

Swint, Henry L., ed. Dear One at Home: Letters from the Contraband Camps. Nashville: Vanderbilt University Press, 1966.

Wants to go south with the nurses, 13
Family at home, 14
Quakers and war, 15
Nurses in the army, 16
Former slaves, teachers, 17-18
Craney Island near Norfolk, 19ff
Prayer meeting, black religious feeling, barbarism, 21-22
Mortality rates, midwife, 23
Women and domestic duties, 23-24
Condition of blacks arriving, 24
General Dix, little asylum for slaves, 28
Consumption, blacks, 29
Cook, 30
Aristocratic feeling among former slaves, 30
Former slaves and clothes, 32-33
Black marriages, 33
Theft, 34
Dance, 34-35
Gunboats, 36
Sabbath, 36
Courtesies, 36-37
Southern women and abolitionists, 37
Pass, 37
Wedding, 37-38
Former slave teaching reading, 39
Agricultural work, 40
Former slave eager for education, 41
Love letter from former slave, 41-42
Religious service, 42-43
Clam digging, 45
Shoes, 46
Religious enthusiasm, 47
Slave refugees, lack of education, 52-53
Bread, 59
New York soldiers and slave sales, 59
Touching stories of former slaves and children, 59-61
Virginia blacks have contempt for North Carolina blacks, 61
School children, 61-62
Black speech patterns, 62
Work habits, procrastination, 63
Food, 64
Clothing, reluctance to repair, 65-66
Secession sentiment in Norfolk, 68

Sermon on slavery and freedom, 69
Disloyal sentiments expressed, 70
People walk around the flag, 70
Confederate women, fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 71-72
Merrimac can be seen at low tide, 72
Honor and forms of address, 73
Unionist who objects to white women teaching blacks, 78
Governor Henry A. Wise's farm, 79
Fever, 82
Teachers, 85
Home for former slaves, 86
Need to bring black women and girls to work in Philadelphia, 87-88
Spelling, 90
Barracks and rats, 90
Food shortages, 92
Farmers abuse of black workers, 95
Blacks, love and remembrance, 96
Alcohol smuggling, 97
Teaching, 101
Government farms, workers, 102
Unionist woman, not good as a teacher or housekeeper, 102
Smallpox, 102
Clothing, 103
White children, racial separation in schools, 104
Articles sent by Freedmen's Relief Society, 105-6
Village of former slaves, 107-8
Williamsburg, insane asylum, 108-9
School house, black teachers, 109-110
Pickets, passes, 112
General Barnes, 113-14
Christian Commission and Sanitary Commission, 116-17
Free blacks need independence and work, 118
Schoolhouse, young teacher, 119-20
Yorktown, black villages, marriage, 120-22
Hospital boat, amputations, 122
Hospitals and treatment of black soldiers, 122-23
Religious meetings, black ministers, 123-26
Former slaves, 127
Slave sale, 127-28
Benjamin Butler and black labor, 128
Schools, 129
School and teachers, 130-31
Tales of a woman whose children were all gone, 132
Need for cooking utensils, books, 132
Teaching former slaves about money, 133
Teachers, 135

Clothing, 136
Roanoke Island, 136ff
Refugees, 137
White refugees, 139-41
New Bern, 142ff
Teacher, Sanitary Commission, Christmas, 143
General Ord to Henry Wilson, denies that he has refused rations for teachers of black children, 145
Education for black children, 147-48
Fort Fisher, 148-49
Water pump, 150
Meeting with black religious leaders, 155
Schools and self-help for black population, 156-57
Schools and postwar work with the freedpeople, 157ff