
Memorial newspaper notices, 7-8
MOLLUS notice, 9-12
Memorial address about Lusk, 12-20
Memoir by doctors, 21-31
Lusk Valedictory address, graduation from Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1864, war and death, 35-43
Joins 79th New York Infantry, 47
Officer appointment, 48
Winfield Scott, 49
Blackburn’s Ford, 51-53
First Bull Run, 55-60
Wounded soldier, 62-63
Soldiers with complaints, 63-64
Makes light of his combat experience at Bull Run, 64-65
Inaccurate newspaper stories, 65-66
Letters, southern women, 66
Bull Run and retreat, 67-68
Sherman and Lincoln, 68
Discipline in camp, soldier pay, 70
General Tyler and Bull Run, 71-72
Mutiny of the 79th New York, officer resignations, Colonel Isaac Stevens, 72-76
Kosciusko farm, 78
Tent blown down, 78
Quality of northern and southern fighting men, 79-80
Condition of the regiment, 80-81
Disease deaths, 83
Chaplain and surgeons, 83-84
Camp servant, racism, 84-85, 88-89
McClellan plan, 88
Chaplain and fear, 88
Port Royal expedition, 89ff
Sailing down the Chesapeake, 91
Character of the regiment, 91-92
Scotch regiment, prejudice against him, 93
Naval battle at Port Royal, Vanderbilt, Wabash, Beaufort, 95-98
Destruction and pillaging, 100
Race and former slaves, 101
Captured a “secession” chest, 103-4
General Garnett and wife, 104-5
Plantation house occupied by general, Lusk does not feel much spirit of destruction, 106
Frustrated by slow action, Hilton Head, 106-7
Small actions around Beaufort, 110-11
Fever, 112-13
Low morale about South Carolina troops, hopes for Union sentiment, effects of artillery fire, 113-14
John Tyler, 114
Officers commissions, Governor Morgan, 116-17
Burnside expedition, 118
On boat at night close to Confederate pickets, 118-19
General Thomas Sherman, Fort Pulaski, 119
Irish Brigade, Bull Run, 120
Isaac Stevens, 122
Beaufort, soldiers, women, coarse remarks, mother should not visit, 124-25
Pickets, cow foraging, 126
Beaufort described, 127-28
Women teachers from Boston, 127-28
Strong defense of McClellan, 130-31
General Hunter, General Thomas Sherman, 132
Frustrated by inaction, 133
Clothes, 134
Bombardment of Fort Pulaski, 136
Vaccination, smallpox, 137
Sand flies, 137
Yankees inundating place of aristocracy, 138-39
Fort Pulaski, Hunter 141 waiting for reinforcements, government does not think Beaufort important, 141
Disgusted by northern agents dealing with former slaves, 141-42
Clothes, 144
Defends McClellan, 145
Evacuation of Yorktown, McClellan, 146
Escape of the Planter, Robert Smalls, 148
Would like Thomas Sherman back, disparages Hunter and other generals, 148
Move on Charleston, 149
James Island, Confederate prisoner, 150-51
Isaac Stevens, Rosecrans, Benham, 152
James Island, Battle of Secessionville, General Benham, Isaac Stevens, 153-59
Mosquitos, grasshoppers, ticks, James Island, 161
Arrest of General Benham, 162
On way to Fort Monroe, 163
Malarial climate, quinine, 163-64
General Benham and Isaac Stevens, 167
Halleck, Burnside, 170
Governor of Connecticut, officer appointments, 171, 174
Conscription, bounty, 171-72
Norwich, Connecticut, flag, 174-75
Fredericksburg, local Confederates, guerrillas, 176-77
Pope’s orders, seizure of property, plunder, 177-78
Burnside, 178
Battle of Chantilly, Kearny, Sigel, Schurz, 180-81
Second Bull Run, Lincoln and a joke, Carl Schurz, morale, 189-90
Death of Kearny, Death of Isaac Stevens, Second Bull Run, 191-96
John Pope’s report, 195
South Mountain, death of Jesse Reno, Harpers Ferry, 197-99
Antietam, 199-200
Teeth extractions, 201
Letters, 209
Thinking of leaving the army and returning to medicine, 210-11
Ambivalent about McClellan, deplores Pope, Sigel, and Frémont, 214
Isaac Stevens, 214-15
Training soldiers, 216
Dysentery, 220
New regiments, morale, lack of enthusiasm, 221-22
Not sure about army’s plans, 224
1862 elections, Seymour, Wadsworth, McClellan, Frémont, 224-25
Worries about his son in army, food, coming winter, 226-27
Opposition to McClellan, 227
Fredericksburg, 229ff
Dreads attack on Fredericksburg, 230-31
McClellan, Burnside, 231
War and destruction of property, 230-31
Soldiers brag of their plunder and mistreatment of civilians, 232-33
Thanksgiving, food, 233-34
Officer appointments, 234-38
Failure to get a promotion, 238-39
Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, 239
Shoes, 240
Box, 240-41
Food, chaplain, 241
Preparations for Battle of Fredericksburg, 243
Talks of his mother’s love on the eve of battle, 243
Battle of Fredericksburg, 244-48
McClellan, Burnside, Farnsworth, recommendation for a brigadier commission, 251-52
Fredericksburg, 252-53
Wounded soldiers, 253
Fredericksburg disaster, Halleck, McClellan, 255-56
Burnside, 256
Sensitive to rank, wants to return to medical practice, 258-59
Doubtful standards for promotion in the army, 260
Lincoln and disasters, 262
New Year’s, food, chaplain, 262-63
Stones River, Emancipation Proclamation, 264-65
Monitor, Cape Hatteras, 264
Emancipation Proclamation, Democrats, conscription, General Dix, 264-65
Colonel Farnsworth, 266-67
Potential advance of Army of the Potomac, January 1863, 268
Rumors, Burnside, 269-70
Morale, Stones River, 272
Furlough, 273-74
Trouble with an officer, 274
Hooker, McClellan, Burnside, 274-75
Recruiting a regiment, deserters, officers, 276-81
Harpers Ferry, Hooker, 282
General Tyler, 283
Gettysburg, Fernando Wood, Copperheads, 284-85
New York draft riots, dictator, 287-90
General Tyler, Maryland Heights, Milroy, 290
Photograph, 291
Delaware, abolitionists, 293
General Tyler, 293
Resignation, 294