

Abbott, Stephen G. The First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers in the Great Rebellion.
Keene, N.H.: Sentinel Printing Co., 1890.

Chaplain

New Hampshire and officials, 13-19

New Hampshire men and their relation to the war, John P. Hale, antebellum background, 20-37

Political situation at the outbreak of war, election of 1860, 38-42

Uprising of the people, reaction to Fort Sumter, 43-52

Reports from various parts of New Hampshire, reaction to Sumter, 53-99

Recruitment, 101

Enlistments, 102-3

Formation of the 1st New Hampshire, 104

Camp life, 105-6

Colonel Mason Weare Tappan, 106-111

Camp life, 112

Departure of regiment, 113-14

Reception of Worcester, flag presentation, 114-18

Baltimore, 120-23

Washington, 123

Chaplain, religious services, 125-26

False alarm, 126-27

First Bull Run, Charles P. Stone, 128ff

Rockville, Maryland, 131-37

March to Poolsville, 137ff

General Patterson, 138ff

Monocacy, 161

Martinsburg, destruction of railroad property, 165-66

Patterson, First Bull Run, 166-71

Regiment mustered out, 172

Soldier assault on Democratic newspaper office, Concord, 172-75

Praise for officers, marches, character of the army, 175-80

Wagon train, quartermaster, 181-90

Eminent sons of New Hampshire and the rebellion, 191-93

Luther Crawford Ladd, 193-97

General John G. Foster, 197-99

General Benjamin F. Butler, 199-202

General Fitz John Porter, 202-5

General Benjamin F. Kelley, 205-6

Colonel Fletcher Webster, 206-7

Col. Jesse A. Gove, 207-8

General George Thom, 208

Captain James S. Thornton, 209-210

Captain George Hamilton Perkins, 210-11

Captain George E. Belknap, 211-12

Salmon P. Chase, 212-13

William Pitt Fessenden, 213-14

Henry Wilson, 215-16
Zachariah Chandler, 216-18
Horace Greeley, 218-220
Lewis Cass, 220-22
James W. Grimes, 222
Charles A. Dana, 222-23
William E. Chandler, 223
Charles Carleton Coffin, 223-24
Irish of New Hampshire in the Civil War, soldiers in various regiments, officers, 225-55
New Hampshire women in the war, organization, Sanitary Commission, Soldiers' Aid Society, letters of appreciation sent by soldiers, boxes, sketches of the most active women, 256-89
Clergy and churches in New Hampshire, 290-94
Regimental band, 295-96
Biographies of various officers, 297-356
Material prosperity of the North during the War, 357-71
Statistical tables, original roster, 374-418
Surviving veterans, 419-437
Deceased veterans, 438-51
Services of First New Hampshire men in other organizations, 452-511