CHAPTER I. RELIGIOUS ELEMENTS IN THE ARMY.
The spirit in which the men in gray went to the front — A boy who found Jesus in the camp — Bitter memories of the war passing away — But the people of the South entered the war in a spirit of dependence upon God, and with earnest prayer for His blessing — Illustrations of the large proportion of Christian officers and men who entered the Confederate army — Letters from the camps and hospitals — Negroes praying for their young masters — Reciprocal tenderness between the soldiers at the front and loved ones at home — Letter from Rev. Dr. Robert Ryland to his son in the army — Items from war-files of religious newspapers — Prayer-meetings, religious fervor and real consecration in the camps at the beginning of the war . . . . 17
CHAPTER II. INFLUENCE OF CHRISTIAN OFFICERS.
President Jefferson Davis — His messages and orders — His private character — General R. E. Lee — His official life and utterances — "A poor sinner trusting in Christ alone for salvation" — His attendance upon religious services — At the soldiers' prayer-meeting — A believer in prayer — Hearty co-operation in efforts for the good of his men — His dispatches and orders breathing a spirit of humble trust in Christ — His life of active piety in Lexington — Illustrations of his ardent desire for, and active efforts for, the religious welfare of the students of his college — A man of prayer and a lover of God's Word — A liberal contributor and an earnest worker — A "son of consolation" to the afflicted — Letters of condolence — His friendship for Stonewall Jackson and grief at his death — "A revival that shall bring all of these young men to Christ" — His unsectarian spirit and love for all pertaining to our evangelical Christianity .......... 42
CHAPTER III.
Influence of Christian officers — Continued. STONEWALL Jackson, the Christian soldier — My first interview with him — Introducing a colporteur — Jackson's first public prayer — "Deacon Jackson" — An efficient collector — A conscientious master — His colored Sabbath-school — Leaving home for the army — His earnest devotion to the religious instruction of the negroes, and their affectionate attachment to him and his memory — Giving thanks for victory — A man of constant prayer — Trust in God at all times — "God bless our arms with victory" — Fond of religious conversation — Efforts to supply his corps with chaplains and to promote the spiritual welfare of the men — Preaching and prayer-meetings at his head-quarters — His influence upon individuals — Details of his triumphant death . . . 82
CHAPTER IV.
CHAPTER V. BIBLE AND COLPORTAGE WORK.
Scarcity of Bibles — Liberal donations of the British and Foreign Bible Societies.
— Dr. Hoge's visit to England — Liberality of the American Bible Society — Incidents of dead soldiers' Bibles — Anxiety of the soldiers to procure Bibles — Earnest Bible-readers- — "The tract man" — Tract societies and their work — Liberal contributions and large work— Letter from Hon. John Randolph Tucker — Speeches by Hon. J. R. Tucker, Colonel Wright, Hon. J. L. M.
Curry and Judge Chilton — Reports of colporteurs ...... 148
CHAPTER VI.
HOSPITAL WORK.
"Wayside hospitals" — "Field hospitals" — "Receiving hospitals" — "General hospitals" — The work of colporteurs, missionaries and chaplains in the hospitals — "Ministering angels" —Triumphant deaths — Christ in the hospitals — Reports of the workers .......... 196
CHAPTER VII. WORK OF THE CHAPLAINS AND MISSIONARIES.
Christian union — Letter from Dr. Wm. J. Hoge — Incidents — Rev. Dr. Jos. C. Stiles on chaplains and their work — Rev. Dr. Geo. B. Taylor — The "men wanted" — Organization of the Chaplains' Association — Address of the chaplains to the churches ........... 223 CHAPTER VIII.
EAGERNESS OF THE SOLDIERS TO HEAR THE GOSPEL.
Large congregations and eager listeners - Incidents showing that one could preach any day and any hour of the day — Preaching in the rain — On the march — On the battle-field — Prayer on eve of battle — Baptismal scenes — "I am alone in the world" — Wounded at preaching — A prayer-meeting in the "bomb-proof" — Chapel-building — Universities in reality vs. " universities" in name. 242
CHAPTER IX.
STATE OF RELIGION IN 1861-62.
Home influence and early spirit — Demoralization after first Manassas — Drunkenness, profanity and gambling — Incidents — The disasters bring people and soldiers to their knees —
Effect of the battles as "powerful preachers" — Beginnings of revivals 264 CHAPTER X.
REVIVALS IN THE LOWER VALLEY AND AROUND FREDERICKSBURG.
Trimble's Brigade — Rev. Dr. Stiles's preaching — Letter from Dr. Stiles — A chaplain's account — Revival in the reserve artillery — Captain T. J. Kirkpatrick's account — Rev. Hugh Roy Scott's sketch of "Camp Nineveh" — Revival in the Staunton hospitals — Interest in the Ninth Georgia — The great revival at Fredericksburg — Letter from Dr. Stiles — My own impressions and reports — A "last message" — Letter from Rev. Dr. Win. J. Hoge on his visit to Fredericksburg and vicinity — Other revivals — Letter from Rev. James Nelson — Other reports .......... 283
CHAPTER XI. THE GREAT REVIVAL ALONG THE RAPIDAN.
The work in Winchester — Letters from Rev. Dr. J. A. Broadus — Revival in Rockbridge
Artillery, Fifteenth North Carolina, Thomas's Georgia Brigade, Sixtieth Virginia Regiment, Wise's Brigade, Forty-second North Carolina Regiment, etc. — Great work along the Rapidan — Letters from chaplains and missionaries describing the work — Report of meeting of the Chaplains' Association — Great revivals in Wilcox's Brigade, Mahone's Brigade, Gordon's Brigade, Walker's Brigade, Dole's Brigade, Armistead's Brigade, Kemper's Brigade, Ninth Virginia Cavalry, Smith's Brigade, Hoke's Brigade, Hays's Brigade, Cobb's Legion, the artillery, Daniel's Brigade, Ramseur's Brigade, Scales's Brigade, Battle's Brigade, Wright's Brigade, Posey's Brigade, J. M. Jones's Brigade, Stonewall Brigade, Corse's Brigade, Garnett's Brigade, Benning's Brigade, Kershaw's Brigade, Lane's Brigade, Davis's Brigade, Kirkland's Brigade, Semmes's Brigade, Barksdale's Brigade, Law's Brigade, Anderson's Brigade, Steuart's Brigade, Iverson's, Cooke's, McGowan's Brigade and other commands — Letters and details concerning the work . . 312

CHAPTER XII.
PROGRESS OF THE WORK IN 1864-65.
Peculiar difficulties — Chapel-work — On the picket-lines — With the reserve artillery — Revivals in Wise's Brigade, Wright's Brigade, Long's Artillery Corps, Walker's Artillery Corps, B. R. Johnson's Brigade, Davis's Brigade, Wright's Brigade, Mahone's Brigade, Kirkland's Brigade, Gordon's Brigade, Scales's Brigade, Third Virginia Infantry, etc.— Reports of meetings of the Chaplains' Association — Reports of chaplains and missionaries — Letters from the camps — Work in the trenches — Meetings in the bomb-proofs — An appointment to preach broken by the breaking of our lines — Incidents . . 353.

CHAPTER XIII.
RESULTS OF THE WORK AND PROOFS OF ITS GENUINENESS.
Reports of an evangelist — The number of converts estimated at fully 15,000 — Proofs of the genuineness of the work — Testimony of religious bodies and leading ministers — The after-lives of the converts — Active workers for Christ — Ready to lead in prayer — Speaking for Christ — Becoming preachers — Fasting in order to give to God's poor — Incidents illustrating the calm resignation or ecstatic triumph with which they met death — "Apples of gold in pictures of silver " — Their conduct since the war — Filling our pulpits — Pillars in our churches — Plowing with one arm — Going to work — The leaders in every vocation — " The New South " made by the brains, the muscle, the pluck, the piety, of " the men who wore the gray " — Conclusion . 390

APPENDIX.
Letters from leading Chaplains and Missionaries— Minutes of the Chaplains' Association — Roster of Chaplains ........ 465
APPENDIX No. 2.
Religion in the other Confederate armies ........ 535,