

Durkin, James, ed. “This War is an Awful Thing . . .”: Civil War Letters of the National Guards, the 19th & 90th Pennsylvania Volunteers. Glenside, Pa.: J. Michael Santarelli Publishing, 1994.

Arms, 17-18
Baltimore, 19-20
Officers, 24-25
Correspondences with women, 9, 28-29
Falmouth, no one to run the farms, 34
Slaves, 34-35
Soldier pay, 36-37
Norfolk, Merrimac, 37
New Bern, mortally wounded soldier, 38
Fredericksburg, Rappahannock, 42-43
McDowell, 43
Clothing, 45
Hospital deserter, 47
Valley campaign, 49, 56-57
Soldier pay, 50
Food, 53
Soldier pay, 54
Front Royal, 59
Stonewall Jackson, 59
Bull Run battlefield, 64-65, 73-74
Soldier pay, 69
July, 74
Soldier pay, 75
Warrenton, 77
Second Bull Run, 81-84
Typhoid, box, 86
Complaints about Philadelphia hospital, 87-88
Warm underwear, 91
Convalescent camp, 93
Fredericksburg wounded son, 96-97, 99
Gallantry, 101
Fredericksburg report of death, 101-2
Claim to be a wife, 103
Troop review Lincoln, 106
Soldier pay, 107-8
Commission, 109
Confederates and starvation, 111
Chancellorsville, 112-19
Death of soldier, Gettysburg, 120-21, 124-25
Conscription, 125-26
Enlistment bounty, 126-27
Fireworks, insult to commanding officer, 127-28

Conscripts mistreated on boat, 130-31
Immigrant arrived in New York, immediately robbed, 132
Deserter, 132-34
Deserter execution, 135-36
Soldier spared execution, 136-38
Wounded captain resigns, 139
Fall 1863, Confederates destroying railroad, 140
Guerrillas, 141
Soldier death, Carver hospital, chronic diarrhea, 147
Reenlistment, 147
Death of soldier in hospital, 149
Length of war, 150
Soldier transferred to insane asylum, 152
Soldier pay, 153
Corps review, 154
Baltimore hospital, soldier's condition, mental problems, 155-56
Box, 157
Furlough application, 158
Promotion denied, talked too much, 159
Confidence in Grant, 161
Irish brigade, Confederate prisoners bayoneted, 163
Overland campaign, 163ff
Fighting with no rest, 164
Wants war over, sickening sights each day, 165
Brother and commission, recommendation to Governor Curtin, 169
Petersburg, 171
Deserter, arrest, 172-73
Picket duty, 174-75
Wife seeks information from Curtin on soldier wounded at Spotsylvania Courthouse, 177
Wounded man seeks leave, 178
Weldon railroad, soldier death, 182
Obituary for Captain Wilbur Miles, 183
Soldier who had drunkenly enlisted but not served, arrested, dies of tuberculosis in a hospital, 184-86
Soldier captured on Weldon Railroad, 187-88, 191
Court martial theft, 188-90
Wilderness, soldier taken prisoner, 191
Wants husband home, 192
Prison at Fort Jefferson, Dry Tortugas, wants release, 194-95
Promotion case, 197-219
Private Frank Jennings, postwar account of the regiment, Libby prison, food, 221-231
Postwar alcohol, wife left, struggles to get her back, pension file, 233-39
Chantilly, death of Kearny, 240-42
Alcohol, 244
Marching into Gettysburg, 245-47
Soldier wounded at Spotsylvania Courthouse, 248-49

Escape from Libby Prison, 249-52

Wilderness, Confederate picket line, 252-55

General Wadsworth, 255

Wilderness, wounding, Confederate surgeon, prisoner, Lynchburg, Libby prison, 257-68