

Otis, George H. The Second Wisconsin Infantry. Edited by Alan D. Gaff. Dayton, Oh.: Press of Morningside Bookshop, 1984.

Organization of the regiment, 23-24
Camp Randall, 24
Chicago, 24
Railroad journey to Washington, 25-26
Officers, 26-32
First Bull Run campaign, 33-39
Changes in officers, 39-40
Visit to camp by Lincoln, Seward, and Governor Randall, 40
Fort Marcy, 43
Captain badly wounded along the Potomac, 43-44
Winter quarters, Camp Tillinghast, 44-45
Party, alcohol, 45-46
Changes in officers, 46
Falmouth, Fredericksburg, 48
McDowell, review of troops by Lincoln, 49-50
Warrenton, 51
Jackson escapes from the Valley, 51-52
Second Bull Run campaign, 54-58
Antietam campaign, South Mountain, 59-63
Foraging sheep, 63
Election of 1862, Wisconsin, 64
Snow, 65-66
Fredericksburg, 66-67
Field commissions, 69-73
Belle Plain, Winter Quarters, 74
Mud March, 74-75
Virginia ham, 76
Chancellorsville, 77-79
Gettysburg, 83-87
Warrenton Pike, 92
1863 election, 93
Mine Run, 93-95
Overland campaign, 97ff
Wilderness, 98
Marching and movements, 99-100
Wartime losses in the regiment, 100-1
James D. Wood, 105
Fort Tillinghast, 106-7
Jealousies in the regiment, 107-9
Bull Run, 109-111
Co. K, 111-12
Letters defending Colonel S. Park Coon, 113-15
Colonel William Strong's Report, September 7, 1861, 115-17

Second regiment reception, welcome home, 117-29
 Arlington Heights, 131
 Washington, 132
 McDowell's division, 133
 Secessionist house, 134
 Accidental shooting, 135
 Brass bands, 135
 Uniforms, 135-36
 Rations, food, 136
 First Bull Run, wounded, hospital, 137-38
 Camp Tillinghast, Munson's Hill, 139-40
 Execution, 140-41
 Mud, 142
 Picket duty, guard duty, 143
 Fredericksburg, McClellan 144-46
 Antietam wounded, 146
 Furloughs, 147
 Battle of Fredericksburg, 147-48
 Soldier killed falling into a stream and striking his head, 148
 Vote in 1863 elections, 149
 Fredericksburg casualties, 150-51
 Elisha Reed, Both Sides of Life in Rebel Prisons, 153ff
 First Bull Run, 153ff
 Wounded, 156-57
 Hospital Confederates, 158
 Wounded soldiers, 160
 Libby Prison, 160ff
 Bull Run, 186
 Description of the prison, 189
 Food, 190
 Prisoner escapes, 190
 Whittling bone, 191-92
 Tuscaloosa, Wirz, parole, 192-200
 Montgomery, 200
 Weldon, North Carolina, 201
 Lice, 202
 Salisbury, 202
 Scurvy, 202-3
 Wirz, 203
 Paroling prisoners, 204-7
 Food, scurvy, 208
 Enlistment and departure, 212-16
 Thomas S. Allen, "The Second Wisconsin at First Bull Run," 216-31
 Lt. H. B. Jackson, "From Washington to Bull Run and Back Again, 231-46
 William H. Harris, "Gainesville, Virginia, August 28, 1862" 246-56
 Captain William H. Harries, "In the Ranks at Antietam", 257-71

Capt. William H. Harries, "The Iron Brigade in the First Day's Battle at Gettysburg", 271-81
Lt. Cornelius Weaver, "Reminiscences of the Battle of Gettysburg," 282-92
Regimental Roster, 293-363