

Isham, Asa Brainerd. An Historical Sketch of the Seventh Regiment Michigan Volunteer Cavalry from Its Organization, in 1862, to its Muster Out, in 1865. New York: Town Topics Publishing Company, 1893.

Blue Acorn Press reprint, 2000

Organization, 7-9
Lee Barracks, Grand Rapids, 9
Less patriotic ardor in these later regiments, 9
Drill, 10
Drafty winter quarters, 10-11
Horses, 11-12
Mustered in, 12
Disease, 14
Guard of honor, 14
Arms, Burnside carbines, 14
Equipment, 15-16
Movements, 17-18
Mosby, 19
Fairfax Courthouse, Gettysburg campaign, 20
Gettysburg, 21-29
Pursuing Lee, 29
Report of Major Newcombe, 31ff
Falling Waters, 32
Skirmishes, 33-34
Winter quarters, 35
Water, mill race, 36
Recruiting detail, 38
Kilpatrick-Dahlgren raid, 38-39
Kilpatrick, 40
Provost guard and seizure of horses, 40-41
Overland campaign, 41ff
Wilderness, 42-43
Beaver Dam Station, capturing Confederate supplies, 43-44
Destroying railroad, 44
Yellow Tavern, 44-51
Haw's Shop, 52-53
Cold Harbor, 54-55
Trevillian Station, 55-62
Movement, 62-63
Casualties, 64
Deep Bottom, 64-65
Harpers Ferry, 65
Front Royal, casualties, 66-67
Kearneysville, 67
Lieutenant morally wounded, 68

Winchester, 69-71
Tom's Brook, 73
Cedar Creek, 73-75
Charlottesville, 75-78
Alcohol, 79
Five Forks, 80-82
Appomattox campaign, 82-87
Officer register, 89-98
Roll of Honor, 99-118
Photograph gallery, 120-47
Story of a Gunshot Wound, Warrenton Junction, hospital, 148-62
Wilderness of Richmond, 163-82
Soldiers in the postwar West, 183-90