

United Daughters of the Confederacy, Missouri Division. Reminiscences of the Women of Missouri during the Sixties. Dayton, Oh.: Morningside House, 1988.

Plattsburg, Missouri, first Confederate flag, women, 10-14
Founder of Decoration Day, Jackson, Mississippi, 14-17
Warsaw, Yankee depredations, alcohol, 18-19
Contraband on the Mississippi, boat, Memphis, pretended to be northerners on return trip, 20-26
Slavery, 27
Father arrested for aiding Confederates, rescued body of dead Confederate, 27
Yankee depredations, 26-27
James Lane's raid into western Missouri, 1864, guerrillas, 31-34
Border life, Jayhawkers, house repeatedly searched, Kansas City, 35-42
Slaves, cooking, 42-43
Refugees, 43-44
St. Louis, Camp Jackson, Confederate prisoners, hospital work, 44-49
Wilson's Creek, Sterling Price, 51-53
Kansas Jayhawkers raid on Osceola, October 1861, 54-55
Vicksburg, 55-56
Wartime journey, Missouri to Texas, Fort Smith, 59-60
Recollections of John M. Weidemeyer, Lane, Osceola, 61-66
Pea Ridge, 66-68
Federal prison, Gratiot Street, St. Louis, 69-72
First Manassas, Bull Run, 72-73
Second Manassas, Bull Run, 74-77
Banishment of Mrs. Margaret A. E. McLure, St. Louis, prisoner, 78-84
Chaplain's wife, Richmond during the Seven Days, hospital, 84-90
Six years old when war began, soldiers marching, Quantrill, expulsion of Confederate sympathizers, 90-92
Postwar letter of why Charles Brownlee fought for the Confederacy, 98-101
General Shelby, nursing, 103-5
Obtaining quinine and morphine, shirt, socks, Provost Marshal Dicks, Gratiot Street prison, 106-112
Bread riot in Louisburg, 114
Border war, Jennison, General Order No. 11, General Ewing, 124-25
Robbers and defiant woman, 125-26
Woman son killed at Battle of New Market, 131
Night with dead and wounded, Sterling Price's army, Federal murdered husband, 132-35
Refugees in Grenada, Mississippi, Federal raids, 136-39
Wife's devotion, women left to run households, 140-42
Smuggling letters, 142-43
Home Guards, husband accused to killing a Union soldier, 145-48
Journal of Mildred Elizabeth Powell, Palmyra, Missouri, 148ff
Arrival of Yankees, taken to colonel's headquarters, arrested. General Merrill, guards surround house, sentenced to banishment to Indiana, prisoners to be hanged, 150-60
Praying with victims, 161
Ten men executed by Federal, coffins, 161-62

Departure of prisoners for St. Louis, 163
 Order of banishment, 169-70
 Sabbath, 169
 Soldier guard, 171-73
 Banished, too ill to leave, 175ff
 Southern women and the war, 181
 Execution of Lieutenant Brownlee, Cooper County, Missouri, 183-85
 Reading Bible prevented Federal soldiers from burning the house, 186-87
 Battle of Westport, 187-89
 Oath of Allegiance, 189-90
 Sewing society, 191
 Slave quarters, wedding, 192-93
 Fear of slave insurrection, 193
 Wedding, 194
 Liberated slaves, 195
 Reminiscences of Major T. S. Chandler, Missouri, recruiting partisan rangers, escaped arrest by Federals, 196-201
 Brief History of the War and Prison Life, by A. M. Poage. Captured, jail in Lexington, 201-5
 Corinth, 206
 Vicksburg, 206-7
 Fort Delaware, Point Lookout, 207-8
 Reminiscences of Mrs. Annie K. Major, by Mrs. Alexander H. Major, depredations along Ohio
 River, Yankee soldiers, music, singing, soldiers defied orders to burn the house, 209-12
 Bribe the Guard, by Mrs. Samuel Vance Warth, Camp Douglas, 212-14
 Atrocities Upon the Missouri Border, by Mrs. N. M. Harris. Jennison, insulting women, Jayhawkers carried off silverware, 214-19
 Life of Mrs. J. O. Shelby, General Shelby's wife, by Mrs. T. Y. Brannock 219-20
 Facts Regarding Southern Women, by the Daughter of Mrs. Mary Mullins, provost marshal arrest, General Jackman, 221-22
 A Glimpse of Both Sides, by Mrs. Elizabeth Freleigh Shippey, Cairo, steamboat passage south, taken by slave to Hernando, Mississippi, women patriots, 222-27
 Review of troops by Jefferson Davis, fall 1863, Sterling Price, Pemberton, 228
 Brief Reminiscence of St. Louis During 1860-65, by Theresa J. Freeman, Camp Jackson,
 German soldiers, 230-33
 Recollections of Quantrill, raid on Independence, by Mrs. R. T. Bass 233-38
 Personal Experiences, by Mrs. Bettie A. Reid, Federal's at Cape Girardeau, Marmaduke's
 Brigade, 238-40
 Banishment of Miss Mary Cleveland, by Virginia Yates McCanne 241-42
 War Times at Palmyra, by Mrs. J. M. Proctor, hiding secessionist gunpowder, male family members arrested, neighbors tricked into revealing Confederate sympathies and shot, 242-45
 Were Not Allowed to Preach, by Mrs. Martha J. Walker, citizens arrested, taking food to the guardhouse, Sunday school for black children, 245-47
 Reminiscence of the Civil War, by Mrs. R. K. Johnson, Jennison, expelled under Ewing order
 No. 11, 248-49
 Reminiscence of the War, by Mrs. J. M. Thatcher, husband shot by Federals, forced to leave home, 249-50

War Reminiscence, by Mrs. H. T. Hereford, attempted expulsion, threats to kill various men, 250-52

A Night of Terror, by Mrs. J. W. Holmes, Kansas City, state militia, threats against father, wounded, escape to Kentucky, 253-54

War Reminiscence, by Mrs. Judge Graves, refugees in Kansas City, Westport, Jennison, women and children killed on collapsed building, 254-56

Some of the Events of the Civil War as I Remember Them., Lone Jack, Quantrill, 256-63

Reminiscences of the Civil War, by Mrs. Frances Fristoe Twyman, Ewing, General Order No. 11, refugee women and children, one man taken prisoner and shot down in front of his family, 263

Mark Ye Their Graves, by Mrs. W. L. Webb, poem, 267

Reminiscences, by Mrs. W. L. Webb, fall, 1863, state militia, Kansas City, General Order No. 11, 269-71

The Missouri Guerrilla, by Mrs. W. L. Webb 271=73

Reminiscences of the War Between the States, slave accused woman of dancing with Confederate flag, confrontation with a Federal soldier, 273-75

Oath of Allegiance 275-76

Incidents of the Siege of Lexington the First Southern Soldier Killed, by Miss Belle L. Green 276=78

How One Prisoner Escaped, Baptist College, Old Town, 278-85

Refused to Be Exchanged 280-81

Heaped Coals of Fire, cruel treatment by a Federal officer, Confederate does not respond in kind 281-84

Thanked After Many Days caring for a general soldier, 283-85

Siege of Lexington, McNeil's Rangers, capture of General Crook and Kelly, by Mrs. Mary R. Tabb 286-88

Recollections of the Surrender and Home-Coming, by Capt. J. M. Weidemeyer, Mobile, paroled, 288-89

A Christmas Dinner in 1862 a Reminiscence of Mrs. R. M. Drew, by Mrs. L. H. Carlile, city along Mississippi, prisoners, 289-92

Death of James Barnes, by Mrs. Larima Crow Reilley, arrested, murdered, St. Louis German Home Guards, 292

Reminiscences of the Civil War, by Bettie Glenn Ellis, battle of Boonville, Marmaduke, Lyon, slaves, fear with men away, 293-94

A Crape Veil, by Mrs. Alexander H. Major, mourning woman who hated Lincoln, suicide, 294

The High Tide at Gettysburg, by one of Pickett's men, Capt. Robert McCulloch 300-304

Gettysburg reunion, 305-8