

Gildea, James. A Magnificent Irishman from Appalachia: The Letters of Lt. James Gildea, First Ohio Light Artillery, Battery L. Edited by Gary Piatt. Portsmouth, Oh.: Western Slope Round Table, 2003.

1st Ohio Light Artillery, Battery L
Enlistment, 5
Organization of the battery, 6
Battery M, guardhouse, mutiny, 6-7
Alcohol, 9
Battle of Bloomery Gap, 9-11
General Shields, 12
Battle of Kernstown, 13-21
Lincoln review of troops, 22
Front Royal, 23
Foraging, rations, 25-26
Port Republic, Cross Keys, the Coaling, 27-36
Chantilly battle, 36-39
Antietam, 39-41
Fishing for a discharge, 41-42
Foraging hogs, sheep 42-44
Regulars vs. volunteers, 44-45
Fredericksburg, 45-46
Mud March, 46-47
Christmas, food, 47-48
Chancellorsville, 49-55
Gettysburg, 57-61
Pursuit of Lee's army, 62
Sutler, tobacco, 63
General Sykes, 64
Mine Run, 65-69
Fort Stevens, Lincoln, 73-74
Fugitive slave, family arrested, 242
New Orleans slave in prison, 242-43
Michigan Quakers, Confederates intend to army slaves; slaves told Yankees will sell them to Cuba, 269
Grant, no passes to pursue fugitive slaves, 270
Fisher's Hill, 76-79
Cedar Creek, 79-83
Discharge, mustered out, 83