

Lathop, David. The History of the Fifty-Ninth Regiment Illinois Volunteers, or a Three Years' Campaign through Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky. Indianapolis: Hall & Hutchinson, 1865.

Originally entered as 9th Missouri, 9
Departure, Jefferson City, 10
Boonville, 11
Seizing mules from a wealth secessionist, 12-13
Confidence in Frémont and other leaders, 15-18
Otterville, 20
Warsaw, 21
Chasing Sterling Price, 22
Measles, 23
Warsaw, Osage River, 24
Price retreating from Lexington, 25
Humansville, 27
Illness, 28
Fredericksburg, 29
Zagonyi, 33
Women on Springfield, flag presentation, 35
Ambulances, surgeon, 36-37
Springfield, 38
Suspension of Frémont, David Hunter, Lincoln, 38-45
Regiment returned back, alcohol, 46-48
Syracuse, sick list, 49
Hospital fund, 52
Messes, 53
Guerrillas, 54
Hospital stewards, 55
Boxes, 57
Slaveholding trying to retrieve a slave, 58
Snow, 58-59
Crossing the Osage River, 59-60
Sabbath, 61
Helping two former slaves, 61-62
Artillery fire, 63
Sterling Price, evacuation of Springfield, 65
Campaigning against Price, , casualties, 66-79
Pursuing Sterling Price, 80
Fort Smith, 81
Cassville, Bentonville, 83
Officers, 85-86
Bentonville, Camp Halleck, 87
Speculation on how long the war would last, 87-88
Clash between captain and a private over wood for a fire, 88
General Curtis, 90

Pea Ridge, casualties, hospital, battlefield, 91-102
 Hospital, 103
 Cassville, 104
 Pursuing Sterling Price, 106-7
 Amputation, 107-8
 Confederate prisoner, priest, 108-9
 Cassville, Big Mill Creek, 110
 Guerrillas, outlaws, Jayhawkers, 110-11
 Sterling Price, 114
 Chaplain Hazlett sermon, 116
 Women's complaints about soldiers, rape, 119
 Cape Girardeau, 120
 Soldier pay, 121
 Corinth, 122ff
 Brass bands, 126
 Prayer meetings, swearing, gambling, 126-27
 Captain's resignation, 127
 Ripley, Mississippi, people frightened of Yankees, 129-31
 Men taken prisoner by Confederates, chaplain, 132-34
 Wagon accident, injury, 135
 Jacinto, 136
 Guards for a Confederate family, 136-37
 Iuka, 139, 143
 Sutler, 139
 General Robert Mitchell, Confederate prisoner, 140-42
 General Mitchell, property confiscation, 144-45
 Marching, 147
 Eastport, 148
 Crossing Tennessee River, 149
 Florence, Alabama, 149-50
 Murfreesboro, Franklin, Nashville, cotton factory, 150
 Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 150ff
 Louisville, Murder of Bull Nelson by Jefferson C. Davis, 155-61
 Bragg at Bardstown, 162-63
 Perryville, Buell, death of the surgeon, 164-70
 Pursuing Bragg, 171
 Soldier letter, crop losses, 172-74
 Surgeon, 175
 Nashville, tents, daily routine, 177-79
 Black camp servants, 179-80
 Woman complains about soldiers cutting down all the trees, 181-82
 Thoughts of home, 184
 Deserter, discipline, punishments, 186-87
 Stones River, early skirmishing, 188-94
 Stones River battle, 194-201
 Sent to Franklin, Tennessee, 202

Promotions in regiment, 204
Church services, 205-6
Tullahoma campaign, 208ff
Marching, 209
Winchester, Tennessee, 210
Advance toward Chattanooga, 212
Stevenson, Alabama, 213
Bathing, crossing Tennessee River, 214
Wagon trains, 215-16
Lookout Mountain, 217
Chickamauga, Crawfish Springs, 219
Marching in area around Chattanooga, 225-26
Nickajack cave, 227-28
Lookout Mountain, 232-33
Ringgold, reenlistment, furloughs, 236-41
Those soldiers who did not reenlist, 241-42