

Murray, R. L. and Tammany Murray, eds. Letters from the Front: New Yorkers at First Bull Run. Wolcott, N.Y.: Benedum Books, 2002.

Women and motivation, patriotism, 1-2
War rally in Orleans County, 2-3
Motivation, 4-5, 10
Enlistment and departure, 6-7
Men know little of military matters, 7
Uniforms, 8
Oath, 9
Rebels, traitors, sin, divine wrath, 10
Departure of 12th and 13th New York Infantry, 11-13
Alcohol, 12
Washington, 14-15
March through Baltimore, 13th New York, 15-16
In Virginia, several alarms, 13th New York, 17
27th New York, food, 19
Supplies, 20-21
Food, bread, 21-22
Lincoln and Seward, 22-23
Soldier pay, 23
69th New York, 23
Camp routine, 24
Women present regiment with havelocks, 24
Lincoln, 25
Arms, supposed mutiny, 25
Food, 25-26
Government paying for better food than we were receiving, refers to Revolutionary War period, 26
Community and families, little support for soldiers, suffering of families, soldier pay, 27-28
Discipline, soldier punished for disobeying orders and writing home disparaging officers, 29
69th New York, false alarms, 30
Whining about camp life, 31
Rain, tent, 31-32
Marching, 33
What Confederate left behind, manuscript sermons, 34-35
Plundering, foraging, 35-37
First Bull Run, Blackburn's Ford, 13th New York, 27th New York, 38th New York, 38-67
Killing and souvenirs, 49
Reports son's death at First Bull Run, 57-58
Report of a soldier killed at Bull Run, 27th New York, 58-59
Events after First Bull Run, 67-68
Honor and duty, 67-68
Complaints about newspaper coverage of regiments, 69-71