

Morgan, Sarah. The Civil War Diary of Sarah Morgan. Edited by Charles East. Athens: University of Georgia Press, 1991.

Good times and bad, 5
Death of brother, wounded, 5-11
Father, bad attack of asthma, death, funeral, home now dreary, 11-22
Peculiarities and virtues of the family, 23
Self-doubt, 26ff
War, 35
Soldiers and pleasant society, 35-36
Women admire courage, 38
Critique of various men, 40-41
Challenge to a duel, 45-47
Enemy gunboats appear, cotton burning, 47-49
Concern about Yankees intercepting letters, 50-51
Rumors about New Orleans, 51
Fears burning of house, 51
Soldier and defense of New Orleans, 52-53
Death brother, 53-57
Her ideal in a man, 59-63
Yankees landed, 63
Demand for surrender of Baton Rouge, 64
Suppressing Confederate flag and signs, 64
War makes hearts of women so bitter, 65
Gunboats firing, prisoners, 66
Looks at gunboats from Statehouse grounds, 67
Yankee officers in church, 69
People call them the proud, aristocratic Morgans, 70
Reports of Federal officers called on the Morgan women, 73
Women talking on political questions, 73-74
Confederacy found on rope of sand of secession and will not last many years, 74-75
Yankees have left Baton Rouge and headed toward Vicksburg, 75
Butler, prospect of becoming a refugee, 76
Need for brave brothers, 76-77
Longs for peace, 77-78
Shopping, shoes, 78
Wives and mothers, children, 80-83
Struggle to be good and busy, 84
Leaving home, refugees, 85-86
Wishes she would die rather than one of the boys, 85-86
Guerrilla fire, 87
Artillery fire, 89
Refugees on the road, 90-91
Praises the slaves, 91
Guerrilla camp, 91
Destruction at home, 93

People for bidden to leave without a pass, 96-97
 Returning home, destruction, 98
 Fear of Yellow fever, 99
 Debate on risk of staying in their home, 100
 Women and Yankee soldiers, 101
 Union soldiers scouting for guerrillas, 104
 Passes, women and soldiers in Baton Rouge, 105
 Soldier guard, 106
 Yankees drilling, 108
 Long conversation with soldier, 108
 Union colonel sends barrel of flour to mother, 109
 Soldiers in church, 109
 Union colonel shot, 110-11
 Soldier polite compared to loud, rude, secessionist women, 111-12
 Accused of being traitors for returning to Baton Rouge, mob opinion, 113-14
 Is a Confederate but admires the enemy, 114
 Hates being rude to soldiers, 115
 Needs to keep a diary in trying times, 121
 Despairing, hopes there is no politics in heaven, rude people, disdains idea of a patriotic woman, disdains those who would spit in a Union officer's face, war has brought out wickedness in women, they disdain helping sick and dying soldiers, 121-24
 Possibility of British and French intervention, 127
 Packs a few things in case leaving Baton Rouge, 128
 Soldier wounded in front of house, alcohol, neighbors would not help, such Christian conduct, 129-30
 Debating what to do in adversity, 131
 Report that town is to be shelled, 135
 Daily routine, 136-37
 Van Dorn proclamation calling for people to go interior, 138
 Fears being nervous during bombardment, 139
 Fear losing clothes, 140
 Lincoln, 141
 Better to belong to England or France than to the North, 141
 Degradation, not salvation on either side, 142
 Hates politics and women who meddle in politics, 142-43
 Satisfied with General Williams rule in Baton Rouge, 143
 Citizens arrested, sentence to Fort Jackson, Methodist minister, 143-44
 Governor Moore, 144
 Butler threat, 145-46
 Women talk too much say officers, sewing society, 146
 Rumor that Butler has a detective watching houses, 146
 Rumor of attack on the town, 149
 Contents on bag, preparing for possibly leaving, 149-50
 Palmerston and Butler, 151
 Prefers independent without English help, 151
 Hard life of a governess, 153

Dissatisfied with a life in such uncertain times, thought of the past, 154-56
 Ban on talking about the war, 160
 Despotism, waging war on women, 160
 1st Louisiana Infantry, 161
 Northern newspapers, 162
 Reading, Samuel Johnson, 163-64
 Discussions of war in public places prohibited, 164
 Yankees cutting down trees, earthworks, 164-65
 Not as frightened as men are, 166-67
 Men leave women unprotected, 168
 Rumors, 169
 Rumors, packing, 171
 Leaving the house, 172ff
 Marriage, 175
 Town very quiet with all the soldiers here, 181
 People sheltering in the deaf and dumb asylum, 182-83
 Women braver than the home guard, and many other men, 182-83
 Pass and parole, 184
 Now on a plantation, 185
 Confederate soldiers, 195-98
 Fears another attack on Baton Rouge and destruction, 200
 Battle of Baton Rouge, casualties, 201
 Fleeing Baton Rouge, married women first to leave, 205ff
 Escape from town, destruction, 212
 Black women and clothes, 213
 Yankees burning parts of Baton Rouge, 214
 Would rather have possessions burned than in hands of blacks, 215
 Writing much against the Yankees, 216
 Does not want to be dependent, 217
 Someone cheated a poor old slave woman out of watermelons, 224
 Contemplating a husband's death and a friend marrying him, 225
 Destruction in Baton Rouge, 225
 Convicts released from prison, 228
 Destruction in Baton Rouge, 228
 Destruction at home, 233-35
 Conditions in Baton Rouge and at home, 235-41
 Clinton Louisiana, 242ff
 Hotel, 243
 Stories of them entertaining Federal officers, 244
 Remnants in streets, 247
 Little available news, 249
 Boarding and longs for home, 249
 Our slaves freed by the Yankees, 250
 Shortages in Clinton, 251
 Baton Rouge turning Yankee, northern Christians, 261-62
 Rumors, 262

Strangers, 263-64
 Leaving Clinton, railroad, 264-66
 Horse accident, 267
 Church, sermon, officers, 269-70
 General Albert G. Carter, 270 et passim
 Lying, 278
Arkansas crew, 287
 Bother's wounded, 292-93
 Atlas, Virginia campaigns, 295
 Dream, 301-2
 Clinton, railroad, 311
 Port Hudson, 317
 Sugar house, 328 et passim
 Flapping veils at passing soldiers, 329
 Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 330
 Horse accident, bedridden a long time, 334ff
 Christmas, 374-78
 Optimistic about Confederate at beginning of 1863, 380
 Union army back in Baton Rouge, burned state house, 382
 Federal troops occupy home in Baton Rouge, 384
 Party, 385-92
 Glories in being a rebel, glad there are two distinct peoples, Yankee outrages in Baton Rouge, 410-11
 Cardplaying, 413
 Ghosts, 422
 Plans to leave Clinton for Georgia, 429
 Hammond, Louisiana, 461-62
 Traveling, 465ff
 Spartan quarters, 478
 Overseer, 480
 Babies crying, 483
 Yankees come aboard schooner and take names, 484-85
 Woman defiantly refuses to take the oath, 486
 General order for Confederates to leave New Orleans, 490
 Vicksburg and Port Hudson, 504
 Yankee hospitals, sugar house, 505
 Oath, 507-9
 New Orleans, frightened Yankees, 509
 Ice creams, 510
 Surrender of Port Hudson, 515
 Parade of blacks, politics, 517
 Patience, Vicksburg, Port Hudson, New Orleans, Union demonstration, 517-18
 Fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, 518
 Gettysburg, morale, 519
 Prisoners, 523
 Women are natural hero worshipers, 523

Union soldiers writing notes and letters, 524-25
Dream, 525-26
Soldier sick and a prisoner from Port Hudson, 529-30
Message from prisoners, 539-542
Marriage, 548
Old maid project, 550
Wedding, bridal dinner, 557-58
Christmas, 584-85
Dream, 585-86
Taking stock of the old year, 586-87
Orphans fair, 592
Paroled prisoner visits, 595
Both brothers dead, 597-603
Dream, 603
Lee surrender, 606
Lincoln assassination, 606-7
Mourning for Lincoln, mixed emotions, 608
Return of Confederate soldiers, 610
End of the Confederacy, 611