

Berlin, Ira et al. Freedom, Series I, Volume I: The Destruction of Slavery. New York: Cambridge University Press, 1985.

Simon Cameron, Butler, fugitive slaves, slave families, 71-74
Arming blacks, 75
Slaveholder complaint about fugitives, 77
John A. Dix, 79
New Bern, Burnside, 80-81
Escape slaves, 82
Edwin Stanly, objects to slaves being taken, 83-85
Hired slaves, 86
Disputed slave ownership, 86-87
Raid of former slaves, 86
Rumors of Union treatment of runaway slaves, 89-90
Census of black Union occupied Tidewater Virginia, 91
Recruiting for a black regiment, 92
George Pickett on black troops in Federal service, 93-94
Slave patrol and dogs, 94
Edward Wild, raid against Confederates, death of a civilian, destruction and plundering, 96-99
Thomas A. Scott employment of fugitive slaves, 114
Naval expedition Beaufort, slaves, 115
Port Royal, escaped slaves come on board ship, land and slaves on abandoned plantation, 116
St. Simon's Island, escaped slaves coming in, workers, fields, 119-20
Former slaves seize steamship Planter, 122-23
David Hunter proclamation, Lincoln, 123-25
St. Helena Island, destruction, planters left, fire, removal of blacks, Hilton Head, 125-27
Confederate destruction, burnt black houses, 128
Blacks, Key West, treatment of slaves, 129
Key West, blacks as hospital attendants, wage workers, 130-31
Statement of a fugitive slave about Confederate forces in Savannah, etc., 132-33
Removal of slaves in contact with Federals, 133-34
Laurence M. Keitt, plundering expeditions, guarding coasts and creeks, 134-36
Florida state senator, blacks carrying off chickens, Florida, St. Johns River, Palatka, 136-38
Thomas Wentworth Higginson testimony, blacks as spies, picket postings, recruiting black soldiers, 138-39
Soldiers, 34th USCT, claim for a mule, 140-41
Raid capturing slaves, Charleston, McPhersonville, slaves want to come back, 141-42
Runaway slaves, slave hanged by Confederates for trying to organize a military company, 142-43
Testimony of Georgia freedman—southern claims commission, property taken, 143-45
Testimony of Georgia freedman—southern claims commission, Confederate took livestock, blamed him for slaves running off, 146-50
Testament of Georgia freedwoman, Unionist master, Confederate deserters, told her mistress she was free, loss of property, 150-54
Sherman's army and refugees, Saxton, 154-55

Citizens of Columbia, to Confederate secretary of war, about acts of slaves and slave tampering, refugees, 155-56
 Alfred H. Terry, fugitive slaves, Washington, 167
 Expulsion of former slaves from Mount Vernon, 168-69
 Maryland Congress, Charles B. Calvert, complaining about slaves being employed in army camps, 169-71
 Relation of master and slave in Alexandria, 172
 Maryland slaveholder, soldiers in Sickles brigade refused to return a slave, 173
 James A. Hardie, runaway slaves, 174
 Seward, slaves, confiscation act, 175
 Pennsylvanians complain of people being confined in Washington in disgraceful conditions, 176
 Iowa citizens petition Congress for abolishing slavery in Washington, 176-77
 Slaveholder, complains of slave not being returned camp of 10th Massachusetts, 177
 Washington City Council opposes abolition in Washington, 178
 Orders to treat slaves fleeing to Federal lines as person rather than property, slaves bring valuable information, 179
 List of slaves, 180
 List of slave lost from a farm, 181
 John H. Martindale, not permitted to surrender runaway slaves, 182-83
 Claim for purchase of freedom, 183-84
 J. W. Phelps, Ship Island, Mississippi, duty to abolish slavery, slave labor as a monopoly that excludes free labor, evil and political character of slavery, Confederates hostile to republicanism, 199-201
 Butler, instructions to Phelps on black coming in the lines, 202
 Louisiana slaveholder, escaped slaves, General Phelps, 203
 Butler asks Stanton about the status of slave property, asks about confiscation, black soldiers, 203-7
 Soldiers go through the country enticing away slaves, Louisiana, Phelps, 208-9
 Black congregating near picket station, long discussion of slavery, Phelps, 210-16
 Testimony from black corporal about life as a slave, 217
 Butler, owners tell their slaves to go to the Yankees, 218
 Slaveholder denies driving slaves off the plantation, 219-20
 General Phelps, opposes returning slaves, 221
 New Orleans gas works, slave labor, corporal punishment, 222-24
 Planter complains to slaves in General Phelps camp, 224-25
 Fortifications, black troops and possible slave insurrection, General Weitzel, General Strong, 225-30
 Planters, rumor of Christmas slave insurrection, 231-32
 Planters complain about Louisiana native guards, robbery, arrests, threats from slaves, 233-34
 Celebration of Emancipation Proclamation by blacks, 235
 General Banks, emancipation, 236-38
 Louisiana planter and runaway slaves, 238-39
 Women slave complains of being driven off by mistress and arrested, 239-40
 Legal rights of slaveholders, 240-41
 Setting fugitive slaves to work in camp, some sent away, returned slaves of loyal masters, 271-72

Fort Donelson, reports of men joining Confederate army because slave property not protected, 272

General Mitchel, return of fugitive slaves, 274-75

Protect slaves who provide army valuable information, General Mitchel, 275

Order forbidding disloyal men from searching in Tennessee for fugitive slaves, 276-77

Sherman order, have nothing to do with blacks, exclude them from camps, nor surrender slaves to masters, 278-79

Buell and Mitchel, guerrillas, guarding black property, Mitchel friend of freedom, 279-81

Runaway slaves, Memphis, 281-82

Mitchel and Buell, on returning slaves to masters, General Rousseau, 282-84

Gideon Pillow, Federals at Helena took off his slaves, Sherman, General Curtis, 285-87

Thomas J. Wood, Sherman, questions on return slaves to owners, labor for Federals, 287-91

Sherman, to former associate, secession, rebellion takes away title to slaves, employ men, do not harbor women and children, 292-94

Sherman to Mayor of Memphis, city authorities need to extend jurisdiction between boundaries of Memphis, cannot return fugitive slaves, 295-96

Sherman objects to soldiers going to a house and seizing clothes belonging to a fugitive slave women, 297

Runaway slaves provides valuable intelligence on Confederate raid, 297-98

Slave, intelligence on Confederate troops strength, 298-99

Confederate officer asks how to deal with black around Corinth claiming to be free, being armed, 300

Certificate of freedom, 300-1

Chief of Police of Nashville to Rosecrans on black labor in Nashville, 301

Fugitive slave intelligence on Confederate troop strength, 302

Intelligence information from Vicksburg slaves, 302-3

Slave families coming into Union camps, 303

Stephen Hurlbut, suggests hiring fugitive slaves in Memphis, 304-6

Grand Gulf, fugitive slaves, 307

Testimony of fugitive slave woman, children destitute, 307-8

Lorenzo Thomas to Stanton, reports on condition of blacks in Mississippi and Louisiana, advice to women, children and elderly to remain on plantations, 308-10

Abandoned property worked by slaves, owner returned trying to get rent, 310-11

Woman talks of slave attach for her but they still want freedom, 312

Fugitive slave, left out in cold, feet cut off, 312-13

Confederate who then professed to be a Unionist, trying to recapture slaves, Holly Springs, General Buckland, 314-18

Returning a fugitive slave, 318-19

Foraging, black women and children, idle blacks a nuisance, 319-20

Fugitive slave, Knoxville, overseer, escape, 320-22

Tennessee freedman, ran away, captured, castrated, driven away, 323

Calls for investigation of abuse of slaves, 324

Mississippi fugitive slave, Nathan Bedford Forrest, 325-26

Mississippi freedman, forced to leave rather than take pig he had raised, 326

Tennessee freedman, master promised share of crop but reneged, master took his three children, 327

Maryland slaves in army camp, slave catcher, drunken policeman, defends Ohio soldiers, Robert Schenck, 342-47
 Charles B. Calvert, Maryland congressman, complaints of soldiers luring slaves into camps, 347
 Slave whipped to death, 348
 Charles Stone orders against encouraging insubordination among slaves, 348-49
 Inquiring about order to turn slaves out of camp, 349-50
 John A. Dix, orders against slaves enter camps; 350-51
 Maryland Governor Thomas H. Hicks, resistance to return of fugitive slave, 352-53
 John A. Andrew, objects to Massachusetts soldiers being used to return slaves, General Charles Stone, McClellan, 353-57
 Maryland fugitive slave, letter to wife, 357-58
 Apprentice, former slave, to master, 359
 Maryland legislators, complaints about escaped slaves and Union camps, 360-63
 Maryland congressman, Charles B. Calvert, army enticing slaves, Hooker, 363-64
 Washington freedman, wife and mother taken from Washington and whipped, imprisoned, 365
 Edward Bates, to Governor Bradford, denies there has been order not to enforce fugitive slave law, 366
 Meeting to prevent slaves from running away, 367
 Maryland legislator complains to Stanton about military protection for fugitive slaves, 367-68
 Maryland Unionists on ending slavery, 369
 Maryland slaves escaping into the Union lines, Point Lookout, 369-72
 Black soldier recruits from Baltimore city jail, runaways, 372-76
 Black men convicted of help escaped slaves, 376-77
 Maryland Freedpeople, property claim, 377-78
 Securing wives and children of runaway slaves, 379-80
 Two black men, treatment in jail, 380-81
 Masters reclaim slaves rejected for military service, 382-84
 Former Maryland slave, wife taken, left with three children, 386
 Affidavit of a Maryland Freedman, whipping, self-defense, work, 387-89
 Attempts to intimidate former slaves in Maryland, bind children to slaveholders, 390
 Mistreatment of former slaves in Maryland, starving women and children; whipping, threats to be sold, 391
 General Harney, doubts that Federal government intends to threaten institution of slavery, insurrection, 413-14
 Missouri Unionist on slaves being taken, Frémont, 414-15
 Frémont, confiscate property of Confederates, 415
 Intelligence from Missouri slaves, 416
 Halleck, slaves in camps, 417
 Missourian opposes returning slaves to traitors, 417-18
 Fugitive slaves in camp, Rolla, 418
 Halleck orders release of slaves held in St. Louis prison, 419-20
 Orders against allow fugitive slaves to enter Federal camps, 420-21
 Difficult of adjudicating who is a free who is slave, hardship of turning people away, Hallack, 421-23
 Resistance to slaveholders coming in the lines in pursuit of slaves, 424
 Black in prison captured with Confederates, James O. Broadhead, 425-26

Complaint of slave of Union men finding refuge in Federal lines, Pope, Halleck, 427-28
 Intelligence provided by slave guides, General Schofield, 429
 Missouri slaveholder complains of two slave going off with the Federals, Halleck, repulsed by hostile officers, 429-31
 Schuyler Colfax, Stanton, soldier objects to being a slave catcher, 432-33
 Iowa soldier complains to Governor Samuel Kirkwood about being forced to drive slaves away from Federal lines, 433-34
 Missouri slaveholders complain of armed blacks, Jayhawkers, 435-36
 Need directions on what to do with blacks who have arrived at Missouri post, 437
 Seek free papers for slave belonging to a man in Confederate service, 437-38
 Question of jurisdiction with claims to slaveholders, 438-40
 Halleck, confiscating slaves of Confederate slaveholders, provost marshal, 441-44
 Orders release of slave belonging to Confederate soldier, 444-45
 Confederates taking vengeance on slaves who help the Federals, 445-46
 Most Missouri slaveholders are not Unionists, compensating Unionist slaveholders would not involve many slaves, 446-48
 Missouri slaveholder complains, armed blacks come out from Federal camps to take relative from their owners, 449-50
 Unionist slaveholders complains of slaves going off to Federal camp, 450-54
 Militia commander calls for efforts to stop slaves from running away into Federal lines, 454-55
 Missouri militia protects slaveholders, 456
 Missouri slaveholders complain to Governor Gamble that Provost Marshal Dick is encouraging slaves to come into Federal lines, 457-58
 Fears Jayhawkers, blacks forcibly taken from their homes, 459
 Delegate to Missouri state convention on gradual emancipation, 460
 General Schofield, Missouri emancipation measures, 461-65
 Transporting slaves on railroad, claims, 465-66
 Soldiers from 9th Minnesota take blacks off a train, blacks were to be taken to Kentucky, 467-71
 Testimony of B. Gratz Brown, American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, supports emancipation, politics, governor, 471-72
 Franklin P. Dick, provost marshal, testimony before American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, not much slave stealing in Missouri, Schofield, Governor Gamble, terrorism against blacks, favors emancipation, 472-76
 Missouri slaveholder complains to Lincoln about loss of slaves, 476
 Opposition to black enlistment, Missouri Unionist, mistreatment and carrying off of slaves, 477-79
 Complaints of slaves taking tobacco, 479-80
 Arrest of slave seeking his family by Missouri Militia, Samuel R. Curtis, 480-81
 Families of black soldiers suffering, Sedalia, 481-82
 Masters refuse to feed black women whose husbands are soldiers, 482
 Black soldier, protection of black families, 483-86
 Missouri Unionist, about recruiting black soldiers, men running off slaves, 486-87
 Idle black men, applying for passes, do not want to enter military, favors conscription, 487-88
 Clinton B. Fisk, slavery dying in Missouri, 489
 General McCook, runaway slaves in camp, hurts Union cause in Kentucky, 519-20

Paducah, USS Conestoga, rescue of slave being chased by dogs, slaves escaping to avoid Confederate cavalry, 521-22

Grant, owners trying to recover fugitive slaves in Union camps, 522-23

General James Negley, General McCook, removing fugitive slaves from camp, 523-25

Slave forcibly returned to master, report of hospital steward, Columbus, Kentucky, 525-28

Mount Sterling, Kentucky, guerrillas, questions giving up fugitive slaves, 528-29

Speech of an Illinois Col., will not return slaves to owners, regiment accused of slave stealing, 530-34, 536-38

Claims of slaves enticed away by soldiers, 534-35

General Gilmore, soldiers as slave catchers, 539-44

Gordon Granger, Kentucky Unionists complain of slaves being abducted by army officers, 544-46

Col., 23rd Kentucky Infantry, complains that 18th Michigan have been taking in his and Unionist neighbors' slaves, 546-47

New York Republican on conditions in Kentucky, false idea that Emancipation Proclamation frees slaves in Kentucky, General Boyle, complaints of Indiana and Michigan soldiers enticing slaves away, 547-550

General Gilmore denies charges against him based on his fugitive slave order, against enticing slaves into Federal lines, 550-55

Questions to General Gordon Granger, about detention of slaves belonging to Unionists, 555-557

Complaint of former Tennessee slave about his family imprisoned in Louisville, 557-61

Complaint about arrest of fugitive slave in Louisville, Jeremiah Boyle, 561-64

Kentucky Unionist, arrest of fugitive slaves who had entered Kentucky with Bragg's army, 565

Chief of Police, Louisville on arrest of fugitive slaves, 565-66

Pleas of former Alabama slave, Louisville for freedom, 566-68

Legal papers, runaway slaves, Kentucky courts, 568-70

Michigan soldier wants to carry a former slave home, 570-71

Joseph Holt, General Negley, two fugitive slaves free because of their service, attempts to kidnap them back into slavery, 571-73

Burnside order on Emancipation Proclamation, 573-74

Orders about Runaway slaves, Louisville, slaves seized from sheriff, 574-79

Illinois chaplain, black servant taken from his wife in Louisville, 579-84

General Hurlbut, complaints about slave departures, 584-85

Road building, black workers, impressment, 585-87

Missouri slaves in Kentucky, emancipation, affidavits, men and women, slave whipped to death, 587-591

Louisville Contraband Commission, testimony before American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, contraband slaves coming into Louisville, slaves sold who had come with Buell's army, 591-94

Slaves in southern Kentucky running away, enlisting, work on railroad, Unionist slaveholders, 594-95

Governor Thomas Bramlette, slave hiring, slaves taken out of state, 595-98

Impressment of slaves in Kentucky, 598-99

Enlistment in attempt to gain passes to leave Kentucky, 600

Complaints from loyal slaveholders, slaves going off to enlist or idling around Clarksville, 601-4

Kentucky governor Thomas Bramlette, martial law interferes with elections, government should be restored without regard to slavery, 604-6
 Black men hanging around Camp Nelson should be enlisted as soldiers, Madison County credit for enlistment, 607
 Complains of slaves leaving owners to hire themselves out, 607-8
 Black soldier asks Lincoln for discharge, 608
 Complaints to black men fleeing Kentucky to Indiana, 609
 Treatment of families of black soldiers, 610
 Slave impressment into military service, treatment of families, 611-12
 Slaveholder mistreatment of families of black soldiers, 613-14
 Problems with some black recruits, 614-15
 Affidavit of a Kentucky Black soldier's wife, mistreatment by master, 615-16
 Court decisions, freedom for families of black soldiers, 617-19
 Women and children claiming to be free, Louisville, health conditions, 619-20
 Slaves, house servants claim freedom, General Palmer, 621-23
 Affidavit of black soldier's wife, false arrest, beating, 623-24
 Delegation of Kentucky blacks, Lincoln, no rights in Kentucky, 624-26
 Kentucky slaveholding to President Johnson, 626-32
 John M. Palmer to Andrew Johnson, free papers, 632-34
 Postwar documents, 634-59
 Offering black mechanics for Confederate service, Montgomery, Alabama, 683
 Appeal for free blacks or slaves to work on North Carolina coastal defenses, 683-84
 Use of slaves for unloading ships, D. H. Hill, 684-85
 Confederate works on the Virginia Peninsula, slaves, Leroy Walker, some wealthy slaveholders object, Magruder, 686-94
 Plan for camp slaves, South Carolina planter, 695-96
 Slaves for Nashville fortifications, 696-97
 Hiring blacksmiths for the army, 697-98
 Objects to Confederate soldiers employing runaway slaves in camp, 698-99
 Slaveholder objects to General Mercer's impressment of slaves in Georgia, 699-700
 Virginia legislator objects to slave impressment, 701
 Pemberton requests slaves to work on fortifications, Columbus, Mississippi, 701-2
 Impressment of Mississippi slaves, 703-4
 Alabama slaveholders recommends slave camp servants, 704-6
 Impressment of slaves, Magruder, 706-10
 Planters reluctant to supply slaves for defense of Charleston, 710-11
 Concern for treatment of slaves impressed for work on defenses, South Carolina, 713-14
 Beauregard, slave labor, impressment, state officials unable to furnish enough slaves, 714-17
 Mobile, engineers, slave impressment, 717-19
 Slave impressment, Fort DeRussy, Louisiana, 719-20
 Department of Cape Fear, Wilmington, impressment of slaves, General Whiting, 720-21
 Impressment of slaves, Camp Milton, Florida, 721-22
 Selma Wharf, slave labor, 722
 Robert E. Lee, slave impressments, 723-25
 Engineer Hospital, Richmond, condition of sick black laborers, deaths, 726-28
 Virginia farmer complains of poor treatment of impressed slaves, 728-29

General Whiting. Wilmington, black labor, shortage of clothes, 729-30
 Millers need slaves release for flour production, 731
 Need for release of coal mine overseers, 732
 Slaves running steamboats, 733
 North Carolina, call for free blacks to work on Piedmont railroad, 733-34
 Alabama railroad director, black workers, Yankee inducements, coal and iron production, 734-37
 Objects to Yankee prisoners working in shops, Wilmington, bad effect on slaves, 738
 Railroad workers, shortages of slaves, 736-42
 Armory, Macon, Georgia, need to impress slave workers, 742-44
 Militia duty and food shortages in Shenandoah Valley, 744-45
 Virginia slaveholder, slaves working on fortifications, corn crop in danger, 745-46
 Florida governor John Milton, slave labor needs overseers, safety, seeks overseer exemption, 746-48
 John M. Gregory, former governor of Virginia, deplors black labor in camp, need for slaves at home in agriculture, they run off to the Yankees, 748-54
 Labor on fortifications, Trans-Mississippi department, 754-55
 General Gilmer, Savannah, coast defense, slave labor, 756
 Randolph County, Alabama farmers, slave impressment, food shortages, bread riots, 756-60
 Lynchburg, suggestion for free blacks to work on fortifications, 760-61
 Teamsters impressed by the government, 761
 Free blacks to work for Nitre and Mining Bureau, 762-63
 North Carolina, fear of free blacks causing slave insurrection after white men are conscripted, 763-64
 Worries about free black population being removed from two Virginia counties, 764-67
 Ordnance harness shop, wages and employment of free blacks, 767-68
 Testimony of South Carolina free blacks before Southern Claims Commission, taxes, 769-70
 Artillery officer, permission to return home to remove slaves, 771
 Removing slaves to safe places, Charleston, Shreveport, Alexandria, La., Washington Co., Mississippi, 772-781
 Limit number troops taken from Dallas County Alabama, slave security, 781-82
 Albermarle County, Va., slave impressment, claims attachment to slaves, Unionist influence, 782-84
 Military force as protection against slave, North Carolina, 784
 Slaves trying to escape to aid the enemy, 785-94
 Passes for slaves and free blacks, Louisiana, 794
 Liberty County, Georgia, escape of slaves to Federal vessels, danger of insurrection, 795-98
 Tennessee planter asks for son to be released to look after slaves, 799
 Soldiers sent to detail with alleged slave conspiracies in Florida, 800
 Continual demand for slaves as nurses and to work on fortifications, Mississippi, 800-2
 Slaves leaving, forged passes, Federals, 802-4
 Impressment of slaves for hospital, cotton bureau, 804-5
 Killing dangerous slaves, 805-6
 Darlington, SC, depredations by slaves, dogs, 806-7
 Sussex County Virginia, slave impressments, will lead blacks to run to the enemy, 807-8
 Escaped Union prisoners, relied on help from slaves, Confederate morale, 809-10

South Carolina Freedmen, testimony to Southern Claims Commission, helped Union soldiers, held secret meetings, 811-13

South Carolina Freedmen, testimony to Southern Claims Commission, hired out as a slave, livery stable, gave food to Union soldiers, wanted freedom, 813-14