

Cooke, John Esten. The Life of Stonewall Jackson. New York: Charles B. Richardson, 1863.

Robert E. Lee and Jackson, 7-8
Background, service in Mexico, 13-17
Virginia Military institute, Colonel, Virginia line, secession, 17-21
Falling Waters, Joseph Johnston, Winchester, Jeb Stuart, 21-25
Manassas, Bull Run, 25-32
Jackson farewell to the brigade, 32-35
Winter expedition to Romney, 35-38
Kernstown, 39-43
Battle of McDowell, Banks, Milroy, 43-48
Battle of Winchester, Ashby, 49-62
Battle of Cross Keys, Frémont, Shields, 62-68
Battle of Port Republic, 68-72
More information on Romney and Kernstown, 73-81
More information on McDowell and Winchester, 81-99
More information on Cross Keys and Port Republic, 99-107
Jackson in June 1862, Jackson's accomplishments had been surprising, Jackson's appearance and characteristics, 107-114
Cold Harbor, Gaines's Mill, Stuart, A. P. Hill, Pelham, 114-21
Retreat to Malvern Hill, Seven Days, Savage Station, 121-35
John Pope, Army of Virginia, 135-47
Cedar Mountain, 147-53
Second Manassas, Bull Run campaign, 153-59
March to Manssas, battle of Second Manassas, Bull Run, 160-95
Maryland campaign, Antietam, 195-218
Shenandoah Valley, amusements, Jackson stories, 219-225
Fredericksburg, 225-36
Winter quarters as Moss Neck, reports of battles, little girls, 237-41
Hooker, Chancellorsville, 241-61
Death of Jackson, 262-70
Evaluation of Jackson the soldier and man, 270-85
Jackson report of operations, September 5-27, 1862, 289-300
Stonewall Brigade, 301-5