
Prewar correspondence, 5-8
John T. Darby’s report on Hood’s wounds at Chickamauga, operation, treatment, 22-38
Hood’s promotions, Stonewall Jackson, 40-52
Atlanta campaign, Bragg, 55-80
Cassville, 81-99
Confederate strategy after the fall of Atlanta, Jefferson Davis, 101-110
Spring Hill, Franklin, Nashville, Stephen Dill Lee, 114-25
Army of Tennessee, troop strength calculations, 126-138
Wartime letters of John B. Hood to Louis T. Wigfall, 140-46
Postwar letters, John Bell Hood and Anna Marie Hood, 147-83
Robert E. Lee to Hood, spring 1863—186-90
Seddon, eastern and western armies, 190-91
Appointment of a general, division, 191-92
Bragg, Hood after Chickamauga, 192-95
Sherman and prisoners, 196-97
George H. Thomas prisoner exchange, 197-98
Postwar loan, 198-200
Hospital Association for disabled soldiers, Robert E. Lee, 200-201
Hood to Jefferson Davis on war history, 205
Hood and postwar Sherman speech, 205-6
Longstreet, Gettysburg, 206-7
Longstreet on defensive works, 208
Life insurance company, 210-11
Robert Toombs, stock investments, Beauregard, 211-18
Henry Clayton, brigade operations, 218-19
Death of wife, orphans, Sherman, 219-225