
78th Illinois Infantry
Camp Quincy, 11ff
Smallpox vaccination, 11
Tent, 12
Wicked and thoughtless comrades, 12
Homesick, 13
Bragg’s invasion of Kentucky, 15
Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 15
Buell, 16
Providence and war, 17
Doctor and commission, 18
Shepherdsville, Kentucky, few Unionists, 19
Foraging, hog, soldiers arrested, 20
Poor water, 20
Scarlet fever, 20
No Sabbath in the army, 21
Wives’ letters, 22
Fever, 23
Typhoid, 24
Bridge burning, 25
Food, 27
Old slaves in camp, religious faith, 31
Depredations, punishment of soldier, 32
Women barred from camp, 32-33
Daily routine, 34
Sermon, 35
Religious weakness, 35
Lincoln and removal of McClellan, Buell, 37
Confidence in Lincoln, 37-38
Typhoid death, 38, 40
Food, disease, 40
Sermon, 40
Worries about diphtheria at home, 41
Duties as Lieutenant Colonel, 45
Sabbath, 45
Eating with locals, 46
Drilling poor companies, 47
Arresting officers who refuse to give up slaves, 48
Log hut, 51
Guerrillas, Morgan, 54
Slave, 54
Christian Association, 56
Studying war, Fredericksburg, 56
Length of war, slavery, 57
Soldier life, 58
Small engagements, 59
False alarm, blacks with horses in a field, 60
Morgan, Petersburg, Kentucky, 60-61
Kentucky and Emancipation Proclamation, 61
Louisville, 64ff
Generals Baird and Granger, 66
Destruction around Nashville, 68
God’s providence and Copperheads at home, 70
Orders, guard tent, 72-73
Bad health of regiment, 73
Daily routine, 76
Troop review, humbug, 80-81
Love for his wife, 81
Religion in the army, 83-84
Court martial, 84-85
Confederate attack, Van Dorn, 84-85
Wives’ letters, 88
Trouble with officers, weak colonel, 88-89
Court martial, 90
Franklin, Tennessee, 92ff
Diarrhea, 92
Box size, 99
Rumors, 100
Flies and food, 101
Officers examination, 102
Court martial, trouble with the colonel, 105-6
Escaped slaves, agriculture, 107
Trouble about lights out, guard, 109-11
Trouble with colonel, 111
Bakery, 112
Wheeler cavalry raid, 113
Sister of Charity, 115
Camp described, 117
Suspicious colonel and Rosecrans, spies, hanged, 118-20
Franklin, Tennessee, 121ff
Rosecrans, trouble with officers, 123
Good condition of regiment, 124
Trouble with colonel, 124-25, 142, 152
Triune, Tennessee, 129-30
Murfreesboro, wagon train, march, 130-34
Shelbyville, 135ff
Rosecrans and Bragg, Tullahoma, 136
Presbyterian church service, 141
War will soon be over, mid-1863, 142-43
Confederate money, 143
Fever, 144
Trouble with colonel, lack of appreciate for military duties, 148-49
Dance, criticism of southern women, 149-50
New colonel, 153, 157
Sabbath, 158
Light skinned slaves, horrors of slavery and slave culture, 161-62
Troubles with the colonel, 162-64
No chaplain, no religious meetings, 164
Enlisted men know little of troubles with officers, 165
Stevenson, Alabama, advance on Chattanooga, 166
Bridgeport, Alabama, 167
Chickamauga campaign, 169ff
Battle of Chickamauga, 170-71
Arm wound, 171-72
Hospital, 172ff
Unionist women visit hospital, food, 174, 177
Chattanooga, 178ff
Battles at Chattanooga, Grant compared to Rosecrans, 181
Crossing the Tennessee River, battles around Chattanooga, 183-84
East Tennessee, 185
Christmas, 185
Rossville, Georgia, 186ff
Assesses their marriage, 187
Searching for a major’s grave, 188-89
Clothing shortage, 190
Horrors of examining a battlefield, 191-93
Soldiers left unburied, 192
Court martial, 194
East Tennessee, 195
Destitution around Rossville, Georgia, 196
Skirmish beyond Ringgold, 197
Relations with enlisted men, 197-98
Lookout Mountain, 199-200
Letters, 201
Brigade command, 201-2
Wound, trouble dressing and undress, 202
Officer elections, discipline problems, 203-4
Atlanta campaign, 204ff
Dalton, Georgia, 205
Hopeful for government, victories, blacks, 206
Bad omen of heavy snow for the Confederates, 208
Suffering of north and South, slavery, 208-9
Still for Lincoln, 209
Sherman, 210
Promotion of officers, democracy, 210-11
Mary E. Walker, surgeon, long description, 212
Fears and dread of death, 212-13
Crawfish Springs, 214
Dinner and serenade for General Steedman, 214-15
Ringgold, 218-19
Buzzard’s Roost, 220
Resaca, 221
Confederate deserters, 221
Rome, Georgia, Confederate morale, 222
Confederate women and cruelty of the rebellion, 222-23
Peace and destruction of slavery, 223-24
Railroad, 224-25
Confederate morale, soldiers and families, 225
Dallas, Georgia, 226
Sherman, army morale, 227
Reflects on their age and marriage, 228-29
Earthworks, assaults, 230
Flanking movements, 230
Constant fighting, effect on men’s nerves, 231
Shelling, 232
Dark thoughts about future and his change of survival, 233
Confederates fleeing skirmish, 234
Chattahoochee River, 235-36
Food, 237-38
Reflections on marriage, 240-41
Kennesaw Mountain. 242-47
Wants to leave army after Atlanta is taken, 250
Confederate earthworks on Chattahoochee River, 251
Gloom at home, 252-53
Dirty soldiers, lice, 254-55
Quarrelsome soldier, 256
Critical of conduct of campaign, 258
Quarters described, 260
Melancholy of a military hospital, 262
Lincoln’s call for more troops, fears revolutionary movement in North, anticipates death, 262
Alcohol, hospital, 264
Christian Commission, reading material, 265
Suffering from chronic diarrhea, 267
Health of regiment, 268
Food, 270
Possible resignation, draft, 271
Chaplain, scarred of battle and went home, 271
Horrors of a field hospital, 273-74
Wounded by stray bullet on return to regiment, dying letter, 275