

Higginson, Thomas Wentworth. The Complete Civil War Journal and Selected Letters of Thomas Wentworth Higginson. Edited by Christopher Looby. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2000.

1st South Carolina Infantry (Union)
Journey to Cape Hatteras, 39
Reputation of the black regiment, 41
Rufus Saxton, 41 et passim
Regiments and officers, 42
Journey to Beaufort, 42-43
Hilton Head, 44
Saxton and officers in his regiment, 45
Thanksgiving, food, 46, 52
Discipline officers, 47
Blacks soldiers equal to white soldiers, 47-48
Drill, 48
Old man telling of his escape from slavery, 48-50
Officers, 50-51
Saxton and Hunter, 52
Black soldiers work hard, 53
Black women, holiday dress, 54
No problems from white regiments, 54
Soldier pay, homesickness, 55
Music, religious, 56-57
Innocent people, 57
Pride in military service suppresses plantation vices, 57
Sensuality on plantations, 58
Music, 58-60
Speeches, 59-60
Tent and furnishings, 61
Food, 61
Shouting, music, dancing, 62-63
Poor looking recruits from Georgetown, 63
Tobacco, 64
Shouting, prayer meetings, 64-65
Courage in battle, 65
Chaplain, education, spelling book, 65
Black prayers, Bible, 65-66
Light skinned slaves, use of the word “nigger,” 67
Women carry things on their heads, 68
Child-like former slaves, 69
Signs and countersigns, 70
Thinks black suffer less from cold but more from heat than whites, 70
Duty, 71
Chaplain read newspaper letters about performance of black troops, 71
Daily routine, 71

Barbecue, 72
 Christmas, singing, 73
 Alcohol, tobacco, drink, food, 75
 New Year's, 75
 Emancipation Proclamation, singing "America", flag, 76-79
 Black conversation, 79
 Wounded man, hospital, 80
 Beaufort, Saxton, 81
 Drill, 82
 Assessment of colonels as regimental commanders, 82-83
 Armistice rumors, 83
 Reading Emancipation Proclamation, chaplain speaking, 83-84
 Pride in guard duty, 84
 Childlike quality of black soldiers, insensitivity to pain, 85-86
 Soldiers religious spirit, 86
 Music, song, 86
 Paperwork, 86-87
 Sees pulmonary weakness in black soldiers, 87
 Black soldiers wasted in garrison duty, would be good in partisan warfare, 87-88
 Marched regiment through Beaufort, proud of them, 88-89
 Marching, music, singing, 90
 Drill, review, Hunter, Saxton, 91
 Possible attack on Charleston, 92
 Burning in St. Mary's women pretending to be loyal, 93
 Courage in battle, 95
 Letter from Florida, soldier wife, 97
 Pneumonia among the soldiers, 98
 Marriage of adjutant, 99
 Hunter, Saxton, 99
 Young black man on George Washington, 100
 Black families of former slaves, 101
 Greatly attached to people, transfer to a more defensible place, 102
 Saxton and Hunter, 103
 Stories about black soldiers, 105
 Newspaper correspondents, Villard, Carleton, 105
 Advantage of his troops' enthusiasm and local knowledge, 106
 Officers and enlisted men, democracy, 106-7
 Jacksonville, Florida, 109ff
 Cavalry patrols, 110
 Courage, 111
 Claims of Unionist sentiments, 112
 Women insulting soldiers, 112-13
 Charles Devens, Edward Baker, Ball's Bluff, 115
 Colonel James Montgomery, 116, 154 et passim
 False alarms, 117-18
 Jacksonville, troops burning the town, 120

Confederate prisoner escapes in a crowd of women, 121
 Evacuation of Jacksonville, 122
 Picket duty, 123ff
 Escaped former slaves, 125
 Samuel DuPont and David Hunter, 129
 Black speech, 129
 Chaplain, sermon, 132
 Flag of truce, General W. S. Walker, 132-33
 Countersigns, 133-34
 Volunteers, conscription, 134
 Attacked for taking furniture off boat at Jacksonville, burning, 134-36
 Picket duty, 137-38, 140
 Skirmishers, goose, 139
 Court martial sentences, 140
 Food. 141-42
 Two former slaves come through Confederate pickets, 142
 Hunter, Saxton, troop review, 142-43
 False newspaper accounts, 143
 Officers, 144
 Soldier wedding, 144
 Women, prayer meeting, 144
 Court martial punishment, 144-45
 Glad to see more black regiments, 145
 Chase, regiment at Jacksonville, Lorenzo Thomas, 145
 John Hay, 146-47
 Grammar, 147
 Description of his officers, 147-50
 Stealing, 151
 Hunter threatens Jefferson Davis with execution of prisoners, 151-52
 Accidental shooting, coffin, 152-53
 Beaufort, 153ff
 Saxton, Quincy Gilmore, 154
 Enlisted men feel effects of climate less than the officers, 155
 Appearance of blacks in camp, 156
 McClellan, bayonet exercises, 156-57
 Strong feelings for his regiment, 161
 Soldier pay, desertion, 161
 Satire on drill, 162
 Raising quality of officers, Saxton, 163
 Former slave, refugees, 164
 Court martial duty, 165-66
 Old black woman on the soldiers, 166-67
 Religion, soldiers singing, 167-68
 Major, 169
 Camp and regimental details, 169-70
 Sees sense of nationhood growing in the major, 171

Carelessness of some volunteer colonels about military regulations, 172
 Soldiers desire land, 172-73
 Lincoln joke, 173
 Soldiers desire land, Edward Philbrick, 174-75
 Higginson says he has a taste for undeveloped races, 175
 Women in camp, 176
 His duties as colonel, 177
 Black soldiers drill between than white soldiers, 177
 Possum, food, 177-78
 Work in the camp, 179
 Praise house, prayer meeting, 180
 Christmas, 180-82
 Court martial duty, 182
 Tent, 182
 Soldiers and land sales, 183
 Nathaniel P. Banks, 184
 Possible promotion, 184-85
 Saxton, Gilmore. 186-88
 Soldier speech and response to charges, 188
 Countersign, 189
 Picket duty, 189-90
 Slave singing, 190
 See change and growth in the soldiers, 192-93
 Poor whites, 193-94
 School for former slaves, 194
 Small pox, 195
 Ball, women, dance, Gilmore, 197
 Florida, 199
 Picket duty, 200-1
 Soldier with several wives, 201-2
 Major's servant, 203
 Fanny Kemble, slave memories, 204-5
 Soldier prayer, 205
 A few shots fired, alarm in Beaufort, 207-8
 General William Birney, 208-9, 212
 Sermon by a black private, 209-10
 Man forced to stand on box two hours a day for selling alcohol to soldiers, 211
 Ordered to Hilton Head, 212
 Picket duty, 212ff
 Fraternization, 216
 Soldier pay, 217
 Religion and dancing, 218
 Bull Run, defeat, General Devens, 224
 Losses from disease, Crimean War, 225
 Democrats and Irish in the army, 225
 Chaplain election, 227

Drilling company, 233-34
 Camp Wool, dancing in the barracks, 238-39
 Officers, 240, 242
 1st South Carolina, 243ff
 Camp Saxton described, 248
 Commanding a black regiments and asking for some books on black history, 249-50
 His regiment drills well and as good as any white regiment, 252
 Saxton, battalion drill, 253
 Court martial, 256
 Emerson hymn, 262-63
 McClellan, 263
 Army ill organized, 263-64
 Officer and alcohol, 271
 David Hunter, 273. 280-81
 Pleased with multiplication of black regiments, 281
 David Hunter, 284
 Wendell Phillips, 287
 Montgomery raid, guerrilla, 287-88
 Saxton, Gilmore, 290
 Claims his black regiment is superior to white regiments, 291
 Box, 291-92
 Gilmore, Saxton, Hunter, 293
 Expedition, Beaufort, Edisto, wounded, 294-96
 Beaufort, 303ff
 Disease, weakness, food, 310-11, 313
 Officers hospital, 311ff
 Laura Towne's Plantation, 316ff
 Black women, clothing, 320
 Box, jelly, 322
 Preparation to move, soldiers singing, 323
 Role in movement for blacks in the army, 325
 Court martial, desertion, 329
 Diarrhea, 334
 Tents, fireplaces, 337
 Christmas, fair at Beaufort, 340
 Court martial duty, 341
 Provost guard duty, 342
 Wedding, 343
 Status of a colonel, 345
 Box, food, 347
 Land for former slaves, 348
 Generals Gilmore and Seymour, Olustee, 356
 Chronic diarrhea, 358
 Washington's Birthday dance, Olustee, 360-61
 Saxton, Gilmore, Seymour, 364