

Morton, John Watson. The Artillery of Nathan Bedford Forrest. Marietta, Ga.: R. Bemis Publishing, 1995.

Character sketch of Nathan Bedford Forrest, 11-18
Joining Forrest, 19-21
Fort Donelson, prisoner, 21-34
Prisoner, Camp Chase, Johnson's Island, fishing, games, poems, 37-44
Expedition into West Tennessee, Forrest, Clifton, 45-50
Battle of Lexington, artillery pieces captured, courting women, Humboldt, Forked Deer Creek, Trenton, Robert Ingersoll, prisoners, new artillery pieces, Morton's Battery formed, 51-64
Battle of Parker's Crossroads, artillery at short range, 64-70
Battle of Dover, Columbia, 71-78
Battle of Thompson's Station, Columbia, picket duty, death of Captain Freeman, 79-89
Streight's Raid, mules, Tusculumbia, women capture Federals, Emma Samson, 90-104
Clash at Triune, Tullahoma campaign, Shelbyville, John Hickman captured, Cowan, swimming, 105-114
Battle of Chickamauga, Bragg, 115-133
Second expedition to West Tennessee, crossing Wolf River, 134-40
Defeat of William Sooy Smith, reorgnaizaiton, Meridian expedition, drilling recruits, Okolona, death of Colonel Jeffrey Forrest, Sherman's opinion of William Sooy Smith, 141-58
Camp life in Mississippi, Columbus, women, Kentucky troops, battery battalion, Russellville, 159-71
Stephen D. Lee's wedding, 165-66
Reenlistment, 166-67
Morton denied permission to visit Columbus, 168-69
Brice's Crossroads, Ripley, Forest and Washburn, 172-200
Deserters executed, 173-74
Battle of Harrisburg, General Smith, Mower, 201-15
A. J. Smith abandons Mississippi, 216-17
Forrest move on Memphis, 217-21
Athens, Alabama, German soldier, 222-32
Sulphur Springs Trestle, Elk River, Richland Creek, blockhouses, Pulaski, 233-244
Fort Hieman, Undine, horse marines, loss of Venus and Undine, 245-51
Gunboats, Johnsonville, 252-66
Return to Mississippi, joining Hood at Florence, moving to Franklin, 267-72
Battle of Franklin, 273-76
Nashville, black troops, 277-85
Hood's retreat, rear guard, 286-94
Anthony's Hill and Sugar Creek, 295-300
Florence, furloughs, resolutions of the battery on the cause, women, recruiting, Wilson's raid, 301-308
Selma, McCook, 309-14
Surrender at Gainesville, 315-24
Ku Klux Klan, 337-46
Confederate prisoners at Johnson's Island, 363-74

