

Grecian, Joseph. History of the Eighty-Third Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry. Three Years with Sherman. Cincinnati: John F. Ulhorn, 1865.

Organization of the regiment, companies, 5-8
Camp of instruction, 8
Officers, 9
Picket duty, 11
Arms, 11
Bounty, 12
Camp near Memphis, 12
Tallahatchie March, 15-17
Yazoo expedition, Chickasaw Bayou, 17-20
Arkansas Post, Fort Hindman, 20-21
Disease, 21
Young's Point, Louisiana, much despair, 22-25
Turrets of lumber passing down river to locate Confederate batteries, 24
Running the Vicksburg batteries, 24-25
Black Bayou, 27-28
Surgeon, typhoid, 28
Yazoo, Haines' Bluff, 29
Vicksburg, 30ff
Champion Hill, 30
Siege of Vicksburg, 31-33
Marching, 35-37
Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain, 38-41
Larkinsville, 43-45
Dalton, 47
Resaca, 49-50
Alexander Stephens plantation, Dallas, 51
Kennesaw Mountain, 52-53
Nickajack Creek, Roswell, 54
Ezra Church, 55
Jonesborough, 56
Indiana soldiers had hoped to go home for 1864 elections, 57
Pursuit of Hood, 57-58
March to the Sea, 61ff
Foragers killed, 62
Close call, fire on picket duty, 64-65
Fort McAllister, 66
Beaufort, Hilton Head, 69
General Hazen, 70
Marching, 71ff
Edisto River, 72
Confederate batteries, 73
Columbia, 74-76
Crossing Pedee River, 78

Bentonville, 79-80
Goldsboro, 81
Raleigh, 82-83
Marching toward Richmond, 83-86
Grand Review, Washington, 86-88
Chaplains, 89-90
Conditions of peace, future of the South, 90-95
Descriptions of the southern country, 95-97
Regiment mustered out, 97-99
Roster, 101-55
Trip back home, 157-63