

Toombs, Samuel. Reminiscences of the War, Comprising a Detailed Account of the Experiences of Thirteenth New Jersey Volunteers in Camp, On the March, and In Battle. Orange, N.J.: Printed at the Journal Office, 1878.

Introductory. -

CHAPTER I.

Organization of the Thirteenth Regiment New Jersey Volunteers — Life at Camp Frelinghuysen — Flag Presentation— Marching Orders — Encampment on Arlington Heights . . 3

CHAPTER II

Second Bull Run — Death of Gen. Kearny — Marching Orders — The Manland Campaign — Battle of Antietam — " Baptism of Fire" — Encampment on Maryland Heights . . 11

CHAPTER III

Maryland Heights — Incidents of Camp Life — New Hardships — Gen. Slocum takes command of the Corps — Visit of President Lincoln to the Regiment — Marching Orders — The Camp at Sharpsburg 28

CHAPTER IV.

From Sharpsburg to Fairfax Station — A Mud March — Reconnaissance to Wolf Run Shoals — Narrow Escape of Knapsacks from Burning — In Camp at Wolf Run Shoals — Arrival of the Paymaster — " Burnside Stuck in the Mud " — Another Change of Commander. 35

CHAPTER V.

Fighting Hooker — Effect of his Appointment on the Army --Camp Life at Stafford Court House — Second Visit of the President — The Red Star Badge — Marching Orders Again 40

CHAPTER VI.

The Chancellorsville Campaign — Incidents on the March — Crossing the Rapidan — The Battle — Rout of the Eleventh Corps — The Thirteenth Enforced — Scenes on the Battlefield — The Army makes an "Orderly Retreat" — General Hooker's Prestige Dimmed — Pack to Stafford, 46

CHAPTER VII.

After the Battle — A Regimental Order and What was Thought of It — Flag Presentation by Gen. A. S. Williams — Change of Camp — Movement Northward and the Pursuit — Forced Marches — At Leesburg — Execution of Three Deserters 59

CHAPTER VIII

The Gettysburg Campaign —The Second March of the Regiment Through Maryland — Resignation of Hooker — Meade Appointed to Succeed Him — Crossing the Pennsylvania Line — At Little-town — The Battle of Gettysburg — On the Field of Battle — Defeat of Lee — A Reconnaissance with Kilpatrick's Cavalry

CHAPTER IX.

The Pursuit of Lee— .Long March — In battle array at Williamsport, Md. — (lie Retreat of the Enemy into Virginia — The March to Kelly's Ford 85

CHAPTER X.

New Departure —Improvements in the West — The Battle of Chickamauga — Meade's .\dvance to the Rapidan River — The Eleventh and Twelfth Corps Ordered to Reinforce Rosecrans — Details of the Journey from Bealton Station, Va.. to Tullahoma, Tenn. 98

CHAPTER XI Army Movements—General Grant Appointed Commander of the Military Division of the Mississippi, Prompt Action for the Relief of Chattanooga—Marching Orders— Mud Bound on the Cumberland Mountains — Another Rambling March along the Railroad — The Battle among the Clouds: At Duck River Bridge 105

CHAPTER XII.

Tullahoma — Objects of Intercut — Influx of " Contrabands" — A Problem Solved — Forming a New Acquaintance — A " Well-to-do " Family — Abundance of Game— A Genuine Plantation " Hoe Down " 113

CHAPTER XIII.

Camp Scenes — Guerrilla Warfare —Atrocious Murders of Soldiers — An Important Order by Gen. Thomas— An Expedition into Lincoln County, Tenn. — Two men of the One Hundred and Fiftieth New York Regiment Killed — Military Commission Ordered to try Bushwhackers— A Big Scare 118

CHAPTER XIV.

Changes in the Regiment — Re-organization of the Army —Marching Orders — From Duck River to Chattanooga — The Battle of Resaca — Advance io Cassville 125

CHAPTER XV.

Continuation of the Campaign — Battle of Pumpkin Vine Creek — A Charge of the Enemy at Kulp's Farm Repulsed — Advance to the Chattahoochee River — Battle of Peach Tree Creek — Before Atlanta — A Successful Charge by the Regiment — The Capture of the Gate City 137

CHAPTER XVI.

Summary of Events — Life in Atlanta — Sherman's Order to the Citizens — Hood's Campaign Northward — Burning of Atlanta 166

CHAPTER XVII

The March to the Sea — Incidents of the Raid — Milledgeville — Investment of Savannah — Why Hardee Evacuated the City — Entry into Savannah 174

CHAPTER XVIII

Savannah—Scenes in the City—An Old Slave's Story—Marching Orders—A Southern Rain Storm—Return to Savannah

CHAPTER XIX

The Carolina Campaign—Crossing the Savannah River—The March to Blackville, S.C.—The Burning of Columbia—An Unimpeded March through South Carolina — — The Battle of Averysboro, X. C. — Our Last Fight — Heroic Conduct of the Thirteenth at Bentonville — Gen. Hawley Compliments the Regiment — Arrival at Goldsboro, N. C. 200

CHAPTER XX.

Reorganization of Sherman's Army — The Capture of Richmond --- Marching Orders — " Pushing Johnston " — The Surrender of Lee and his Army — Entering Raleigh — Death of President Lincoln — Surrender of General Johnston and his Army to General Sherman — The March to Richmond — Grand Review of Sherman's Army in Washington 219

CHAPTER XXI

Mustered Out — Arrival of the Regiment in Newark — Our last Parade and Formal Reception Disbandment of the Regiment 229