

Wells, Edward L. A Sketch of the Charleston Light Dragoons from the Earliest Formation of the Corps. Charleston: Lucas, Richardson & Co., 1888.

Background, militia, 4-7
Charleston, 7
Picket duty, 8
Officers, 9
Camp slave, 9
Friendly fire, 10-11
Mustered into Confederate service, roll, 11-13
Picket duty, 13ff
Arms, rifles, 14
Pocotaligo, blocking Federals, Mackey's Point, Huger, 15-22
Picket duty, 22
Charleston, 22ff
Morris Island, couriers, 23
Battery Wagner, Fort Gregg, 25-27
Ordered to join Army of Northern Virginia, 28
Muster roll, 30-31
Columbia, Hampton, troop review, 32
Horses, 33
Sabers, 33
Lee and dead soldiers, 34-35
Hampton takes command, 35
Food camp slaves, 36-37
Clothing, 38
First soldier seen killed in battle, 39-40
Haw's Shop, casualties, 39-47
Rations, food, camp slaves, 48-49
Matadequin Creek. 49-56
Debris on 1862 battlefields, 57
Trevilian Station, 59-75
Dragoons greatly reduced, 76
Burgess Mill, 77
Food, Christmas, cardplaying, 78-79
Columbia, South Carolina, 79ff
Burning of Columbia, 81-83
Alcohol, 83
Pursuing bummers, 83-87
Shell kills horse, 87
M. C. Butler, 87-88
Skirmish with Kilpatrick camp at Fayetteville, 88-91
Killing or wounding 11 bummers, 91-92
Hampton commends the Dragoons, 92-93
Lee surrender, 93-94
Johnston surrender, 94

Confederate principles, 94
Survivors' Association, monument, 95-96
Names of the dead on the monument, 97