

Bicknell, George W. History of the Fifth Regiment Maine Volunteers. Portland, Maine: Hall L. Davis, 1871. Lieutenant and Adjutant

Chapter I

Defending the flag, enlistment of Fifth Maine, organization, departure, flag presented in New York, march through Baltimore, Washington, Meridian Hill, Alexandria, 13

Chapter II

Scouting expedition, Centreville, log bridge, shooting accidents, bivouac at Centreville, raid on cattle, three-days rations 20

Chapter III

Preparations to advance, delay, Bull Run, retreat, irregularities, all-night march, feeling of soldiers returned from Bull Run; defeat, Alexandria, Colonel Dunnell at Bull Run

Chapter IV

Alexandria, Bush Hill Move and return short rations, camp troubles, changes, rain, reconnaissance, 39

Chapter V

Church of Washington in Alexandria; resignations, Colonel Donnell leaves regiment, rumor of Jefferson Davis death, private's dinner, 47

Chapter VI

Colonel Jackson in command Indignation meeting speeches by officers, dress parade for new officers insubordination, order restored, 52

Chapter VII

First pay, sutlers, incidents, change of camp, Fort Lyon, duty, routine, restricting orders, picket incident, 57

Chapter VIII

Camp Franklin. Preparations for winter-quarters picket duty, romantic headquarters. Picket duty romantic headquarters. Correct view of Southern Unionists. Mode of punishing transgressors of the law--divine service. Novel method to secure a congregation; displays of character. Influences of army life 66

CHAPTER IX.

Orders to move rebeldom, return to Camp Franklin, delay in camp, Manassas; Catlett's; storm, camp, return to Alexandria, morale, rumor, hard march, second advance 76

Chapter X

Steamer John Brooks, down the Potomac, Chesapeake, Poquosin Flats Fortrees Monroe; flats, reembark, York River, torpedoes, West Point, incident 84

CHAPTER XI

On march, Mechanicsville, Cross Chickahominy, June 26, Gaines's Mill Lt. Col. Heath killed gallant acts of two companies, false reports, 95

CHAPTER XII

Preparations for another movement; curious company movements; fire and retreat, rear guard, move toward James River; cross Chickahominy, picket duty, McClellan visits camp Charles City Cross Roads change of Confederate, heroic repulse. 105

CHAPTER XIII.

Surrounded by enemy's line. Flag of truce to an escaped command. Malvern Hill, Harrison's Landing 114

CHAPTER XIV.

Heat. Bad food; band goes home; wood-chopping, southern love for soldier. regimental commander returns to camp. Wooden gun. . . Back to Alexandria. Advance toward second Bull Run. Return to Camp Franklin. . . . 113

CHAPTER XV.

Break camp toward Washington Sunday on Georgetown Heights, Maryland, Crampton Gap; retreat of a recruit; patriotic cheerfulness 131

CHAPTER XVI.

On march, Antietam, severe fighting, Union sharpshooter 143

CHAPTER XVII.

Bad condition of regiment; shoes; marching, young ladies' boarding school; capture of artillery officer; New Baltimore; McClellan removal; forced marching Acquia Creek; forced bait; changes in field and staff; White Oak Church; snow; Belle Plaine; camp guard

Chapter XVIII

Fredericksburg 167

Chapter XIX.

Formation of houses for winter. work of the chaplain. Revival in camp Colonel Scamman resigns farewell address; Lt. Col. Edwards in command; storm, Mud March, White Oak Church 183

Chapter XX.

Snow-storm and muddy season. Army visited by a gentleman from Maine Hooker, grande review; courts martial, reorganization 198

CHAPTER XXI.

Picket duty, orders to advance; second Fredericksburg (Chancellorsville), crossing Rappahannock; Salem Church, crossing at Banks' Ford, casualties, 209

Chapter XXII

Camp at White Oak Church, departure of 16th and 27th New York; third movement at Fredericksburg, marching, night march to Fairfax Station, incidents on marches, march to Gettysburg, reconnaissance, march up a mountain, fighting at Funktown and Williamsport, New Baltimore, deserter executed, raid on General Bartlett's Headquarters, move to Culpeper 232

Chapter XXIII

Picket duty at Rapidan, forward and backward movement; toward Rappaheannock Station, 5th Maine and 121st New York advance; charge against Confederates works; victory; Confederate flags captured Hazel River 258

CHAPTER XXIV.

Orders to move. On the march. Fatigue duty. Cross the Rapidan. Under fire. In the "Wilderness. Preparations for a charge. Enemy's position. Heroic appearance of the men. Enemy's strength too much. Troops fall back. Arrangements for camping 280

CHAPTER XXV

Camp at Wellford's Ford. Hazel river. Its streets, tents, houses, guard and opera houses, chapel, etc.. etc. Captain Walker's bridge. Leave of absence and furlough. Ladies in camp. Capture of Lieutenant John H. Stevens and men. Reenlistment-:. Amusements in camp. Reconnaissance from camp. A hard march back to camp 290

CHAPTER XXVI.

General Grant in command. Advance movements. Cross the Rapidan. action in the Wilderness. Terrible lighting. General Sedgwick killed, brief biographical sketch. The fearful charge of the tenth of May. Partial list of casualties 301

CHAPTER XXVII.

Continued movements, position near the Angle—deception, charge, trees cut off by bullet; mortars, musical bravery; crossing River Ny, retreat. 317

CHAPTER XXVIII

Move to North Anna river. A little incident. Heavy light at Cold Harbor. Severe exposure of a soldier; incident of a single bullet. More movements. Term of service expires; Upton's letter. Departure from the front. On the move home. Reception in Portland; regiment offers their services for ninety days to defend the capital muster out. the capital. Muster out. The close 326

Brief Account of the service of the reenlisted men and recruits of the Fifth Maine Regiment, who were transferred to the First Maine Infantry 333

Biographical notices 349
Colonel Edward A. Scamman. . .351
Lieutenant-colonel W. S. Heath 353
Chaplain Adams 355
Captain Daniel C. Clark 357
Captain Frank L. Lemont 359
Captain Joseph C. Paradis 361
Captain John Goldthwait 363
First Lieutenant Ambrose S. Dyer. . 364
First Lieuteuant Andrew S. Lyon. . 365
First Lieutenant Orrin B. Stevens 367
First Lieutenant P. Jordan Mitchell. 369
Second Lieutenant William A. Tubbs 370
Second Lieutenant Smith G. Bailey. 371
Second Lieutenant Cyrus W. Brann. 372
Second Lieutenant John S. French. 377

Appendix: List of officers and privates of the 5th Maine, 377