

Hedrick, John A. Letters from a North Carolina Unionist: John A. Hedrick to Benjamin S. Hedrick, 1862-1865. Edited by Judkin and Michael Thomas Smith. Raleigh: North Carolina Department of Archives and Cultural Resources, 2001.

Troops transport ship, 1-2
Former slaves, 2
Newburn, North Carolina, 3-4
Few whites left in the city, 3
Restrictions on alcohol, 3-4
Beaufort, North Carolina, special collector, 5
Belief in state sovereignty, Unionists fearful to take offices, Governor Stanly, 7
Unloading vessels, 10
Port fees, 12-13
Seven Days, 13
Official appointments, 13
Dull, little shipping, 15
Governor Stanly, 15-16
General Foster, embargo on vessels in port, 17
Beaufort, larger population, 19
Stanly, North Carolina governor's election, Vance, 21, 23
Exchanging or paroling prisoners, 21
Tar prices, 23
Houses torn down in retaliation for firing on pickets, 24
Destroying saltworks, steal in livestock, home guards, 25
Trading ships, 26
Proposed Union meeting, slow soldier recruitment, 27
Alcohol, 27
Boats, revenue inspector, 28
Governor Stanly, congressional elections, 28-29
Union meeting, 31
Confederate prisoners, oath, 31
Charles Henry Foster, candidate for Congress, Governor Stanly, 32-34
Skirmishing, Washington, North Carolina, 33-34
Second Bull Run, 33
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 33
Should use black soldiers, 33
Jennings Pigott as possible congressional candidate, 33
Men of wealth hesitant to come out for the Union, 34
Yankees say that Confederates took Washington, it would wake up the North, 35-36
Speech of C. H. Foster urging Unionists to join 1st North Carolina, 36
Fishing, 36
Antietam campaign, 37
9th New Jersey Infantry, 37
Slow recruiting, 38
Charles H. Foster did not fulfill speaking appointments, 40
Governor Stanly, 40-41

Charles H. Foster claims to be well acquainted with Lincoln, 41
Stanly and Foster, 41
Confederate paroled prisoners, 42
Conscript who escaped Confederates, 42
Yellow fever in Wilmington, 42
Governor Stanly, 42-43
Refugee who enlisted in a Union regiment, "buffaloes," 43
Unionist regiment, 43
West India ship, cargo, 44
Port fees, salary, 44-45
Ignore battles unless there are many casualties, 46
Emancipation Proclamation, 47
Altoona governors' meeting, rumors of command changes, 49
Expeditions, skirmish, 50
Money received, 1859-62, 51-53
Small Foster meeting, 53-55
Salary, laws and southern ports, 56-57
Salary, Chase, 58-60
Free Labor Association, 60
Collections account, Beaufort, 61-62
Fredericksburg, 63
Governor Stanly, election in 2nd Congressional district, Pigott, Charles H. Foster, charges of abolitionism, 63-80
Governor Stanly offers position of private secretary, 65, 71
Seizure of English ship, 80-81
Salt, 81
Horatio Seymour message, Fernando Wood, 83
Port collections, legal tender, 84-85
Burnside, Mud March, 85
Governor Stanly resignation, 88-89
General Foster and General Hunter, 90
Conscription law, 93
Port Royal, 93
Collector funds, 94
Permits for vessels, 96
Church service, 98-99
Charles H. Foster, 100
Unionist rail splitters, 101
Newbern, skirmish, 101
Treasury officials and revenue cutter, 103
Rumors about General Foster and Washington, North Carolina, 103-8
Charleston, Fort Sumter, 109
Lincoln, Chase, closing southern ports, 110
Ironclad, Charleston, 111
Daniel R. Goodloe as possible military governor of North Carolina, instructions to stop commerce, Stanly, 112-15

Chancellorsville, 116, 119
Commercial intercourse, Chase, 117-18
Commercial regulations, 119-20
Vicksburg, 121, 125
Internal and coastwise commerce, treasury agent, 121
Provost marshal restrictions on movement in Beaufort, 126
Raising black soldiers, 130
Fear of conscription, 132
David Hunter, 134
Black picnic, competing societies, 135-36
Surrender of Vicksburg, 136-37
Port Hudson, 137
False reports from C. H. Foster and Carpenter in New York newspapers, 137-38
New York draft riots, 138
35th Massachusetts, black regiment, 140
Confusing newspaper reports on military operations, 141
Alcohol, lieutenant's suicide, 142
Culpeper, Meade and Lee, 142-43
North Carolina and reconstruction, Raleigh Standard, John A. Gilmore, 144
Recommendations for various offices, 146-47, 149
Charleston, Fort Sumter, contradictory reports, 147-48
Sale of naval stores, 150
Food prices, 150
Charleston, Fort Wagner, 151
Refugees, food prices, 153
Salary and commissions, 153
Chase and Heaton, supplies for North Carolinians, 154
Treasury agents, 155
Confiscation, 157
Turpentine prices, 159
Chase and commissions, 160
Salaries for agents, 161
President does not right to order a congressional election, 161
Pennsylvania and Ohio elections, 162
Fire burned him out of hotel, 163-64
Provost marshal, blacks in kitchen, 166
Blockade ships, 167
Confederate deserters, 169
Union recruits, 169-70
Tax commissioners, 170
Chaplain, 171
Newbern, 172
Smallpox, blacks, 172
Conscription of blacks, 172
Revenue collections, 174
Christmas, food, 175

Black celebration of Emancipation Proclamation anniversary, 176
Revenue collections, commissions, 177
Smallpox, 178
Refugees joining Union regiment, 178
Confederate capture of Newport, North Carolina, Fort Totten, 180-82
Shrewd Yankee businessman, 183-84
Tax collection, 185
Customs receipts, 186
Women and southern blacks, 187
Bounty, 188
Black labor, earthworks, 189
Conscription, substitutes, refugees, 191
Deposits of customs receipts, 193
Official pay, 194
Charles Henry Foster, 2nd North Carolina (Union), 195
Confederate attempt to blow up Cape Lookout Lighthouse, 197
Collections and deposits, 198
Confederate attack on Plymouth, CSS Albemarle, 200-1, 205, 211-12
Troops ordered to Fortress Monroe, 201
North Carolina tax commissioners, 203
Overland campaign, reports, 204ff
Women and children refugees from Plymouth and Washington, North Carolina, 206
Measles, children of refugees, 207
Torpedo exploded at Batchelor's Creek Depot, 208
Earthen forts, 208
Yankees and other terms, 208
Refugees, illness, 209
Kinston expedition, prisoners, 211
Unionist women, 214
Tariff duties, collection, salary, 215-16
Chase resignation, 216
Early raid on Washington, 217
Rumor of a riot in New York, 217-18
Plymouth refugees, 218
Atlanta campaign, 219
Salary, possible marriage, 220
Substitute, 221
Refugees not joining the army, 221
Grocery prices, 222-23
Butler, James River canal, black labor, 224
Qualities of a potential wife, 225-26
Women and snuff, 226
Yellow fever in Newbern, 230
Letters, 231
Yellow fever, 233-34
Expedition up Roanoke River, 236-37

Blockade running, 238
Thanksgiving, 241
Attack on Wilmington, Fort Fisher, 244-45. 249-50
Fort Fisher, repairing forts, 253
Goods shipped into Beaufort, treasury fees, 259
Treasury purchasing agent, 260
Ill soldiers from Sherman's army sent to Beaufort, 260-61
Smallpox, 261
Lincoln assassination, 262
Political speeches, ex-Confederates, 263
North Carolina reconstruction, 263
Sherman and Johnston surrender, 265
Black refugees, 266