

Brant, J. E. History of the Eighty-Fifth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, Its Organization, Campaigns and Battles. Bloomington, Ind.: Cravens Bros., 1902.

Organization of the regiment, 7-8
Departure of the regiment, 8-9
Kentucky and slavery, camp servants, 9-11
Danville, Kentucky, 11ff
Measles, 12
Black testimony in a court martial, 12
Thompson Station battle, 14-21, 31-36
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 21
March, railroad journey, food. Libby Prison, 21-27
Preaching in Libby Prison, 27-29
Prisoner exchange, 29-31
Execution of Confederate spies, 37-44
Camp servants, 44
Murfreesboro, 45
Capture of Captain Dille, 33rd Indiana, 45-47
Guarding a railroad, 48
Slavery, 48
Hanging three guerrillas, 48-49
Capture of Co. E. at Christiana, 49-52
Lavernge, Tennessee, 53-54
Atlanta campaign, 54
Resaca, 54-55
Cassville, 55-59
Dallas, 59-61
Lookout Mountain, hospital, 61-63
Resignation of Col. Banks and Capt. Davis, 63
Across the Chattahoochee, 63
Peachtree Creek, 64-69
Captain Brant in command, 70-71
Shelling, narrow escape, capture of Atlanta, 71
Surrender of Atlanta, 71-73
Occupation of Atlanta, 73ff
Foraging, 74-75
Guerrilla attack, 75
March to the Sea, Milledgeville, 76-79
Marching, 80ff
Foraging, 80
Millen prison, 83
Alcohol, 83-84
Fort McAllister, 85-86
Savannah, Episcopal church, 88-89
South Carolina, 89ff
Foraging, religion, 90-91

Prurysburg, destruction, 92
Lawtonville, 93
Marching, 93-98
Columbia, 98-99
Soldiers taking food away from women and children, 101-2
Crossing the Pee Dee river, 103
Battle of Averysboro, 104-6
Battle of Bentonville, Goldsboro, 106-10
Sherman's Bummers, 110-11
South Carolina, 112-13
Last days of the war, 113-15
Homeward march, 115-16
Grand review, 116-17
Religion in the army, 117-22
Muster out, 122-24
Jackman's furlough, 124-27
Scouts, 127-30
Captain Caleb Bales, 131-32
Captain Abner Floyd, 132-33
Hiram L. Tilloston, 134
Roster, 135-91