
Birth, ancestry, background in army, bishop, 1-130
Secession and outbreak of war, Rockbridge Artillery, 132 -35
War prospects, 136
Lincoln, 136-37
Enlistment to command artillery company, duty, 138-40
Rockbridge Artillery, 140ff
Piety and preaching, 142
Duty and work of death, 142-43
Traitors in Virginia, 143
Evacuation of Harpers Ferry, 143
Without tents, rain, 144
Respect for Yankee soldiers, 144
Fall Waters, 145-46
Colonel of artillery, First Manassas, Bull Run, 146-54
Captured artillery pieces, increasing Confederate artillery force, contractors, powder, 154-60
Preaching, 161
Illness, 162-63
Lewis Coleman, 164
Daily routine, 165
McClellan, 166
Statement of artillery strength, 167-69
Winter quarters, Centreville, 169
Worship in camp, chapel, 170-71
Fort Henry and Donelson, 171
Retreat from Centreville, 172-73
Death of Bishop Meade, 174-76
Peninsula campaign, 176ff
Marching to Richmond, 177
Promotion to brigadier general, 177-79
Yorktown, 180-82
Williamsburg, 182-83
Chickahominy, 184
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 185
Defending Richmond, Lee, 187-88
Jackson in the Valley, 189
Seven Days, Lee, Jackson, Longstreet, A. P. Hill, Malvern Hill, 193-98
Artillery regulations, 198-99
Artillery taken to the rear, 199
Richmond hospitals, Mrs. Pendleton, 200-1
Concerned about son’s religious character in camp, 202-3
Cedar Mountain, 203-4
Hanover Junction, Second Manassas, Bull Run, 204-10
Richmond, Jefferson Davis, 205-6
Diarrhea, diet, pickle juice cure, 208, 227-29, 231
Antietam campaign, artillery losses, report to Lee, 210-225
Sabbath, 228
Army stronger, 230
Preaching, 232-33
Fredericksburg, cold, 233-39
Fredericksburg, 239-48
Scarcity of food, prices, 249
Winter quarters, 250
Confederate money, 251
Mud, 252-53
Yankee barbarism, 253
Preaching, chaplain, 254
Chaplain meeting, 255
Baptism, 256
Hooker, Chancellorsville, 257-69
Death of Stonewall Jackson, 269-72
Sandie Pendleton, dysentery, 273-74
Federals along the Rappahannock, 275-76
Stuart and cavalry, 277
Winchester, 278
Gettysburg campaign, 279-94
Retreat from Gettysburg, Vicksburg, 295-97
Food, 297
Preaching, religious services, 301-2
Bristoe Station, 303-5
Destruction of churches, 305
Rappahannock Station, 305
Mine Run, 306-8
Dalton, Georgia, reorganizing Joseph Johnston’s artillery, Hardee, Hood, 314-18
Methodist preaching, 313
Preaching, 317
Richmond, Jefferson Davis, Bragg, 320-21
Minnengerode, St. Paul’s Church, 321-22
Thefts of meat at home, 322
Overland campaign, 323ff
Wilderness, Longstreet, 325-27
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 328-332, 335
Cold Harbor, 333-34
Lee in bad health, 356-57
Assessment of Grant, 357
Hunter, 1864 Valley campaign, 339
Providence, 340
Worried about Lexington, Virginia, 340-41
Yankee destruction and barbarism, black soldiers, 342
Sermon and General Wise, 344
Yankees in Lexington, Virginia, Hunter, 344-49
Fear of black soldiers, 349
Petersburg, Weldon Railroad, 351ff
Grant’s strategy, Petersburg, 355
Crater, Petersburg mine, 357-60
Preaching, 359
Meade, flag of truce, burials, 359
Jubal Early, Maryland, Sandie Pendleton, 360-65
Petersburg, earthworks, Chaffin’s Bluff, digestion problems, 365-67
Reams Station, 367
Death of Sandie Pendleton, Woodstock, providence, 368-72, 376-77
Petersburg, 374ff
Religious service, sermon, 374-75
Pegram, 375
Dining with General Lee, 375-76
Wood, 378
Sherman and Savannah, 380
Johnston and Hood, 380
Christmas, Yankee outrages, 381
New Year’s 384-85
Fort Fisher, Wilmington, 385
Robert E. Lee and communion, 389
Yankees in Staunton, 391
Lee’s promotion, 394-95
Fort Steadman, artillery, 395
Evacuation of Petersburg, 398
Amelia Courthouse, 398
Rice’s Station, Southside Railroad, 400-1
Appomattox, 403-7
Postwar military occupation, religious work, 407fff
Recollections of Robert E. Lee, 494-537