

Baker, L. C. The Secret Service in the Late War. Philadelphia: John E. Potter and Company, 1874.

INTRODUCTORY CHAPTER. GENERAL BAKER AND THE BUREAU OF SECRET SERVICE.

The Ancestry and Birth-place of General Baker His Early Life Residence in California Is a Member of the Vigilance Committee Returns to New York in 1861 Visits Washington Interview with General Scott Enters the Secret Service The Great Facts established and illustrated by these Annals 17

CHAPTER I ORIGIN OF THE BUREAU OF DETECTIVE SERVICE.

The first visit to Washington Interview with General Hiram Walbridge, and Hon. W. D. Kelley Introduction to General Winfield Scott Return to New York Appointed by General Scott to renew the Attempt to visit Richmond The first Failure Crossing the Lines The Arrest Examinations Sent to General Beauregard Onto Richmond 45

CHAPTER II. RESIDENCE IN RICHMOND.

Summoned to an Interview with Jeff. Davis Subsequent Examinations by him-- Critical Emergencies Mr. Brock "Samuel Munson " Confidence secured Mr. "Munson " is appointed Confederate Agent Original Letters from Davis, Toombs, and Walker Starts for the North Unpleasant Delays A Narrow Escape Reaches the Potomac Deceives the Dutch Fishermen and runs the Rebel Gauntlet safely 58

CHAPTER III NORTHERN EXPERIENCES AS CONFEDERATE AGENT.

Hospitalities by the way The Report to General Scott Operations in Baltimore The Janus-faced Unionist A rich Development in Philadelphia The Arrests Amusing Prison Scene 75

CHAPTER IV. TREASON AND TRAITORS AT THE NORTH.

Baltimore The Detective Service and the Arrest of the Maryland Legislature- The Refugee and the Spy The Pursuit and the Capture Traitors at Niagara Falls 'Acquaintance with them The Arrest In Fort Lafayette 89

CHAPTER V. A KNIGHT OF THE GOLDEN SQUARE

P. H. P., alias Carlisle Murray, a Knight of the Golden Square The Arrest Release Papers of F. examined Secretary Seward's Order for a Second Arrest On the Track The Rural Retreat Mr. Carlisle Murray a Reformer and Lover The Official Writ The Astonished Landlord and Landlady A Scene Report 99

CHAPTER VI DISLOYALTY AMONG THE POSTMASTERS.

A Mystery The Result of Cabinet Meetings in Washington known in Richmond The Detectives learn the Reason A Visit to Lower Maryland Amusing Scenes The Mysterious Box The Reports A Rebel Letter 108

CHAPTER VII FRAUDS DISLOYALTY IN MARYLAND.

The Freightless Traveler Treason and Frauds overlooked hi the Rising Storm of Rebellion The Bankers The Pretty Smuggler Reliable Character of the Detective Bureau Disloyalty, and its Punishments in Lower Maryland The Friends of Hon. Montgomery Blair and the Quinine Traffic Chunook " Telegrams 118

CHAPTER VIII OFFICIAL SERVICES AND EMBARRASMENTS NEW ORDER OF THINGS.

The Bureau transferred to the War Department Dr. H., and the Perilous Adventure of which he was the occasion Report of the Case Arrest of the Leaders of a great secret Southern Organization Documents and Letters 133

CHAPTER IX. THE BUREAU IN CANADA--IN THE ARMY. Tricks of False Correspondence
Mr. Delisle and the " Secret Secession Legation" 148

CHAPTER X. WEALTHY TRAITORS FRUITLESS SCHEMES.

John H. Waring His Operations An Efficient Tool Walter Bowie A Wild Career Rebel Mail
Contrabands Extracts from the Private Journals of Rebel Spies 153

CHAPTER XI. SLAVERY PLAYING REBEL GENERAL FIRST DISTRICT CAVALRY.

The Hostages Mr. Lincoln Deceiving the Rebels A successful Game Organization of the First District Cavalry Its Services 167

CHAPTER XII. FIRST DISTRICT CAVALRY.

Leaving Camp again "Wilson's Raid" Battles The Escape of Kautz The End of Regimental Service 190

CHAPTER XIII. THE ANIMUS OF SECESSION.

A Disloyal Pastor and his Friends compelled to "do justly" The "Peculiar Institution" Dies Hard
Man-Stealers Foiled in their Schemes of Robbery 204

CHAPTER XIV. ENGLISH SYMPATHY WITH THE SOUTH NEGRO-HATE IN WASHINGTON.

An English Emissary of the South He Deceives the Secretary of State My Acquaintance with Him The Fruitless Effort to Betray Me The Journey to the Old Capitol Prison Negro-hate in the National Capital 209

CHAPTER XV. GIGANTIC VICES OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Gambling and the Gamblers The Purpose to Break up the Dens Discouraged The Midnight Raid
Results Drinking and Liquor Saloons The Descent upon them Broken up Licentiousness and its Patrons The Raid on their haunts at Dead of Night The Arrests 217

CHAPTER XVI. A PERILOUS ADVENTURE.

Pope's Defeat Banks' Advance The Importance of communicating with him The Successful
Attempt Rebel Pursuers The Escape 225

CHAPTER XVII. SPECULATION AND FRAUD.

Devices of Contractors Detection of Forage Contractor Appeal to the President Further Frauds as "Silent Partner" 233

CHAPTER XVIII. A FEMALE ADVENTURER.

Woman in the Rebellion Her Aid indispensable in the worst as well as the best Causes A Spicy
Letter Miss A. J. Vidocq's Experience 238

CHAPTER XIX. THE BOUNTY JUMPERS.

Fraudulent Practices of Bounty Brokers and Jumpers Contrast between English and American
Deserters Plans to check Desertion, and bring Criminals to Justice , 249

CHAPTER XX. THE BOUNTY JUMPERS AND BROKERS

Quotas filled with Falsified Enlistment-Papers Arrest of Brokers Amusing and Exciting Scene
The Hoboken Raid Slandorous Charges Large Number of Arrests Incarceration in Fort Lafayette
Other Arrests Trial before a Military Commission 255

CHAPTER XXI. BOUNTY JUMPING INCIDENTS.

Personal Experience in Bounty Jumping A Perfect Trump Detectives Enlisted Passes obtained for Bounty Jumpers Arrest and Surprise Court- Martial and Conviction 262

CHAPTER XXII. BOUNTY JUMPERS IN ORGANIZED BANDS.

Gipsy-like Bounty Jumpers Wholesale Bounty Jumping carried on adroitly by a Gang of Operators Opposition from a Canadian Gang Thirty-two Thousand Dollars in as many Days

Frauds in Drafting An Old Man put in as a Substitute A Boy Decoyed His Adventures A Mother of Thirteen Children Unavailing Efforts of a Mother in search of her Idiotic Son 268

CHAPTER XXIII THE GREAT CONSPIRACY.

Assassinations Eglon, King of Moab Caesar, Emperor of Rome James I. of England Marat, the French Revolutionary Leader Alexander of Russia Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States 276

CHAPTER XXIV. THE ASSASSINS CAPTURED.

Excitement around my Headquarters at Washington The Chief Conspirator A Graphic Narrative of his Arrest His Burial Desire for Relics from his Body Hanging of the Conspirators 294

CHAPTER XXV. THE DETECTIVE POLICE AND THE ARREST OP THE ASSASSINS.

Personal Relations to President Lincoln His Kindness and Confidence My Order to Pursue the Conspirators Results Statements of Subordinates and Others 362

CHAPTER XXVI. LETTERS ON THE ASSASSINATION.

Jacob Thompson Volunteer Suggestions respecting the Assassin's Hiding- Places before his Death, and the Disposal of his Remains afterward- Threats of more Assassinations A Mysterious Letter J. H. Suratt-....., 371

CHAPTER XXVII ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF WIRZ.

My Connection with the Imprisonment of Wirz and Jeff Davis "Vigilance in Guarding the Prisoner Mrs. Wirz visits her Husband He desires a Call The Interview Attempted Suicide 394