Reenlists in April 1860

Church service, sermon, Brooklyn, Rev. Van Dyke, Thanksgiving sermon in defense of slavery, 39

Fernando Wood, 40-41

Henry Ward Beecher reply, 41

Learned that Republicans were not abolitionists, 42

Wendell Phillips, 43-46

Washington, Breckinridge, 47-48

Debate on Crittenden compromise, Douglas, 48-50

Lincoln inauguration, Buchanan, 50-51

Southern sympathy in Washington after Sumter, 52-53

Arrival of troops, 6th new York, 54

Drill, 54-56

Bull Run, 56-58

McClellan closes saloons in Washington, 59

Virginia, Merrimack, Norfolk, Monitor, 60-67

Capture of Norfolk, 68

Yorktown, 68-69

Williamsburg, Hancock, 69-70

Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 70-71

Malvern Hill, coward, 72-73

Harrison's Landing, 74-75

Death of Kearny, 75-77

McClellan, Stanton, Lincoln, 80-83

Burnside, 83

Fredericksburg, Irish Brigade, Meagher, 83-86

Nearly taken prisoner after Antietam, 86-90

Hooker, Chancellorsville, Howard, Pleasonton, 91-95

Death of Stonewall Jackson, 96-98

Hooker, 98-99

Meade, Gettysburg, wounded, 99-108

Washington, examining board, 108-9

Overland campaign, 110ff

Petersburg, 111

Appomattox, 112-13

Mustered out, 113-14

Goes to Mexico, 115ff