

Patterson, John V. As near Hell As I ever expect to be . . . :The Civil War Letters of John V. Patterson of the 21st Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Edited by Paul Tremevan.
[Bloomington, Ind.:] Xlibris, 2011

21st Ohio Infantry

Marching, 27

Dysentery, 28

Choice of daughter's name, 30

Uniform cost, 30

Letters, 31

Stoves, 32

Medical examinations, 33

Food, cooking, 33

Box of socks, 51

Death of soldiers, smallpox, 53

Food, 54

Water diarrhea, 56

Encouraged by Confederate evacuation of Manassas, 56

Texas Rangers captured some of their men, 56-57

Soldier pay, sutler, 58

Nashville, ill soldiers, 60

Huntsville, Confederates burning a bridge, 62

John Hunt Morgan, 63

Guerrillas, 64

Shoes, boot, pants, prices, 65

Letters, 66

Food, prices, 67

Decatur Alabama, 70ff

Post on railroad along Tennessee River, 71

Guarding railroad, 75

Losses in the company, 76

Complaints about officers, 78

Hard talk from Confederate women, snuff, 79

Soldiers making rings, 80

News of the soldiers coming into camp, 81-82

Defeat of McClellan on the Peninsula, 83

Raising Union soldiers in Alabama, 83-84

No communication, subsisting on the country, guerrillas, 84-85

Confederate cavalry cowardly nuisance, skirmish, 85-87

Soldier health, 87

Health, deaths, 88

Attack on Lavergne, Tennessee, 89

Stones River, wounded, 117

Health of soldiers, 118

Gave money to comrade in hospital to send home, 118

Pioneer corps, 119

Food, 122
Washington's Birthday, 122
Tobacco, 128
Soldier pay, 130
Photographs, 132
Murfreesboro well defended, 133
Little farming because slaves are gone, 134
Stevenson, Alabama, 134
Separation of soldier husband and wife, 136
Divisions at home, Copperheads, 136
Chattanooga, 137
Confident in the army, 137
Taken prisoner at Chickamauga, 138
Libby Prison, 138ff
List to items to be sent, 139
Food, prices, 140
Boxes, 140-41
Lice, 141
Bad food, exposure, death, 142
Box, rations, food, 143
Does not expect to be released soon, 144
Box, food items arriving, 145
Box rations, 146
Death of Lieutenant Colonel, Chickamauga wounds, 146
Officers separated from enlisted men, 147
Can send perishable items only, 174
Deaths in prison, 175
Exchange rumors, 176-77
Moved from Macon to Savannah, 178
Asks for leave of absence, 180
Asks for a watch, 191
Co. K, Co. F, 21st Ohio Infantry, 199