

Boyer, Samuel P. Naval Surgeon: Blockading the South, 1862-1866. Edited by Elinor and James A. Barnes. Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 1963.

Receives medical degree, University of Pennsylvania, 5
Rural medical practice, 6-7
Offered position of assistant surgeon, Navy, 7
Port Royal, Samuel Du Pont, 8
New York, steamer Mohawk, 9
South Atlantic Blockading Squadron, Fernandina, 13ff
Messmates, 13
First patients, shirkers, 13-14
Officer sent home by Du Pont for sleeping on duty, 14
Alcohol, drunken officer, 14-15
Georgia Sea Islands, 15
Food prices, 15-16
Port Royal, 16
Honorable discharges, 16-17
Theatrical performance, 17-18
St. Helena Sound, 18ff
Hunting and reading, 19
Clams and indigestion, 21
Laryngitis, scabies, 22-23
Urticaria, 24
Food, 24
Cases and condition of patients, 25
Gargle and port wine, 28
Applauds Lincoln's second annual message and Welles naval report, ironclads, 29-30
Chase, 30
Little work on Saturday and Sunday, few men report in sick, 31
Shot a cow, beef, 32
Christmas and shore liberty, Aunt Peggy, dancing, 32-33
Livestock, 36
Port Royal, 36ff
Rumor of armistice and foreign mediation at beginning of 1863, 39-40
Should drop politics and keep up the fight, 40
St. Simons Island, 42ff
Thomas Butler King plantation, 42-43
Former slaves, teachers, 43-44
Music, 44
Wife of Confederate soldier fled and two black women, 44-45
Higginson, 1st South Carolina, black troops, 49
Black soldiers, Mansfield French, 50
Soldiers plundering King plantation, 50, 52
Jekyll Island, 51-52
Snow, 53
Episcopal church cemetery, 54-56

Couper plantation, 56-57
Beaufort, 1st South Carolina, 58
Made ointment compound, 59
Escaped slaves, servant, 59
Changes in officers, 59-61
Enlistment of black man in navy, 61
Alabama, 61-62
Jefferson Davis message, 62
Reading medical treatise, 62
Prices, 63
Hamilton Plantation, 67
Randolph Spalding Plantation, 72-73
Slaves escaped from Darien, Georgia, possible starvation, 74
Expedition against Confederate pickets, 74-75
Visiting two former slaves on Sapelo Island, 77
Frederick Douglass on Emancipation Proclamation, 78-79
Livestock, 79
Alcohol, 81-82
Copperheads, Illinois, 82
Extracted a tooth, 82-83
Gold prices, 83-84
Darien, Georgia, 86
Looking for medicines, blacks, 88
Rules and regulations of Palmetto mills, 89
Snakes, 90
Attack on Fort Sumter, 96-97
Snakes, 98
Food, beef, 102
Black Women servants, laundry, 102
Slaves coming in, Confederate prices, Cuba, 103-4
Blacks seeking medicine, 206
Food, 206
Copperheads, 206-7
Shooting cattle, 207
Gold dollar, 208
Lighthouse signals, 209-10
Medicine for eating too many blackberries, 111
Chaplain religious service, 114-15
Doboy Sound, 115ff
Someone stole money from poor black woman, subscription taken up, 119
Sutler, stores, prices, 123
Information from escaped slave, 125
Sharks, 126
Black soldiers, Darien, Georgia, 129
Destruction of Darien, Georgia, 131-32
Treatment of patients, 134

Tired of blockading and would like to see a northern port, 135
 Poor beef, 137
 Port Royal, 141
 Ram Atlanta, 142-43
 Beaufort, 143-44
 Black baptism, Hilton Head, 144
 Hooker removed and Meade in command, 147-48
 Gettysburg, McClellan, 150
 Fog, 153
 Pulling teeth, 153
 Food, 155
 Massachusetts, 156
 Vicksburg, New York draft riots, 157
 Dahlgren, Charleston, 157-58
 Portsmouth, New Hampshire, 160-61
 Women in port, 162
 List of officers, 162-63
 Welles, 163
 Quarterly report on the sick and disease, 165
 Poem about Halleck, 166-67
 Bibles distributed, religious service, 167
 Monitors, 168
 Observation of sabbath in the navy, 168
 Recreation onboard ship, 171
 Port Royal, 171ff
 Otorrhoea, 172
 Music, 172-73
 Sapelo Sound, 176ff
 Black man, decayed tooth, 180
 Food, cattle, 181
 Gunboats, 184
 Crew mending clothing, 188
 Large mail, 192
 1863 elections, defeat of Vollandigham, 193
 1863 elections, 197
 Patient treatments, 199-201
 St. Catherine's Sound, Georgia, 204ff
 A large man stuck in the mud, 205
 Abandoned plantation, elderly blacks, 205-6
 Older black patients, 208
 Thanksgiving, Lincoln proclamation, dinner, 208-9
 Men collecting money for a Christmas feast, 210
 Refugee documents, 213-14
 Former slaves working in fields, etc., 217-18
 Constipation, 219
 Fight between two sailors, punishment, 221

Sailor put in irons for refusing duty, diet, 221-22
 Wound case, bronchitis case, 224
 Salt pork traded for a chicken, 225
 Gettysburg cemetery, Lincoln address, 229
 Cases and treatments, 232-33
 Christmas dinner, 238-44
 Episcopalian service for former slaves, 245
 Slaves formerly belonging to William King, 247
 Patient treatment, 248
 Application for assistant surgeon in the Navy, 249-50
 Quarterly report on the sick, 250
 Visiting black patients, 251
 Black refugees, 254
 Patient treatment, 255-56
 Admirals Laurence Sterne, 257
Fernandina takes a prize, prisoners, 261-62
 Charleston, 263
 Norwegian worked for Confederate government building rames escaped, 273-74
 Weekly routine, 274-75
 North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, Mattabesett, 283ff
 Commander S. P. Lee, 283
 Melancton Smith, to attack Albemarle, 285
 New Bern, 285-86
 Aground, report of sick, 286
 Norfolk Naval Hospital, 287-88
 Fight of Albemarle and Confederate gunboats, casualties, 289-92
 Patients, treatment, 293
 Medical survey, recommended discharged of man wounded at Plymouth a month ago, 293
 Patients and treatments, 294-95
 Reappearance of Albemarle, 298-99
 Patients and treatment, 298-99
 Death and burials, 302
 Arrival of more sick former slaves, 303
 Unionist, 306
 Renomination of Lincoln, Andrew Johnson, 307
 Christian Commission, poor sermon, 308-9
 Alcohol, wine, 309
 Quarterly reports of the sick, 312
 Glee club, music, 316
 Former slaves, recruited as soldiers on board, 317
 Patients and treatments, 318-20
 Petersburg mine, 323
 Burning of Chambersburg, 323-24
 North Carolina, 327
 Beaufort, North Carolina, 330
 More blockade running, Plymouth, North Carolina, 335

End of the blockade, 341-50
New Bern Navy Club, 343-44
New Bern, General Hoke, 344
Postwar, U.S. Supply Steamer Newbern, 353ff