

Andrews, Matthew Page, ed. The Women of the South in War Times. Baltimore: Norman, Remington Co., 1924.

I. FOREWORD 3 Economic and political causes of sectional strife the balance of power character of the Southern people universality of the doctrines of nullification and secession causes of secession elimination of historical error.

II. GENIUS OF THE SOUTHERN WOMAN 19 Necessity the mother of invention courage and cheer in the midst of hardship salt as contraband of war under two flags comparative war sacrifices.

III. WARTIME EXPERIENCES OF ELIZABETH WARING DUCKETT; INTERVIEWS WITH LINCOLN AND ENCOUNTERS WITH STANTON 31 Sentiment in Maryland in 1861 arrest and trial of Mrs. Duckett s father and brother first interview with President Lincoln encounter with Secretary Stanton saves her brother s life visit to Northern hospital visit to Fort Delaware hardships of the prisoners there a ^trip South second visit to President Lincoln the Upper South on secession and coercion cause of firing on Fort Sumter anecdote of Dr. Stuart treatment of prisoners of war character of Secretary Stanton.

IV. THE PUBLICATION AND SINGING OF "MY MARYLAND" 66 "My Maryland" adapted to music sung by Miss Jennie Cary on the battlefield of Manassas.

V. EXCERPTS FROM THE DIARY OF JUDITH BROCKENBROUGH McGUIRE ... 71

"The Land Where We Were Dreaming" preparations for war "peaceful secession" fleeing from home the first clash in Virginia refugeeing in Clarke County the "elite" in the ranks comparison with the "spirit of 76" "The Lord have mercy upon their souls! Fire!" an incident of the hospital picture of a Virginia household.

VI. CARING FOR WOUNDED FOES 105 Between two fires prayer of "Uncle Bob" "Medical Grove" threatened and saved connection between the past and the present.

VII. MRS. BETSY SULLIVAN, " MOTHER OF THE FIRST TENNESSEE REGIMENT". . . 112 Life in campaign and camp caring for the wounded voluntary surrender.

VIII. CAPTURE AND IMPRISONMENT OF MRS.

WILLIAM KIRBY 116 Smuggling supplies military trial and sentence hardships and death.

IX. MRS. BETTY TAYLOR PHILIPS, "MOTHER" OF THE "ORPHAN BRIADE" 120 "The Bivouac of the Dead" at Shiloh and Donelson trial and acquittal as spy with President and Mrs. Davis.

X. CAPTAIN SALLY TOMPKINS, C.S.A 127 Equips private hospital receives rank of Captain "So might Joan of Arc have passed."

XI. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE SOUTH 131 Mrs. Trader consecrates herself to the relief of the wounded lack of funds and medicines Tishomingo hospital caring for a wounded foe a trip to Arkansas hardships of the journey-home at last.

XII. A NIGHT ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE . . 145 Saving the life of a wounded Confederate soldier "Woman's Devotion."

XIII. THE BIDE OF ROBERTA POLLOCK 148 Pennsylvania ancestry of Miss Pollock escape through the lines capture by a picket the warning carried to Mosby s men.

XIV. THE DIARY OF MRS. JUDITH BROCKENBROUGH McGUIRE (continued) 155 Federal and Confederate prayers "clashing" a heroine in homespun "Nobody is like my mother" the first iron-clad in war in Lynchburg anecdote of General Stuart negroes complain of "Yankee" work in Ashland war prices, 1862 nursing without medicines homemade soap, gooseberry wine, and burning of the Stuart house death of "Stonewall" Jackson anecdote of General Lee Mrs. Thornton entertains General Sigel experiences at Fredericksburg a government position in Richmond black and white theology family servants and honorary titles.

XV. A LAST SONG IN A BURNING HOME 196 Hunter's invasion of the Valley of Virginia burning of "Fountain Rock."

XVI. A WOMAN'S REBUKE AND AN AMERICAN CLASSIC 200 Burning of "Bedford" letter from Mrs. Henrietta B. Lee to General Hunter^.

XVII. "GLEN WELBY" SAVED 205 Attempt to smoke Mosby out determination of Mrs. Scott reply of Sophie Carter.

XVIII. "GOTT ISS BLAYED OUDT" 207 Rescue of family portraits protest of Mrs. Bedinger an incident of the John Brown raid.

XIX. "CAPTURE" OF A VIRGINIA LADY... 211 Searching a Virginia home discovering a "ladies convention" a pantry saved gallantry of a Federal officer a Southern woman's apology moral courage of Lieutenant Page of Pennsylvania testimony as to "True Story of Andersonville Prison."

XX. IN THE CAROLINAS 221 Timrod's "Carolina" correspondence between Generals Halleck and Sherman two ways of waging war incidents of the invasion of North Carolina sufferings of the Murchisons courage of Mrs. Monroe.

XXI. DESPOLIATION AND PROTECTION 230 Aftermath of the battle of Bentonville magnanimity of General Cox camouflage against raiders skill in hiding food and valuables an unexpectedly strenuous Federal protector executive ability of Mrs. Pearsall.

XXII. REMINISCENCES OF MBS. C. C. POPPEKHEIM 246 Flight from home protection for "Liberty Hill" Federal raiders "oil, feathers, and molasses" sorghum and black bread.

XXIII. BURNING OF COLUMBIA 257 Viewpoint of a foreigner plans for burning Columbia fortitude of the women negroes misled and mistreated a Federal soldier's harangue a gallant Federal officer interview with General Sherman guarded by Irish soldiers.

XXIV. THE RIDE OF EMMA SANSOM 278 Arrival of General Forrest pointing out the ford capture of Streight and his command.

XXV. CAUGHT BETWEEN CONTENDING ARMIES 284 Nursing friend and foe Federal re-payment.

XXVI. NARRATIVE OF AN EARLY GRADUATE OF THE FIRST COLLEGE FOR WOMEN . . 286 Wesleyan College Mount Vernon and Arlington misconceptions of the South setting up the "Stars and Bars" the Ladies Gun boat Association Federal raiders taking the last horse.

XXVII. IN SHERMAN'S SWATH TO THE SEA 303 The people of Atlanta driven out into the fields the spirit of Dixie facing starvation adventure in the face of fortune a night in & negro cabin gathering minie balls on the battlefield causes of desolation wishing themselves back in slavery refusal of a "free gift."

XXVIII. THE ST. LOUIS PRISON FOR SOUTHERN WOMEN 336 Imprisonment of Lewis McLure banishment from home entertainment in the South.

XXIX. ACTION AND REACTION 344 A brothers' war "Butler and his kind" bombardment of Baton Rouge women and children under fire.

XXX. WAR TIMES IN NEW ORLEANS 353 Lincoln vs. the Abolitionists Robert E. Lee on emancipation a young girl's philosophy chivalry of Colonel Clarke, U. S. A. racial characteristics negroes under the new order.

XXXI. FINAL EXCERPTS FROM THE DIARY OF MRS. McGUIRE 372 Occupations of the women an incident of the poorer people raids around Richmond death of General Stuart fate of the negroes kindness of Northern officers General Lee's order of invasion a night of terror in lower Virginia a wife's devotion the hiring of skillets starvation rations for the soldiers its relation to the prison problem surrender of Richmond "The old order changeth, yielding place to new."

XXXII. REPRESENTATIVE WOMEN OF THE LONE STAR STATE 413

The attitude of Texas sending supplies to distant armies the life and work of Mrs. Lucretia Hadley recollections of Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone the foot and horse marines of Texas the defense of Sabine Pass sewing by hand.

XXXIII. MBS. ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AND HER WAR EXPERIENCES IN NEW YORK CITY 428 Trial of the "pirates" caring for Confederate prisoners visit to John Yates Beall the draft riots Mrs. Sullivan visits Virginia rescue of the wheat crop relief work.

XXXIV. RELIEF WORK IN THE WORLD WAR 449 A comparison early action of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Chattanooga endowment of hospital beds in France letters from Mrs. Robert Bacon and Mr. Richard E. Power general relief work sale of Liberty Bonds establishment of "Our Hero Fund."