

Cleaver, James. Your Affectionate Son: Letters from a Civil War Soldier. Edited by Milean Ruff Daugherty. Tarentum, Pa.: Word Association Publishers, 2011.

37th Pennsylvania, 8th Reserves, Co. F

Preaching in camp, sermon, 7

Camp life, 8

Uniform, 15-16

Slaves are for the Union, 21

Georgetown is a nest of secessionists, 22

McClellan, 20

Political disagreement with father, 29

Defeat at Bull Run providential, 29

Confederate blockade of the Potomac, 30

Occupy a secessionist houses, excellent books, sad ruin of a deserted home, 43-44

Leesburg, driving Confederate pickets, posted a house with a young woman claiming to be a secessionist, 48-49

Rain, gum blanket, 53

Great hope in McClellan and God, 54

Cheered by naval success, 59

Great praise for Lincoln and McClellan, 60

Bailey's Crossroads Review, 61

Patriotism and religion, 67

Sick list, 67-68

Sleeping on the ground, 68

Rather meet enemy on battlefield than face disease, 73

Need overthrow slavery and the southern aristocracy, 74

Lane and Cochrane speeches, 74

Religion, sacrament, 79

Hospital patient, 80

Thoughts of home and God, 80

Religious work, 83

Foraging, 83

Skirmishing and taking booty, Dranesville, 83-84

Christmas, 93

Food, cooking, 93

Another year gone by, 93-94

English interference, 94

Reduced size of company, deaths, disease, 99

Soldier pay, 100

Boils, 103-4

Guard duty, mud, 109

Deaths from disease, 110

Union victories, early 1862, 113

Newspaper editors and on to Richmond, 113-14

Ball's Bluff, need to avenge death of Edward Baker, approves arrest of General Stone, 114

Not an abolitionist but strongly opposes slavery, James Lane, 120
Defeat the rebellion and slavery will take care of itself, 120
Marching, 127-28
McDowell's Corps, Fredericksburg, 133-34
Sabbath religious activities, 134
Death of Banks but Washington not in danger, 137
Confederate women, she rebel, 138
Should be patient with McClellan, 138
Prospect of winter quarters, 149
McClellan removal, refused to move, 150
Not an abolition move, Burnside is a Democrat, 151
He is just as much an abolitionist now as Lincoln, 151
Idea of filling up regiments with conscripts, 151-52
Carver hospital, 161ff
Hooker and Meade, 161
Death of General Reynolds, 162
July 4, 162
New York draft riots, 168
Mary Lincoln's hair, 169
Conscription, 175
Money, poor rations, food, 176
Eastern vs. western armies, 180-81
Veteran Reserve corps, 188
Soldier pay, 189
Furlough or resignation, surgeon, 195, 197
Agreement of merchants at home to close shops in event of Confederate invasion, 204
Biographical sketches, 211
Roster, 37th Pennsylvania, 8th Reserve, Co. F, 226-28